Austin's Summer Camp

Each August, Austin goes to camp. It comes just before autumn when school starts.

It's fun to be at camp because of friends like Paul and Shawn.

They wake up at dawn, play on the seesaw, and eat strawberry ice cream. And they like being in Ms. Aubree's group.

Pawpaw saw how eager Austin was for camp. He taught Austin how to make "Pawpaw's Yummy Sauce" the night before the camp.

Austin got to camp at dawn. He yawned as he hauled his bags to his cabin. Then, he met his friends on the lawn.

"Let's see how far we can launch this ball!" Paul said.

Austin ran across the lawn, pausing to look up. He caught the ball just like Pawpaw taught him.

The boys ran about and played on the seesaw. Then they were taught to draw. They even saw a fawn on the lawn!

All that playing caused them to be hungry. It was time to eat.

"Please pause, because though the hotdogs are thawed, they're still raw," Miss Aubree said. "Let's use straw to light the fire. I'll cook them a bit more. Austin, please make the sauce. Then, we will eat on the lawn."

Austin put "Pawpaw's Yummy Sauce" on his hotdog. But before he could take a bite, he saw the fawn launching itself toward him.

The fawn grabbed his hotdog with its jaw! The naughty fawn took off with the hotdog hanging from its jaw! It caused everyone to laugh!

"Oh no! How awful! I'm sorry, Austin!" said Miss Aubree.

"It's not your fault," said Paul. "That is the flaw with eating on the lawn!"

But Austin could only laugh. He knew it was because of "Pawpaw's Yummy Sauce!"
