Introduction: Who I Am & What to Expect

Hello again everyone, and welcome to Part II of my instructional guide for using Yodayo. My name is Rabbit, and I'm one of the moderators on the Discord server. I have been using Yodayo since the 23rd of February, 2023 (exactly two years ago as of the time of my writing this introduction). In my two years here, I have learned quite a bit about not just generating good images with Yodayo, but generating great images with Yodayo. Through this now multi-part series of instructional guides, I am hoping to help others achieve the same results and create as many high quality images as possible.

I have approached this under the assumption that you already have a firm understanding of the basics of image generation using the Stable Diffusion based models on Yodayo. I strongly encourage you to read my first guide which covers everything you need to know in order to get started with using SD 1.5, SDXL, Pony XL and Illustrious models, and it's also 100% free.

When I set out on making this guide, I had intended to keep it short and simple. That goal did not last long. As I worked, I had to add more and more pages to it. I have covered as many topics, themes, and genres as I possibly could. This guide has a lot more packed into it, and I have included visual examples of everything. To aid in understanding, I have also included the models I used, the settings, and even the prompts that I used so that you can ideally re-create the images. The only thing I didn't include is the seed, so the images won't be exactly the same. In total, I have spent well over twenty thousand YoBeans generating (and re-generating) images to make sure only the highest quality images are included. This guide has been, by far, the most in depth and detailed undertaking of my career on Yodayo and with AI image generation.

To aid in making sense of it all, I have color coded a few things. Since Fayr is too shy for this topic, she gave me some notes to include, Fayr's Notes are in green. I have included some Supplemental Information in orange boxes that is good to know but not vital. The Critical Notes & Warnings are in red text with black boxes and are things you really need to remember. Words in violet are the tags relevant to the topic and indicate what the keywords are and, at times, where they go in the prompt. I have once again included Links to External Websites are in blue for additional reading, research, or reference.

I have poured my heart into this, and I hope it helps you along in your journey with Yodayo

Female Anatomy, Breasts

This is all assuming you already know how to setup the overall physique and is only refining specific body parts. -Fayr

So, you want to make some hentai? First thing we need to do is get physical. No, not you and me—though I am flattered, I am also spoken for—I mean that in order to create higher quality hentai images, we want to refine the body of the character we are making. To kick things off, we have the female body. Starting with the breasts we have three types of keywords: size, attributes, nipples. I have created examples of the breast sizes to show the changes not just with size, but also the effects on the body; the rest of the attributes you'll have to experiment on your own for. In total, there are 7 keywords for size if we also include just breasts and those can be combined with an additional 10 keywords for attributes. The attributes can be used with all of the size keywords except for flat chest and they may not all work with small breasts. On top of those, we can further refine breasts with 8 keywords for nipples (3 for size, 5 for attributes) while an additional 4 keywords just for the areolae. That makes for quite a lot of combinations, and I think you can see why I'm not showing examples for them all! I didn't provide an example for using just breasts without a size modifier, as they usually come out pretty close to medium breasts. The attribute keywords should mostly be self explanatory.

Base Prompt

Female Anatomy, Pussy

Generating pussy close-up shots along with keywords for arousal like pussy juice or pussy juice trail can make some gorgeous images. More on those keywords later -Fayr

Keeping with the female body, we next have the pussy. Again, you're probably reading this and raising an eyebrow, wondering how you could possibly be making a pussy wrong, am I right? Well, you're not making them wrong, it's just that there are a lot of ways to make them better. We have far fewer keywords to worry about this time. Including just pussy there are a total of 9 attribute keywords to describe the look of the pussy. I've included cameltoe because even though it requires clothing, it is extremely common in hentai images. cleft of venus is used to get just a clean view of only the labia majora, while fat mons is for a more puffy look. Depending on the model, clitoris and erect clitoris can appear nearly identical. labia gives just that little peek of the labia minora, long labia naturally shows more. Again, this can be more pronounced based on the model used.

dark labia is self explanatory, while cameltoe is the perfect way to show off the pussy through clothing.

pussy is one of the only times that a slang term is used instead of the anatomically correct terms, as is the case for breasts and penis

Male Anatomy, Penis

The keywords for Penis Type are used for anthro or furry characters! They are NOT intended for any content containing bestiality. Neither myself nor Yodayo condones or endorses bestiality in any form. Using Yodayo to create bestiality can get your pementently banned.

On the other side of things, we come to the penis. Getting the right penis can be a bit hard at times, especially when you take into account there are a total of 20 keywords for the penis. Just like with the breasts, there is no way I could include examples of every single keyword. I've selected what I consider to be the most important and most common keywords to show. In order to make sense of the keywords, I have broken them down into four groups: 5 keywords for size if you include just penis, 3 keywords for the state of the penis, 6 keywords for visual attributes the add to but don't fundamentally alter the penis, and 5 keywords for types of penis with an 1 additional keyword used before putting the keyword for type. There are additional tags listed on Danbooru, however I have not included them because there is such a small number of them that they would be ineffective to use.

SIZE	small penis	penis	large penis	huge penis	gigantic penis
VISUAL ATTRIBUTE	dark	girthy	veiny	glowing	mole on penis	STATE OF PENIS	flaccid	half-erect	erect
PENIS TYPE	dog penis	knotted	spiked	horse	penis tentacle	MODIFIER	animal penis

Anthro & furry characters can benefit from multiple tags if you're having a hard time getting the desired results. In most cases, just the penis type is all that you'll need. Some models might give you distorted/cursed results, that's when you should use the modifier keyword. The ones for visual attributes can mostly be utilized with most of the other keywords listed under size, type, or state. knotted penis will get similar results to dog penis and penis tentacle is best used for making futa slime girls or making the infamous tentacle monster everyone loves so much (or at least I love it). There is a jump in size from penis to large penis and from there the changes are minor, but each model acts differently so experiment and see what you like. There are 2 penis types left out as they each have less than 80 images on Danbooru and thus wouldn't work.

Prompt:

Penis size can affect the male body type more than any other tag. You may need to use the negative prompt in order to counter these effects

Anthro & Furry

Furry, also known as anthro, is what would be known as a demi-human in many anime series. Furry characters come in 3 varieties, only 2 of which you can generate as NSFW. First up is what I call full furry, I have no idea if that's the technical term (and I really don't care). Full furry is my little bunny girl down there; head to toe covered in soft fluffy floof...er.. I mean fur. Key to making characters like her are to be sure you define the color of their fur and declare anthro, furry. If you aren't making a full furry character, then you do not mention skin in your prompt unless you a specific skin tone. You can also replace bare feet with digitigrade into the prompt, which refers to an animal that 'walks on toes' and is that classic look of non-human feet. The second type is commonly called 'demi-human' in anime. It's what most people think of when they hear cat girl. My adorable little redhead down there is a perfect example of that. In addition to 'cat girl' (or whichever animal you want) you should describe her ears and tail for more control over the results, including type and color. As you can see in the results, not all of the keywords in my prompt went through, the cat girl's hair still came out short: trial and error is just another part of the prompting process.

The third type is 'feral' which is essentially just an animal with no human traits except a personality/intelligence. Generating NSFW feral images will get you banned!

The Best of Both Worlds

The final body type I have to cover is the best of both worlds, taking female characters and giving them both a penis and a pussy. Yes, I'm talking about futa, or futanari. For as popular as this type of character is, a lot of people seem to struggle with them. Since I've already gone over prompting for breasts, pussy, and penis, it's a simple matter of just combining those keywords in the right way. There are two ways you can prompt for a futa girl: Just futanari which is female with pussy and penis, and full-package futanari which is a futanari with pussy, penis, and testicles. It's a very simple prompt to run. Down below, you can see that right after defining 1girl and solo, I put futa and futanari because I find that using both tends to get me better results. Specifying no testicles in the prompt and testicles in the negative prompt should be all you need. For both versions, you will want to make sure you declare pussy and penis, and for full package futanari you should specify testicles as well. Lastly, the implied futanari is when you can't see her penis, but you making it known she has one, usually via bulges in clothing.

Sometimes specifying pussy juice, erect penis, grabbing own penis, or other tags involving her both her pussy and her penis can help

Some models can resist giving you what you're looking for, so adjust your negative prompt accordingly. -Fayr

Pretty in Leather & Lace

Nudity is great but never estimate the allure of some fine lingerie or even just a cute pair of panties. Lingerie and sexy clothing is about more than just typing in the words lingerie, bra, and panties. There's your average run-of-the-mill attire; bra, panties, corset, or things like the camisole, negligee, and stockings. But there's much more than, so much more that I could easily fill this page with just keywords for panties. Below are some of the most common keywords, and you can find more on the Danbooru tag wiki

BRA	adhesive	belt	bow	bridgeless	cupless	frilled	shelf	sports	strapless	training	front-tie	front-hook

There are a few interactions we can have them perform: adjusting bra/panties, hand in panties, presenting bra/panties, panty/bra pull, and panties aside are all examples. Additionally with panties, hand over panties, fingering over panties can create some really nice images you don't see too often.

The prompting logic for female masturbation can just as easily be applied to futanari masturbation. -Fayr

Nothing makes a girl look ready to go better than pussy juice. Commonly you will see tags such as 'wet pussy' in order to get this effect. This is not the best tag to use, as the AI will often see 'wet' and interpret that as literally wet with water. This can result in her whole body being wet, as if she just came out of a pool. Instead, we have 7 keywords that work best to accomplish this goal. It's incredibly simple to pull off this kind of look, and the tags can be stacked up as you go along to create a progression of increasing level of arousal.

The three images below used the same base prompt and I simply added a few more keywords as I went along. I started with simply cleft of venus and pussy juice in the first image. I added spreading pussy and pussy juice trail for the second, and added excessive pussy juice and pussy juice puddle to the third.

PUSSY JUICE	pussy juice	excessive pussy juice	pussy juice trail	pussy juice puddle	pussy juice drip	pussy juice on fingers	pussy juice drip through clothes

What's the point of making her hot and bothered if you're not going to do anything with it? Making solo images is probably the easiest form of hentai to make, since you only have to worry just the one character. As you can see from the grids with the keywords, there are a plenty of things you can do right up to intense (and messy) orgasms. Just like with the previous set of images, building up on a prompt as you go along is a great way to make a series of images without them getting stale or too repetitive. There is so much more you can do with just masturbation, and again I'd be here all day if I were to go through and list everything.

Getting a Grip

You don't need to use keywords for the testicles, those are totally optional! -Fayr

We've seen how female pleasure themselves, now it's the male's and futanari's turn. Prompting for male masturbation is probably one of the single easiest things to prompt for due to just how straight forward it is. We have already covered most of the keywords to go along with the penis, but we can add to those keywords for testicles to alter how they appear. For males, simply using male masturbation and male orgasm and for futa use futanari masturbation and futanari orgasm. As far as ejaculation goes, there are a more keywords than what I have here, and we will go over them later in the guide. For now, these are the most important for generic masturbation: cum and excessive cum are the most basic, while cumdrip and cum string for after ejaculation, cum pool is to show a puddle of cum. Lastly, projectile cum is just as it sounds, a large forceful cumshot. I included penis ribbon here as it is used in masturbation to prevent ejaculation. On the note of male ejaculation, for yaoi images or futanari being penetrated, ejaculating while penetrated can be used to have them orgasming during intercourse.

Toying Around

Experimentation is what really makes playing with the various sex toys a lot of fun! -Fayr

Sex toys in images is sadly quite limited in what we commonly see. That isn't to say there aren't a lot of keywords that we can use, they just don't get used enough. There are three categories I generally break these down into: dildo, vibrators, and other. Dildo comprise anything shaped like or vaguely resembling a penis, vibrators are their round electronically operated counterparts, and the other category covers everything else from anal beads and plugs to the vaunted Sybian riding machine. Making a character use any sex toy is as simple as declaring the toy, and how it's being used. Something as simple as masturbating with dildo or vibrator in pussy will get the job done, but there are a few more specialized commands we can use, especially with the vibrator like vibrator under panties, dildo in panties, or vibrator in thigh strap. There's a lot of room to play around with things, so get creative!

COMMON & UNCOMMON TOYS
dildo	huge dildo	knotted dildo
strap-on	horse dildo	double dildo
vibrator	egg vibrator	remote control vibrator
sybian	anal beads	hitachi magic wand
anal tail	butt plug	jewel butt plug

Additional keywords for vibrator are: in leg garter, in thighhigh, in thigh strap, in thigh band, on nipples, on clitoris, and on penis

Additional keywords for dildo and vibrator are: in panties, under panties, in anus, and under pantyhose

Sharing is Caring

Combining any masturbation keywords, whether solo or with a partner, with keywords for bukkake, cum play, is a great way to make a big mess! -Fayr

Masturbation isn't just something for just one person to do on their own. Of course, most of us generally know this as 'foreplay'. Since we have already covered solo masturbation, the sole focus here is involving two people pleasuring each other. There are 3 non-penetrating positions which all utilize either fingering, handjob, or both for mutual masturbation. I utilized the same starting point for each of the images below and simply added the text in each subsequent prompt box was added to the end of the Universal Base Prompt. I included cuddling masturbation in the base prompt simply because I'm a hopeless romantic, but it is not required. Only use mutual masturbation when you want both partners to pleasure each other. The anal fingering tag works great with positions we cover later on, namely from behind positions and where the receiving partner is on their back, and is perfect for any yaoi and futanari images.

What Fayr didn't mention is that we go into more detail on cum play, bukkake, and facials later on in the guide

fellatio	autofellatio
implied fellatio	hug and suck
depththroat	irrumatio
multiple penis fellatio	cooperative fellatio
licking testicle	sucking testicle

Moving on we have the keywords for oral sex. We will first look at fellatio, which is oral sex on a male/futa character (more commonly called a blow job). Additional keywords include depththroat for when a girl or guy takes most of if not the whole shaft down their throat. Stealth encounter use implied fellatio which has the act obscured somehow, hug and suck specifically has the giver hugging the receiver's waist and irrumatio is better known as face fucking. Characters with a larger penis can give themselves oral with autofellatio, and one person can please two or more with multiple penis fellatio, while two characters can please the same penis with cooperative fellatio. Finally, there is both licking testicle and sucking testicle which are exactly what they sound like.

Moving to our last oral sex positions, and first is oral stimulation of the pussy or cunnilingus, which is better known as eating pussy; on the side of things (literally) is anilingus which is oral stimulation of the anus. 69 Position is very well known as the position where each partner orally stimulates the other at the same time, their bodies forming the vague outline of the number 69. The last position is sitting on face, where one partner is squatting over or sitting on the other's face to be orally stimulated vaginally or anally.

Intercourse is the main thing I am sure most of you came here to learn more about and I apologize for taking so long to get to it. Jumping right into things, there are two main types of intercourse: vaginal penetration and anal penetration. These are divided into four position groups: girl on top, boy on top, from behind, and standing. We'll be covering each of these to some degree throughout this section. The difference between vaginal penetration and anal penetration is superficial in terms of how to prompt for it. You really don't need to change anything other vaginal or anal and at most specify penis in pussy or penis in anus. Outside of those small changes, you can utilize all the same positions.

PENETRATION	vaginal penetration	penis in pussy	anal penetration	penis in anus
---------------------------	---------------------	----------------	------------------	---------------

If the system is giving you a hard time with vaginal intercourse or anal intercourse, try adding penis in pussy or penis in anus. These will also help give you a view of penetration

Anvil Position

The next positions we have with boy on top the anvil position, this is the where the partner being penetrated is on her (or his) back with their legs splayed open and their hips/pelvis angled up off the ground, creating the vague outline of a classic anvil (hence the name). Both anal penetration and vaginal penetration work just fine with this position.

There are a few modifiers that can be used to add more depth to images; leg lock is a personal favorite of mine, having the partner on the bottom lock their ankles behind the back the person on top. Using legs up is great for exaggerating the raised hips/pelvis. My favorite thing about these poses is that using embracing can make images with this position far more intimate and even romantic.

ANVIL POSTION & MODIFIERS
boy on top	vaginal penetration	anal penetration
leg lock	legs up	embracing

Working with these positions can easily result in some truly cursed images, adjusting denoising and hires steps can have a big affect. -Fayr

Mating Press & Piledriver

The mating press and piledriver are often confused for one another. The key is to remember the mating press obscures the partner on the bottom. -Fayr

The next position using boy on top is the well known the mating press. The partner on the bottom is doubled over with their legs back by their head. A key component of the mating press is having most—if not all—of their upper body obscured as they are penetrated. The final position in this category is the piledriver; essentially it is a more extreme take on the anvil position. For this, their entire back raised up so they are resting on their neck and shoulders. Keywords like folded, knees to chest, legs up, and legs over head can be used with both of these positions. In the second example for mating press, using legs over head highlighted that effect, giving a better view of her head. For the second example of the piledriver, using folded and legs over head provided the extreme angle she's bent into.

Cowgirl Position

The cowgirl position and reverse cowgirl position tends to naturally generate first person perspective (or pov) more frequently than other positions when using the portrait canvas layout. -Fayr

The next few positions are a part of a group with girl on top and is largely consisting of two main poses and then the reverse variant to those positions. First up we have cowgirl position and reverse cowgirl position. I added POV cowgirl position to illustrate how easy it is to get a new take on a position. Minor details from each image are different, such as her expression and their hand placement. These details are not pertinent to the position. POV cowgirl position means it is seen as though the viewer is male partner and most positions can also be given a POV perspective. The internal cumshot in the final image, also referred to as x-ray cumshot, is a fantastic way to finish off a series of images. Common tags for it you will see are cum in womb, cum in uterus, and cumming in cervix. While these may work, if typed into Danbooru, they will redirect to internal cumshot.

Adding x-ray generally gives the view through her body while using cross-section can give the larger panel in the corner.

STRADDLING & AMAZON POSITION
upright straddle	amazon position
reverse upright straddle	straddle penis

The amazon position can be a challenge at times, keep an eye out for deformed legs and other cursed results. Using a quality spell and the negative prompt can help

To close out the section for girl on top we have three more positions to take a look at. upright straddle and reverse upright straddle are just like cowgirl position with the difference being that upright straddle has both the male and female sitting upright. amazon position is a bit of an odd one that you rarely see and is the female version of piledriver position. As with the previous set of positions, you can easily swap between vaginal intercourse and anal intercourse. Adding in the different modifiers for orgasms, ejaculation, and pussy juice and mixing things up with different expressions can bring more variety to the images you make.

Base Prompt

1girl, small breasts, curly red hair, dark green eyes, 1boy, position, penetration, modifiers

Up next we have positions sex from behind. If the penetrated partner is on their hands and knees it is doggystyle. However if both characters are standing upright and the penetrated partner is bent at the waist it is bent over. There are a number of added details that can be included from all the previous positions and acts we have covered up to now. Anything from defining the type of penetration to added pussy juice, cum.

Shifting the point of view is as easy as applying pov intercourse to the prompt, which is an incredibly popular modifying tag to add to a variety of positions. Applying standing to the bent over position is great if you want to change up the scenery or setting.

Keep in mind that the canvas you use can drastically alter an image. Landscape, portrait, and square canvases can have wildly difference results

doggystyle	on all fours
bent over	standing
grabbing hips	anal penetration
pov intercourse	vaginal penetration

Top-Down Bottom-Up

Related to doggystyle is top-down bottom-up and is also referred as 'face down, ass up'. The key difference here is that the penetrated partner has their face down to the floor or pillow. For such a simple position, there is a lot of variety that can be added to it using the various modifiers that have already been covered in previous sections, as well as few that haven't been covered yet, such as impregnation and penis on ass (not to be confused with penis in anus). Both of which are a nice way to finish off a series or set of images.

Using impregnation in your prompt will generate the image of sperm swarming the egg. -Fayr

TOP-DOWN BOTTOM-UP

Prone Bone & Spooning

Using spooning is perfect for romantic and intimate scenes of lovemaking. -Fayr

The final positions for being penetrated from behind are very similar. First we prone bone which is the penetrated partner lying flat with their stomach, crotch, and thighs flat on the floor or bed, meaning their legs and chest/breasts can be raised. I have found it is to be more challenging to get a visual of penetration. I included an example of internal cumshot to show a little more variety to the pose.

Following that, we have the spooning position. Most people are familiar with spooning as a form of cuddling, which means this position is great for after sex images. When used in conjunction with on side, this position is great for creating slightly more intimate and romantic images. Adding romantic kiss to the normal keywords associated with intercourse is a favorite of mine. All of the keywords for additional details from pussy juice to cum in pussy and even expressions can be used with these positions.

PRONE POSITIONS	spooning	on side	prone bone

Suspended Congress

As you can see, there is quite a lot that you can do with suspended congress to create a wide variety of images. -Fayr

The final set of positions to go over are the various ways to accomplish suspended congress. Broadly this is where the penetrating partner lifts the receiving partner off their feet. There are really two ways to depict this. First is simply suspended congress which face to face, and generally leans towards more intimate images. Second is reverse suspended congress where the penetrating partner has their arms underneath the legs of the penetrated partner. The full nelson is just like the reverse only the penetrating partner locks their hands behind the penetrated partner's head; this is also named for the wrestling move it mimics. The last position is double penetration which is one person being penetrated by two penises. All of these, save for double penetration, can be depicted from both a sitting and a standing position. The key difference between upright straddle and suspended congress is that she is being lifted, and not resting on his lap.

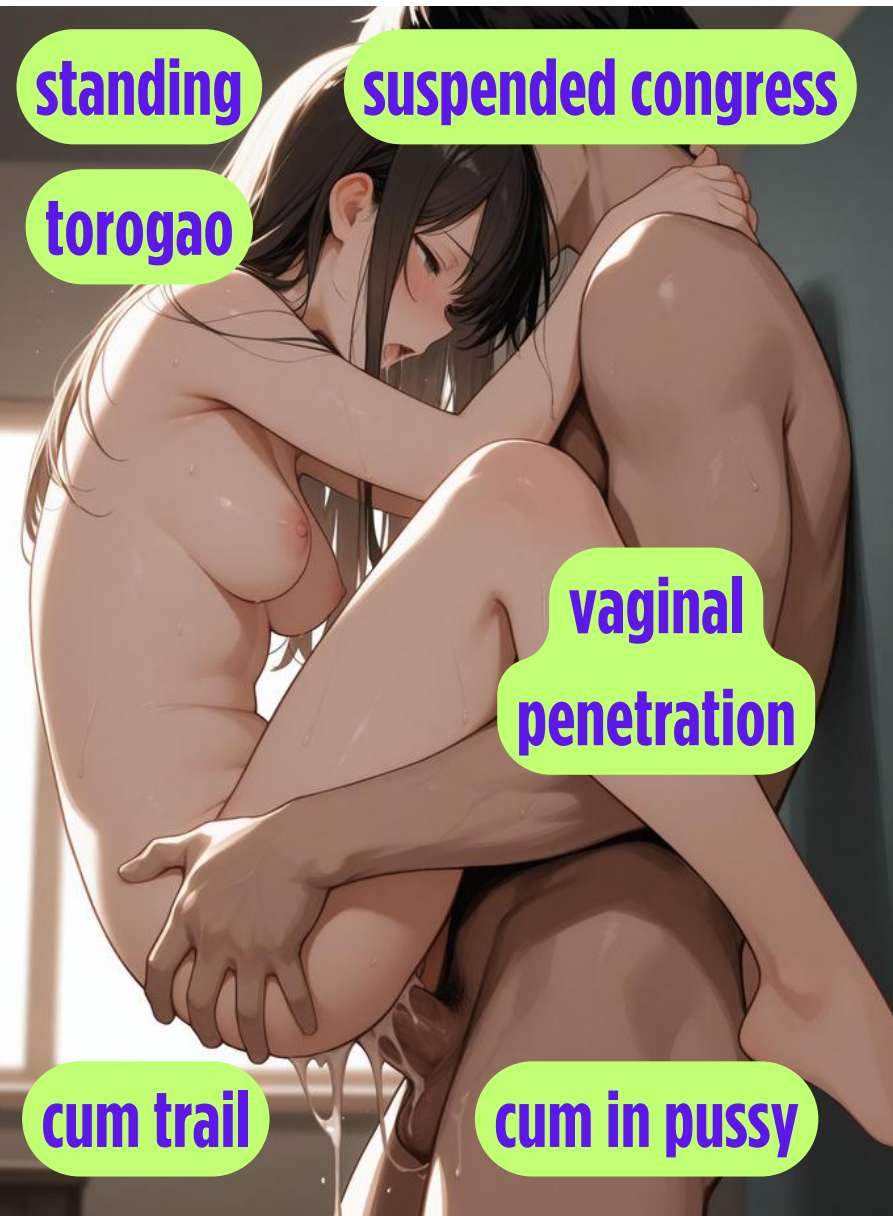

SUSPENDED CONGRESS
suspended congress	reverse suspended congress
full nelson	double penetration
standing	sitting

For double penetration change 1boy to 2boys

Paizuri (Titty-Fucking)

Paizuri and naizuri can be used with the fellatio and cum play keywords for a lot of interesting and fun images. -Fayr

Using paizuri tends to push for a first person perspective. Be sure to specify the angle and viewpoint if this isn't what you want in your end results

Paizuri, also known as titty fucking is when the penis is stuck between breasts and stimulated. For a concept so simple as that, you might be wondering why I have a whole page for it. Well, there's a lot more to it than just rubbing breasts up and down until a guy explodes. In fact, there are 10 keywords we can use with paizuri to enhance or alter it in some way. There is reverse paizuri where the penis is inserted from the top of the breasts or perpendicular paizuri which is sticking the penis straight forward towards the giver's chest. Girls can do handsfree paizuri just by bouncing their breasts up and down, or two girls can work together with cooperative paizuri by pressing their breasts together on the same penis. If the penis being inserted between breasts over clothing, or between breasts still covered in clothing it's paizuri over clothes and paizuri under clothes. Paizuri can also be done in secret (often in public) as stealth paizuri. There are other positions available such as paizuri on lap when the receiver sits in the giver's lap or straddling paizuri where the receiver straddling the giver who is lying down. When a futanari girl does it to herself, it's autopaizuri. Lastly, paizuri isn't just for the girls with large breasts! It is called naizuri when it's with very small breasts or girl with a flat chest.

Cum Play

Every good session—whether alone or with a partner—must come to an end, and if it's done right, it's a bit messy. Cum play includes the basic and humble facial, also known as a 'money shot', which is when someone ejaculates over another person's face. Keywords to aid this are cum on face, cum in mouth, cum on tongue, and even cum on hair. The next step up from that is bukkake where one character is covered or being covered in cum, generally from a sitting, kneeling, or prone position. Another term that can be used alongside—or in place of—this is cum everywhere. Going along with bukkake is cum drinking, or gokkun. To be more accurate, it is the act of swallowing or about to be swallowing cum. Most often with cum in container, like cum in bowl, cum in cup, and cum in bucket. Also quite popular with drinking from condom when paired with used condom. I've already covered ejaculation and male orgasm/futanari orgasm in earlier sections, and all of that same logic carries over to here. Adding 1boy, 2boys or gang bang and multiple penises can add to the scope of the image.

Tentacles & Tails

It just wouldn't be a discussion on hentai if I didn't mention tentacles at least once. A hentai classic, tentacles mostly show up in one of three forms, and the main differences are in the look of the tentacles themselves. The tentacle monster usually has tentacles that look like an octopus with suction cups or the appearance of a slime monster. The tentacle pit tentacles are generally more 'smooth' looking, often with a slimy or gooey appearance and are usually in an enclosed area that resembles a cave. Last are mechanical tentacles which are usually made of metal or have a bio-mechanical appearance. Tentacles traditionally appear as penis tentacles which, as the name implies, have the glans of a human penis (that's the 'head'). For male centric images it's important to use tentacles on male. A lot of tentacle images can have the appearance of non-consensual intercourse, so using consensual tentacles and the right expressions really help out in that regard. If you want a really absurd amount of tentacles, too many tentacles can come in handy. One last thing I want to mention is the use of tails for stimulation. This can be done one of two ways, tail insertion which generally defaults to vaginal penetration, for anal use tail in ass. To have the tail wrapped around a penis, both tail masturbation and tailjob can be used. Finally, with frottage and straddling tail we can have characters straddle and grind or rub on a tail to pleasure themselves (or use their tail to pleasure another using this method).

Another term for grinding is frottage and can be useful for improving any image where a character is grinding on an object. -Fayr

Getting All Tied Up

While bondage is a part of BDSM, it does not always need to contain the more extreme elements that are often found in or associated with it. They are each their own thing. -Fayr

Next are two related fetishes that have some key differences: bondage and BDSM. It's important to note that BDSM is an abbreviation that acts as an umbrella term for the different fetishes involved. The B stands for bondage, which is the purposeful physical restraint of a person for sexual purposes. Common keywords include ropes, cuffs, straps, and cords. There are different types of bondage that are named for the material used to restrain someone, such as rope bondage, ribbon bondage, hair bondage, and snake bondage. There is also shared bondage (or bound together) and self bondage. There is also my personal favorite, shibari, which is type of Japanese rope bondage with intricate crisscrossing rope patterns tied around the body. The ropes and knots apply pressure to the breasts and genitals, aided with the keyword genital ropes and sometimes breast bondage. There can also be shibari under clothes and shibari over clothes. Clothes that can be worn as part of a bondage outfit are generally very revealing and things like latex or leather lingerie.

As already mentioned, BDSM is an abbreviation for a collection of fetishes that is short for bondage, discipline, sadism, and masochism. A large part of BDSM is dominance and submission, where one partner exerts control over the other. The controlling or dominant partner is the dominator if male and for female dominance keywords like femdom and dominatrix should be used. The major elements are sadism which is enjoyment in causing pain and masochism which is enjoyment in experiencing pain. In addition to the bondage types already discussed, there is: predicament bondage where the bound partner has some degree of movement to alleviate one problem at the expense of making another worse, forniphilia (also known as ‘human furniture’), pet play such as human dog with fake animal ears and fake tail. Key elements of sadism and masochism largely involve punishment and humiliation. More extreme fetishes include cock and ball torture, being stepped on, crotch kick and crotch stomping. It's also common to see body writing with insults, often outdoors or with a crowd for public humiliation. Another common fetish is irrumatio, ‘face fucking’ which a rougher version of fellatio.

It is not uncommon for BDSM to be non-consensual. All content on Yodayo must be consensual! Rape, non-consensual, and implied non-consensual violate the Terms of Service and Content Policy

Common clothing includes leather or latex lingerie, crotchless panties, cupless bras, corsets and sex toys like vibrators or a sex machine

Expressions & POV Details

Just a few last things I want to touch on before I wrap things up here. You have most likely noticed my use of ahegao and torogao. These are both expressions that are most often associated with lewd images or hentai. First is ahegao which is rather well known, it's the 'fucked silly' face. Characterized with rolled back or crossed eye and tongue hanging out of an open mouth and blushing. The second is the lesser known torogao which is commonly (and incorrectly) translated to 'melting face'. This is more of a trancelike expression, with lidded/half-closed eyes, parted lips, and blushing. You can add more details like blushing or saliva on tongue to enhance the effects. We have also lightly hit on the concept of POV images throughout the guide and I wanted to add a little bit to that. These are images that show the viewer as being a participant using a first person point of view. There is a wide range of positions you can use simply by adding pov. In the examples below, I decided to illustrate a both expressions and a few ways you can use the pov modifier. POV shots are quite a bit of fun to play around with, and sometimes it's a simple as just putting pov in the prompt, other times you'll need to push it a little more with something more specific like pov fingering her pussy. Change around 1boy or 1girl as needed within the prompt to fit your needs and desired outcome.

A character's expression can affect the entire look or feel of an image, and just by changing expression from a determined glare to a shy smile, or the wild abandon of ahegao you can alter the whole image. -Fayr

This is nowhere near the extent of what you can do by adding pov to a prompt, and there are a wide range of expressions outside of torogao or ahegao. The Danbooru wiki for face tags is a great source for more expressions to try out

There are some keywords we can use to depict the scene after intercourse, should you be so inclined. There are specific keywords available for each type of intercourse, depending on what just transpired. Broadly there is after sex, and to accompany that after vaginal or after anal can be used. I suggest adding cum in pussy or cum in anus as well, as this enhances the visual effect. Using just after masturbation works for handjobs, and for after fingering you can add in pussy juice on fingers. The last two main tags are after paizuri and after fellatio, both of which benefit greatly from the use of keywords from cum play. Adding items related to intercourse can help sell the image, such as used condoms, which are usually full condoms that have been tied, condom left inside to show a used condom left inside of the pussy or anus, or a used condom on penis. These keywords are all used to depict everything when it is completely over, and the characters are fully separated. If they are still emotionally and/or physically connected you can use afterglow, which can be a bit more intimate or romantic. This often goes along with characters making direct eye contact, cuddling or embracing.

POST INTERCOURSE KEYWORDS

after sex	after vaginal
after anal	after paizuri
after masturbation	after fingering
after fellatio	afterglow
cum dripping	used condoms
condom left inside	used condom on penis

Danbooru Tag Group Wiki

If you know what you want, the tag wiki is the best resources out there. -Fayr

Throughout this guide, I have referenced and linked to the Danbooru Tag Group Wiki, and now I'd like to take a moment to briefly outline how to navigate the wiki, locate keywords you may be looking for, and how to check a tag or keyword to see gauge how effective it might be based on the number of images that have been tagged with it. It can look a bit messy at first but is quite simple to navigate once you get used to it. The table of contents shows all the major tag groups (fig.1) and clicking on any of those jumps down to that section, alternatively you can just scroll through the list and see what is in each. Clicking on any of the tag groups will show you everything associated with it (fig.2). Pick out which of those stands out to you; in the example, I went with eyewear, and now we can see the sub-groups for eyewear (fig.3). Lets say I want to see the different types of eyewear, I click on that it and jump to show me that list (fig.4). From here, the rimless eyewear catches my eye. Clicking that will bring me to a new page with an explanation on what it is and examples of it (fig.5). Clicking an example image brings you to the normal Danbooru page for that image, which lists all the tags associated with the image, and how many images have been uploaded with that tag. This is just a quick example, and you'll find that other tag groups can (and will) have a lot more information in them.

I strongly encourage you use the Tag Group Wiki extensively, it's a great resource and I always have a browser tab with it open.

Researching Danbooru Tags

In addition to exploring the tag groups we can perform a search of the wiki for something or we can perform a search of Danbooru for posts. At the top right of the wiki page is the search box, it will say 'Search wiki pages' (fig.1). Typing into that box will only display tags that exist on the wiki; if you search for something that isn't a tag, it will not suggest anything. Searching the wiki isn't the only way to find keywords, and it isn't always the best way either. It's also possible to look up tags/keywords, and get suggestions when what you typed isn't a keyword.

Searching a franchise/series is similar to prompting it. Prompting is character \ (series), while searching is character_(series). -Fayr

The main Danbooru homepage has a search box in the top corner just like the Tag Group Wiki does (fig.2). Below that it display the tags on all the image on the page, with how many image have each tag (fig.2a). Pink entries are artist name. Purple entries are the name of the copyrights associated with it (the series or franchise). Green entries are character name, often with the franchise or series in parenthesis. Blue entries are individual tags, and the yellow entries are the metatags. The higher the number next to each tag, the greater the likelihood is it will be effective in a prompt. When searching for a tag with more than 1 word, you must link the words with an underscore (fig.3) otherwise it won't show the proper results.

When you search for slang terms, you will see suggestions come up for what the correct name is. Earlier in the guide, I mentioned how you should not use slang terms, and to illustrate there I did a search for blowjob (fig.4). You can see that Danbooru is trying to correct me to the proper term, fellatio. It also displays other tags that have fellatio in them. Clicking on any keyword in the left of the screen will perform a search for that tag for you. Whenever you are viewing an image, all of the tags placed on the image will be displayed (fig.5) including the artist name, character name, and the series of franchise.

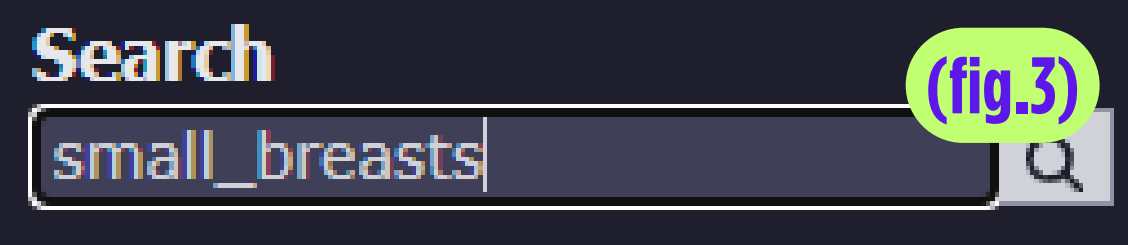

Searching character names should be done with an underscore (fig.6), then put the franchise in parenthesis. The pink entries show artist names, with any alternate names in parenthesis. The blue entry is a normal tag because it does not search for the character Akatsuki from Kancolle, but rather it looks for images where someone is cosplaying as that character.

Searching tags on Danbooru is the best way to find out exactly what the best tag is. But, models like Illustrrious are powerful and can frequently understand what you want

Special Thanks & Acknowledgements

I could not have created this guide without the aid of others, and to them I owe a debt of gratitude.

First and foremost, I am always eternally grateful to Neko; who has been by my side through so many things, and has shared in every joy and sorrow with me since we met.

I would be remiss if I did not mention J Ramsey, for acting as a proofreader and pseudo editor, and for creating the Earthbound model that I relied on maybe a bit too much

Thank you to the Yodayo team. Without whom there would be no Yodayo, and I would never have had the opportunity to enter into this amazing world of image generation. And I've been able to do so using the best platform around.

Again, I must thank my fellow Content Police who have put up with my rantings, ravings, and immature behavior for far longer than any sane person should have to be subjected to it for.

I believe the entire community owes a thank you to Stability AI, PurpleSmart AI, and Onoma AI Research for bringing to the world Stable Diffusion, Pony Diffusion V6 XL and Illustrious XL, respectively. Your efforts to create and improve upon this software by creating the most powerful tools available has empowered the rest of us to bring our dreams to life.

Thank you to the community as a whole, because without the rest of you, I would never have had any reason to set out to create these guides; it's through you all that I find the purpose to exercise my education in creative writing and put to paper (screen?) all that I have learned in an effort to share my knowledge.

I hope to continue creating more guides and tutorials on all things Stable Diffusion & Yodayo. If you enjoy my work, please consider supporting me; it would enable me to dedicate more time to research & writing, to deliver only the best.

Until next time
