United States Marine Corps Wounded Warrior Regiment

About the Regiment

Established in 2007, the Marine Corps Wounded Warrior Regiment is the official command charged by the Commandant of the Marine Corps to provide leadership and facilitate the integration of non-medical and medical care to combat and non-combat wounded, ill, and injured Marines, Sailors attached to Marine units, and their family members in order to maximize their recovery as they return to duty or transition to civilian life. The regimental headquarters, located in Quantico, VA, oversees the operations of two wounded warrior battalions located at Camp Pendleton, CA, and Camp Lejeune, NC, as well as multiple detachments in locations around the globe.

2025 DoD Warrior Games

Vision

The Warrior Games serve as a celebration of achievement, inclusion, recovery, and respect for our wounded Warriors, their families, and their caregivers. An enduring structure and standards are established for the United States Army to support the DoD Warrior Games and Invictus Games.

Mission

The 2025 Department of Defense Warrior Games will leverage the power of sport and inter-Service competition during a safe, world-class experience that honors the wounded warriors of the United States Armed Forces

History

Since its founding in 2010, the DoD Warrior Games has been a proud symbol of American resilience and unity. What began with just seven events has grown to eleven. The Games celebrate all of the U.S. service branches Represented by five teams—Army, Marine Corps, Navy/Coast Guard, Air Force/Space Force, and the Special Operations Command.

About the Warrior Games

The Department of Defense (DoD) holds an annual adaptive-sports competition, the Warrior Games. This year is the 15th anniversary highlighting the exceptional physical skills and mental toughness of military service members. Men and women representing the U.S. Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Space Force, Coast Guard and U.S. Special Operations Command will compete in a variety of adaptive sports.

The DoD Warrior Games will return to Colorado Springs, Colo. in July 2025, with competition held at Colorado College. The DoD Warrior Games were first held in Colorado Springs from 2010 to 2014 at the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Training Center, and in 2018 at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

The 2025 DoD Warrior Games featured 11 adaptive sports over 9 days of exciting competition at Colorado College, Norris Penrose Indoor Event Center, and Garry Berry Stadium in Colorado Springs, CO.

Adaptive sports featured at the 2025 DoD Warrior Games included archery, cycling, sitting volleyball, swimming, track, field, wheelchair basketball, wheelchair rugby, shooting, indoor rowing, and powerlifting.
