PREFACE

It is with immense gratitude to Allah (SWT) that we present the 2024 edition of the yearly magazine of the Al-Noor Welfare Foundation. This publication reflects our ongoing commitment to the transformative mission of educating, inspiring, and empowering individuals through the light of Islamic teachings and contemporary knowledge.

Al-Noor Welfare Foundation has journeyed through another year of relentless efforts, offering multi-dimensional services that integrate value-based education, character building, and community welfare. As we compile the milestones and achievements of the past year, we are reminded of the noble vision that guides us—to nurture a generation grounded in the teachings of the Quran and Sunnah, equipped to face the challenges of this world and the Hereafter.

The year 2024 has brought new opportunities and challenges, but our unwavering focus on delivering quality and excellence has strengthened us further. From intensive teacher training programs to impactful social welfare initiatives, from promoting volunteerism to encouraging the character-building of Muslim youth, our work continues to inspire and uplift communities.

This magazine captures the essence of our mission through a collection of stories, reflections, and achievements. It highlights the selfless dedication of our volunteers, the resilience of our students, and the tireless efforts of our teams who work across diverse areas, including education, welfare, and community service.

We invite every reader to reflect upon the inspiring content of this magazine and to join hands in supporting Al-Noor Welfare Foundation in its mission of education, empowerment, and service to humanity. May Allah (SWT) bless this endeavor and make it a source of ongoing benefit for all.

LETTER FROM OUR FOUNDER

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

As we mark another year of service, my heart is filled with gratitude to Allah (SWT) for His boundless mercy and guidance. Al-Noor Welfare Foundation, established in 1996, was founded with a clear and noble mission—to spread the teachings of the Quran and to empower individuals, particularly women, through the light of His divine words. This mission has shaped every aspect of our work, from providing education to engaging in welfare programs that reflect the values of the Quran.

As we reflect on our journey from 1996 to 2024, I am humbled by the dedication of our staff, volunteers, and supporters, who share in this important work. Together, we have touched countless lives and inspired others to embrace the Quran's teachings.

I invite each of you to continue walking with us in this mission to spread the Quran and its values. May Allah (SWT) guide us, protect us, and grant us the strength to continue our efforts, inspiring generations to come with His divine light.

Along with providing structured, high-quality education through its campuses, branches, and Islamic centers, Al-Noor extends its reach to remote areas through its Distance Education Programs.

These programs, including Sabeel ul Quran, 4 Days a Week, Monday to Thursday, Morning or Evening (2.5 hours each), and Sirat ul Quran, 2 Days a Week, Morning or Evening (2.5 hours each), are designed to make Islamic education accessible to individuals living in distant regions of Pakistan.

The programs offer a flexible learning structure, allowing students to engage with Quranic teachings in time of their convenience while maintaining Al-Noor's high educational standards. Through these, Al-Noor offers in-depth Quranic understanding, focusing on translation and Tafseer based on Quranan Ajaba, providing learners with profound insights and spiritual enrichment.

Multan Workshop

The Multan Workshop, held on November 12th and 13th, 2024, was a momentous event chaired by Ustazah Nighat Hashmi. The highlight of the workshop was the oath-taking ceremony, during which Ustazah Nighat emphasized the significance of responsibilities as sacred trusts rather than mere titles. The participants were reminded of the weight of accountability and the importance of fulfilling their roles with sincerity and dedication.

Addressing the gathering, Ustazah Nighat underscored that responsibilities entrusted to individuals should not be taken lightly. She reminded participants that they must uphold honesty and faithfulness in carrying out their duties, keeping Allah (SWT) as their witness. The ceremony was not just a formal pledge but a spiritual exercise to reconnect.

INTERVIEW WITH ADNAN FAISAL

FHM PAKISTAN

Character building, as emphasized in the Quran and Sunnah, is the foundation of a strong society. Our actions, manners, and interactions with others reflect the values we uphold. It is essential for us to embody patience, integrity, and justice in every aspect of our lives, becoming true representatives of our faith.

Empowerment in Islam is unique — it is not tied to superficial labels but rooted in fulfilling our purpose as servants of Allah (SWT). Through education, spiritual growth, and service to humanity, we can achieve true success in this world and the hereafter.

I encourage every woman here to embrace the power of dua, turn to the Quran for guidance, and serve as a beacon of light for others. May Allah (SWT) strengthen our resolve to live by these principles and make us a means of spreading His message to the world.

A Spiritual Journey across the Kingdom of Saudia Arabia

By Ustazah Nighat Hashmi | November 28 – December 18, 2024

In November 2024, Ustazah Nighat Hashmi embarked on a transformative tour of Saudi Arabia, delivering a series of inspiring lectures, workshops, and meetups across the country. The tour was marked by deep engagement with the community, focusing on Islamic teachings, parenting, and spiritual connection.

The journey began with the sacred ritual of Umrah, performed alongside the Al-Noor team, setting a spiritual tone for the impactful events that followed. Over nine days, Ustazah visited multiple cities and connected with hundreds of participants, spreading knowledge and reflection through her meaningful sessions.

Audience Testimonials

"The tribute to mothers in Jeddah was incredibly moving. It made me feel seen, valued, and inspired to fulfill my role with more dedication."

— Zainab Noor, Jeddah

"The spiritual session in Tabuk was life-changing. Ustazah's emphasis on centering our lives around Allah brought clarity to so many of my personal struggles."

— Sarah Ibrahim, Tabuk

"I attended the session on 'Tabiyat e Aulad' in Abha, and it completely shifted how I view child-rearing. It was a perfect blend of love, discipline, and faith-centered guidance."

— Amna Khalid, Abha

This tour exemplified Ustazah Nighat Hashmi's unwavering dedication to spreading Islamic knowledge and inspiring personal and societal growth. Each session was thoughtfully crafted to provide attendees with practical insights and spiritual guidance, empowering them in their roles as parents, educators, and believers.
