THANK YOU

For the love and trust in our brand.

Established in 2016, Karibou has been making beautiful high-quality children's wear to suit every occasion. As a family owned business, our love for play, imagination and creativity is reflected in each of our pieces, which are lovingly designed in Aotearoa - New Zealand.

At Karibou, we take pride in our timeless commitment to crafting children's wear with unparalleled care. Each stitch, every fabric choice, and meticulous detail reflect our dedication to creating garments that stand the test of time – Our philosophy is to create ethical and sustainable clothing that can be passed from one loving hand to the other. These pieces are not just clothes; they are heirlooms destined to bridge generations. With a passion for quality and a deep understanding of childhood adventures, our designs are tailored to be the companions of kids on their unique journeys, carrying the stories of countless playtimes and cherished memories.

Thank you for choosing Karibou and for your ongoing support.

xx Maria
