	3:15 – 3:30 pm	Kick-off & framing	Recap & introduction to the afternoon: What did we hear and learn? Do the “Core Themes” from the first Assembly still guide us, or do we want to reframe them? Does it make sense to define a shared demand? Or do we wanna work together in other ways?
			1) Concrete Action: what could an action look like, what narrative can be told, how can it be coordinated? (short- or longterm)
			2) Political Direction: Do we want a shared demand or collective position and does it make sense? If yes, what would make it meaningful and representative? What about the Core Themes we discussed in the first Assembly in July?
			3) Movement Building: What helps us sustain engagement? Coordination, Knowledge sharing, funding, long-term collaboration, autonomy, translation, care? How do we stay connected beyond the Assembly? What could be a platform?
			Each group defines: What exactly they’re working on Why it matters What concrete outcome they want to present today
