Castle Dyche, Scottleton Street, LD8 2BL

Celia Perceval - Paintings

Celia Perceval is a local artist born in Australia and settled in Presteigne since 1974. She travels and paints around Europe and Wales, in the open, in the Expressionist style and exhibits in Australia and UK.

@celiaperceval

Castle Barn, 40a High Street, LD8 2BE

Ruth Kirkby - Paintings

Recently I have been moving away from botanical illustration to slightly more abstract and looser ways of painting landscapes and still life in oils, watercolours and pastels.

@ruth.kirkby

Bob Rowberry - Metalworker

Bob makes a range of affordable, lightweight and unusual recycled metal kinetic ornaments.

@bobrowberry

Malcolm Turner - Potter

I am largely self-taught potter. I worked in France as a thrower for Catherine Vanier making earthenware vessels but now work mostly in stoneware which I woodfire in Wales. I also make less functional wares using the Raku method. @malcopots

Mansion House, 42 High Street, LD8 2BE

The Sidney Nolan Trust

The Sidney Nolan Trust is proud to present artwork created through its creative programmes for young people, MAKE & Cultivate. The groups are united by their innovative approach to contemporary arts practice. www.sidneynolantrust.org

King's Head Gallery, 45 High Street, LD8 2BE 4

Jane Aston - Paintings

Oil painting on canvas and board inspired by the local beautiful natural environment, expressive brush strokes, loose style, carefully considered palette. @jane.aston2

Alice Perceval - Paintings

Alice Perceval works from her studio overlooking the Radnor valley. The natural environment and landscape around her inspire her painting.

Kitty Perceval - Drawing & Ceramics

Kitty Perceval is an artist, maker, and writer.. Concerned with how creative practice can forge relationships between humans and the natural world, her work is grounded in observation, recording and tending to the fugitive moments of beauty she finds in the wild landscape.

She is a studio potter making both fine art and functional ceramic ware, and hopes to honour the inhabitants of her valley home in everything she makes. Instagram @heulwen_

The Old Shop, 47 High Street, LD8 2BE 5

Rosamund Black - Jewellery, Collage

Rosamund's jewellery making practice combines semi-precious stones with hand worked textural silver in an intuitive process dictated by the materials selected. Rosamund will also be showing some experimental Collage pieces.

The Gallery, 4 High Street, LD8 2BA 6

Richard Studer - Wood Engraver

Engravings, Linocuts & Textiles. Recent exhibitions include the Society of Wood Engravers, Royal West of England Academy and The Royal Society of Painter-Printmakers. He will be demonstrating engraving each day. @Studerfineart

Mary Smith - Ceramics

I throw, hand-build and decorate porcelain and stoneware to make whatever interest or challenges me. If someone likes to buy a work that is an extra pleasure.

11 & 12 Broad Street, LD8 2AB

Lindsey Adams - Mixed media

I trained as a painter, but my work sometimes uses other media to express ideas about memory, time and imaginary spaces. Many of the images are taken from the natural world.

Gill Tennant-Eyles - Ceramics

My creative inspiration comes from the marine environment and I encourage the random effects which are inherent in ceramic processes and materials to give an organic character to my work.

10

Josh Partridge - Paintings

Josh Partridge grew up on Parc-y-Pratt, a Cardiganshire farm. Training: Slade School, a year in Japan. Medium: watercolour and gouache on paper, with collage.

Josh is also exhibiting in Venue 11.

The Judge's Lodgings, Broad Street, LD8 2AD

11

Suzanne Boak - Drawings

Suzanne Boak works in pen to create finely detailed drawings of quintessentially British historical architecture. She draws her inspiration from the beautiful ageing buildings of the Welsh Marches and beyond. www.Suzanneboakart.etsy.com

Peter Wright - Paintings

Art has been a good friend to me over the years and has helped me express my awareness of landscape and my surroundings. I'm still learning and need to crack on.

Josh Partridge - Paintings

Larger works – also exhibiting in venue 10.

The Library, Broad Street, LD8 2AD

12

Rhiannon Hooson - Collage & Paintings

Rhiannon studied fine art at Lancaster and is currently interested in exploring juxtapositions of the domestic and the natural in her work

www.Rhiannonhooson.com

@rhiannon.hooson

Chris Sheath - Paintings

'Chris Sheath is self-taught, working mostly in oils and watercolour. Her subject matter is a metaphysical depiction of how humanity and nature coincide.' @chris_sheath

This year a selection of very talented artists and makers are coming together in the Youth Centre to offer their work for sale, discuss commissions and offer demos

Dan Ballinger - Graffiti Artist

I'm an abstract graffiti artist using graffiti can on canvas to make colourful vibrant paintings on canvas

Terry Browne - Furniture Maker

My bandsaw boxes are made from exotic hardwoods from around the world, they are shaped and polished to show off the great variety colours and grains. I was inspired to start making Celtic stick chairs whilst living in Ireland, there I learned the use of traditional tools and techniques, the result of which you see today.

Elaine Fraser-King - Jewellery

I design and make sterling silver jewellery using semiprecious stones, sea glass, pottery and vintage curiosities, especially favouring techniques and materials that produce quirky and unusual results.

@silverkingjewellery

Hayley Hutton - Weaver

Hayley Hutton is a traditional handweaver using British milled wools and organic cotton for her luxury homeware including blankets, cushions, lampshades and accessories plus offering weaving workshops throughout the year.

www.Hayleyhutton.com
@hayleyhuttontextiles

Sharon Ingoldby - Furniture Artist

Working from a converted horse box, I inject new life into tired furniture, using a mix of American folk art, primitive works and ancient frescos as inspiration.

Stephanie Jacobs - Sculpture

Stephanie is an artist living and working from her studio in Powys, mid Wales, where she creates unique, dynamic mixed media sculptures for home and garden. www.stephaniejacobs.co.uk

Jude Piper - Glass Artist

Jude is a Herefordshire based artisan specialising in the art of fused glass. Taking her inspiration from the beautiful surrounding countryside, and creating unique pieces to decorate your home. www.Judepiperglassart.co.uk

Alice Savery - Botanical Illustration

I'm Alice Savery, I'm based in Brampton Bryan and have cards and illustrated products under 'Alice Draws the Line', I also create original modern botanical illustration and hand lettered work that I exhibit at The Artists' Gallery at Bromfield, Ludlow. www.AliceDrawsTheLine.co.uk
@AliceDrawsTheLine

Stephanie Scott - Ceramics

Each artwork produced by Stephanie is unique and nature is her inspiration. By using different types of clay she sculpts, carves and moulds beautifully designed pictures, pots and dishes. @stephshandmadeceramics

Alexa Summers - Prints & Paintings

My art is my heart response to the beauty I see around me in nature. I mostly use the Cyanotype blue-printing technique as well as acrylic, coffee and pen. www.Alexasummers.crevado.com

Workhouse Studios, Industrial Estate LD8 2UF 17

Charlotte Hepburn - Illustrator & Printmaker

I'm an artist, printmaker, and illustrator creating playful, quirky work through illustration and printmaking. Please visit my studio to see my risograph printer and hot foil press in action!
@charlottehepburnart

Daniel MacCarthy - Paintings

Daniel MacCarthy studied at the University of Sussex 2005-8 and then at Royal Drawing School in 2011. He then studied at Turps Studio Programme in 2019-20 after which he returned to his native Welsh borders. He is a recipient of the Sidney Nolan Trust Resident Artist Award. During this open studio he will be showing recent landscape studies of the www.danielmaccarthy.com

Sophie Tute - Paintings

Sophie Tute's paintings are "one moment, of the Well of Life to taste".

Celia de Serra - Venue 19

3 Artisan Row, LD8 2BQ

Bim Burton - Furniture

Bim makes furniture in home grown or European hardwoods. He wants the client to have as much pleasure using the furniture as he has making it.
@bimburtont

David Colwell - Furniture & Design

David Colwell designs and makes modern furniture, notably steam bent ash seating. Also designs passive solar buildings and things that need to look good and work really well. www.davidcolwell.com

Sacha Delabre & Axelle Mary Glass Blowing

By transforming everyday items into absurd glass-blown artefacts we invite you to reflect on the values we assign to the things we surround ourselves with. Freeing forms from their function transmutes them into objects of contemplation; uselessness becomes a means of reinventing aesthetics.

@sachadelabre
@axll.mry

4 Artisan Row, LD8 2BQ

Bee Buckmaster - Illustrations

I am a book illustrator and create magical worlds mainly in the field of children and teenage fiction.

@beebuckmasterillustration

Daisy Dixon - Mixed media

Daisy's work evokes internal cavities and abstracted bodies; feminine, exposed and in flux. Tender and grotesque they attempt to map what it means to feel, to remember and to endure.

@daisydixondrawing

Alex Dufort - Photography

ALEX DUFORT has been photographing Hebridean seascapes for the past 25 years. In this show he brings together a small selection of his work.

Melissa Hunt - Jewellery

"The work exhibited is concerned with the construction of hollow form, and the application of surface texture and finishes. My interest lies in creating one-off pieces fabricated from recycled metals and re-used gemstones".

Tony Lawson - Photography

A chair with no seat is useless, but it has a skeletal shape, a kind of architecture. Might it find new meaning if the landscape changes or does it become something entirely different?

Lydia Millward - Painting & Printmaking

Lydia Millward - Painting, Drawing and Printmaking. Currently studying on the postgraduate Drawing Year at the Royal Drawing School, Shoreditch.
www.lydiamillward.co.uk

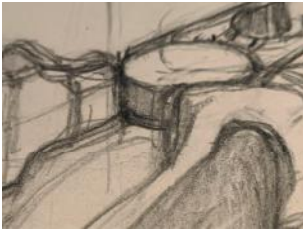

Tania Mosse - Sculptor

Sculpture - mostly stone. Some old, some new.

Celia de Serra - Drawings

(illustration previous page)

'I make detailed landscape/woodland drawings in charcoal and pencil here in my Knucklas studio'.
www.celiadeserra.com

Emma Posey - Mixed Media

Often spatial and participatory, my work explores place through a range of materials and processes, including augmented reality (AR), film, photography, drawing and sculpture.

Alex Ramsay - Photography

In the year that Presteigne and Norton have been designated as part of the International Dark Sky Community, it seems appropriate to take the Moon as my Open Studios theme.
www.alexramsayphotography.net

Mark Richards - Drawings

I will be free-drawing live for the duration of the Open and invite you to come along, watch and comment. @markmarkrichards
