DIRECTOR'S NOTE

When I heard that we were producing Chicago, I stopped saying “All that Jazz” at the end of my sentences that included lists, and began to sing it instead. This show is a spectacle and has been a learning experience for every single one of us. Transforming kind and helpful “kids” into murderesses and reporters that thrive on the misfortune of others is no easy task. Though Travis jokingly spotlights our love of many dark things, think about how many references there are each day to reality TV. With this in mind, we chose to make the courtroom an actual circus.

In no way is the content of this show and these people’s lives funny, but the text begs us to make a mockery of it all. The dance style of Bob Fosse adds a visual release to the tense content and our cast met the challenges of each move. Do not allow the fame and excitement surrounding these crimes to challenge your values, but, instead, continue to use theater as a positive way to be entertained and support the arts in our district.

To our cast, crew, pit members and my directing team, my partners in crime on this adventure, thank you and congratulations. We did it. To all of our stage angels, especially our construction ninjas, Mr. Grimm, and our custodial staff, thank you. And, to the parents and guardians of our Lakeland Drama students, for all that you do to support your children and us, please know that we appreciate you.

Sincerely,
Michelle Reuter

PRODUCER'S NOTE

Welcome to Lakeland Drama's production of Chicago!

As some of you may know, this production represents a bit of “unfinished business” for our drama club. Four years ago this weekend, our students were slated to perform this very show on this very stage. Instead, the cast, crew, pit members, and production staff of the 2020 Lakeland Drama production of Chicago saw all their hard work sidelined as the COVID lockdowns turned theaters dark around the world. Although the students and staff are nearly all different since then, we all still feel that sense of closure as we finally get to perform this musical theater staple, four years in the making!

This production was a ride for all of us, and truly was a product of grit, perseverance, and teamwork. So many things could have gone wrong (and sometimes did go wrong), but our cast, crew, pit members, director, choreographer, technical director, and all of our amazing friends, family, and volunteers who sacrificed their time, were all there to help pick each other up. I urge you to please read every name in the credits as you turn the page, and on the “Acknowledgements” page a bit farther back, because they all played a crucial role in this production. Without them, this show would not be what you see today. This truly was a community effort.

And of course, the reason we do this: you, the audience. You get to bask in the fruits of our labor - “All That Jazz” and “Razzle Dazzle” that you see on our stage tonight. We feed off your energy and thrive on your support. Thank you for supporting Lakeland Drama and the arts.

Enjoy the show!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST & CREW

YURI ADLER (Mary Sunshine)

Yuri Adler is a senior and this is their sixth show with Lakeland Drama. In their free time they like to sing, draw, and read. They would like to thank everyone that made this show possible and they hope you enjoy the show.

SUHA AHMAD (Painting)

Suha Ahmad is a senior at Lakeland High School and this is her fourth production doing stage crew. Outside of drama, you can find her doodling her duck squishmallow in her sketchbook (and on Mr Schaper's whiteboards), blasting rap/K-pop music or saying "that's so relatable" to any random AP Bio term that she comes across, regardless of if it makes sense. She would like to thank everyone who made this production possible!

DYLAN ALMEIDA (Trombone)

Dylan Almeida is a senior at Lakeland High School and this is first show with Lakeland Drama. In his free time, he can be found at a record store looking for vinyls, hanging out with friends, being a film buff, or working. He appreciates everyone's effort and would like to thank everyone who helped make this show a reality. He hopes you enjoy the show!

TANYA ANTONY (Ensemble)

Tanya Antony is a freshman and this is her third show with Lakeland drama. When not on stage, Tanya can be found reading, playing her trumpet (loudly), or taking a walk! She would like her family and all cast, crew, and pit members for making this a wonderful experience for her. She hopes you enjoy the show!

RYAN ARIAS (Construction)

Ryan Arias is a senior who has been a part of Lakeland Drama for two years. This is his fourth show with the club. He works in both painting and construction. He usually ends up between the two departments; he has done more construction during the production of this show than painting. When he's not working he likes to write stories and songs. He usually has something random with him, some days it could be a bag of snacks, others it could be a landline phone. He hopes everyone enjoys the show they've worked hard to make.

ARIELLE ASCANIO (Painting)

Arielle Ascanio is a junior at LHS and this is her third show with Lakeland Drama. Arielle loves the arts and music, nature, and Doctor Who, and spends much of her time rewatching or talking endlessly about it. She takes both drawing and painting and is happy to put her skills to work on this amazing show! She loves being silly with her friends at drama, and wishes everyone luck in Chicago!

JASMINE BASHJAWISH (Court Clerk/Ensemble)

Jasmine Bashjawish is a senior at Lakeland High School and this is her second and final show with Lakeland Drama. Her recent shows she has done in the past were, When Words Come To Life (Cece), and Our Town (Ensemble). She is very excited to do Chicago as her final show. She was really glad she got to do drama club with all her friends this year. When Jasmine is not at drama, she can be found watching Disney live action movies, singing in Chorus, hanging out with family and friends. She would like to thank Mr. Yaps for helping us with music, Liz our talented choreographer for helping us learn all the dances and choreography, Mrs. Reuter our director, Crew, Pit, and all the amazing, talented cast members for working really hard and helping us put on an amazing show. She can't wait for everyone to see Chicago! Enjoy The Show!!!

RIYANA CARBO (Second Assistant Stage Manager)

Riyana Carbo is a sophomore at Lakeland High School and this is her third show with Lakeland Drama. Outside of the auditorium, you can find Riyana in the public library (get a library card, they're fantastic!!), listening to music, and diamond painting. She would like to thank Reuter, Fitz Yaps, Burris, Liz, and the numerous other wonderful people who brought this show into fruition. Additionally, she would like to congratulate Javier Leal and Amanda DiMauro on their last show. Riyana is honored to be a part of their lives, and she knows that there are big things waiting for them outside of Lakeland. She hopes you enjoy the show, and all that jazz!

ANN CATECHIS (Painting)

Ann Catechis is a junior at Lakeland High School. This is her sixth show with Lakeland Drama and she is very excited for Chicago! Ann loves painting and meeting new people through drama. When she's not painting, she can be found doing chemistry homework or laughing with friends. Ann would like to thank everyone who has contributed to make this show so special and for cast to break a leg! Enjoy the show!

LEIGHA CHOTALAL (Trumpet/Flugelhorn)

Leigha Chotalal is a senior at Lakeland High School and this is her first show with Lakeland Drama. In her free time, she likes to hangout with her friends, play her trumpet, and read. Leigha has enjoyed making so many new friends in pit and she hopes you enjoy the show!

JACK CURRAN (Head of Lighting & Sound)

Jack Curran has been the sound designer with the Lakeland dramas club for 4 years. And the lighting designer for 1. In this time he has done 8 shows with the club. When Jack isn't at drama you can find him sleeping or rock climbing because his schedule only includes food, school, theater, rock climbing, and sleep. If you can't find him he's probably hiding somewhere in plain sight, you may need to look up. Jack would like to thank Mrs. Reuter, Mr. Yapchanyk and Mrs. Fitz for allowing him to go all out and fuel his ideas and creations.

Samantha David is a junior at Lakeland High School and it is her 4th show as a stage manager and 5th show overall with Lakeland Drama. After being dragged into this club by a senior (special mention of Franny) her freshman year, Sam is still in this club. Sam doesn't know why she is still here. She doesn't even know how she ended up in this position. Sam totally isn't being held hostage in the Dungeon on stage left. Don't help Sam. Sam hopes you enjoy the scandalous affairs, murders, and more brought to you by everyone here!

AMANDA DiMAURO (Stage Manager)

Amanda DiMauro is a senior and this is her seventh show with Lakeland Drama. This is her fifth show as Stage Manager, and she is very excited to be a part of this production of Chicago. She would like to thank Mr. Yaps, Ms. Reuter, and Ms. Burris for all their hard work and dedication to the show.

She is so excited to see how the show turns out and even more to see how everyone enjoys it!

JESSE EHRENREICH (Bass/Tuba)

Jesse Ehrenreich is a senior at Lakeland High School, and Chicago, sadly, is his last show. For context, Jesse normally plays bass, but when he heard that the bass part in Chicago also doubles on tuba, he took the initiative to start learning tuba from scratch just a couple months before the show. All in all, he has practiced a lot and is ready for his debut on tuba. He would also like to thank Mr. Yaps and Ms. Reuter for making this show happen.

RAHEIM ELLIS (Construction)

Alexander Erenberg is a sophomore at Lakeland High School. This is his third show in the pit for Lakeland Drama.

LAYLA FEDEROFF (Velma Kelly)

Layla Federoff is a senior at Lakeland High school and she cannot believe this is her eighth and final show with Lakeland Drama. Lakeland Drama has been the most defining aspect of her high school experience and it is bittersweet that her time in the club is almost up. Chicago: Teen Edition has been a fantastic experience; she really couldn't have asked for a better show for her final musical. "Velma Kelly" has been a dream role for her since her freshman year so finally adding it to her list of theater credits is surreal! If you ever get a rare sighting of Layla outside of rehearsal, she is probably in an executive board meeting, chatting with the Spanish teachers, driving fellow cast members to new places for lunch, or even in the lighting booth making Jack create new effects. Layla would like to thank the rest of the Executive Board, Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Mr. Yaps, and especially Ms. Reuter for making this production happen this year. Break a leg to the whole company, and enjoy the show!

He would like to thank everyone who helped put this show together, especially Mr. Yaps, Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Liz, and Ms. Reuter. As well as a big congratulations to the cast and crew of Chicago. He hopes you enjoy the show!

SHANE GORMAN (Sound)

Shane Gorman is a sophomore and part of the sound crew. If you can't find Shane at drama, he is probably at taekwondo. He's a second degree black belt and from 4-7pm he trains and teaches tae kwon do. Shane was the inspiration for the 1984 movie, The Karate Kid.

You should totally subscribe to her YouTube, Phia Rae, and follow @phiaraemusic on Instagram / TikTok. She enjoys singing, performing, dancing, art, fashion, and photography. She will be attending Pace University in the fall to major in public relations and minor in digital marketing. She is excited to see what her future holds. Now she's got herself "a world full of YES". To those reading this, Sophia would like to share a few lessons she has learned. Never doubt yourself, never stop working towards your goals, and NEVER let anyone's judgment and negativity get in the way of you doing what you love. She would like to thank Yaps for always being so supportive, encouraging, and someone she can look up to, not just as a musician, but as a person. To her family, friends, and everyone who has been involved in Lakeland Drama, she would like to say "God bless you, thank you and God bless you!". She hopes you enjoy watching "Roxie Rock CHICAGO". Phia signing off!

Christian is also the owner of the best band to ever exist, The Rubber Band, and he would be very grateful if people could take a listen to their amazing music on YouTube and Instagram, @thebestrubberband. Christian would like to thank Mr. Yaps for giving him the opportunity to play in the pit orchestra for every show he's done throughout high school, and he hopes you enjoy his final show, Chicago!

JAVIER LEAL (Head of Painting and Construction)

Javier is a Senior and this is his 7th and last show with Lakeland drama. He is truly grateful for the memories and friends he made throughout the shows. He is proud of all of his accomplishments he has made with all of his friends from paint crew supporting his endeavors. He will never forget when ten people painted chairs only a few hours before the Addams family musical. He is thankful for the help from Ann C. and Isabella M. in almost all of the shows and is certain that he is leaving the painting department in good hands. The designated shark will finally leave the department to the two paint princesses!!

KIRSTEN LILLO (Matron "Mama" Morton)

Kirsten Lillo is a senior and this is her eighth and final show with Lakeland Drama. Having started during the pandemic, she has had the opportunity to work with amazing people, most of which stay near and dear to her heart to this day. She has played various roles with Lakeland Drama, including the Baker's Wife (Into the Woods), Emily Webb (Our Town), and Logainne "Shwartzzy" Shwartzandgrubienerre (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee). She has also participated in theater companies outside of school, and has taken on roles such as Erato (Xanadu) and Janis Ian (Mean Girls). Although she has participated in over 30 shows in her lifetime, she owes all of her accomplishments to her first director, Amy Kenney. She taught Kirsten how to dream big and how to maintain her spirit, regardless of who tries to knock her down. As Kirsten closes the door on a life-changing experience, she looks forward to continuing theater with West Virginia University in the fall. During drama (her favorite time of the day of course), she loves to make sure to welcome any new friends to the club, and trace dozens of newspapers with her crew. Often told she looks like a teacher, Emma always finds something new to teach her freshman crew, while also learning lots herself! When she's not hot gluing everything at drama, she likes playing video games with her brother, listening to music, and spending time with her fabulous friends. Emma loves Lakeland Drama's productions, and she hopes you do too! The curtain is drawing to a close and the last act will soon be here. We have enjoyed each of your performances since the second grade. Some of the most memorable for us have been Aladdin, Uncle Fester, Joseph, and Chip Tolentino. You have captivated us with your voice and marveled us with how you brought life to each character. We hope you know how truly proud we are of you for all your hard work and dedication! We will always be in your corner but are here tonight to give you a last standing ovation. Good luck in your role as Billy Flynn and to the whole cast and crew of Chicago.

Love Always,
