

The Secret Garden of San

From Atiny to San

San's story

Once upon a time, there was a girl who saw a guy in her dream.
One day she went to a bakery and saw that the guy in her dream was there too.
He was her first love. This couple had two children.
The children's father named the big sister Haneul which means sky, and the little brother San which means mountain, there was no mountain that was higher than the sky so her name was Haneul.
His name was San because his father wanted him to be a comforting hill for others, they grew up: one of them became a pretty woman and the other one became a handsome man

* * *

But let's go back to December 11, 1998, to the start of everything, to the start of the adventure of today's ATEEZ's Choi San.
That day was a very cold Saturday, something very pleasant happened to San's mom: she found out she was carrying a baby.
A baby like a tiger in a year of tiger. Enough time has passed, it was Saturday, July 10, 1999.
10:08 am, the 27th day of the 5th lunar month. The location was Namhae, South Korea.
This little baby named San has opened his eyes to the world for the first time. San was born a month and 6 days earlier, he was such a small baby with a weight of 2,4 kg.

He had no choice but to go into the incubator, but he was such a strong and healthy baby. He made it home on July 17. San's mom describes baby San as "he has big eyes, double eyelids, sharp nose, distinct lips,
I think he's more handsome than Haneul". Like every baby, San had some accidents while growing up such as falling off from the chair, cutting his fingers with a kitchen knife etc. When he was 2 years old, despite all this, the little strong boy was doing okay at the end of the day and was growing up healthy.

In 2006 when he was 8 years old, he participated in the 4th National Half Marathon held on march 5 to commemorate the opening of Changseon with his parents, grandparents and sister. San spent so much time with his grandparents while growing up and always mentions his love and respect for them.
He treasures his grandparents so much. San always mentions that he was raised receiving so much love and that's why he is so good at sharing his love for others. San's father works as director at "Korean Sports Association for Disabled", and since his father likes sports he started training San to learn various things since he was a kid such as taekwondo and boxing.

Besides San's sport lover, athletic side, there was also a San who loves music. San learned how to play guitar and piano when he was a kid, and when he was 12 years old, he participated in a singing competition named "4th Namhae Lifestyle Sports Festival" and he did such a good job.
It was his dream to become a singer.

He even mentioned it in his 6th grade yearbook, he said "from now on i'll work hard to become a singer on a big stage. I'll practice dancing, singing a nd stage manners."
He joined a band and even joined a church choir because his hyungs needed a vocalist to help them and they invited him

One day when San was a middle school student, he went to his father to tell him that the private academy fees were a waste, he didn't want to go there. His father felt very surprised and told him to do whatever his heart pounding and San said he wants to become a singer before it's too late, he wants to learn it properly in Seoul, so San's father used all his personal connections and got him vocal lessons in Seoul. San was alone by himself and he was having a hard time because of the loneliness he felt.

So Lee Jiyoung and his family lend their house in Seoul to San and they took care of San like he is their real son. San saw the Korean Arts High School audition notice and attended the audition while he was in the first year of high school in Namhae High School, he got accepted to Korean Arts High School. He transferred during the second semester of the first year, since then san's mother started to stay with his son for 4 days in a week for 2 years and 6 months to look after him.

After a while, San joined to audition in KQ Entertainment in a suit his mom dressed him in. San was selected as a trainee at KQ Entertainment.
After training for 2 years and 3 months San debuted with his 7 brothers, and now we meet ATEEZ San, the man who is loved by the whole world.
