Congratulations to JCAM from
Michelle Wu, Mayor of Boston

“These historic sites serve as a reminder of the Jewish immigrants that laid down the foundation for our Jewish communities today. I am grateful for the important work that JCAM has done for the Jewish communities in our City for over 40 years, and the impact that they will continue to make for future generations.”

40TH ANNIVERSARY

PRESERVATION | RESTORATION | CONTINUITY

Dear Friends,

When looking ahead to JCAM's future, we first need to look back over these past 40 years since our establishment in 1984. We can't help but reflect on the incredible, successful journey that has brought us to where we are today. We look back to our humble beginnings when we started with 17 Jewish cemeteries, some of which were abandoned, to building and establishing new cemeteries to support the expansion of the Massachusetts Jewish community.

JCAM has become a pivotal organization which owns and operates 120 Jewish cemeteries. Our mission has withstood the test of time. It is our sacred duty to make certain that the eternal resting places within our community receive the care they deserve and to ensure that JCAM remains the leader in cemetery management.

At this point, JCAM urgently needs state-of-the-art cemetery management software. This will allow us to streamline operations and preserve extremely deteriorated archival records. Cutting edge software will improve our ability to meet the evolving needs of the community and ensure that records and maps from over 100 years ago are preserved in perpetuity.

Due to generous philanthropy, restoring historic cemeteries remains central to our mission. Our caretakers and field operations team work tirelessly to maintain our properties. We undertake restoration projects that include chapel renovations, fencing repairs, replacement of retaining walls and beautification efforts that could not be fulfilled without your support and generosity. Our commitment to creating and maintaining beautiful resting places for generations is stronger than ever due to our dedicated team of professionals and a steadfast community. For the past 40 years, you have graciously supported the mission of the Jewish Cemetery Association of Massachusetts as the organization of Chesed Shel Emet.

We remain committed to ensuring that our communal initiatives will continue to grow and serve those in need through our Helping Hand Fund. Our security initiative is another major priority for our cemeteries to remain safe places for our visitors and those resting peacefully.

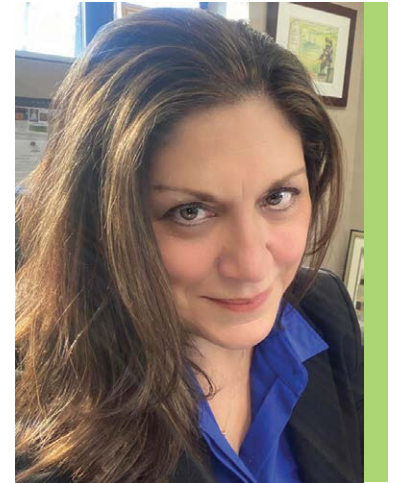

As we prepare for the future needs of the Massachusetts Jewish community, we have developed interfaith sections within some of our existing cemeteries and recognize the importance of providing for the diverse needs of the families in our community.

With this 40th annual report, we celebrate our achievements and also acknowledge that there is a great deal to be accomplished. Your ongoing generosity over the years has been instrumental to our success and we express our heartfelt gratitude for your continued support of JCAM's mission.

Together we will continue to honor the past, embrace the present and build a future that reflects the strength and unity of our vibrant community.

We are deeply grateful for your support.

JCAM's Newest Cemetery Merger

The Agudath Israel Cemetery is located within the Baker Street Jewish Cemetery complex in West Roxbury. It is the most recent cemetery that has been brought into the JCAM family.

Last year, the former cemetery manager came to the JCAM office with the burial records and other important documents pertaining to the 80+ year old cemetery. The gentleman, whose family is resting at this cemetery, said he could no longer manage taking care of the property and handed the documents and records to JCAM's Executive Director with a plea to take the cemetery.

JCAM has merged the cemetery records into its database and has begun the process of the preservation and restoration of this cemetery property.

Standing Strong Against Antisemitism through Enhanced Security

Antisemitism is on the rise in the United States and worldwide at an alarming rate. In fact, Jewish cemeteries are extremely vulnerable places for hate crimes to occur. Thankfully, there have been minimal reports of incidents at any of our 120 Jewish cemeteries this past year. We believe it is not just happenstance, but rather through the heightened security measures we have taken at some of our most vulnerable cemeteries.

A PROACTIVE STAND FOR SECURITY

JCAM cemeteries are typically clustered in urban areas. This does not make them less vulnerable than those situated in secluded areas. According to Jeremy Yamin, Vice President, Security & Operations for Combined Jewish Philanthropies, there is a link between vandalism and escalating crimes committed at Jewish cemeteries when there is no security in place.

As a non-profit organization, implementing comprehensive security systems requires funding beyond our means, necessitating support from grants and our generous supporters. JCAM's Executive Director, Jamie Cotel, believes that "taking a proactive stand, in light of the need for improved security on JCAM cemeteries, is vital to ensuring our cemeteries are safe spaces for the community and not easy targets for hate crimes." Recognizing the need for improved security, we are committed to creating safe spaces and discouraging any attempts to target our cemeteries.

YOUR SUPPORT MATTERS

JCAM also recognizes the crucial role our community plays in bolstering these security initiatives. We continue to seek support through the generosity of our community to fortify our efforts and maintain the safety of our cemeteries. Together, we stand united in protecting our heritage and ensuring that our cemeteries remain places of solace and remembrance. Your support is invaluable to this ongoing endeavor.

COMMUNITY COLLABORATION AND GRANTS

JCAM actively collaborates with nonprofits and government entities. Our past collaborations include receiving grants through the Massachusetts Nonprofit Security Grant Program (NSGP). These grants have allowed us to enhance security at our cemeteries in Melrose and at our Grove Street, West Roxbury cemeteries through the installation of high-tech security cameras, improved police presence, alarm systems, and more efficient security gates. JCAM collaborates with CJP's Communal Security Initiative (CSI) that provides professional security advice and support. JCAM also depends on the community to help bolster this crucial initiative in keeping our cemeteries secure.

The Preservation of Sacred Spaces

This year, JCAM undertook critical work to ensure the safety and preservation of our sacred spaces. We are pleased to report significant achievements in infrastructure reconstruction, historic preservation, and enhanced security measures. We are proud to share the remarkable accomplishments of the past year, reflecting our commitment to preserve historic Jewish cemeteries. We are grateful to the City of Boston, the Massachusetts Historical Commission, and CJP's Community Security Initiative for their pivotal support.

HIGHLIGHT

OHABEI SHALOM CEMETERY, EAST BOSTON

The large retaining wall at the back of Ohabei Shalom Cemetery has been successfully reconstructed, preventing a potential collapse. JCAM removed 84 feet of the compromised wall, installed new capping, repaired the entire retaining wall and installed drainage. An additional 42 feet of new granite stone was purchased to match the remainder of the wall. This critical project was made possible through a generous grant from the City of Boston's Community Preservation Act.

Ohabei Shalom Retaining Wall – JCAM was able to restore this wall through a grant from the City of Boston Community Preservation Act.

HISTORIC CEMETERY CHAPEL REHABILITATION

The first phase of the interior restoration of the Ohabei Shalom Cemetery chapel is now complete, due to a generous matching grant from the Massachusetts Historical Commission. This initiative ensures the preservation of our rich historical presence in East Boston.

The Ohabei Shalom Cemetery & Chapel – East Boston. Built in 1903, the Chapel sits at the entrance to the first Jewish cemetery in Massachusetts, est. 1844. It is the oldest surviving Jewish mortuary chapel in Massachusetts.

JCAM's Ongoing Quest for Improved Technology

With a vision toward the future, JCAM is continuously seeking to improve its methods of cemetery management, record-keeping, mapping and technology. We have explored the implementation of state-of-the-art cemetery management software that will allow us to bring archival cemetery records and deteriorating documents into a streamlined system.

With appropriate funding, our goal is to find ways to enhance our records management process. Moving to a more efficient, improved database system which will include an end-to-end cemetery management process, this will ensure the continuity of maintaining cemetery records from initial inquiry by a family through burial and maintenance.

A new management system will feature easily searchable records with photos of each headstone, thereby improving accuracy. Likewise, an enhanced system that provides high resolution imagery via drone technology for creating digital maps that will “walk” visitors directly to a gravesite is something to anticipate!

Internally, JCAM is in the process of implementing state-of-the-art cemetery management software, including digital mapping technology.

These new tools will allow JCAM to efficiently upload the burial records of all of our cemeteries into a new state-of-the-art database. As more independent cemeteries seek to merge with JCAM, we will continue to adopt new technologies to enhance our services to the Massachusetts Jewish community.

JCAM's Helping Hand Fund

JCAM's Helping Hand Fund is a priority initiative that was established in 2018. The fund was created to assist families and individuals in need by donating graves free of charge and, in some cases, interring individuals at a discount to families who qualify.

By working closely with clergy, funeral homes, cemetery caretakers and monument dealers, JCAM provides the respect and dignity that every individual deserves. JCAM is the only Jewish cemetery association that provides this level of community service to those in need.

For this important program to continue helping those most vulnerable in our community, we ask for your help in partnering with us by making a generous donation to JCAM's Helping Hand Fund.

To learn more about JCAM's Helping Hand Fund, please visit jcam.org/helping-hand-assistance/

JCAM's Helping Hand Fund tries to help as many individuals and families as we can each year. However, funds are limited. With increased donor participation, more funds would be readily available to help those truly in need.

Burial Options for Interfaith Families

The Jewish Cemetery Association of Massachusetts has been at the forefront of the effort to ensure that interfaith families can be buried together in a Jewish cemetery.

To reflect the diversity of the Massachusetts Jewish community and its needs, JCAM has sections in several of its cemeteries that allow for interfaith burials. These interfaith sections are integral parts of the cemeteries in which they are located.

LINDWOOD MEMORIAL PARK

Randolph MA

Lindwood Memorial Park was founded in 1956 to serve the needs of the growing Jewish Community south of Boston. The sprawling 16-acre cemetery with over 10,000 gravesites, was designed as a garden-style park by the nationally known landscape architecture firm of Isaacs, Sasaki and Novak.

Separated from the road by a line of trees, this tranquil cemetery offers proximity to nature, a varied layout, and a beautiful pond. Lindwood contains dense areas that are reminiscent of the historic Jewish cemeteries of greater Boston, and others deliberately designed with a more modern and open feel.

Lindwood has a large Interfaith section with over 800 available gravesites. The landscape provides a peaceful and reflective setting for visitors.

OLD HAND IN HAND CEMETERY

Centre Street, West Roxbury MA

The Centre Street Jewish Cemetery complex is in a residential neighborhood of West Roxbury, and holds small, historic cemeteries dating back to the late 19th century. Visitors can find their place among generations of Jewish Bostonians, either within view of the road or tucked away in more spacious areas closer to nature.

Interfaith burials are allowed at Centre Street in the Old Hand in Hand section of the historic Hand in Hand Society Cemetery. The property was recently renovated to enable JCAM to meet the needs of interfaith families in the West Roxbury area, including Boston, Brookline and Newton.

Old Hand in Hand offers visitors easy access and the appeal of a natural landscape on all sides. Graves extend from the public sidewalk via the recently added paved walkway and extend towards the old burial area, founded over a century ago.

BEIT OLAM EAST CEMETERY

Wayland MA

The Beit Olam East Cemetery in Wayland opened in 2010 to meet the needs of the Jewish communities in MetroWest and beyond, with 7,200 gravesites.

The cemetery's design and landscape offer a range of settings. There are sections where graves are located near walkways and benches, elevated sections that offer a panoramic view of the cemetery, and other sections where gravesites are close to the shade and privacy of established foliage. Three prayer gardens spaced throughout the cemetery provide tranquil places to congregate or reflect.

Sections within the cemetery are marked as Reform (R) or Conservative (C) and Interfaith burials are permitted in all "R" sections of the cemetery. Several synagogues have reserved sections of Beit Olam East for their congregants. However, it is not necessary to be affiliated with any specific congregation or movement to reserve plots there.

Sons of Benjamin Cemetery Restoration

The story surrounding the Sons of Benjamin Cemetery is quite a sad and heart wrenching account of what happens to a cemetery that becomes neglected and abandoned for decades.

JCAM only recently discovered there are many children buried within the cemetery who died during the 1920 influenza pandemic. These children as well as adults became the “forgotten ones.” Through decades of abandonment, this small section of the cemetery virtually disappeared beneath the overgrowth of trees and wooded areas. Beneath one of the large trees, an animal habitat was discovered.

Burials in the cemetery date from the 1800s through the 1930s. Sons of Benjamin was a fraternal organization, founded in 1877 in New York City. There were several lodges established in the Boston area. The cemetery land on Grove Street, West Roxbury, was purchased in 1883. Portions of the original land were then sold to other organizations.

In 2019, acting on a hunch that there could be graves in this overgrown section of the forest, a careful and rigorous restoration process was put into action by JCAM's executive director. The entire area was excavated by hand and several small monuments of children were discovered.

JCAM's restoration work involved removing several trees and overgrowth that had accumulated at this cemetery over more than one hundred years. JCAM painstakingly cleared the land and uncovered numerous broken and scattered monuments. Through the incredible work of two monument restoration companies, JCAM successfully brought back the memory of the children buried there. After piecing together the many broken fragments of the monuments, they were cleaned and placed on new foundations for all to witness the names of those who once lived. A beautiful new wall was recently installed behind this section of the cemetery, and this once abandoned and unknown children's section of Sons of Benjamin Cemetery has been transformed into a beautiful place of reflection and historic significance.

JCAM plans to rededicate the Sons of Benjamin Cemetery at a community event in the near future. Since we now have the names of all those who rest in the cemetery, a monument listing those names will be erected in their memory.

JCAM's Annual Book Burial

JCAM's annual book burial is an ongoing program that allows the community to drop off sacred items that are worn or no longer usable, such as Torah scrolls and prayer books. We collect these items throughout the year from individuals, synagogues and schools. The items are stored in our community Genizah (depository) located at the Pride of Jacob Cemetery Chapel in West Roxbury until there are enough items to warrant a book burial. JCAM invites the community each year to witness this interesting event.

JCAM's annual book burial is an ongoing program that allows the community to drop off sacred items that are worn or no longer usable, such as Torah scrolls and prayer books.

JCAM's Annual Book Burial – Thousands of worn and unusable sacred items are buried each year at the West Roxbury Centre Street Cemeteries. Caretakers unload trucks full of sacred materials to be buried and others come to place their items in the large grave.

An important aspect of this program is not just collecting and burying these sacred items, but also repurposing them, if possible. Many items have found new homes across the county and across the world to Jewish communities that are in need of sacred materials.

The program is JCAM's way of giving back to the larger community. Please visit our website at jcam.org/genizah to learn more about this program.

“Celebrating Our Diversity Together” with the East Boston Community

On a crisp Sunday afternoon in November, JCAM was delighted to host a lively, multicultural neighborhood block party in celebration of East Boston’s diverse community. The event was held outside the historic Ohabei Shalom Cemetery & Chapel located on Wordsworth Street.

The purpose of this event was for Boston’s Jewish community to return to its roots and to partner with the various cultural groups in East Boston in celebration together!

(Right) State Representative Adrian Madaro and State Senator and Majority Leader Cynthia Creem.

A prominent list of community leaders were invited to the event, including the Honorable Mayor Michelle Wu, State Representative Adrian Madaro, State Senator and Majority Leader Cynthia Creem, District 1 City Councilor Gabriela Colleta and Temple Ohabei Shalom's Rabbi Audrey Marcus Berkman. JCAM was proud to present the JCAM Cultural Award to the Honorable Mayor Michelle Wu for her support of the entire East Boston community and to the people of the City of Boston.

The well attended event was made possible through a generous grant from the East Boston Foundation. Entertainment was provided by local break-dancers as well as a DJ. A food truck vendor and face painter were present for the community to enjoy and a Kosher lunch was provided.

At the turn of the 19th century, East Boston once had a thriving Jewish community. The purpose of this event was for Boston's Jewish community to return to its roots and to partner with the various cultural groups in East Boston in celebration together! A guided tour of the historic cemetery and its chapel was offered to visitors to learn about the Boston Jewish community, past and present.

The Ohabei Shalom Cemetery in East Boston is a historic landmark. It is the first Jewish cemetery established in Massachusetts (1844) and the cemetery and chapel are both listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
