Letter from the Editor

Welcome to the inaugural issue of the Yorkshire Weddings Collective digital inspo book! As a 2025 Bride-to-be, this is a very exciting year for my partner and I. After the launch of the Yorkshire Brides | Weddings directory, the next logical step was to create an inspo book for other Brides & Grooms-to-be, which showcases local Yorkshire or serving suppliers. You will find inspiration within our pages from Real Weddings & Styled Shoots to bridal styles for 2025, along with some fabulous featured suppliers. I hope we can help you on your wedding planning journey. And this time next year I will be a Mrs!

BRIDAL

Styles

2025 is shaping up to be an exciting year for Bridal fashion trends

Staple gown styles will always remain popular in bridal fashion, however the following key trends look set to be on the rise across 2025; Luxe Minimalism - Elegant, understated styling with high-quality materials and design; Vintage-Inspired - Draped fabrics, metallics, ribbons, and pearls used across styles; Bow Details - Bows are still proving popular, adding a touch of femininity and charm to bridal gowns; Peplum & Bubble Hemlines - For brides who love 1980s style, these voluminous designs add a playful twist; Soft Pastel Accents - While white and ivory remain staples, soft pastel accents are becoming ever more popular.

Based in Nottinghamshire, originally from Yorkshire, James loves to capture those moments you may have missed, the candid, little, wonderful moments in time that allow you to look back on your day, smile and relive it all over again.

His approach and style are simple! He wishes to create a pure, real, honest story of your wedding day and, in the process, capture some fun creative images. His relaxed approach will capture the day's raw emotions, creating a true and captivating collection of memories to last a lifetime.

The photographer's style is creative, true to colour and fun. However, he's a big believer that booking your wedding photographer is not just about the quality of the photo. Of course, that's a massive part of it, but he also prides himself on the unparalleled customer service. He adds, "My ability to seamlessly integrate with family and guests on the day is something that does set me apart. I've always had couples tell me afterwards that everyone was impressed with how I blended in and helped with everything, from helping with hair, dress lacing up, button holes and just helping the day flow naturally. Your wedding photographer is with you most of the day, it does help if you enjoy their company too."

James offers several different packages for wedding from just ceremony coverage to full day coverage, offering free no obligation meetings to discuss your day before making the choice to book or not. James will travel all over the UK to capture weddings and abroad for destination weddings and elopements.

"Planning a wedding can be hard, choosing your suppliers is a huge deal- I like to think that my relaxed fun nature helps couples feel at ease with me and therefore brings out the best in their photos."

The day was captured by Mollie Edwards Photography, alongside content creator Maid of Memories. The colour theme of various hues of blue, matched perfectly throughout the couples day, from the classic floral decor to the bridesmaids dresses. A DAY IN THE LIFE

Of a Styled Shoot

Yorkshire Brides | Weddings were invited to participate in a beautiful styled shoot held at the newly launched wedding venue Kirkby Fleetham Hall.

Kirkby Fleetham Hall is a private country house and estate with magnificent grounds set between Catterick & Northallerton in North Yorkshire. The venue offers stunning lakeside views, a secret walled garden, charming church and rolling woodlands, offering endless possibilities for our shoot. The venue is the epitome of intimate and romantic English luxury, and the team couldn't wait to style it. The shoot was organised by Rebecca from Saint, and a talented group of suppliers came together to create a exclusive day. Our model couple Emma & Chris, a real life couple, began their styled shoot day, in the capable hands of our HMUA Rebecca - Saint. The bridalwear was provided by Joana Bridal Boutique, and Emma, our model Bride stunned in the Pezy dress designed by Rebecca Ingram. Penny Pearl Bridal Co provided the beautiful accessories to finish the overall look. Chris, our model Groom, was dressed by Antich Fine English Tailors, who provided their own "Beaumont" design dinner suit. Woven, designed, cut, made and pressed in-house, at their Huddersfield base. The rings were hand crafted by Dion Smith Jeweller at Leeds Corn Exchange, with a white gold 2.00ct tulip inset diamond engagement ring included. Whilst the models were being prepared, the styling team were out in the orangery & walled gardens creating the ceremony and wedding breakfast setups. Stems Design & K&Co Events provided the floristry, decor and linens. The theme for the shoot was monochrome luxury, and Stems provided floristry including the bridal bouquet, which was created from white roses and white calla lilies. Stems also provided the table decor including low and high table centres, vases, candles, charger plates, floristry and the ceremony backdrop. The flowers were exquisite with white roses, hydrangea and gypsophila being incorporated. Teamed with the monochrome linens provided by K&Co, the set-ups were breathtaking. Stationery for the shoot was provided by Pearl and Pen, who designed and created classy, crisp, and on-theme stationery including place cards, menus and order of service. The signage for the shoot was provided by Loved by Lucy Designs which included a bespoke handwritten welcome sign, table plan and cake menu. Set within the orangery, a 3 tier white textured cake with black ribbon, provided by the talented Helen of Miss Helens Wedding Cakes, finished the wedding breakfast setup. The cake, a monochrome dream, was made up of the following delicious flavours; lemon & blueberry; raspberry & white chocolate; vanilla & strawberry.

Our shoot began with our photographers, Stacey J Evans and Nicole Wilcox capturing the Bridal & Groom prep, whilst videographer Dan Williams Films captured footage. We were also joined by content creators The Social Wedding, and Chelsea in Love Weddings, who captured the BTS and special moments across the shoot. The Social Wedding also captured footage across the shoot, and estate via drone. The shoot was orchestrated as per a normal wedding timeline, therefore our couple went on to shoot the ceremony after the bridal prep, followed by the wedding breakfast. We also had a first dance, cake-cutting, and then went onto shoot across the grounds of the estate including the lake. Violinist Bianca Blezard provided the ceremony and wedding breakfast background music and entertainment for the shoot. We also had celebrant Nikki Billingham performing the service for our model couple. The shoot came to a close, with a swift dress change for our model Bride, and an 'end of evening' shoot held upstairs within the hall. Our Groom carried our Bride over 'the threshold' and sipped champagne together. The perfect end to a magnificent day of shooting! Overall the day was spectacular, and only made possible by the talented and creative suppliers that were involved. Photos provided by Stacey J Evans Photography & Nicole Wilcox Photography. Film provided by Dan Williams Films. Behind the scenes captured by The Social Wedding & Chelsea in Love Weddings.
