

Doris Una Skyring Memorial Scholarship Terms & Conditions

This scholarship was founded in 1959 from a legacy of the estate of the late Dr Doris Una Skyring.

1. The name of the scholarship shall be "The Doris Una Skyring Memorial Scholarship".
2. The scholarship is for one year for a program of study in Medicine at the University of Queensland.
3. Subject to availability of funding, the scholarship shall be awarded to a student who is resident in The Women's College during the tenure of the scholarship and who is pursuing a program in Medicine at the University of Queensland.
4. If the applicant is a current resident of College the Principal will make recommendations to Council.
5. If no current resident wishes to avail herself of the scholarship, it may be advertised and a sub-committee of Council, appointed for the purpose of selection of a suitable candidate, will make recommendations to Council.
6. The scholarship shall not be awarded in any year where there is no candidate deemed to be of sufficient merit.
7. In making the award, the Council may take into account:
 - a) previous academic record
 - b) other factors deemed by Council or its committee to be relevant to the award.
8. The value, and frequency of any award, shall be determined by the College Council, having regard to maintaining the capital value of the investment.
9. The emoluments of the scholarship shall be paid in equal instalments to coincide with the issue of each College account and by deduction from the account.
10. The Council may revoke the award of the scholarship during its tenure if, acting on a decision by an absolute majority of Council members, such action is deemed to be necessary.

July 2024