Preface

Before you begin your Bible study, if you are a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, be sure you have named your sins privately to God the Father.

If we confess our [known] sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our [known] sins and to cleanse us from all [unknown, or forgotten sins] unrighteousness. (1 John 1:9)

You will then be in fellowship with God, filled with the Holy Spirit, and ready to learn Bible doctrine from the Word of God.

“God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in [the filling of the] spirit and [biblical] truth.” (John 4:24)

If you have never personally believed in the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior, the issue is not naming your sins. The issue is faith alone in Christ alone.

“He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey [the command to believe in] the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him.” (John 3:36)

THE WORD OF GOD is alive and powerful, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of the soul and the spirit, and of the joints and the marrow, and is a critic of thoughts and intents of the heart. (Heb. 4:12)

All Scripture is God-breathed, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God might be mature, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. (2 Tim. 3:16–17)

Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (2 Tim. 2:15)

Teach Them Diligently

In 1972, Berachah Church Sunday School was disbanded. Pastor R. B. Thieme, Jr. “threw away the crutches” of the old system that relied on prepackaged lessons and stories. In its place, he conceived and instituted a new system, Prep School. From the Bible doctrine resident in their souls, teachers would prepare the children of Berachah Church to enter the advanced and academic teaching of his ministry.

Pastor Thieme compiled a list of doctrines necessary to ensure a solid biblical foundation and to develop a vocabulary and frame of reference for children to understand the Word of God. These doctrines form the basis of the curriculum and are organized into four major themes: salvation, the person of Jesus Christ, the essence of God, and spiritual growth. These themes recur throughout the curriculum to take the child from God-consciousness to salvation, and on to spiritual maturity.

The Children’s Bible Studies Source Book includes the curriculum guidelines, curriculum, sample lesson plans, teaching aid suggestions, a comprehensive research guide, and a glossary. The guidelines are an overall view of the curriculum according to age levels. The curriculum is a ‘nuts and bolts’ outline of Bible doctrines to “train up a child in the way he should go” (Prov. 22:6a). The few sample lesson plans demonstrate how to develop a subject. Teaching aid suggestions are a starting point for creative presentations. Publications and recordings of lessons by R. B. Thieme, Jr., and Bible verses are referenced as research material. The glossary is a collection of familiar terms.

This book is a companion volume to The Great Adventure (1991) and the Children’s Bible Studies series of books: What God Wants Me to Know (CBS Vol. 1, 2004); What Is God Like? (CBS Vol. 2, 2004); The Persons of the Godhead (CBS Vol. 3, 2005); God’s Plan of Salvation (CBS Vol. 4, 2008).

The organization and concept of this curriculum fulfills the commands of Deuteronomy 6:6–7.

“And these words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart; and you shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.”

Full responsibility is placed on the parent/teacher to study and learn Bible doctrine and use his own doctrinal frame of reference, personality, and approach to teach the Word of God. By building one doctrine upon another through a consistent and systematic presentation, children can grow spiritually to the point of occupation with Christ and harmonious rapport with God.

Curriculum Guidelines

The Children's Bible Studies Source Book curriculum guidelines are an overall view of doctrinal subjects. The suggested progression through the grade levels allows the parent/teacher the flexibility to choose subject matter appropriate for the spiritual growth of the child. The curriculum progresses logically from the basic concepts of salvation and volition to the more complex doctrines of the spiritual life.

Four major themes recur throughout the curriculum.

Salvation. Spiritual death establishes the need for salvation. Jesus Christ provided the redemption solution on the cross through His substitutionary spiritual death for all mankind. Faith alone in Christ alone is the only means of salvation and the beginning of a relationship with God.

The Person of Jesus Christ or Christology. In hypostatic union, Jesus Christ is the revealed member of the Trinity. He is the creator of the universe, the only Savior, the author and perfecter of the unique spiritual life of the Church Age. Occupation with Christ is the objective of the Christian way of life.

Essence of God. All three members of the Trinity possess identical essence. The essence of God is described by ten divine attributes. Knowledge of these attributes is how we know God and have confidence and appreciation for His plan.

Spiritual Growth. The Word of God provides the mechanics for living the spiritual life. Understanding and applying Bible doctrine is the means of executing the spiritual life and advancing to spiritual maturity.

Curriculum

PRE-SCHOOL

Objectives

The pre-school curriculum is specifically designed to develop awareness of God's existence, essence, and plan; to present the Gospel; to teach basic principles of authority related to divine establishment; to equate concepts of obedience and happiness; to introduce concepts of good manners; to develop a general and technical vocabulary; and to make the child's first exposure to doctrinal communication exciting and fun.

Suggestions for Teaching Pre-School

- A. Teach each Bible verse twice; use an animal story then a Bible story. Use songs to teach verses. Review verses previously taught.
- B. Teaching aid suggestions:
  - 1. To represent each verse taught, make flannel figures which the child may color and keep in their own box or colorful bag (see Teaching Aids section for instructions).
  - 2. Make a flannel background in the shape of an open Bible for the child to place their flannel figure on while being taught.
  - 3. Use the essence of God concepts to illustrate verses.
- C. Emphasize that each Bible hero benefitted by recognizing and saying "yes" to the right authority. Use the essence of God concepts to show how each hero depended on God's power and plan for happiness.

Sample Lesson Plans

Lesson plans should be adjusted to the child's age and spiritual awareness, the number of children to be taught, the amount of time allotted, and the number of lessons per week to be taught. The key to being a good teacher is to be prepared. The Great Adventure and Children's Bible Studies contain instructions for lesson preparation. Start lessons simply and build to complexity; convert abstract principles to real-life concepts; increase doctrinal vocabulary; build a doctrinal, categorical frame of reference; use a variety of teaching aids to reinforce the lesson; and most importantly, rely on the teaching ministry of God the Holy Spirit.

The following lesson plans show how one subject, "Volition," can be taught to three different age groups by using a story to develop the principles of doctrine.

LESSON FORMAT: PRE-SCHOOL

Age Levels: 2, 3, 4

- A. Subject: Volition
- B. Title: Good Decisions vs. Bad Decisions
- C. Story: Biblical hero—Jonah
- D. Objectives: At the end of this lesson, the children should be able to
  1. Identify green circle as yes-button,
  2. Identify red circle as no-button,
  3. Recognize a flannel figure of Jonah,
  4. Sing songs related to story.
- E. Vocabulary words (as defined in this lesson):
  1. Volition: your decider, what you use to make choices and decisions
  2. Decisions/Choices
  3. Good decisions: obeying God's Word
  4. Bad decisions: disobeying God's Word
  5. Yes-button: using your volition to make good decisions
  6. No-button: using your volition to make bad decisions
- F. Story synopsis: God told Jonah to go to Nineveh, to teach Bible doctrine to the people who lived there. But Jonah chose to disobey God; he decided to go to Tarshish by boat. Jonah foolishly thought he could hide from God on the boat, but no one can hide from God. Then God caused a great storm to make huge waves in the water which frightened everyone on the boat. Jonah told the other men on the boat that it was his disobedience to God that caused the storm and that they should throw Jonah into the water. Jonah was in the water when God sent a large fish to swallow Jonah and save his life. Inside the great fish, Jonah named his sins to God, and God forgave Jonah of his sins. After three days, the fish spit Jonah out onto dry land. Jonah decided to use his volition to obey God's command. Jonah then went to Nineveh, just as God had told him to do, and taught the people about God and Bible doctrine.

- G. Activities:
  1. Songs
  2. Story
    - a. Use flannel figures of yes-button and no-button to discuss obeying and disobeying.
    - b. Use Jonah puppet while telling story of Jonah.
    - c. Allow children to place flannel figures of Jonah, ship, fish, and Nineveh on flannel board to help "re-tell" the story.
    - d. Play "hide and seek" to illustrate concept that you can hide from people, but no one can hide from God.
  3. Activity Page
    - a. Color worksheet with a picture of Nineveh on left side of page and a boat with the word "Tarshish" on right side of page. An arrow attached to the page with a brad allows children to move the arrow from Nineveh to Tarshish. Children place green "yes-button" sticker on Nineveh, and red "no-button" sticker on Tarshish.
    - b. Make a necklace with yarn and heavy paper cut in the shape of a fish. Children can glue a circle with the words "Jonah learned to obey" onto the fish.

LESSON FORMAT: KINDERGARTEN AND FIRST THROUGH THIRD GRADES

Age Levels: 5, 6, 7, 8

- A. Subject: Volition
 B. Title: Consequences of Decisions
 C. Story: Fictional character—Peter Rabbit
 D. Objectives: At the end of this lesson, the children should be able to
1. Identify actions and thoughts that are good decisions,
  2. Identify actions and thoughts that are bad decisions,
  3. Relate consequences of good decisions to blessings,
  4. Relate consequences of bad decisions to discipline,
  5. Follow a progression of events in a story that lead to blessing,
  6. Follow a progression of events in a story that lead to discipline,
  7. Sing songs related to story.
- E. Vocabulary (as defined in this lesson):
1. Volition: a conscious choice or decision
  2. Decision: the act of reaching a conclusion
  3. Consequence: that which naturally follows
  4. Blessing: anything contributing to happiness
  5. Discipline: punishment intended to correct and train
  6. Authority: the right and power to command
  7. Obedience: carrying out a request or command
- F. Story synopsis: from the Tale of Peter Rabbit, by Beatrix Potter. One day, Mrs. Rabbit sent Flopsy, Mopsy, Cottontail, and Peter Rabbit off to school and warned them not to go into Farmer MacGregor's garden. Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cottontail obeyed their mother, but Peter chose to disobey her authority. Peter had great fun eating Farmer MacGregor's vegetables, but this was a wrong thing to do because he had not been given permission to eat the vegetables. When Farmer MacGregor finally saw Peter in his garden, he chased Peter. This led to a series of disasters for Peter; from losing his new coat and nearly being eaten by a cat, to catching cold while hiding in a watering can filled with water. At the end of the day, Flopsy, Mopsy, Cottontail were rewarded for their obedience with pie, but Peter Rabbit was punished and sent to bed as a consequence of his bad decisions and disobedience.

- G. Activities:
1. Songs
  2. Story
    - a. Use stuffed animal of Peter Rabbit and storybook pictures to tell the story.
    - b. Encourage children to “act out” certain parts of the story as the action unfolds—sneaking into garden, eating vegetables, hiding in the tool shed, sneezing while hiding in the watering can.
    - c. After finishing the story, place word strips with “Obey” and “Disobey” at top of flannel board; “Obey” on left side, and “Disobey” on right side. Ask for volunteers to place flannel figures from the storybook pictures under the appropriate word strip.
    - d. Place word strips with “Blessing” and “Discipline” on flannel board with appropriate pictures.
  3. Activity Page: Adhere a piece of green paper to a piece of red paper, back to back. On the green paper put “Good Decision: Obedience” at the top and a maze that starts with a picture of Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cottontail, signposts along the way that say “Go Ahead,” “Keep Going,” “On the right track,” and the word “Blessing” at the end of maze. On the red paper put “Bad Decisions: Disobedience” at the top and a maze that starts with Peter Rabbit, with warning signs along the way that say “Stop,” “Turn around,” “Wrong Way,” and the word “Discipline” at the end of maze. Children use a pencil to follow the path through the maze to the conclusion.

LESSON FORMAT: FOURTH THROUGH SIXTH GRADES

Age Levels: 9, 10, 11, 12

- A. Subject: Volition
 B. Title: Decisions and Destiny
 C. Story: Historical figures—Isaac Bradley and Joseph Whittaker
 D. Objectives: At the end of this lesson, the children should be able to
1. Relate the concept of volition with the principle of choosing to follow one's destiny;

2. Consider the destiny God has assigned all believers—advancing to spiritual maturity;
3. Consider the individual and personal destiny God has chosen for each believer as part of his very own spiritual life;
4. Realize that following one's destiny often requires making difficult decisions, but that these decisions should always line up with God's plan.

E. Vocabulary (as defined in this lesson):

1. Destiny: inevitable course of events
2. Destination: ultimate goal or purpose for which a person is intended
3. Mature: fully developed or complete
4. Responsibility: personal accountability, answerable for one's behavior
5. Volition: a conscious choice or decision
6. Consequence: that which naturally follows
7. Glorification of God: to give honor, praise, and adoration to God

F. Story synopsis: "The Two Boys of Haverhill" in A Cavalcade of Young Americans, edited by Carl Carmer. From a Massachusetts settlement in 1695, Isaac Bradley, age 15, and Joseph Whittaker, age 11, were taken captive by Indians into Indian territory miles from their home. Isaac decided to take every opportunity to plan a way of escape so he could return to his home, his family, and his way of life. Joseph, however, was frightened by the prospect of what the Indians might do to them if the escape plan failed. Secretly learning the Indian language, Isaac realized that the Indians were planning to sell both boys as slaves in Canada and if that happened, Isaac and Joseph would probably never resume their lives with their families and friends. Isaac told Joseph of his plan for escape and admonished Joseph that if he chose to stay with the Indians, he probably would never see his family again. Both Isaac and Joseph had to determine or choose their destiny: a life of slavery with the Indians, or a daring escape enduring hardships and dangers to regain their freedom. Isaac and Joseph were successful in their escape, re-joined their families, and were able to follow their destinies which God provided for their lives.

G. Activities:

1. Songs
2. Story
  - a. Tell story of Isaac and Joseph and their escape from the Indians.
  - b. Review definitions with class. Pass out word strips and definition strips and allow students to match word and definition.
  - c. Lead class in a discussion of what destinies are available to believers as part of God's plan.
3. Activity page: Students fill in blanks describing the choices Isaac and Joseph faced. Guide the students to correctly fill in blanks concerning the believer's destiny in the client nation to God.

Teaching Aids

A teaching aid is any device that enhances and reinforces the biblical concepts of the lesson presentation. Teaching aids help to move the lesson pace along, captivate the child's attention, and stimulate his mental recall of the lesson objective. These aids should be adapted to the capabilities and age level of the child. Simplicity is the key to effective teaching aids.

It is important that consistency and continuity of visual images be maintained throughout all levels so that the child can easily identify symbols and characters. Coloring books, children's books, and commercial flannel figures are all excellent sources for visual images and can be purchased at grocery, toy, craft, teacher supply, or Bible book stores. Games, special projects, puppets, and costumes can be assembled with a variety of materials from around the home or craft and art supply stores. Videos or other material can be obtained through the public library system. Special imaging and laminating equipment is available for use at copy service centers. The Great Adventure and the Children's Bible Studies are also resources for visual images, games, and songs.

The following list of examples and access to the materials and equipment detailed below are a catalyst for creating a variety of teaching aids to assist in the communication of Bible doctrine.

Felt, Flannel, or Velour Figures

Any figure or picture backed with felt, flannel fabric, or velour for application to a flannel board (a piece of board covered with flannel fabric).

A. Commercial felt figures can be ordered from the following:

Betty Lukens, Inc.
711 Portal Street
Cotati, California 94931
(800) 541-9279

Website: bettylukens.com

B. Any drawing can be photocopied onto velour paper, colored, and cut, or a piece of flannel fabric can be glued to the back of any picture.

Worksheets

Successful worksheets applicable to the child's age level reinforce and review Bible doctrine through exercising memory and learning skills.

A. Worksheets must be compatible with the vocabulary and visual perceptive level of the child.

1. Two- through five-year-old children cannot perceive dimensions (such as space, time, and action) from a flat worksheet.
2. First graders cannot read sentences or write well at the beginning of their first grade year.

3. Third graders are intimidated by single-spaced typewritten pages.

B. Worksheets must be compatible with the physical dexterity of the child.

1. Two-year-old children cannot circle the correct picture.
2. Three-year-old children cannot handle a large number of dot-to-dots.
3. Four-year-old children cannot complete fill-in-the-blanks.
4. Children cannot take straight dictation until late in the sixth grade.

C. A variety of ideas can be incorporated into a worksheet.

1. Vocabulary crossword puzzles
2. True or false questions
3. Matching: List words on left side of the paper and pictures on the right side of the paper and then have child draw a line to match the picture with the word.
4. Fill-in-the-blanks
5. Dot-to-dot: Connecting the dots completes a picture.

D. Worksheet notebooks: Worksheets pertaining to the same subject may be kept together for the child to review on his own.

Games and Activities

Games and activities are an interactive and fun way to challenge the child's recall of Bible doctrine.

- A. The source of games is limited only by the imagination.
1. Television game shows can be converted and simplified for doctrinal games.
  2. Teacher supply companies offer a wealth of game and activity ideas which can be modified to teach doctrine.
  3. The public library is an excellent source of reference materials containing suggestions for classroom games and activities for children.
  4. Toy stores or children's book stores are another source of children's activity or game books.
  5. Inexpensive materials found in the home or collected from friends can be used for most game projects.
- B. Examples by age levels.
1. Two through four years:
    - a. Make up questions that have flannel/velour pictures for answers. Place all answers on the board and have child come and remove the picture that answers the question.
    - b. Tommy Trout and Fishing Poles: Tommy Trout used his no-button to disobey his mother and was caught by a fisherman. Attach a magnet to a string and tie it on a pole. Attach a paperclip to a paper fish. Then let the child fish for Tommy Trout.
    - c. Bean Bag Toss: Draw a large "V" on particle board. Cut two large holes at the top of the "V," one for positive and one for negative. Ask simple questions that can be answered with a yes or no. The child tries to toss the bean bag through the correct hole.
  2. Five through eight years:
    - a. Concentration or Memory Game: This game requires two pieces of cardboard of identical size. To make the base game board take one piece of cardboard and fill the surface with a picture or word phrase. Divide and cut the other piece of cardboard into an even number of squares. Apply matching pictures or word phrases to each pair of squares. Scramble all the squares and place them face down on the base game board. Have the child select two squares. If the two pieces don't match, he turns the squares face down again and loses his turn. When the child picks two matching squares, they are removed and he has a chance to guess the picture or word phrase on the base game board. The game continues until the base game board is correctly identified.
    - b. Doctrinal Squares or Tic-tac-toe: Draw a nine-square grid on the chalkboard or a piece of paper. Divide the children into two teams, X's and O's. By answering a question correctly, the child gains an X or O on the grid. The first team to score a line of three wins the game.
  3. Nine through twelve years:
    - a. Baseball: Divide the class into two teams. Set up bases like a baseball diamond. A child "bats" by answering a question correctly and moves to first base. A particularly difficult question may earn a double or triple. Additional correct answers by team members advances players on the bases. A point is scored each time a player crosses home base. An incorrect answer produces an out. Three outs retires the side and the other team is at "bat."
    - b. Pass the Hat or Bag: Fill a hat or a bag with questions. Divide the class into two teams, then have each child pick a question out of the hat or bag. Each team earns a point for each correct answer.
    - c. Silent True-False Quiz: Divide into teams. If the answer is true, the child waves at you; if the answer is false, the child puts his hands behind his back. If child answers out loud, no point is given and question goes to the next team.
  - c. Bowling: Set up a few bowling pins. By answering a question correctly, the child gets an opportunity to bowl. As long as he answers correctly, he continues to bowl. When all the pins are knocked down, he scores one point. When he answers incorrectly, he loses his turn to bowl.
  - d. Scramble: Scramble a Bible verse, essence of God characteristics, or books of the Bible, etc., and have child put them in correct order. The child can work against time or another child.
  - e. Handkerchief Toss: Toss a knotted handkerchief to a child who must then answer a question. He then tosses the handkerchief to another classmate or back to the teacher.

Projects

Projects are three-dimensional objects which the children assemble and keep as a reminder of a particular doctrine or lesson taught.

- A. Logistical grace blessings—a box, basket, or colorful bag filled with objects representing logistical grace blessings
- B. Life of Christ chronology: Draw four different shapes (square, triangle, rectangle, circle) on a poster board, and place a piece of Velcro® on each shape. Draw again on another poster board the four different shapes and cut out. Have the child color different pictures representing four time periods in the life of Christ (sample drawings are available in The Great Adventure and Children's Bible Studies). Cut out and paste the pictures in chronological order on the cut-out shapes following the order on the first poster board, and attach Velcro® to the back. The child can then place the pictures in chronological order using the shapes as a guide.

- C. Mobiles: Have the child color different pictures of related subject matter. Attach pictures together with string or pieces of wood so that the mobile can be suspended from the ceiling.
  1. Logistical grace
  2. Essence symbols
  3. Life of Christ chronology
- D. Balloons: Blowing up a balloon is a visual representation of filling our souls with doctrine.
- E. Jesus in the Manger: Small plastic babies wrapped in white flannel and placed in small baskets represent the Baby Jesus.
- F. Feeding the 5,000: Have the children color pictures of fish and loaves of bread and place them in a paper sack to illustrate the lesson of Christ feeding the 5,000.

Puppets and Costumes

Children love puppets and it is an exciting way to keep their attention while teaching a lesson or reviewing after the lesson.

- A. Mittens, socks, and sacks make great puppets.
- B. Stuffed animals can be used like puppets.
- C. Fingers can be embellished for finger puppets.

Costumes make characters come alive and involve the children in role playing. Costumes can be as simple as a hat or as complex as a historically accurate garment.

Additional Classroom Activities

- A. Books: Children love to have a story read to them, and variety is the key. This is a good activity to have on hand.
- B. Pantomime: Have the child choose a character and let the class guess who he is, or let several children act out a story they have learned.
- C. Posters: Have available a large blank poster, and allow each child to come up and draw with magic marker or crayons something that he has learned. Keep the poster displayed to reinforce what was taught.
- D. Paper and crayons: Let each child draw what he has learned.
- E. Singing: Children love to sing and singing is an additional means to review doctrinal concepts. Use popular tunes and substitute doctrinal words.

Equipment and Supplies

Equipment, supplies, and sources for reproducing and constructing visuals:

- A. Overhead projector: enlarges pictures and enables tracing from opaque paper and also doubles for teacher's use in classroom.
- B. Laminating material: preserves materials by applied plastic coating.
- C. Copier:
  1. Duplicates pictures from other sources such as books or original drawings
  2. Produces transparencies for use on overhead projector
  3. Resizes existing artwork
- D. Light box: Enables tracing of drawings or lettering through opaque paper. Can be purchased through art supply or hobby stores. A tracing can also be made by taping the original drawing on a sunny window and placing a blank paper on top and tracing the image.
- E. Paper:
  1. 110# paper: heavyweight available in a variety of colors
  2. 70# paper: lightweight available in a variety of colors
  3. Gummed paper: adhesive coating on one side activated by moisture
  4. Pressure sensitive paper: adhesive coating on one side allows repositioning of image several times
  5. Velour paper: smooth finish on one side for drawing and coloring, and velour on the other side for use on a flannel board
 National Velour Corporation
 36 Bellair Avenue
 Warwick, RI 02886
 (800) 556-6523
 Website: nationalvelour.com
  6. Transparency: a clear acetate which can be used on an overhead projector to make enlargements or as overlays for worksheets
  7. Poster board: heavyweight cardboard available in various colors
- F. Velcro®: self-adhesive hook and loop tape. Can be purchased at fabric or craft stores.

DOCTRINAL BIBLE STUDIES

Bible doctrine, the body of teaching drawn from a literal interpretation of the Scriptures, is the standard for spiritual truth. Bible study provides spiritual nourishment for the Christian (Matt. 4:4).

The importance of Bible doctrine cannot be overemphasized (Ps. 138:2). God commands the Christian to be inwardly transformed (Rom. 12:2). This transformation requires a daily renewing of the mind through learning and applying the Word of God (2 Cor. 4:16; Eph. 4:23).

For many years doctrinal Bible classes taught by R. B. Thieme, Jr., have provided daily spiritual food for his congregation. Publications, DVDs, and MP3 CDs are available at no charge or obligation. A Doctrinal Bible Studies Catalogue will be provided upon request.
