Weekly Prayer for Bible Translation

*Everyone has the right to experience an encounter with God,
to grow in the truth of God's Word
through a language that is understandable, that is close to the heart.*

And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Luke 4:8

JANGKANG

West Kalimantan

The Jangkang Dayak people group is a Dayak ethnic group in West Kalimantan, which is part of the Bidayuh family. The population of the Jangkang people group is around 45,000 (joshuaproject.net). They inhabit all the villages in the Jangkang sub-district, which is part of the Bonti and Mukok sub-districts in the Sanggau Regency.

The Jangkang Dayak people are divided into 11 sub-groups. The majority of the Jangkang community are Catholics. They also maintain their customs well, and the Jangkang District Dayak Council has modified the traditional law to be used for resolving daily moral and criminal cases.

The gawai (harvest festival) is typically celebrated by making tuak (a type of liquor) and getting drunk together. Additionally, there are several myths believed by the Jangkang people, such as that if someone dies, the community should not work in the fields on the first and fourth days, as it will result in the fields not being productive.

Because of this, in the language survey (Taste of Translation) in 2021, the Jangkang community and church expressed their need for a translation of the Bible in their language. The presence of God's word in their language is hoped to be useful for church services and to help the Jangkang people understand God's word more clearly and accurately.
