A SNEAK PEAK INTO

chehre

In a world brimming with diversity and multifaceted ideas, every face becomes a canvas.

Each face, a repository of thoughts, ideologies, concepts, and belief systems that together mold our world. "Chehre," our literary festival, seeks to bring forth the strength encapsulated within these faces, presenting them as powerful agents of change.

In the tapestry of life, every face carries the potential to weave threads of equality, love, respect, newness, and equal opportunity into the fabric of society. It is not the stature, nor the prominence, but the profound ideas that reside within that can turn any face into the face of a change-maker.

Literature, the soul of our festival, intertwined with the eloquence of art, the harmony of music, and the drama of life's narratives, provides a powerful medium through which learners can unearth their inner voices. It empowers them with the vocabulary to articulate their thoughts, passions, and dreams, nurturing their ability to inspire change.

As we embark on this journey through Chehre, we invite you to explore the multitude of faces that hide within us all, each carrying the potential to reshape our world. Join us in celebrating the fusion of literature, art, music, and drama, where the power of words becomes a catalyst for transformation, and every face is a mirror reflecting the change we aspire to see. Welcome to Chehre, where faces become a force for a brighter tomorrow.

art, music, and drama are the kaleidoscopic lenses through which we can view the world differently, and through your unique perspective, you can be the change-maker our world so ardently
craves.

With utmost enthusiasm, I look forward
