VALENTINE

INTERVIEW

1. Could you please introduce yourself?

Awoo! My name is Fraeya Valentine and I'm a calopus - a horned wolf cryptid! If you've never heard of a calopus that's understandable, because I'm actually the only one left of my kind. But I'm never lonely, because I have all of my calopups to keep me company!

2. What kind of content do you create?

I stream on Twitch, where we do things like gaming, arts & crafts, baking, and of course our weekly ASMR streams! I love doing ASMR because it is so comfy~ I also post pre-recorded ASMR on Patreon every month!

3. What got you into VTubing?

To be honest, I was feeling a little bit lonely. I've always lived alone in the forest. I'm the last of my species, so I had no family and friends besides the animals of the forest. It took a lot of courage to leave the wilderness and try to join humanity. But I'm really happy that I took that first big step and hit the 'Go Live' button! Meeting so many new friends has brightened my life so much!

ASMR CONTENT

4. What kinds of ASMR do you enjoy?

I love trying different ASMR triggers! I like to try doing my own take on doing triggers that I've enjoyed watching in other creator's videos. So when we do our weekly ASMR streams, you are all my little guinea pigs for me to experiment on! Lately, I've been watching more "fast and aggressive" ASMR videos. When it comes to my own content, I like to be a little more sussy and teasing ~

5. How did you get started doing ASMR?

I've watched and enjoyed ASMR content for years, and really wanted to try it myself but I was a little shy! It was a push from my community to give it a shot and upload my first ASMR video on Youtube ~ I really enjoy creating ASMR content as much as I enjoy watching it, so it has been a really comfy and relaxing outlet for me.

6. Do you have any advice for creators who want to be their sussy selves without the fear of getting bonked?

To be honest, I don't know how I haven't gotten bonked yet... My chat always tries to encourage me to reign it in when I'm getting too sus on stream! Haha ~ When it comes to my content I try to carefully balance the two sides of myself, being lewd versus being silly and wholesome. I'm so grateful to have a community with which I can enjoy indulging both sides to the fullest!

INTERVIEW

7. How has the response been to your Patreon?

It has been amazing! Thank you so much to everyone who has joined my Puptreons. It has really motivated me to continue making ASMR videos, and strive for better quality with each upload.

8. Would you ever join a group or agency?

This is something that I have considered in the past, but I think it is best for me to stay independent! As an independent vtuber I can be my true self without ever having to apologize for that. I also like moving at my own slow & sometimes lazy pace... So having a lot of assignments and deadlines would be too stressful for me!

9. Do any of your friends or coworkers know you're secretly a mythical creature on the internet?

I can hide my ears and tail when I go out, so nobody notices that I am not a regular human! My co-workers will never, ever know. It's a secret I must take to the grave!! Though I'm not the best at fitting in with human society yet, it's something I'm working on a little bit at a time ~

10. Between your last name, your birthday, and the heart in your oshi marks, love and affection seem to be big parts of who you are. How come?

I'm a wolf with a big heart and a lot of love to give! I think that everyone deserves to feel loved, cherished, and wanted. I hope that my streams can be a comfortable place where everyone feels welcomed. My calopups are so precious to me, and I'm thankful for everyone who lets me love and dote on them!

11. You recently announced you'll be going full-time with content creation. What are some things you're looking forward to most as a full-time VTuber?

I'm so excited to have more time for longer streams, as well as working on some secret projects!

12. What's the one thing you've come to love most about VTubing?

I'm extremely grateful and lucky to have met so many wonderful people through vtubing. This is my happy place, and hitting that 'Go Live' button just feels like home! My community never fails to make me smile, and if I'm ever feeling down I know I can reach out to them. I hope that I can spread a lot of smiles and warm, fuzzy feelings with my comfy (and sometimes sussy) content!

Hunii's Re-Debut

The Doctors Did The Best They Could.

When a talent debuts, they work to make their presence known to the world. When that same talent re-debuts, they work to present a new side of themselves and make their presence known further. Hunii is someone who, while having an air of ditziness and frantic energy, showed just how much love and care she has put into her work and craft with her re-debut. The former bunny girl, now Australian Shepherd, charmed her audience with her puppy-like enthusiasm and adorable voice. Showcasing every part of the model her artist Fujii Shino and rigger StepTOON worked to create, Hunii wowed her audience with its many toggles and her cute demeanor.

A positive attitude wasn't the only thing she brought to the table, however. With great excitement, Hunii released her cover of "Taste" by Sabrina Carpenter, featuring humorous art to accompany it. Her soothing vocals did not disappoint. Hunii put in a lot of work to make everything a reality, but she was not alone. She made sure to give acknowledgements to the people who worked with her on this re-debut, from the initial redesign to the background music. One would think a great re-debut would be enough, but Hunii didn't stop there. Moving straight into an uncapped donathon with the intent to use the money for moving expenses, she saw success right out the gate with over 1000 USD in donations on the first day. Congratulations Hunii! May you go even further.

Heartstream Heroes Charity Event | 7-14 Feb

Mythic Talents

With matters of the heart on the mind in February, Mythic Talent collaborated with Heart Live to raise money for the American Heart Association. Over the course of seven days, more than 13 Mythic talents came together with the help of their communities to support the cause. There were charity streams held throughout the week, but in addition, Mythic also hosted an auction featuring a variety of items. Gaming sessions with talents such as EllyEN and Vienna, art by MeowMoonified and Saruei, and even personal items such as a maid apron from Squchan or a knit scarf by CallieCalico. After the final day hosted by FalseEyed, the folks at Mythic and Heart Live could stand proud. Having raised an incredible 258,164 USD, 8659 USD of which came from the auction alone. Truly heartwarming work.

Raechit's Valentine's Day Concert | 14 Feb

@rae_chit

Raechit hosted her first concert featuring 50 VTubers from across the globe. Rae provided commentary between the 38 pre-recorded songs sung for this four-hour-long concert – some solo performances, some duets, and many more featuring larger ensembles. Many of the talents even participated in multiple songs across the concert. There was even a magic mime half-time show and a little roleplaying in-between Rae's commentary. As a surprise, Rae had live call-ins of a couple of talents still cooking in the oven, but you'll have to watch the concert to find out who! The concert was sponsored by IRIAM US, and a couple of the featured talents are founding streamers of IRIAM. Luckily for her, there was definitely no scuff during Raechit's Valentine's Day concert.

♥ Sweet Valentine's ASMR Relay ♥

To celebrate the month of love, 12 lovely ASMR creators joined for 12 lovely hours full of ASMR. They each hosted their own unique 1-hour ASMR stream. The streams had plenty of variety with lots of taps and tingles, a tsundere roleplay scenario, a bunny girl hostess roleplay, traditional ear cleaning, affirmations, sweet girlfriend roleplay, and an alluring kitsune roleplay. Whether you're a longtime fan of ASMR or just curious what it's like, the Sweet Valentine's ASMR Relay has something for everyone!

Nozomi Ruru Debut | 5 Feb

VTubers are everywhere, even in colleges! The Thomasian Nihon Kyoukai is a cultural organization based out of Santo Tomas University in the Philippines. This group focuses on Japanese culture both traditional and modern. Naturally, this includes VTubers, so it only made sense for them to debut one of their own. Enter Nozomi Ruru. Ruru used her time to talk about the TNK, the work that she and the organization put into the debut, and future plans. There are many possibilities, and the future looks bright for the TNK.

REM's Birthday Donathon | 5-6 Feb

To celebrate her birthday, REM Kanashibari of V4Mirai held two donathon streams on the 5th and 6th, each lasting just over seven hours. There was cake with Baja Blast, call-ins with her kouhais and senpais, Mario Kart with viewers, messages from her community, and various donathon goals. By the end of the donathon, over 10,000 USD was raised, unlocking goals like a dakimakura and yandere maid ASMR. Limited merch was released including a standee, sleep mask, a wallet, a "honk hat" cap, and more.

Mommy Collab | 6 Feb

No one likes being judged. Unless it's by mommy VTubers, that is. Four VTuber mommies, Vexoria the Suneater, Sansin, Cha Cha, and Lucahjin, joined together for a Mommy Collab. Viewers submitted photos of their bedrooms to be judged and given advice. Though there were hundreds of photos submitted, they only managed to get through about 20 different rooms! But don't worry, as it seems like this might become a regular event. So get your rooms ready for next time! Oh, and you better wash your sheets!

V4Mirai YAP-A-THON | 7 Feb

V4Mirai's first ever Yapp-A-Thon took place this past month on Dr. Nova(e)'s channel. Eight participants made presentations without any prior knowledge of the topics. Dr. Nova(e) covered cannibalism, REM explored League of Legends, Poma advocated for dolphins, Serina talked about the WWE, Alias shared the history of the internet, Yae yapped about yanderes, Yumi examined milkshakes bringing boys to the yard, and Vee Sensei ended with bird surveillance drones.

Saya-nara Sairoxs! | 10 Feb

Saya Sairoxs celebrated becoming another year older with her Fireflies and Euphoria genmates. Saya had a little heart to heart with each of her friends where she dumped Muu Muyu, reaffirmed her relationship with Runie Ruse, and shocked Eimi Isami with the news that Muyu might be pregnant with Saya's baby! All this on the week of Valentines. Finally, this playful dragon enjoyed a couple more laughs with her Fireflies before stepping out of the spotlight. Saya-nara Sairoxs!

Umi Kyoku's New Look | 11 Feb

Umi Kyoku, the yandere whale shark VTuber, has revealed a jaw-dropping new outfit to her devoted Kyomoras. With plasters on her legs and twisting locks that would put Re:Zero's Beatrice to shame, Umi's latest look perfectly balances elegance and danger. Her signature yandere charm is stronger than ever, leaving fans both captivated and slightly afraid. One thing's for sure—Kyomoras won't be looking away anytime soon!

Collie Woolchaser Debut | 13 Feb

Our friends at VeXpo have taken the next step in celebrating VTubers: by introducing one of their own! Collie Woolchaser, the sheep herding dog mascot and representative of VeXpo is here to provide updates and information about the Birmingham-based convention. She loves all things VTubers, conventions, and food. In fact, a major portion of her debut was all about her Tesco, Spoons, and Nandos orders. The next VeXpo update was only a few days later and would announce the opening of ticket sales.

Alias Hits 100K and ASMR Model | 14 Feb

Mere hours before she was scheduled to go live for her new ASMR model debut, Alias Anono reached the milestone of 100k subscribers! An incredible achievement done in less than a year, though her channel has been demonetized for the majority of that time. Having already started streaming on Twitch, the next step was the opening of her ASMR channel. Featuring a new model drawn by raiau_ and rigged by globie's own Alicja Da Lontano. It is both cute and alluring—befitting of our favorite ghost writer!

Fraeya's Birthday | 14 Feb

Celebrating her birthday, which appropriately falls on Valentine's Day, Fraeya Valentine had a stream full of fun announcements and giveaways. Starting with an interactive dating sim called "Doki Doki Date Night: Fraeya ever with you...", in which chat narrowly avoided the bad ending. She then shared cake via handcam and made a strawberry, ahem, disappear. New merch released via UwU Market. But the biggest announcement was that she would be going full-time with content creation! Congrats!

Obake PAM's Anniversary Concert | 28 Feb

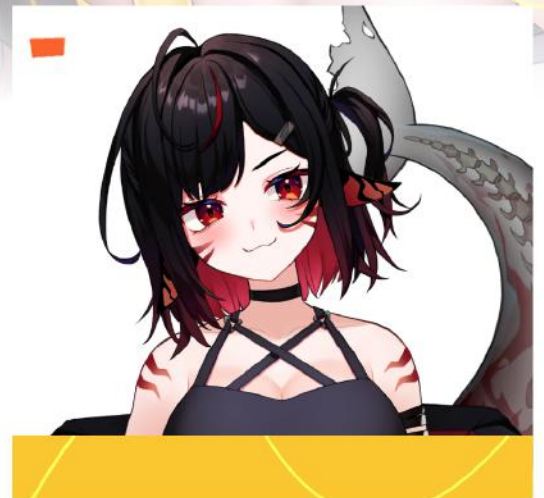

No stranger to organizing concerts and musical events, Obake PAM celebrated her 4th Anniversary with a 3D Live featuring 50 VTuber guests. Staying up to late hours of the night making preparations, PAM provided live vocals to pre-recorded songs from her multiple guests for the nearly six-hour long event. The setlist was a mix of PAM's favorites, from musicals to J-Pop, to video game OSTs. As a special bonus, PlayAsia even hosted a limited flash sale on select soundtracks in celebration.

UPCOMING EVENT

Miya's Endometriosis Awareness Charity

8th March | 4pm CET | twitch.tv/miya

On 8 March, Miya Mareena will be holding a stream to bring awareness to Endometriosis. Endometriosis, or Endo, is a chronic disease where tissue similar to the lining of the uterus grows outside of where it is supposed to. This leads to pain and other complications, including difficulty achieving pregnancy. Endo affects 10% of reproductive age women globally.

The goal is to not only bring awareness to those who are not aware of Endo but to also help those women afflicted feel seen, and to raise funds for The World Endometriosis Research Foundation. The stream will include a variety of educational content, including infographics and interviews. These interviews will feature four different VTubers, each affected by Endo in their own way, discussing their journey with the condition. These four different perspectives aim to paint a picture to those who wish to be more informed about Endometriosis.

♥ Phases of the Heart ♥

In the season of love, Phase Connect gave their fans just that. Over the course of five days, the girls presented a wide variety of content centered around Valentine's Day. From romantic dates and love song karaoke, to muscle reviews and 3D concerts, there was something for everyone.

If the near week-long event wasn't enough, the seasonal merch drop would have you weak in the knees. Some of the interesting fare included scented candles and voice packs written by the talents themselves. The most heart pounding of the sets were the lenticular standees of each talent. With two pieces of beautiful art, each standee featured a nightwear side and a lingerie side, having fans fall in love with their oshis all over again.

Happy Valentine's to the folks at Phase Connect! You truly made this holiday special.
