WELCOME

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

On behalf of everyone at Conwy Borough FC Swifts, I would like to extend a warm welcome to you all for this afternoon's FAW Dragon Signs Amateur Trophy fixture.

A special welcome goes to our visitors, Penmaenmawr Phoenix FC - to their players, officials, and travelling supporters. We hope you enjoy your time here with us in Conwy and that you are well looked after.

A local derby is always (especially a cup tie) an exciting occasion and today gives both clubs the chance to showcase what will hopefully be an entertaining game. I also want to acknowledge our own players, coaching staff, volunteers, and of course our loyal supporters, whose commitment and passion continue help drive this club back to the level it should be. The visitors will be keen to assert their superiority as a Tier 3 side and the hosts will want to perform well and hopefully cause an upset.

Finally, a word of thanks to the match official. We appreciate the vital role you play in ensuring the game is contested fairly and in the right spirit.

Here's to an entertaining afternoon of football. Best of luck to both teams - may the game be played in good spirit and provide a great occasion for everyone watching.

Enjoy the match!

Chris

PENMAENMAWR

PHOENIX FC

IN OPPOSITION

PEN' PHOENIX

This week's visitors, Penmaenmawr Phoenix FC, are one of North Wales' most established and respected community football clubs.

Based in the coastal town of Penmaenmawr, between Conwy and Llanfairfechan, the Phoenix have a proud history of representing their area with passion, pride, and a never-say-die attitude that perfectly matches their name.

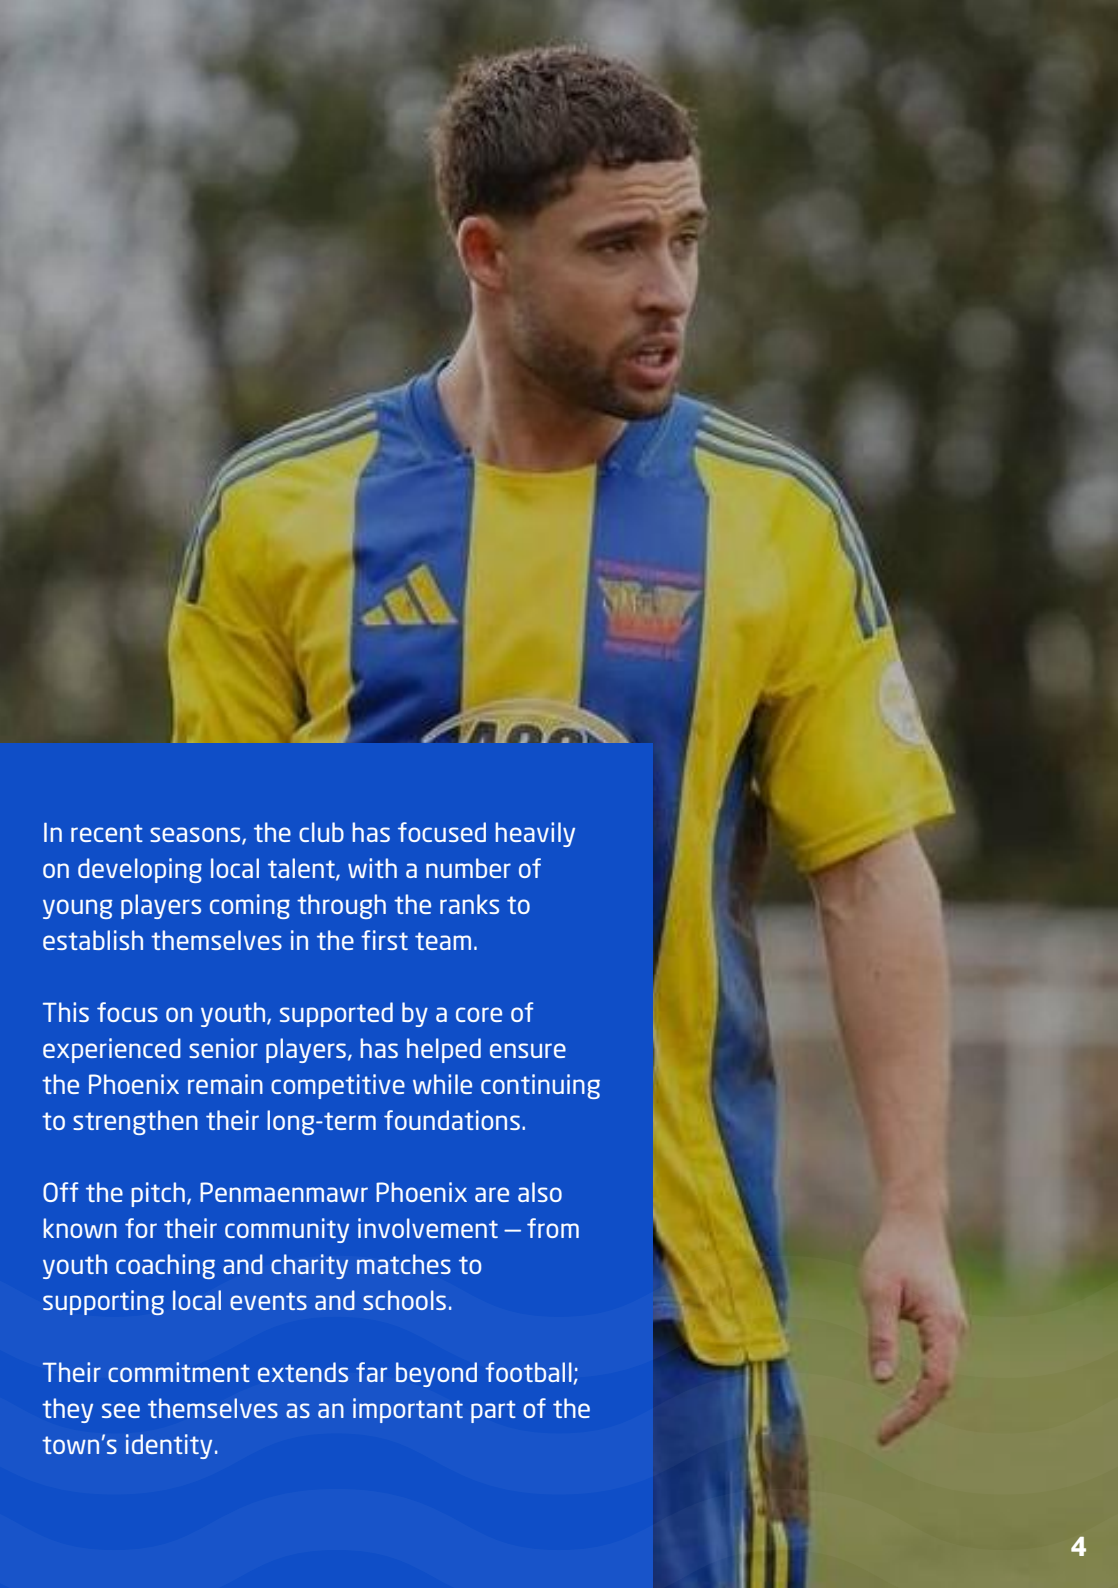

Football in Penmaenmawr dates back well over a century, with the Phoenix name symbolising the club's rebirth in the mid-1990s following a difficult spell that saw the old Penmaenmawr club fold.

Rising from the ashes – quite literally – the new Phoenix FC were formed by local volunteers determined to keep football alive in the town. That same community spirit continues to define the club today, both on and off the pitch.

Pen' play their home fixtures at Cae Sling, a venue that has long been one of the most recognisable grounds in the North Wales Coast football scene. With its close-knit atmosphere and dramatic mountain backdrop, it's a ground where visiting teams always know they're in for a test – both from the football and from the famously passionate home supporters.

On the field, Penmaenmawr Phoenix have built a reputation for being one of the most committed and hard-working sides in the region.

Their approach to the game combines discipline and defensive organisation with a direct, energetic style of attacking play. Over the years, they've produced a string of memorable performances in league and cup competitions, often upsetting more fancied opponents and proving a tough side to beat.

In recent seasons, the club has focused heavily on developing local talent, with a number of young players coming through the ranks to establish themselves in the first team.

This focus on youth, supported by a core of experienced senior players, has helped ensure the Phoenix remain competitive while continuing to strengthen their long-term foundations.

Off the pitch, Penmaenmawr Phoenix are also known for their community involvement – from youth coaching and charity matches to supporting local events and schools.

Their commitment extends far beyond football; they see themselves as an important part of the town's identity.

THE PLAYLIST

CYMRU NEWS

The Football Association of Wales (FAW) has confirmed its intention to bring the 2029 UEFA Women's Champions League Final to Cardiff's Principality Stadium, an event that will help deliver a lasting legacy for women's and girls' football in Wales.

Following the submission of a declaration of interest to UEFA, the FAW will now work alongside the Principality Stadium, Welsh Government, Cardiff Council and other local partners to prepare a full proposal.

The ambition is not only to stage one of European football's most prestigious events but also to ensure it supports the continued growth of the women's game at every level.

The bid comes at a significant moment for football in Wales. The Cymru Women's National Team made history by competing at their first major international tournament at UEFA Women's EURO 2025, reflecting the rapid progress of the game in recent years.

Looking ahead, the FAW has expressed an interest to jointly host the 2035 FIFA Women's World Cup alongside England, Northern Ireland and Scotland.

Wales is already set to host the UEFA U19 Championship in 2026 and will co-host UEFA EURO 2028, with the Principality Stadium selected as one of the venues.

Cardiff has already demonstrated its ability to host major international fixtures. In 2017, the city staged both the UEFA Women's Champions League Final at Cardiff City Stadium and the UEFA Champions League Final at the Principality Stadium.

The national stadium has also welcomed Rugby World Cups, European Rugby Champions Cup finals, and regular international rugby and football matches, underlining its status as a world-class venue.

For the FAW, securing the 2029 Women's Champions League Final would represent an opportunity to inspire greater participation in the sport, strengthen the grassroots network, and enhance pathways for young players.

The bid is designed to ensure that the impact of the event extends far beyond the 90 minutes on the pitch, creating a legacy that supports the continued development of women's football in Wales and be a catalyst towards increased attendances at Women's sporting events in the country.
