This Program is for YOU ... when

YOU WANT TO... Thrive in your ability to lead, through authenticity and trust and get amazing results

YOU ARE TIRED OF... Having others determine how to behave, perform and evaluate yourself and others

YOU DREAM OF... An effortless approach to leading and managing others

YOU ARE READY TO... Let go of your ego and investigate you, yourSelf and embrace the full potential of the leader inside you

I believe that..

Authentic leadership involves being genuine and true to yourself in order to build trust-based relationships with team members, customers, and clients. Nevertheless, according to a survey by Harvard Business Review, 58 percent of employees place more trust in a stranger on the street than in their own boss. This statistic may indicate a deficit in both authenticity and leadership within many companies. How does this observation resonate with you?

It is time for you to Thrive

...without doing things you don't want to do anymore!

Authentic leadership is the capacity for a leader to remain sincere and transparent about their beliefs, intentions, and emotions. When you, as a leader, are perceived as authentic, you can inspire and motivate others to align with and receive support from you. This cultivates a robust environment that empowers the business to achieve its mission and enhance your team's well-being and happiness. This should be an inherent quality, effortlessly embodied every single day.

Many leaders make the mistake of attempting to mimic the person they aspire to be rather than embracing their true selves.

And finally stop wasting your precious time...

Start to critically examine your stance on authentic leadership, your strengths, ethics, and ideas during the upcoming five months, before delving into any other initiatives. The objective is to empower your personal development in establishing a comprehensive equilibrium in leadership, thus paving the way for future generations.

You were not meant to tread this path alone, so consider joining our leadership program and reap the benefits:

Here's an insiders Look at What You'll Learn:

Module 1:

Introduction

The primary purpose is to familiarize you with the principles, tools, and frameworks that underpin authentic leadership. Our aim is for you to commence subsequent sessions with a deeper self-awareness as a leader and a clear vision of how you can leverage your strengths to foster positive group dynamics in your professional environment.

Module 2:

Creating Right Conditions to Lead

We introduces the Team Life Cycle In Action (TLCiA) model. The capacity to collaborate effectively in teams is paramount for success in today's fast-paced and intricate work settings. Nevertheless, constructing and sustaining high-performing teams can be quite challenging. By the culmination of this course, you will possess a profound comprehension of how teams operate and the skills required to lead and collaborate effectively in any team setting.

Module 3:

Leading high performance

In this module, we continue our TLCiA journey and explore your interactions with others. The more authentic you are, the greater your success in your role. We will delve into practical strategies for leading teams and organizations, including aspects like recruitment strategies, performance management, succession planning, training and development, and much more. Your GLA360 assessment will be activated if you choose to!

Module 4

Project Management for non-PM's

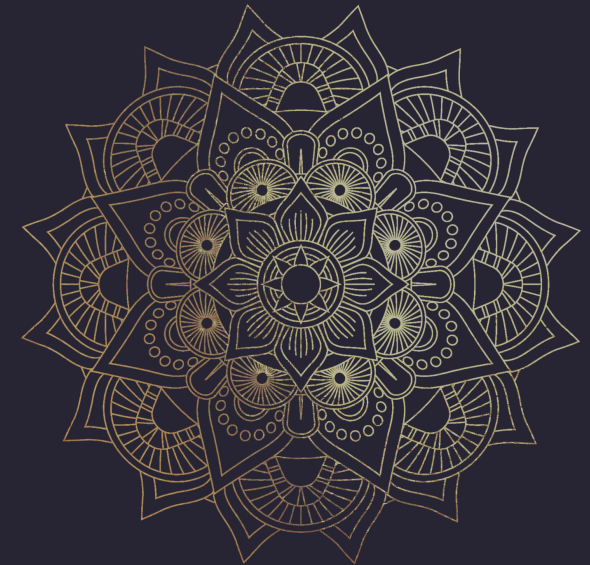

Project management is a vital skill for organizations, yet not everyone has a professional background in project management. Even individuals who aren't project managers by trade may find themselves accountable for leading and participating in projects. Hence, they need the fundamental knowledge and skills to manage them effectively. This module equips you to be an equal negotiation partner when discussing the management of both ongoing and new projects.

Module 5

Leading Transformation

What is YOUR transformation goal? How do you begin, proceed, take action, and sometimes even embrace stillness? Your personal wellbeing is paramount. In this module, we delve into the psychology of change, strategies for effective communication, and the role of a leader in transformation. Mastering self-transformation equips you to lead and guide others through their own journey of change.
