BioAgros

BIOAGROS was founded in 1990 by the agronomist - organic farmer Kostas Papadopoulos and we are currently the leading Greek company in producing, manufacturing and distributing organic products.

We have more than 30 years of experience in the sector of organic products and we are constantly evolving through research and development.

We follow worldwide trends and have high quality standards in choosing raw materials. Our goal is to supply products that go along with modern lifestyle and offer substantial nutritional value.

“ Our main priority is to produce new products with excellent organoleptic characteristics, excellent nutritional value and Greek flavor. ”

OLIVES

For thousands of years, Greeks have been harvesting olives to produce olive oil, the essence of the Mediterranean diet. The methods used in the cultivation and gathering of the olives are in line with our efforts to protect, support and sustain the environment and its resources. Bioagros' olive oil, Golden BIO, is ideal for Greek salad dressings and cooking!

Throumpa Olives PDO

from selected organic olive groves in Thassos

Thassos island is known as the "Emerald Island" of Greece because of its rich vegetation, lush forests and olive groves. It is surrounded by the blue Aegean sea creating a mild, temperate climate. Throumpa Thassou is a traditional PDO Greek olive, part of the Mediterranean diet. The olive shrivels and gets bitter on the tree. Sea salt stratifies the collected olives, giving them a naturally pleasant taste. Olive producers in Thassos use old irrigating systems to water their trees, especially in the summer, while in other regions they don't water the olive trees at all.

Our
figs
come from the area of Taxiarchis in Evia
island, where the fig cultivation
has been introduced around 100 years ago by Greek refugees from Asia Minor. The Smyrna fig variety is perfectly suited to the soil
and climate of the area (coastal with mild winters and relatively cool summers),
which bring out its best characteristics.
