FREEDMEN HEIRS FOUNDATION HIGHLIGHTS

A MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Freedmen Friends and Allies,

As we wrap up another year, the Freedmen Heirs Foundation team and I want to take a moment to express our deepest gratitude for your support and dedication. This year has been one of remarkable growth and resilience, and your commitment to our mission and vision has been instrumental to our success.

During this holiday season, we hope you find joy and peace. May you spend cherished moments with loved ones, reflecting on the past year and looking forward to a prosperous and fulfilling new year.

Thank you once again and here's to a bountiful 2024!

Please enjoy this month's issue of the Minority AgVocate.

UPCOMING EVENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Seeking Local Farmers

FreshPoint is a national foodservice distributor, and subsidiary of Sysco. We currently buy from over 300 local produce and dairy farmers, as well as artisans, and we're constantly looking to increase the number of small and mid-sized farmers that we support.

We're specifically looking to support more diversity in the supply chain by working with BIPOC farmers, women farmers, veteran farmers, and more.

Southeast warehouse locations: Atlanta, Charlotte, Nashville, Orlando, Raleigh, Tampa

Vendor requirements:

- GAP certified (for produce farmers)
- Any amount of insurance – we don't have a minimum requirement
- Ability to deliver in a refrigerated vehicle if we can't pick-up at the farm

We provide:

- Payments by direct deposit
- Annual crop planning
- Education on market price, industry pack size and grade
- Online marketing at local.freshpoint.com

Crops:

- We buy both common and specialty produce varieties
- We do not buy meat

If interested, contact Lauren Horning, Director of Local Sourcing and Sustainability, at lauren.horning@freshpoint.com or 919-368-2519.

FARMER RESOURCES

Upcoming Deadlines

December is the last month to submit requests for Cash Flow-Based and Extraordinary Measures Assistance under the Inflation Reduction Act's Assistance for Distressed Borrowers. Section 22006 of the IRA provided $3.1 billion for USDA to provide relief to distressed borrowers with certain Farm Service Agency (FSA) direct and guaranteed loans and to expedite assistance for those whose agricultural operations are at financial risk. Learn more about the programs here. Requests for assistance must be received by December 31, 2023 and can be submitted in person at a local Farm Service Agency office or online.

Inflation Reduction Act Assistance for Producers Who Experienced Discrimination in USDA Farm Loan Programs application deadline is approaching. Section 22007 of the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA) provides $2.2 billion in financial assistance for farmers, ranchers, and forest landowners who experienced discrimination in USDA's farm lending programs before January 1, 2021. The application process is open until January 13, 2024. Applications for this program are free. The program does not require a lawyer, and program staff are available to provide free help. Visit www.22007apply.gov to find out more information regarding this program and locate available assistance in your area.

Applications are still being accepted for the Emergency Assistance for Livestock, Honey Bees, and Farm-raised Fish (ELAP). ELAP assistance is provided for losses not covered by other disaster assistance programs authorized by the 2014 Farm Bill and the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018, such as losses not covered by the Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP) and the Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP). More information regarding these programs can be found in the Farmer Resource section of this newsletter. The deadline to request all ELAP assistance for 2023 calendar year losses is January 30, 2024. For more information regarding the ELAP program, click here.

FARMER RESOURCES

USDA's Food Safety Certification for Specialty Crops Program (FSCSC) application deadline is approaching. This program assists specialty crop operations that incur eligible on-farm food safety program expenses related to obtaining or renewing a food safety certification in calendar years 2022 and 2023. The deadline to apply for FSCSC assistance for calendar year 2023 is January 31, 2024. If you believe you meet the criteria for this program, click here to learn more about eligibility requirements or to submit an application.

Programs and Resources

IMPORTANT UPDATE: The USDA has waived the regulatory requirement for producers who are eligible for Emergency Assistance for Livestock, Honeybees, and Farm-raised Fish (ELAP) and Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP). USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) is waiving the requirement to submit notices of losses within a predetermined number of days for 2023, allowing producers to submit notices as soon as the loss is realized but no later than the annual application deadline for each program. Read the full press release here.

December 2023 Lending Rates Announced for Agricultural Producers: USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) provides loans to agricultural producers to help start or expand their farming operations, purchase equipment and storage structures, or meet cash flow needs. Click here to view this month's interest rates for loans offered through FSA.

Emergency Assistance for Livestock, Honeybees, and Farm-raised Fish (ELAP): ELAP provides financial assistance to eligible producers of livestock, honeybees, and farm-raised fish for losses due to disease, certain adverse weather events or loss conditions, including blizzards and wildfires, as determined by the Secretary. Click here to view the general fact sheet. Fact sheets for livestock, honeybees, and farm-raised fish can are also available.

FARMER RESOURCES

Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP): LFP compensates eligible livestock producers who have suffered grazing losses due to drought or fire on native or improved pastureland with permanent vegetative cover or that is planted specifically for grazing. Click here for more information and eligibility requirements. Weekly LFP program eligibility maps and tables can be found here.

Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP): LIP provides benefits to livestock producers for livestock deaths over normal mortality caused by adverse weather or by attacks by animals reintroduced into the wild by the Federal Government. For more information, click here.

Non-insured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP): NAP provides financial assistance to producers of non-insurable crops when low yields, loss of inventory, or prevented planting occur due to natural disasters. Visit this link for more details.

Producers can Apply for FY2024 Agricultural Conservation Easement Program Assistance. USDA has made more than $3 billion in funding available for agricultural producers and forest landowners nationwide to participate in voluntary conservation programs and adopt climate-smart practices in fiscal year 2024 as part of President Biden's Investing in America agenda. Applications for NRCS conservation programs are accepted year-round, but producers interested in this cycle's funding are urged to apply as soon as possible. Producers interested in the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) or Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP) should apply by their state's ranking dates for consideration this year and contact the NRCS at their local USDA Service Center.
