

58TH TEN OUTSTANDING STUDENTS OF THE PHILIPPINES

To our Top 30 National Finalists and Honorees,

Congratulations on your achievement!

It has been 64 years since my father, the late Jose Concepcion Jr., started this search for the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines. You, today, are a continuing affirmation of the unshakeable faith in the Filipino youth that he and other great Filipinos before him have held close to their hearts.

These coming years will be filled with opportunities for our country. As the ASEAN region stands to become one of the world's leading economies, you, the finest examples of the excellence of the new generation of Filipino leaders, thinkers, and professionals, will be at the forefront of this shining new era. You will be the epitome of what great Filipinos before us have always believed: that, yes, the Filipino can, and the Filipino can do it with an abiding commitment to service to the country and excellence in his chosen pursuit. Yes, the Filipino can rise above challenges and fulfill his potential, whether as a community leader, professional, or nation-builder.

I look proudly at this year's honorees. You reinforce my commitment to mentorship and to supporting, empowering, and motivating young minds. Let this achievement inspire you to pay it forward and become, as part of this elite group for the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines, mentors to other young minds.

I look forward to seeing all of you accomplish many great things. I only ask that you use the opportunities set before you to help build our nation and better the lives of our fellow Filipinos, and continue to uphold the values of integrity, patriotism, and serving for the highest good.

Congratulations, and thank you!

TOSP FOUNDATION

In the year 2025, we celebrate the 58th batch (Batch 2019) of the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines (TOSP) National Finalists. This remarkable group waited six years to reach the final stage of their journey, and we know that each finalist carries a unique story of inspiring excellence, servant leadership, and a commitment to a culture of change.

This year, we do not honor just ten, but all thirty TOSP national finalists being recognized as “TOSP Honorees”. This recognition coincides with the first death anniversary of my father, Jose “Joecon” S. Concepcion, Jr.—the founder of TOSP—who dedicated his life to the nation, the Philippines. My father’s impact on both the country and its youth remains deeply significant. As we carry forward his legacy into our communities, we hold onto the hope that the Philippines will continue to progress. These 30 honorees stand as living proof and role models to their peers that YES, the Filipino youth can.

To the 30 TOSP Honorees, I sincerely hope the path you have chosen is one guided by a deep love for country and community. It is only with such love that, despite all challenges, one can remain faithful to the task of building—and rebuilding—our nation into the great promise it is meant to be. Continue to serve your cause and your generation, for it is in service that we find the deepest meaning of our existence.

To the parents of our national finalists, Congratulations on nurturing and molding our country’s changemakers. Through your example of leadership, you have instilled in them the belief that the home is where the story of nation-building begins.

To the school administrators, you have embodied the nobility of your profession as enablers of our country’s vision and hope. Continue to inspire and shape young minds.

We look forward to the achievements of these 30 TOSP honorees as they continue to serve Para Sa Bayan.

Keep the faith and passion alive!

MARIE CONCEPCION-YOUNG
President, TOSP Foundation, Inc.

Today, as we celebrate the 58th Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines (TOSP), we also honor the enduring legacy of our founder, Jose S. Concepcion Jr., a year after his passing. May we carry forward his unbreakable faith in the Filipino people—continuing to learn, lead, and serve for life while lighting candles of hope wherever we go.

To Batch 2019, you hold the distinct privilege of being the Legacy Batch, your recognition as TOSP honorees coinciding with the first anniversary of our founding father's passing. We extend our deepest gratitude to your parents, families, schools, and communities, who have walked this journey alongside you. Our heartfelt appreciation also goes to the TOSP Foundation, RFM Group of Companies, the Commission on Higher Education, and all our partners and sponsors, whose generosity and unwavering support make the TOSP Awards Program possible. Truly, it takes a village—and a caring community—to raise a TOSPian.

Thank you, Batch ALL[a]y, for your inspiration. We dedicate these words to you:

Today, we are called—

All, sana all, everyone, everywhere—to offer ourselves, to “alay” our minds, hearts, and service to our beloved Philippines.

We wholeheartedly dedicate ourselves to the sacred duty of nation-building, daring to dream of a nation reborn with resilience. We reimagine traditions, push boundaries, and innovate—all while remaining mindful that we can “allay” the darkness and ease the heavy burdens of hopelessness weighing upon our people. We stand as allies—kindred spirits committed to the painstaking yet joyful work of shaping a better nation.

Mapusok. Malasakit. Mapagmahal.

Remember, you are never alone. We, your Ates and Kuyas, are your steadfast allies—bound together by the same impossible dream and unyielding love for our country.

As Jose S. Concepcion Jr. so powerfully believed:

“Yes, the Filipino Can.”

With hearts full of hope, we welcome you into The Outstanding Students of the Philippines Alumni Community as we celebrate 25 years of solidarity.

Together, we proudly proclaim:

“Yes, the Filipino Will.”

PAMELA GRACIA CONCEPCION ASIS-LAYUGAN

National Chairperson and Co-Founder

The Outstanding Students of the Philippines – Alumni Community

Mr. Jose Ma. Concepcion III, President of RFM Corporation and a dear friend; esteemed members of the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines (TOSP) Foundation and Alumni Community; our partners from the Commission on Higher Education; the faculty and families of our honorees; distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen, and most especially to the 30 outstanding student-leaders we honor today—thank you for your invitation. It is both a privilege and a personal joy to be with you.

Being here at the Joecon Hall, named after the great Jose Concepcion Jr.—founder of TOSP, a pillar of Philippine industry, and a former Secretary of Trade and Industry—carries a deep sense of meaning for me.

Long before I was given the honor of leading the Department of Trade and Industry, I had the privilege of working with Joey Concepcion III through our shared advocacies in MSME development. Joey's passion for inclusive entrepreneurship is something I deeply admire. But beyond the professional, it is the personal connection I treasure most—Joey has been a mentor, a partner, and above all, a friend.

The TOSP Award, conceived by his father, is not just a recognition of academic achievement. It is a call to leadership, to action, and to service. And today, that legacy lives on—not only in Joey's own work with GoNegosyo, but in each of you who dare to lead with purpose, integrity, and heart.

To our awardees: you are the continuation of this legacy. You are the embodiment of what the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines stands for—youth who have embraced leadership as service, and excellence as responsibility.

In government, we talk a lot about competitiveness, innovation, and resilience. But in truth, these big words all boil down to people. It is people like you—young, driven, committed—who will define and shape the future of our nation.

As DTI Secretary, I see firsthand the power of individual initiative to change lives and build communities. Whether it's a student advocating for education in a far-flung province, a youth leader pushing for mental health awareness, or a campus journalist exposing the truth—you each remind us that leadership is not about position; it is about purpose.

We at the DTI stand with you on this mission. Through our programs—from Kapatid Mentor Me to the Creative Industries Development Act, from youth entrepreneurship initiatives to our digital transformation strategy—we are building a future where your talent, ideas, and leadership can thrive and succeed.

My heartfelt gratitude goes out to the families and mentors of the awardees, for raising and guiding leaders who choose service over self. To the schools represented here, thank you for shaping a generation that will uplift our country. And to the TOSP Foundation—for nurturing a community that stands not just for honor, but for hope.

Under President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr.'s Bagong Pilipinas agenda, our goal is to foster an innovative mindset among students and equip them with the skillsets needed by Philippine industries.

Let us continue to believe in the power of the Filipino youth. Let us continue working hand-in-hand, with a whole-of-nation approach, to ensure a future-ready Bagong Pilipinas, where service is extolled, integrity is commended, and the dreams of the next generation are supported by all.

Congratulations once again to our 58th batch of Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines.

HON. MARIA CRISTINA ALDEGUER-ROQUE

Secretary

Department of Trade and Industry

Greetings from the Department of Education (DepEd)

Thank you very for the kind invitation to serve as guest speaker at the 58th Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines (TOSP) event on April 27, 2025, at the Joecon Hall in Mandaluyong City.

It would have been a distinct honor to address such an inspiring assembly of young leaders - individuals whose achievements reflect not only personal excellence but the immense promise of our nation's future. Regrettably, due to prior commitments, I will be unable to join you on this meaningful occasion.

Nonetheless, allow me to extend my heartfelt congratulation to this year's awardees. Your dedication, character, and sense of purpose are what the country needs most. You are living proof that leadership anchored in service, integrity, and compassion can truly move society forward.

To the mentors, families, and institutions that have walked alongside these remarkable young Filipinos - thank you for nurturing their growth and guiding them to this well-deserved recognition.

May this moment of celebration inspire you all to continue creating impact - locally and globally - with even greater courage and conviction

FROM PEPE TO JOECON

LEGACY OF EXCELLENCE

TOSP is a continuing vision of two Jose's born in different generations under different circumstances.

The first Jose paved the way for nation building through independence when he did all he could for his countrymen – from publishing provocative novels and poems whose writings stir nationalism and awaken consciousness to the occurrences during the Spanish regime to physically serving those who were in need. He died by firing squad, not for naught. That was the heroic life of Dr. Jose P. Rizal, a hero whose nationalism was instilled by a household who called him Pepe.

Sixty-five years later, a visionary man who was aware of Pepe's unwavering conviction on youth as the fair hope of motherland, commenced a Pepe-inspired awards-program to honor tertiary students who are exemplars and leaders in their own academic fields and in their contributions to society in the hope of inspiring others. He did while he was still publishing Student Life magazine. That was the optimistic life of Jose Concepcion, Jr., a modern-day hero whose idealism was fueled by and for the youth who have learned much from his example as Joecon.

On the 100th birthday of Pepe, 1961, the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines (TOSP) was aptly established.

With Pepe as the embodiment of a model student who not only achieved excellent academic citations, but also gave himself to those in need, TOSP continued to advocate the potential role of the youth in nation building annually until Martial Law was declared in 1972.

Recognizing the need for TOSP message to reverberate from Batanes to Tawi-Tawi, TOSP expanded the program to the grassroots' level. In 1994, it launched its pilot regional searches as prelude to the national-level awards in Cordillera Administrative Region (CAR) for Northern Luzon, Region VII for Visayas, Region XI for Mindanao. In the succeeding years, TOSP Regionalization was further expanded to include Regions II, III, IV-A, V, VI, XII, and National Capital Region (NCR).

Every year, the Filipino youth is celebrated, affirmed, and inspired as TOSP honors and challenges them to be lifelong exemplary models of academic and professional excellence, servant leadership, selfless community service, and positive social involvement...

But that was not the end of the road for TOSP. After its hiatus, in 1989, it was re-launched. From then on, it has continued to celebrate, affirm, and champion the noble and enduring spirit of the Filipino youth who serve as role model of academic excellence, exemplary leadership, and socio-civic consciousness anchored on good moral values.

While the testimonies of older alumni continue to inspire hope and idealism, alumni from younger batches strive to carve their niche in their respective sphere of influence creating ripples of change that may someday turn into great waves of positive change and enlightenment.

PEPE'S EXAMPLES LIVE ON

There are more regional and national finalists and awardees all over the globe who have done much for their fellowmen. From contributing to breakthrough researches in various fields and conducting capacity-building workshops involving different nations to helping students learn their lessons and deal with life's challenges, the TOSP alumni have done it all for the purpose of living and spreading the TOSP credo – learning, leading, and serving for life.

Every year, the Filipino youth is celebrated, affirmed, and inspired as TOSP honors and challenges them to be lifelong exemplary models of academic and professional excellence, servant leadership, selfless community service, and positive social involvement in furtherance of its commitment to galvanize peers and co-conspirators in nation building.

Indeed, the shining example of Pepe inspired Joecon to leave youth legacy called TOSP.

Joecon's vision of recognizing young role models became a continuing commitment of RFM Foundation, now the TOSP Foundation, the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), and the National Book Store in cooperation with The Outstanding Students of the Philippines Alumni Community (TOSP-AC), and the Philippine Long Distance Company – the people and institutions.

Over the years, the TOSP has evolved from an awards program to a youth movement in which believes in the capacity of the youth, nurtures idealism, and galvanizes them into action.

Indeed, from 1961 to the present year, TOSP has become a laboratory of leaders, producing outstanding contributors in the fields of governance, business, the academe, church, and civil society. Among them are Cecile Guidote - Alvarez, Dr. Patricia Licuanan, Evelyn Mandac, Bishop Antonio Ledesma, SJ, Atty. Rene Saguisag, late Senator Raul Roco, Sonia Malasarte-Roco, Victoria Pineda-Garchitorena, Ricardo V. Puno, Soledad Aquino-Hernando, Ramon del Rosario, Paco Sandejas, Fr. Manoling Francisso among others. Each was an outstanding college graduate who turned themselves into modern day Filipino heroes.

BATCH 2018

R E S P O N S E

On the 29th of November 2018, our hearts leaped with joy as we were announced as the 30 National Finalists of the 57th Search of Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines. The news came with a huge source of inspiration. We were all excited however, circumstances led us to wait. The waiting time turned from three months to three years. When we finally met, everything that we've been through was all worth it but one thing was evident: we were only 29.

The 30th was laid to rest last May of 2021. His name, we remember with love, is Doc Noli A.Cabildo. Today, we share his story.

Being the youngest in the family and gifted in heart and mind, his family looked up to him with hope. Doc Noli treasured learning; when he finished Nursing, he then took a Master's Degree and eventually pursued Medicine.

The struggles his family faced during his days as a student were, at the very least, challenging. His parents were farmers which means that life can be hard in times of drought and storms.

Doc Noli sacrificed a lot to achieve his dreams. His sister would sometimes haste to catch the remittance centers right before they close just so that Doc Noli has some money for food. Even in times when Doc Noli had little resources for himself, he still decided to give.

The three years following our TOSP selection have taken us in different directions. We found ourselves facing difficult challenges as fledgling graduates. Now, we are slowly but surely finding our place in this world and planting our roots in solid ground. Through these crucial years, one thing remains—our commitment to serve our fellow Filipinos.

But just like everyone else, we had to face one of the ultimate foes of our time - the COVID-19 pandemic. For over two years now, the pandemic has modified our outlook and way of life, challenged our adaptability to change, and tested our resilience & morale.

The 29 of us celebrate him and the symbol of action he represents, S1LAK80, our chosen batch name. Silakbo means “surge”, representing our overflowing desire to contribute to nation-building. Doc Noli personifies S1LAK80. He surged through his dreams amidst poverty and burst forth into the marginalized by his service. As a batch we remember and we emulate him.

Doc Noli made history as the first physician in their barangay. He frequently gave free medical services and he even established a Philhealth Accredited Lying-in Clinic for the rural community he served. As a pandemic frontliner, he risked his own well-being and even contracted COVID19. In his core, he was a true bayani.

Doc Noli's story embodies the essence of TOSP - Learning, Leading, and Serving for Life. The 29 of us celebrate him and the symbol of action he represents, S1LAK80, our chosen batch name. Silakbo means “surge”, representing our overflowing desire to contribute to nation-building. Doc Noli personifies S1LAK80. He surged through his dreams amidst poverty and burst forth into the marginalized by his service. As a batch we remember and we emulate him.

Every momentous period in our history is an opportunity for learning and growth, and a chance to reimagine society towards a better new normal. The pandemic is not an exception. At this point, allow us to share some of the realizations and lessons we learned along the way.

“ Together, we can shed our “light” - a “light” that does not burn but purifies and heals. Together, we can purify what has been tainted and heal what has been hurt.

Gaya ng S1LAK80 ng damdamin, piliing paapawin at pairalin ang ating mabuting adhikain para sa bayang ating patuloy na ibigin.

First, we learned that a fragmented response to COVID-19 is ineffective. Shared responsibility is crucial, with the government at the helms. We needed to act as a collective, ensuring that every member of the community is capable of protecting themselves and their family against the virus. We are only as strong as the weakest member of our community. Thus, the collective response must always prioritize the marginalized and the vulnerable including the elderly, the poor, the sick, and the families without effective access to healthcare.

Second, we saw how public trust is a key to collective action. People need leaders to believe in. We need competent government officials who inspire people to make compassionate and informed decisions based on science. We cannot simply enforce lockdowns without giving aid lest people suffer in hunger in closed barangays.

Public trust requires accountability and effective governance. Mishandling of resources leads to hunger, sickness, and deaths of thousands of Filipinos. We need people in power who are swift, strategic, and compassionate in public service.

Finally, we saw how our institutions still have a big room for improvement as the pandemic exposed long-term structural problems in our country. Long-standing poverty, a poor health care system, and corruption magnified the effects of the pandemic. Thus, we cannot overstate how crucial the coming elections are for the future of our country.

Here is where we, the youth, come in. Filipinos aged 18 to 40 years old now comprise 52%—more than half—of all registered voters. While individual endeavors are not enough in our quest for change, collective effort has proven itself powerful for effecting societal transformation.

If we band together to elect an experienced, strategic, and most of all, compassionate public officials into office, there's no question about the positive change we'll experience in the next six years. With fake news plaguing our society, we must be relentless in guarding and advocating for truth. The truth shall shine a light to our path towards a brighter tomorrow.

The darkness cast by the pandemic has engulfed our country but behold, it's not yet too late - we still have a chance to run this course right by being the "light" our nation needs the most.

Shedding light doesn't have to start off with something grand. There's a long list of what you can do - all it takes is for you to get up, be active, and own your part.

Doc Noli once shared that he involved himself "... to community with a bottom-line of "being a service to others". At times like this when being involved is a must - being a service to others is not just the "good" thing to do - it's the "right" thing to do.

It is true, change does not come overnight. But just like what was shared during our thanksgiving mass, "it's better to light 1 candle than to curse at the darkness". This serves as a call not just to our fellow TOSPians but for all youth - now is the best time to make a difference. Choose to act, choose to serve, and choose to stand up. Do not just be a spectator. Be a specACTOR.

Gaya ng S1LAK80 ng damdamin, piliing paapawin at pairalin ang ating mabuting adhikain para sa bayang ating patuloy na ibigin.

Together, no darkness can withstand our light!

ABOUT

The Outstanding Students of the Philippines - Alumni Community

In 2001, brought about by a desire to continue to nurture leading, learning and serving for life, several awardees established The Outstanding Students of the Philippines Alumni Community (TOSP-AC). To date, the community is about 2,000-strong, with members across 10 regional chapters (CAR, 2, 3, 4A, 5, NCR, 6, 7, 10, and 12) from various fields of discipline.

The community is grounded on the pillars of TOSP: leadership, social responsibility, and academic/professional excellence, all anchored on good moral values and in pursuit of nation building. It is the alumni's humble contribution to the TOSP mission of galvanizing the country's youth into action towards socio-economic development.

NATIONAL FORMATION

The TOSP Batch 2019 underwent a 2-day formation program lead by the alumni community at Balai Taal in Tagaytay. The formation program was specially designed for this batch as they have already graduated 6 years ago.

The main theme of the formation were:

- SELF - Reflect on life moments in order to identify experiences that molded values, decisions, and personal journey.
- NATION - contextualize nation-building and the role of the youth drawn from the personal experiences of the participants.
- COMMUNITY - Committing to Service to Nation with the TOSP-AC

Highlighted during the 2-day formation is the life of Tatay Joecon who was honored as well during the Honoring Ceremony and the 25 years of the TOSP-AC.

Regional Highlights

The lifeblood of TOSP ALUMNI COMMUNITY is in the regional chapters. Through various leadership and community service projects in their respective areas, TOSP alumni live out and respond to the call of nation-building wherever they may be.

TOSP Talks was an engaging and interactive online series that served as a platform for meaningful conversations, light-hearted banter, and community building among the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines (TOSP) alumni from Region 2. Fondly described as a "chikahan" and "kulitan" session, each episode of TOSP Talks revolved around a specific theme or topic that is relevant to youth leadership, nation-building, personal development, or current social issues.

In every episode, selected TOSPians were invited as guest speakers to share their stories, insights, expertise, and experiences related to the featured theme. These conversations aimed to inspire, educate, and foster camaraderie among viewers, especially the youth and fellow TOSPians.

It is a leadership webinar for DBES SSG officers. TOSP BIKOL ALUMNI COMMUNITY

TINDOG APUAO: FINAL PHASE AND BALIK ESKWELA

Last July 9–10, 2022, the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community made their much-anticipated return to Apuao Island for the final phase of Tindog Apuao—an initiative that began in 2019 as a community development project. This visit focused on conducting an impact assessment, engaging in meaningful interviews with barangay officials, school representatives, and community members, and reflecting on the progress and challenges of the past years.

Apuao has become a meaningful part of the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community's story. It has taught lessons in service, resilience, and shared growth. As the team reflects on what has been accomplished, there is also a renewed eagerness to return, reconnect, and discover new ways to serve.

TOSPUSO

In observance of the Lenten season and in the spirit of compassion and generosity, the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines – Bikol Alumni Community (TOSP-Bikol) organized TOSPUSO, a meaningful gift-giving activity held on April 5, 2023, at Calampong Elementary School in Virac, Catanduanes.

The initiative aimed to uplift the spirits of learners and educators in the community through the distribution of school supplies, pre-loved clothing, and stuffed toys. The pupils, along with their teachers, expressed great joy and gratitude as they received the thoughtful donations. The simple yet impactful event served as a reminder of the power of kindness and the profound effect of small acts of giving, especially in communities with limited resources.

TOSPUSO was carried out in partnership with several student organizations from Ateneo de Naga University.

REACH&TEACH

With its commitment to youth development activities despite the COVID-19 pandemic, TOSP-Bikol had its Reach & Teach on February 14, 2021, at San Jose West Elementary School, Canaman, Camarines Sur. This is a community outreach activity conceptualized by Dr. Julie Lucille del Valle (TOSP Batch 2007).

Through this activity, a number of elementary pupils were given learning materials including reading booklets. These featured stories that were originally written by the students of Dr. del Valle in Ateneo de Naga University. The pupils also received hygiene kits and face masks. A brand new printer was also turned over to the school.

BUHAT VIRAC

Spearheaded by Catandunganon TOSPians Ace Tabuzo and Shaina Benavidez, the event reached out to sixty families in the community, providing them with essential food packs and hygiene kits. The distribution process was conducted with care, ensuring that each family received adequate support amid ongoing recovery from past natural disasters.

The event was made possible through the collective effort of multiple individuals and groups, most notably the TOSP-Bikol community, the TOSP Region 3 Alumni Community of Heroes (R3ACH), and the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines Alumni Community. Their coordination, logistical assistance, and heartfelt concern played a critical role in making this outreach a success.

TABANG MAYON

In response to the displacement and hardship caused by the continued eruption of Mayon Volcano, the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community launched Tabang Mayon, a multi-organization relief initiative aimed at providing immediate assistance to affected families in Albay. The call for support was made in partnership with Ateneo de Naga University's Center for Community Development (CCD).

Following weeks of mobilization and resource consolidation, Tabang Mayon successfully carried out its first relief operation on July 7, 2023, at Mauraro Community College in Guinobatan, Albay. The activity was conducted in collaboration with Ateneo de Naga University's CCD and reached a total of 539 families residing in evacuation centers. These families were provided with essential food supplies, potable water, and personal hygiene kits.

The TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community in partnership with different organizations and individuals played a key role in this mission by contributing 250 hygiene kits, each containing items such as body soap, shampoo, toothbrushes, toothpaste, bar soaps, detergent paste, face masks, and vitamin C tablets. Food packs were also distributed, offering not only sustenance but a message of care from those who stand in solidarity with the evacuees.

TINDOG BIKOLANO

In the aftermath of Typhoon Kristine, the Bicol Region was left grappling with widespread flooding, damaged homes, disrupted power lines, and the uncertainty of prolonged displacement. Entire communities stood vulnerable, many of them isolated, with limited access to food, clean water, and hygiene essentials. Amid these difficult circumstances, a wave of solidarity began to emerge—compassionate, immediate, and rooted in the enduring spirit of bayanihan.

From this ground of urgency and empathy, the Tindog Bikolano relief initiative was launched by the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community. With a call that echoed throughout the region and beyond, the initiative appealed to donors and partners to help provide critical supplies for affected families—non-perishable food items, potable water, hygiene kits, medicines, blankets, and clothing. The aim was simple yet urgent: to bring dignity, safety, and hope to those at risk.

In the spirit of Christmas, the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community launched its first wave of TOSPasko initiatives for the year in two meaningful legs, touching the lives of families and elderly women in need of warmth, dignity, and joy. Activities were held in Jose Panganiban, Camarines Norte and Villa Marillac Home for the Aged in Naga City.

This leg of TOSPasko was ably led by TOSP-Bikol Vice Chair Roe Mendoza, with the support of members Tricia Yu and Vanessa del Mundo. Their commitment to bringing care to the most vulnerable segments of society reflects the very core of the TOSP spirit—servant leadership grounded in compassion.

On its 13th year, TOSPasko reaffirmed its commitment to spreading joy and compassion during the holiday season through gift-giving and community-building efforts. Last December 29, 2022, the TOSPians of Camarines Sur, through the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community, organized outreach programs and activities in Jose Panganiban, Camarines Norte, Villa Marillac Home for the Aged in Naga City, and Brgy. San Francisco, Bombon.

The 13th year of TOSPasko stood as a testament to the enduring power of collective goodwill. By bridging generations and reaching communities in need, the program continues to foster the values of empathy, service, and unity that define the TOSP spirit. Through efforts such as these, the Alumni Community remains committed to nurturing meaningful connections and inspiring hope—one Christmas at a time.

As the season of Christmas unfolded with lights, songs, and traditions, the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community once again embodied the essence of giving through the 14th annual celebration of TOSPasko. Held across three major locations—Camarines Norte on December 16, Camarines Sur on December 26, and Naga City on December 28, 2023—this year's installment of TOSPasko was a heartfelt tribute to the enduring values of unity, generosity, and service.

More than just a series of holiday events, TOSPasko Year 14 served as a reflection of what is achievable when communities unite for a common purpose. It was a celebration not only of the season, but of the human spirit—resilient, compassionate, and ready to serve.

Teambuilding Facilitation

On July 12, 2022, the TOSP-Bikol Alumni Community was given the opportunity to facilitate the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) – Camarines Sur's first teambuilding activity since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. Held at the scenic 11th Earth Resort in Nabua, Camarines Sur, the event was designed to renew the spirit of collaboration, unity, and connection among DTI personnel who had long been navigating the demands of remote and restricted operations.

With the overarching goals of promoting teamwork, strengthening camaraderie, and establishing personal and professional linkages, the program was composed of interactive modules that encouraged both self-reflection and group participation. Approximately 45 employees and staff from various DTI branches across the province actively took part in the day's activities.

PAGBUTLAK: RISE ABOVE THE STORM

Last November 2020, the Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines – Visayan Individuals Called Together for Region Six (TOSP-Victors) vowed to help our brothers and sisters in the provinces of Cagayan and Isabela. They were overwhelmed by the flooding caused by #UlyssesPH. It was in their hearts to help them find hope in the face of a new dawn, thus giving birth to our initiative: PROJECT PAGBUTLAK, which translates to sunrise in the local Visayan dialect.

With the support of our TOSP-Victors alumni and the trust given to them by benevolent donors, Project PAGBUTLAK collected more than sixty-thousand pesos from all accounts.

The Outstanding Students of the Cordillera Administrative Region (OSCAR) Alumni Community, in partnership with JCI Baguio Sunflower, Pines City Dog Lovers (PCDL), Citizens League of Animal Welfare and Safety (CLAWS), and Cordillera Animal Protection Advocates Inc. (CAPA), gathered dog lovers and environment advocates for a meaningful morning of pack walking and plogging—all for a cause! Participants walked their fur babies from Panagbenga Park to Wright Park while picking up litter along the way, raising funds for the improvement of the Baguio City Pound, including the installation of CCTV cameras. With raffle prizes, free anti-rabies vaccinations, and hearts united for animal welfare and environmental care, the event showed true bayanihan spirit.

Lyrics: Chivas Alejo, 2002 | Music: Katherine Fernandez-Asis, 2001

Alay ko sa ating bansa
ang isang munting kandila na siyang aking pag-asa.

Mahirap man itong mabanaag, lumalaban ito kahit sa daang madilim nang huwag tuluyang lamunin.

Sagot ko, halad ko, pamowan ko, dalit nako,
daun ko, dihil ko,
dolot ko, maka-enggay ko.

Kaya alay nating kabataan, iba't iba man ang pinagmulan, malinaw ang patutunguhan.

Tayong mga mumunting mitsa handang-handang maging tanglaw nang kapwa ay makatatanaw

Sagot tayo amin, halad naton, pamowan tabi, dalit nato,
daun tamu, dihil taniyu,
dolot 'tang gabos, yatenang alay.

Ito ang alay natin sa Pilipinas,
pagmamahal sa ating puso'y walang kupas.
Siyang magbubuklod sa ating bayan
para sa pangarap na kaunlaran.

Saan mang lupalop mapadpad ang bangkang aking nilalayag, mananatiling nagliliyab
ang sulo sa ating mga puso.

Heto ang alay natin sa Pilipinas,
pagmamahal sa ating puso'y walang kupas.
Siyang magbubuklod sa ating bayan
para sa pangarap na kaunlaran

Alay ko, alay mo,
alay natin sa gabay ng Maykapal
Alay ko, alay mo...

T-O-S-P
sa lahing kayumanggi.
Alay natin... alay natin.
