THE ART FILE

Greeting Card Publishers

2026 Catalog

At Notes & Queries, we believe that greeting cards are more than paper — they are small but powerful gestures that help us stay connected.

In a world that's constantly changing, taking the time to send a handwritten message remains one of the most meaningful ways to celebrate togetherness, mark life's moments, and remind the people we care about just how much they mean to us.

We are proud to present this exclusive The Art File catalog, featuring award-winning, design-led greeting cards and gift packaging created in the UK and loved worldwide.

Renowned for contemporary illustration, bold typography, and beautifully refined finishes, The Art File combines exceptional design with thoughtful craftsmanship. Each collection is printed on high-quality, responsibly sourced paper, and offers a diverse range of styles to suit every occasion.

Carefully curated by Notes & Queries, this collection brings together paper goods that customers love to give and receive — pieces that feel personal, thoughtful, and lasting. These are cards and gift presentations that help turn everyday moments into memories, and simple messages into meaningful connections.

Thank you so much for your continued business and support! Your business helps support 20 employees and their families. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Harnik

FOX UNDER THE MOON

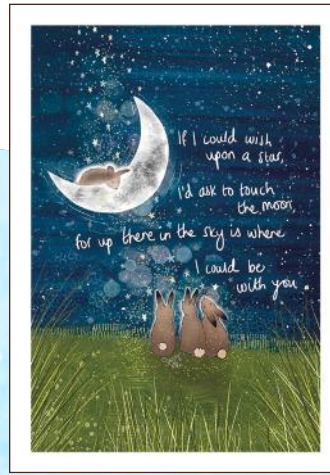

5" x 7"
 $2.475 each
 minimum order: 6

Created by the multi-award winning author/illustrator, Stacey McNeill, Fox Under The Moon began during the stillness of the pandemic, when Stacey found herself with time to pause and create.

The very first illustration was drawn for a struggling friend, when Stacey couldn't find the right card to say what she felt. Teaching herself to draw from scratch, she created a card filled with heartfelt words — and shared it online.

The response was overwhelming. Messages flooded in. People wanted more: more hope, more kindness, more ways to say the things that matter.

Sustainable Kelp® printing ink is formulated utilizing waste algae from industries that already cultivate algae.

The printed Kelp® label on a finished product signals that sustainable Kelp® ink has been used during production, and that the chain of custody can be sourced.

Kelp® ink supports the change from preservation to conservation.

When you label Kelp® labelled products, you become part of a growing movement to create positive change.
