HANDCRAFTED WOOL SWEATERS & ACCESSORIES 2025

LET'S WELCOME 2025!

A new year brings fresh opportunities, and as we look ahead, we also take a moment to reflect on the incredible journey Lost Horizons has traveled since 1985. What began as a small endeavor has grown into a thriving community of artisans, designers, and fair trade advocates—united by a love for craftsmanship, sustainability, and tradition.

Every year, it is our joy to introduce you to our handmade wool knitwear, each piece carefully crafted by artisans in Nepal. These talented knitters, many of them women working from home, embody the heart of fair trade by blending creativity with meaningful, sustainable work.

Our 2025 collection celebrates connection, culture, and nature's beauty—woven into vibrant, timeless designs. As always, we remain committed to doing better: crafting products that inspire while making a positive impact on the world. With every piece, we honor the heritage of those who create it, and our lifetime warranty on all sweaters reflects our belief in lasting quality and care.

We are deeply grateful for your continued trust and support. It is your belief in our mission that makes this journey possible, fueling our commitment to providing products that warm both body and soul.

Thank you for being part of our story. We look forward to an inspiring year filled with growth, creativity, and collaboration—one stitch at a time.
