The Power of an Artist

ARTIST. EDUCATOR. AUTHOR

MEET: DR. ZERRIC CLINTON

Local Henry County Artist Dr. Zerric Clinton is not only a gifted creator but also a passionate educator shaping the next generation of artists. As an art teacher at Dutchtown High School, he continues to inspire students to explore their creativity and use art as a form of self-expression and storytelling.

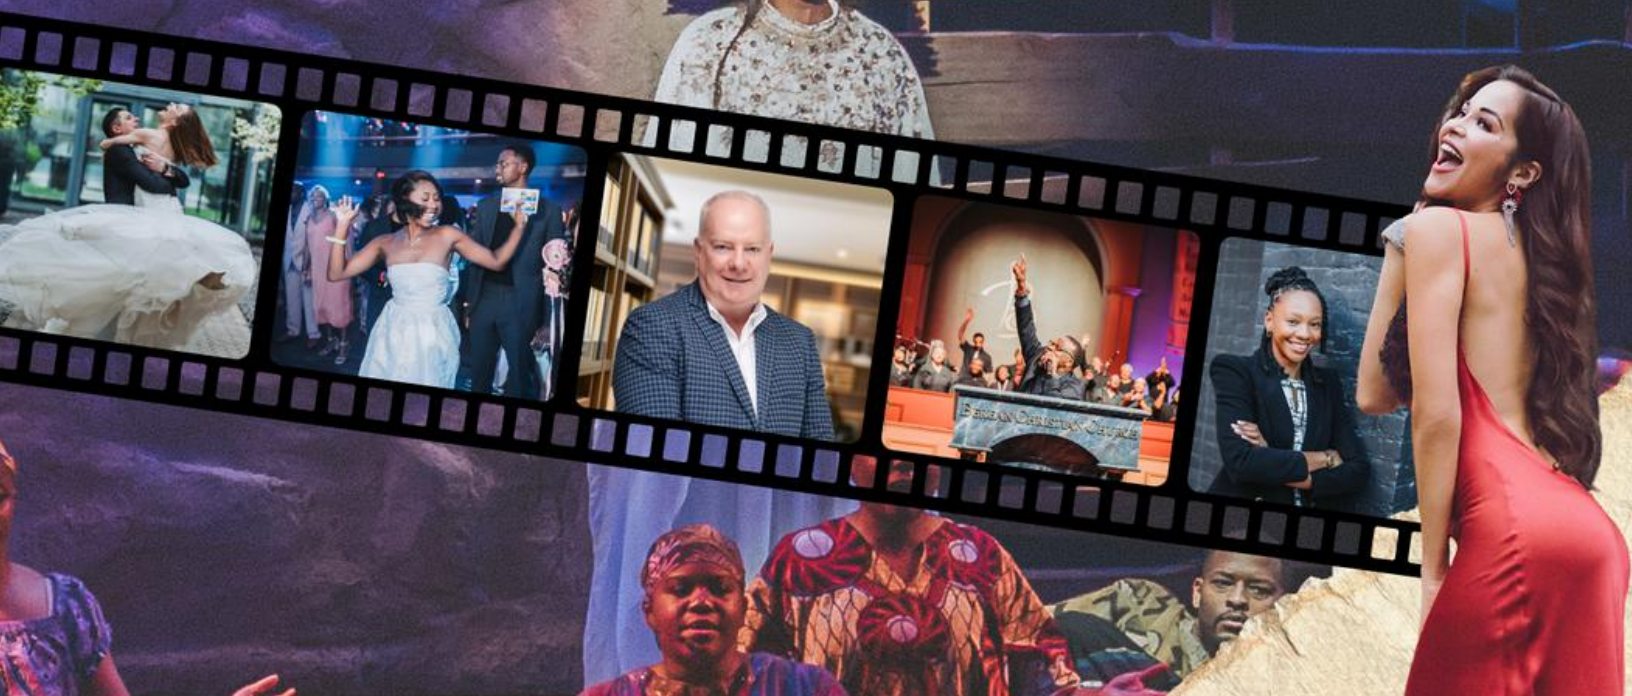

Zerric's work captures the depth, rhythm, and emotion of everyday life, blending culture, color, and perspective in ways that resonate deeply with the community. His pieces can be found at Hood Street Art Gallery in McDonough, where he proudly represents the thriving arts scene of Henry County.

Through his artistry and teaching, Zerric reminds us that creativity is more than a skill—it's a legacy that connects, uplifts, and endures.

THE UNCAGED BUTTERFLY

100 DAYS TO FREEDOM

DR. KEIMA LATTIMORE-ALLEN

THE UNCAGED BUTTERFLY

100 DAYS TO FREEDOM

THE UNCAGED BUTTERFLY

100 DAYS TO FREEDOM

A Journey of Survival, Strength, and Self-Discovery

Trapped in a cycle of pain, fear, and self-doubt, Ebony Allen once believed that love required sacrifice—even when that sacrifice meant losing herself. But when the weight of abuse and emotional turmoil became too heavy to bear, she made the bold decision to break free.

The Uncaged Butterfly is a raw, powerful, and deeply personal journey of resilience, healing, and transformation. Through heartbreak and hardship, Ebony discovers the strength to reclaim her identity and rewrite her destiny. With each passing day, she unearths lessons of self-worth, courage, and the unshakable will to survive.

Told with honesty and grace, this memoir offers a guiding light to anyone who has ever felt trapped—by toxic relationships, by their past, or by the fear of the unknown. Ebony's story is a testament to the fact that even in the darkest moments, hope is never lost.

This book is more than a memoir; it is a message of empowerment. A declaration of freedom. A reminder that every butterfly, no matter how caged, can find the strength to fly free.

If you are ready to embark on your own journey to healing and rediscover the power within you, The Uncaged Butterfly will show you the way.

BUILDING LEADERS FROM THE INSIDE OUT

*“To ask the right questions, we must learn to listen to what’s not said.”
-Cornelius D. Gamble*

“To ask the right questions, we must first learn to listen to what’s not said.” That principle guides my keynotes, shaped by 16 years as a Marine Corps Gunnery Sergeant, where I trained over 3,000 service members and led units to measurable improvements in morale, performance, and cohesion.

I now work with leaders and teams facing unclear direction, disengaged employees, and stalled growth, helping them unlock potential and build resilient, high-performing organizations. I do this through motivational keynotes that blend military-tested leadership principles with real-world business insights — equipping leaders to make clearer decisions, inspire their people, and transform organizational culture from the inside out.

My signature keynotes include:

- Leading from Within: A nature-based, reflective approach to self-mastery and clarity.
- Did I Ask the Right Question?: Unlocking team motivators through communication and inquiry.
- The Ripple Effect: Showing leaders the unseen impact of every decision

Through these keynotes, I help leaders build self-awareness, resilience, and actionable clarity — empowering them to transform themselves, their teams, and their organizations.
