

FRANKIE

Loves
ice cream

Written and illustrated by Lily Bean

There once was a dog named Frankie, and he lived at the beach with his family.

It was so warm
and sunny.
Frankie and
his family
thought it was
a perfect time
to get some ice
cream!

They opened the door and walked into the shop. The ice cream smelled so yummy!

So many flavors—
which one should they pick? Frankie
thought they all
looked tasty.

Everyone got a
cone, but before Mom
could eat hers,
the wind blew
it right out of her hand!

SPLAT!

Frankie took a lick of the ice cream. It was so delicious! He has never tasted anything so
yummy before.

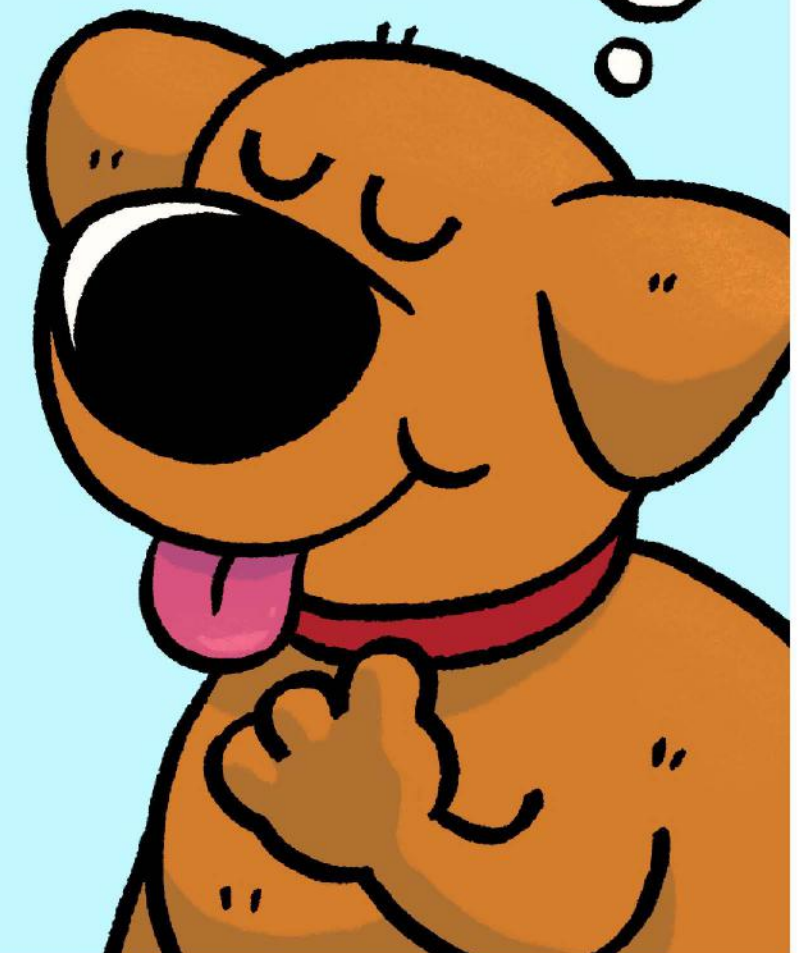

Before he could gobble it all up, Mom cleaned up the spill.

A few days passed...
all Frankie could
think about was how
tasty the ice cream
was.

He asked Dad for ice cream, and he said...

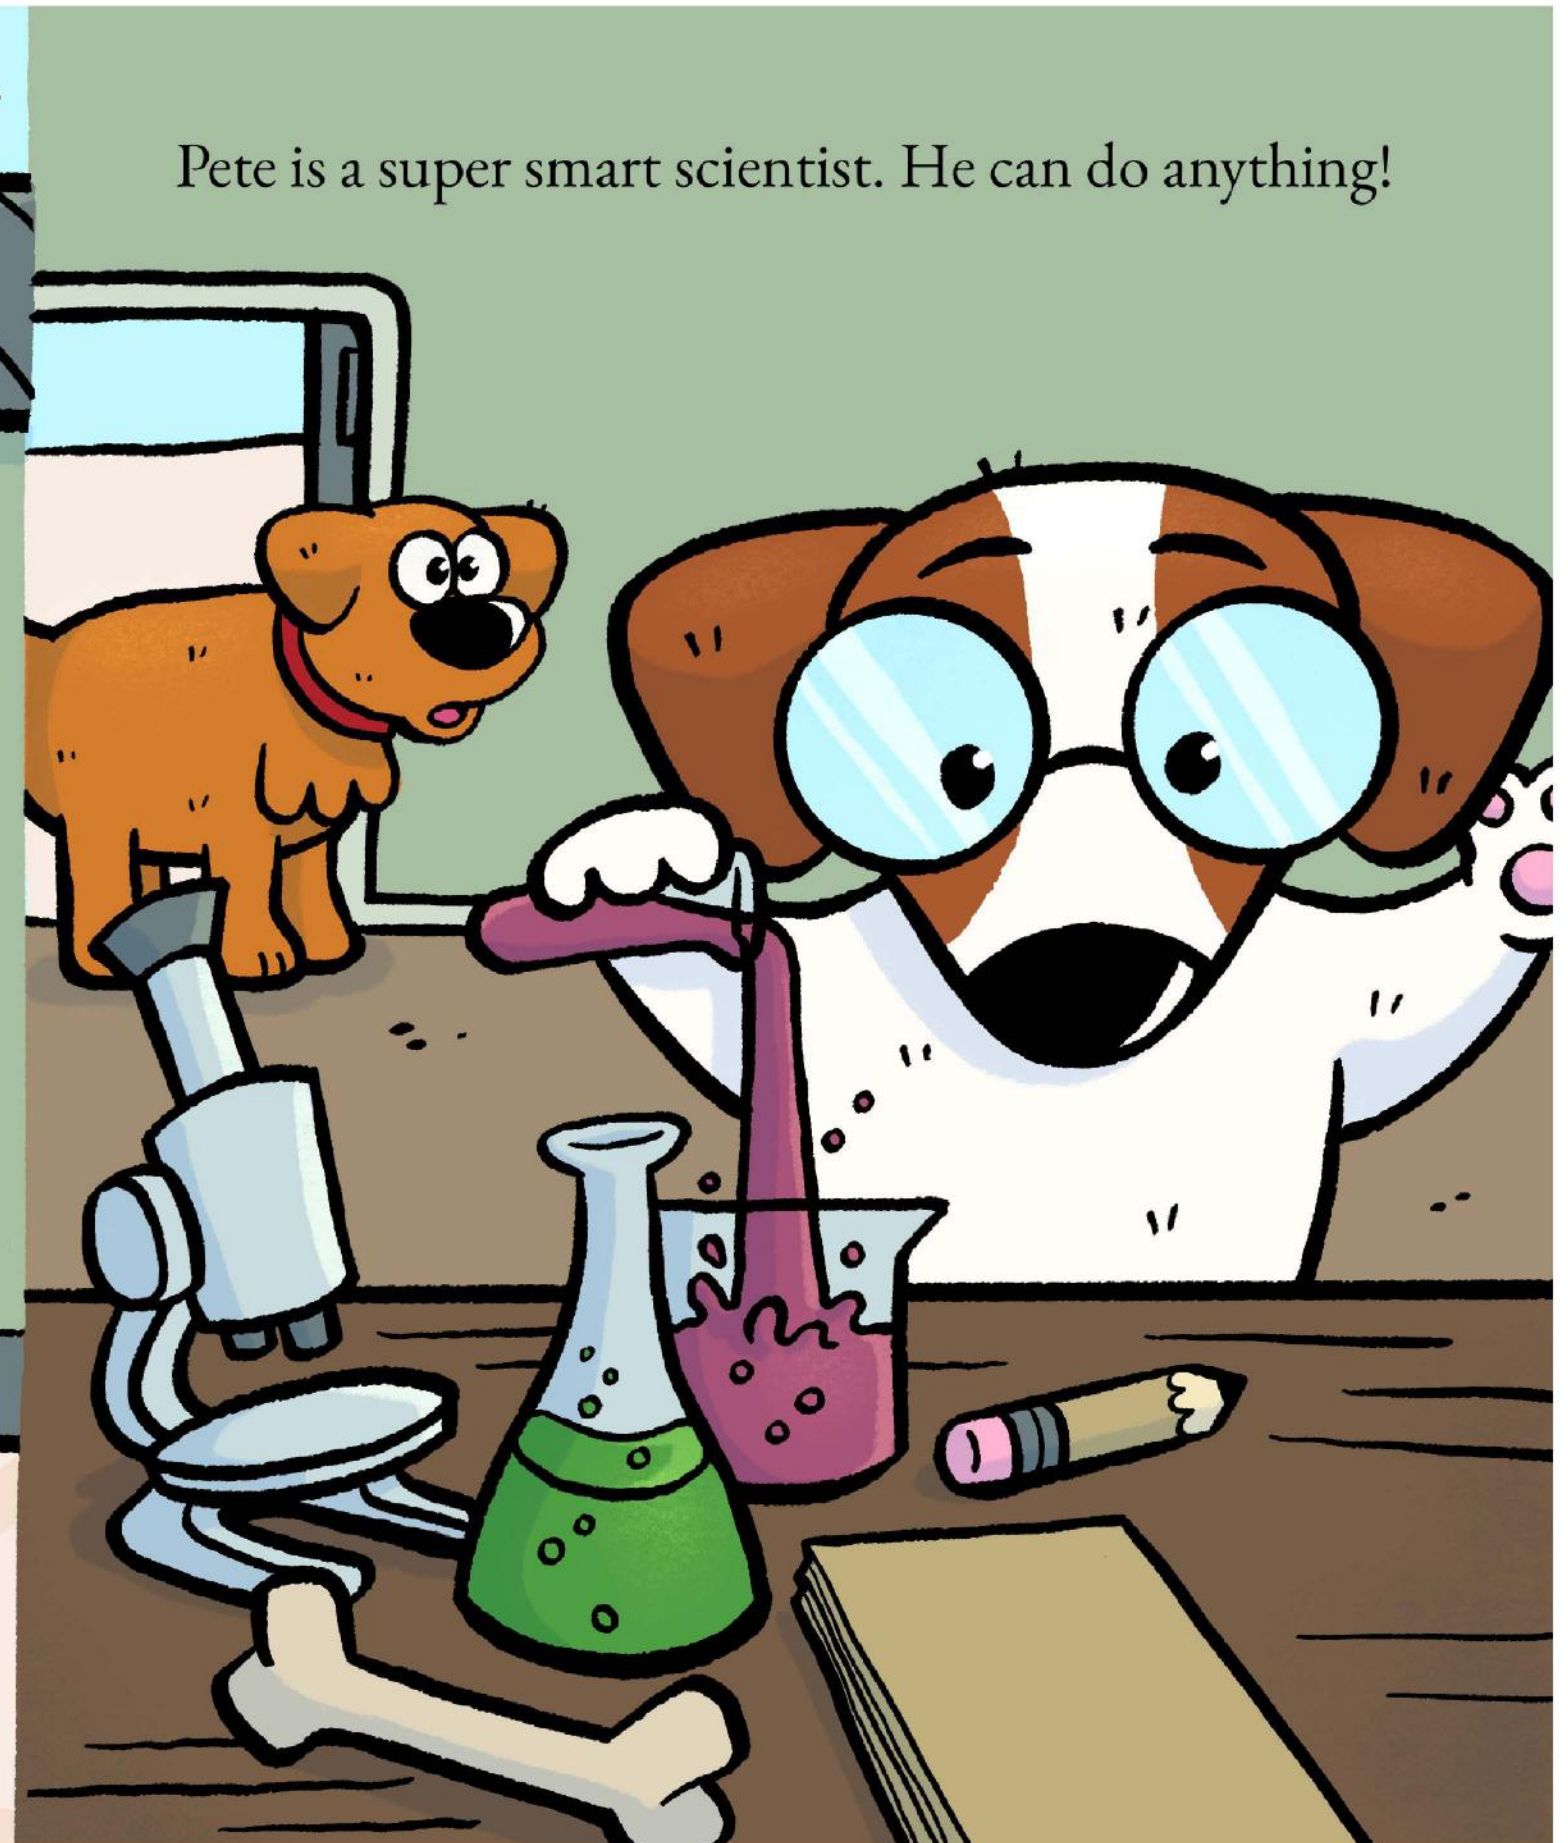

He asked Mom for ice cream, and she said...

Frankie
needed to do
something!
He decided to
ask his friend,
Pete, for help.

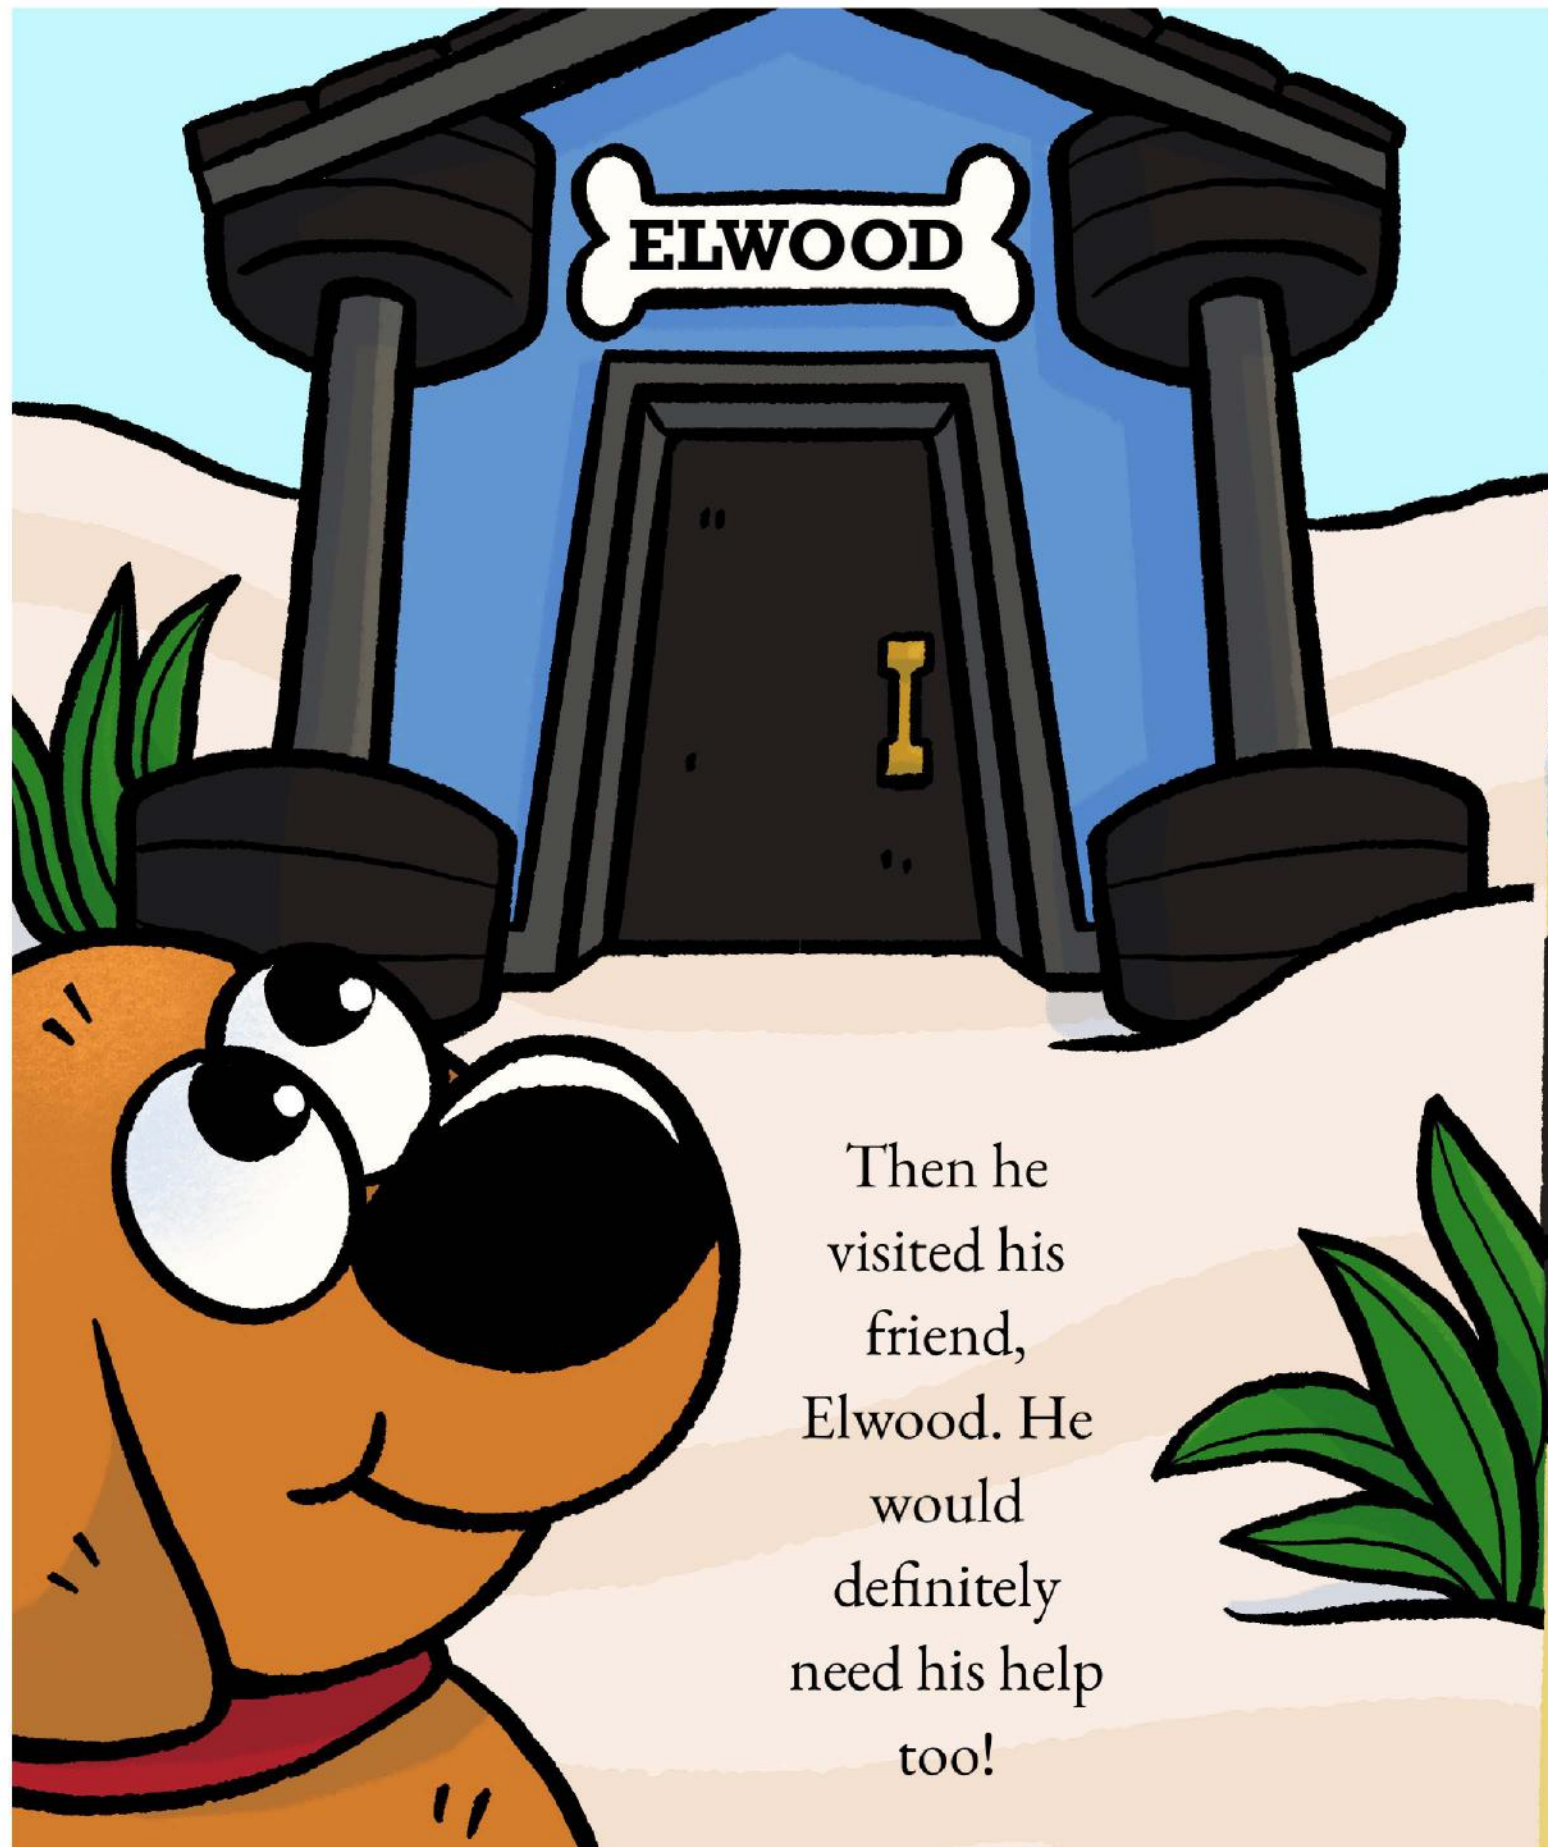

Pete is a super smart scientist. He can do anything!

Hey Pete! Can you
please build
something for me?

Sure. I'll draw up the plans.

Then he visited his
friend,
Elwood. He
would definitely
need his help
too!

Elwood is super strong. He could lift so many heavy things. He won strongest dog in the town!

Elwood, could you
help me by bringing
some wood and
supplies please?

Anything for you, Frankie!

There was only one more friend to recruit! Her name is Penny Sue and she's a fabulous baker.

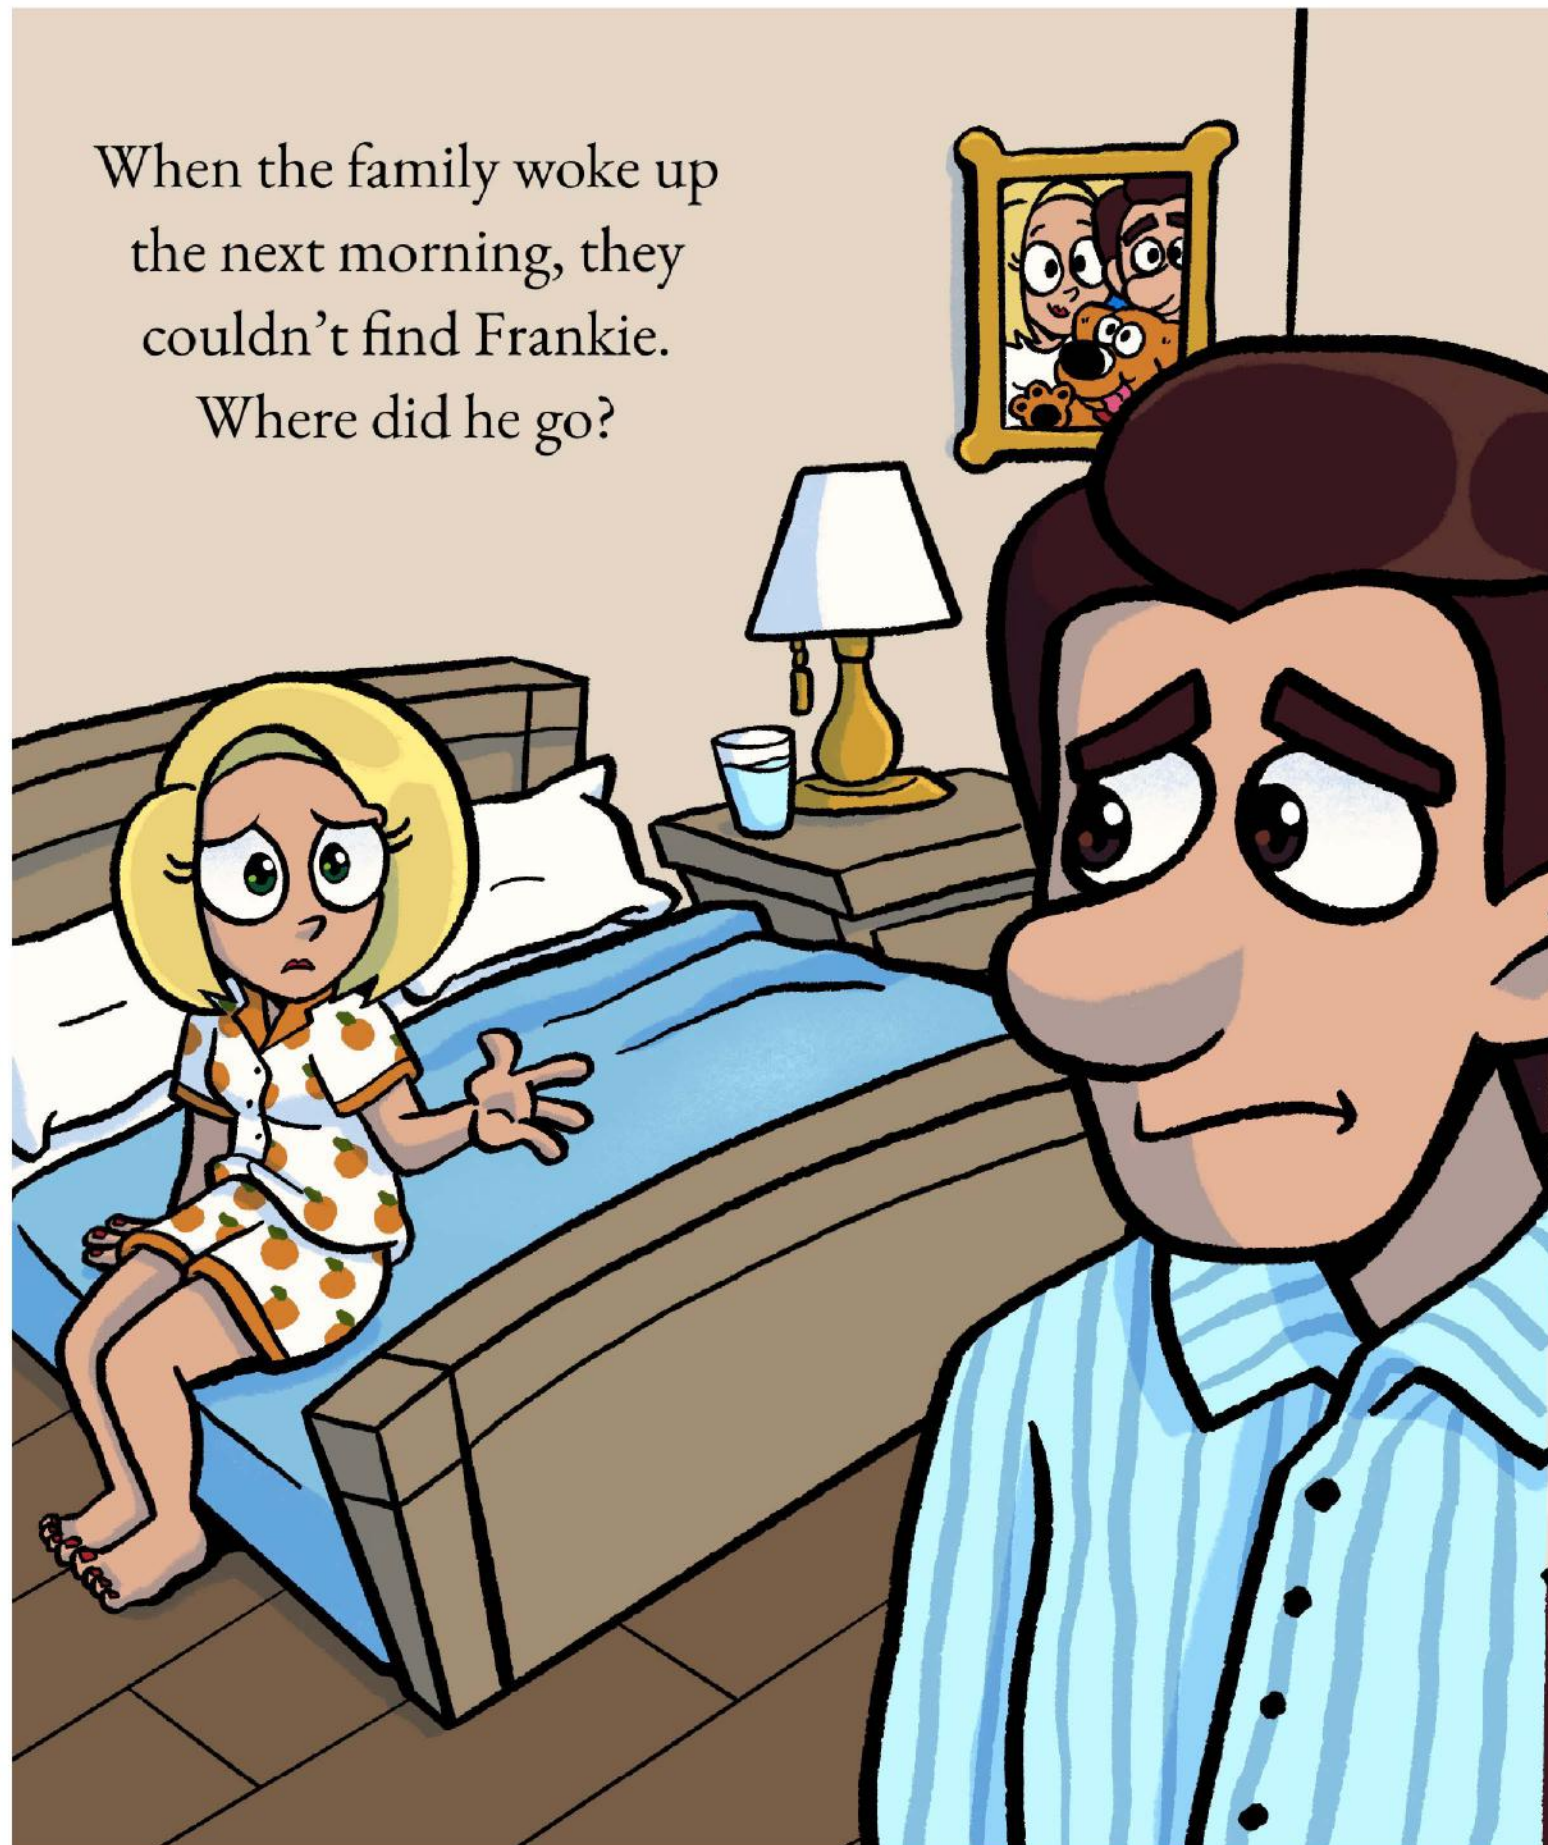

Hi Penny Sue!
Could you please make something special for me?

I'm on it, Frankie!

When the family woke up
the next morning, they couldn't find Frankie.
Where did he go?

When they went outside they
saw a big,
shiny ice
cream
truck...

...and Frankie was behind the counter!
