

RANDON'S EPIC SHENANIGANS!

2025 Birthday Travel Album

Happy Birthday, Randon!

The Randonnites have always enjoyed stories of your travels, whether it was biking your way across the country, camping out in the wilderness (or a McDonald's), or flying across oceans. For this year's Birthday Project, we wanted the chance to share our own travel stories with you!

The "Epic Shenanigans Travel Album" contains photographed, illustrated, and written birthday greetings and Travel Tidbits from Randonnites from all over the world. Our appreciation for you spans continents, landmasses, and cultures!

Here are the countries, states, and regions represented in this book:

- North America: Canada, Mexico, United States (including Hawai'i, the Pacific Northwest, California, Nevada, New York, Rhode Island, Maine, Louisiana, North Carolina, and Florida)
- Europe: Scotland, Ireland, Norway, the Netherlands, and Rome
- East Asia: Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, and Hong Kong
- Southeast Asia: Vietnam, Philippines, Malaysia, Indonesia, and Singapore

We hope you like our stories of the places we've lived in and visited. Thank you for spreading joy and fun times across the globe, and we hope you enjoy the trip!

Sincerely,

The Randonnites

I didn't get to travel as much because I had to work on my thesis, so there are only some pics of café-hopping!

PS. Randon nui was the one who wrote my thesis btw -- Don't tell anyone...

Happy Birthday, Randon. I hope you have a pleasant birthday this year! Eat, rest, and treat yourself well this year, old man! Looking forward to more absurd stories you can tell on stream!

Last year I worked in a small pastry shop/cafe near a local college. Even though the aroma of baked goods and desserts was wonderful, work could be hectic during peak hours and dull during off-peak hours. Glad that I had Randonya accompany me and he's really helpful!

Happy birthday, Randon! Thank you for being so kind to us and making our days better with your yapping, knowingly or unknowingly. It's safe to say that you are my favorite yapper in this world. Here's to another wonderful year of yapping!

A YEAR WITH RANDONUI! BY SPACECHASER

SPRING WITH RANDONUI

In Spring, Randonui and I went to a local renaissance faire! He dressed as a little wizard, and even made a goblin friend named Herbert.

SUMMER WITH RANDONUI

In Summer, Randonui and I went to Mexico. We saw beautiful landscapes and ate amazing food!

FALL WITH RANDONUI

In Fall, Randonui and I took advantage of a tall building to view the leaves as they were turning colors. It was cold up there, so we came down quickly!

WINTER WITH RANDONUI

In Winter, Randonui wanted to go out and play in the snow! It was beautiful, but unfortunately short-lived. Afterward, we went inside and got some soothing hot tea!

Happy Birthday, Randon! Thank you for being you!

CITADEL HILL!

If you're ever in Halifax Nova Scotia, visit Citadel Hill! It's a historical fort that fires a cannon everyday at noon with a crackling boom that sets off car alarms. This place also has the oldest Farmers Market in North America, and a waterfront with lots of fresh seafood!

Sometimes when you give advice (if it isn't horribly cursed), you spin it in such a uniquely encouraging way that I've caught myself thinking, "What would Randon do?"

It has genuinely helped me rethink things in a positive (and sometimes cursed) way. Thank you for everything and Happy Birthday, dude!!

Acadia National Park in Maine has 45 miles of preserved carriage roads, which are open primarily to cyclists but also the occasional hiker or horse.

Happy Birthday Big Green! Please flip a coin (or hold shift to flip an additional lucky coin) to see if you get smooched or punched. Regardless of the result, you can take (1) heartfelt thank you for the inspiration and motivation you've given me this year.

If you ever want to take a walk in a forest, the Pacific Northwest is the best place to go. There are many rivers, large trees, and long hiking paths to walk on and there are many new places to explore every day with ease.

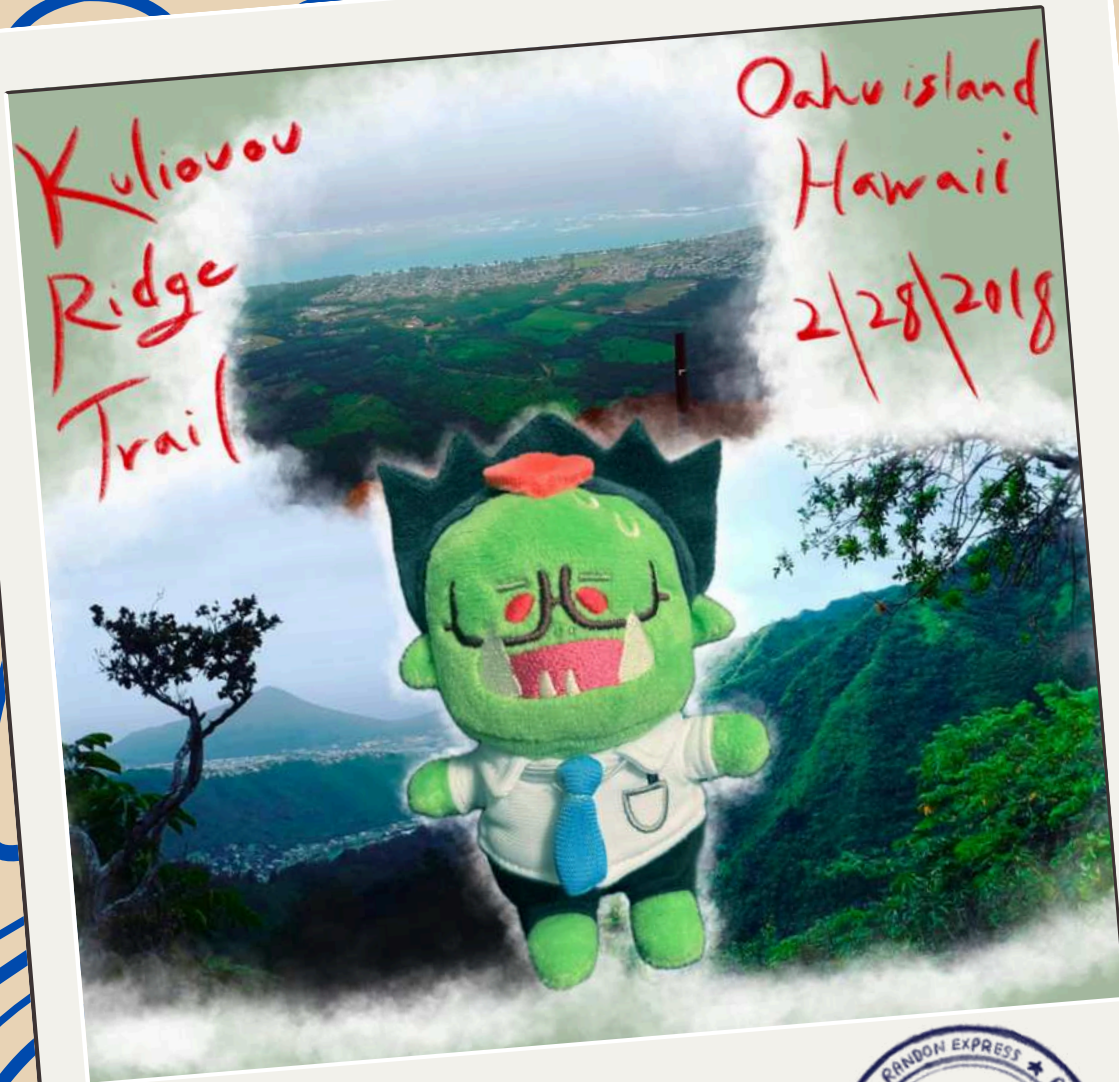

Happy Birthday Randon! Hope this year is as awesome as you are, we'll all be wishing you joy, laughter, and a beautiful year ahead, WAU!

This is the view from Kuliouou (coo-lee-oh-oh) Ridge Trail within my island home of Hawai'i! The hike is brutal and parking is tricky (darn street parking), but if you ever do visit, I think you'd appreciate the spirit and beauty of the land as much as I do.

Happy Birthday Orc-Uncle! Time passes fast, doesn't it? I may not be as outspoken in streams as before, but I will always be a dedicated fan.

The marine world is a big interest in Florida due to having many habitats involving the various bodies of water. One of the many research projects available, whose findings and progress are shared with programs in aquariums, is looking into coral regeneration, and the prevention of coral bleaching.

Happy Birthday, Randon!!! I'm glad to be a part of this project to celebrate on your special day. I hope your day goes well, however you spend it. Best wishes and love sent to you by us, the Randonnites. Thank you for being a funny orc on the telly.

There are many cultural landmarks in the Bull City, like this bridge that takes the tops off trucks that aren't aware of its height. The local retro theater shows classics like Godzilla. They're a joy to watch with beer and popcorn. There are good trails outside the city too!

Happy Birthday Big Green; Tales of your journeys inspired me to make some of my own to share with others. Hope you have more great years, and keep on pedaling.

A well-known fact: Stroopwafels and gouda cheese are tasty! These are always a hit with my friends and relatives abroad. Even though I have a driver's license, I prefer to travel by bike. It's great to explore the Netherlands by bike!

Happy Birthday Randon~ As always, thank you for the EU-friendly streams and the VODs. I may not be the most active member in the community, but it's still fun to be part of it! It's great to be a Randonnite!

Did you know that Halloween originated in Ireland? It originated with the ancient Celtic festival of Samhain (sah-win), when people would light bonfires and wear costumes to ward off ghosts. Another piece of trivia is that there were never any snakes in Ireland (not including zoos).

Hong Kong has the world's longest covered escalator system! It runs for over 800m and rises over 135m in elevation. Make sure you check that out (along with HK's dimsum and midafternoon tea!). As for Vancouver, it's the homeplace of the California Roll (the irony...) and the longest swimming pool!

Happy birthday to my kamiorcshi!!

Mr Donut's chewy Pon De Ring is my favorite dessert stop in Japan! I was at the popular flagship stop at Akihabara that closed down during October.

I also managed to snag German dinner and good ol' nama beer with Ribbons at Ginza. Wish you were here with the beer!

Happy birthday Randon! I don't have things to say as always. It's crazy how it's almost been a year. If you're ever in trouble, close your eyes and chant "Matahari" three times.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, Randonnito!
