NIGHT SOLDIERS

Nowadays women are seen equal to men as emancipated. But emancipation is far more than just freedom for women, there comes responsibility. In todays society a woman should be intelligent a real business lady, while raising her children, looking sexy and desirable and being strong as men even going to war as a soldier.

This collection is dedicated to each woman, who is tired to fulfill societies image and needs a night off. My dresses are forming an armor for women to wear after a long day, to feel strong and beautiful again. Like a second skin or a shield that protects her from societies and personal pressure.
