

Then & Now

A
Graduation
Celebration

May 2017

Dear Dan,

The observation that I most cherished growing up was from my Papa who often told me that I was like a rubber band - no matter what life threw me, I could always bounce back.

This trait of resiliency, is something that you also have but you have it in spades. The truth is that you can't change the direction of the wind, but you can adjust your sails and you always have. That's resilience!

At this special milestone, one of the best pieces of advice comes from Ellen DeGeneres: "Find out who you are and be that person. That's what your soul was put on earth to be. Find your truth, live that truth and everything else will come."

Life is a series of beginnings, not endings, so while we are incredibly proud of you and the special man you've become, we can't wait to see all the new chapters of your life that await being written.

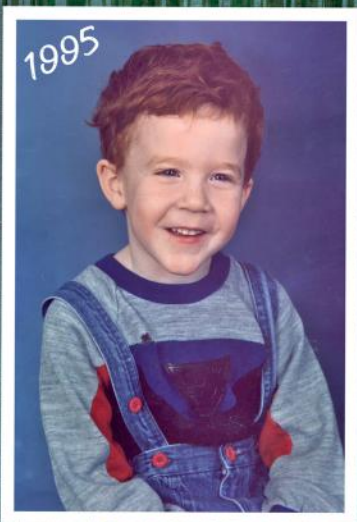

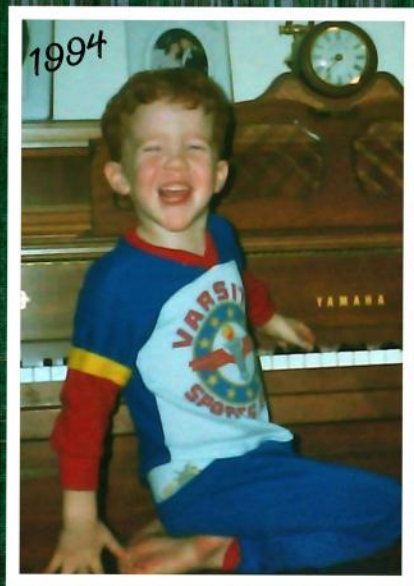

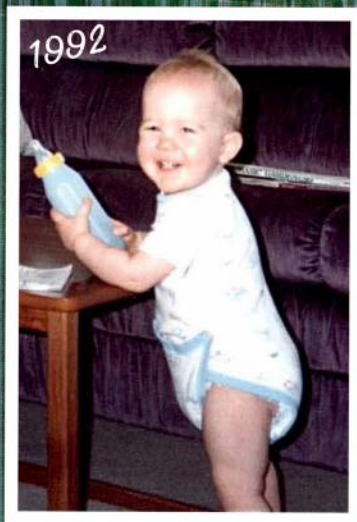

Love Always,
Mom and Dad
