Amenities

Details make the difference, amenities make your guests' stay more comfortable and in an instant reveal your philosophy influencing feedback far more than is commonly believed

Cosmetic solutions specifically design for hospitality like the one-use Tabs, solid soap minisize and classic liquid solutions

Many collections are complete with dry amenities, but you can create your own dry amenities line choosing between many models of vanity kits, shower caps, tooth kits, slippers, shoes shine, sponges, combs, beard sets, pens, umbrellas, room fragrances and much more

With H+SuMisura everything is customisable, and you can also pack in fantastic welcome kits to make everything unmistakable and unique

Tailor made

With H+SuMisura you can co-brand collections and discover coordinated dry amenities and welcome kits

You can also create an exclusive amenities line with cosmetic, accessories and packaging 100% tailor made and in line with your brand identity

You can customize accessories, bottles and tube, choose different format and also create cosmetics with exclusive formulas and fragrances, including certified or super-luxury, with caviar extract and 24k gold power

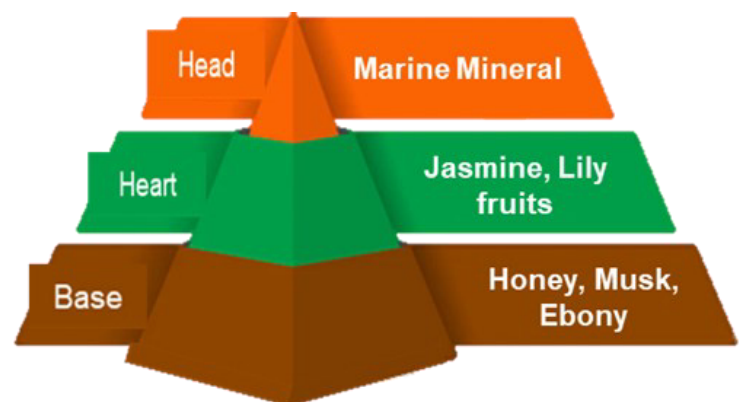

Everything can be packaged in beautiful welcome kits and is available in bulk

For simplify your cosmetics choice you can use the olfactory pyramid

The head notes are the fragrances that are felt immediately, the heart notes are the ones that are felt after about an hour and for a few hours and the base notes the ones that are felt for 24-36 hours

Of course we will be happy to send you samples and data sheets of all the products you will be interested in

Amenities, footprint and reputation

70% of guests declare they are increasingly careful to choose environmentally sustainable products and services and about 10% of negative feedback explicitly criticizes the inordinate use of fossil plastic amenities and packages

In fact, they have a point since every year about 10,000,000 quintals of plastic, about 50,000 bus loads of people, are turned into amenities generating an impressive volume of waste: 5000 soccer stadiums filled to the brim every year

Moreover liquid cosmetics are also composed of up to 95% water, the main carrier of bacterial load. To preserve them need components that, especially for the super low-cost ones, are of fossil origin and of low quality

In addition to polluting, they can also cause your guests skin discomfort, which will wipe out the initial savings negatively affecting the feedback and your image

We help you choose a more sure and less impactful way with a selection of sustainable solutions like cosmetic in solid Tab, plastic and chemical free, and amenities in bamboo wood or plant plastic

Of course, more innovative solutions require more resources than low-cost alternatives, but we are confident that your guests will reward your efforts to respect the environment with high-quality feedback

Toothbrushes

About 20 billion toothbrushes are used each year, almost all of them made of fossil plastic and weighing about 10g: so 200.000.000 kilograms of fossil-derived plastics are produced and dumped each year only for clean our tooth

If normally the environmental impact is mitigated by use for months, in hospitality facilities it is amplified by very short use cycle

GreenGuroo toothbrushes change these dynamics, reduce environmental impact by 80% allowing perfect and environmentally sustainable oral hygiene

Made with bamboo or beech wood handles and pack in recycled cardboard box. Bamboo Fiber and Castor Oil models are even more sustainable, thanks to bristles made from innovative biodegradable plastics derived from bamboo fiber and castor oil seeds

Sphera

Savona is a famous city on the Ligurian coast of Italy where many centuries ago was discovered the recipe for creating perfect soap using a cold process based on vegetable ingredients. This receipt quickly conquered the market so much so that Luis XIV, the Sun King, called the Savona masters to start production of the famous Marseille soap in France

Abaton with the Sphera collection it has thought of accommodations with next-generation solutions that preserve the values of Ligurian tradition using the same natural and biodegradable formulations as in the past

3 collections with unique fragrances packaged in a precious wooden sphere made by local artisans.
