An Outdoor Recreation Destination – Make a splash in Chautauqua County, where you will never be more than 20 minutes from one of our five lakes. Cool off on summer days by getting out on the water; rent a boat, relax on a beach or go fishing. Take a sailing lesson or join a sunset kayaking tour. Golfers

America's Grape Country – Delight your senses with America's native grapes, wineries, farm markets, lighthouses, scenic vistas and historic trails along Chautauqua County's Lake Erie shoreline. Glacial ridges, well-drained soil, and a moderating effect from Lake Erie on spring and fall temperatures combine to create the perfect growing environment for 30,000 vineyard acres. At the Grape Discovery Center, visitors can learn the story of over 150 years of grape growing in the region and find a variety of locally made grape products. Rieslings, Gewürztraminers, and premium late harvest and ice wines are some of the regional specialties offered at Lake Erie Wine Country's over 20 wineries.

Celebrate 150 years of Chautauqua Institution – Chautauqua Institution is a destination on the shores of Chautauqua Lake that comes alive each summer with a unique mix of fine and performing arts, lectures, worship, programs, and recreational activities. Visit during their 2024 summer season which will mark their 150th anniversary season and feature a special lineup of programming to celebrate. Take a class, sit in on readings and talks from writers and poets in residence, or attend a lecture dedicated to important political, cultural and social issues of the day. Chautauqua Institution maintains highly rated golf, tennis and sailing facilities; and boasts a picturesque, lakeside, National Historic District campus featuring manicured gardens and green spaces - plus expressions of every era of American architecture dating to the late 1800s.

South Carolina's Hammock Coast®

Underneath sorbet-colored skies, you'll find the quiet beach communities of South Carolina's Hammock Coast: Pawleys Island, Litchfield Beach, Murrells Inlet, DeBordieu Colony and southern Garden City.

On the Hammock Coast are spacious beaches and pristine salt marshes, offering chances to soak up the sun, spirit away on a kayak or even catch fish and blue crabs for dinner. Perfectly situated between Charleston and Myrtle Beach, the Hammock Coast is serviced by two major airports.

Pawleys Island, one of America's oldest seaside resorts, has been named one of the best beaches in the world. As the birthplace of the rope hammock, relaxation has a long history here. (And gave inspiration to the region's moniker as the "Hammock Coast.") Litchfield Beach, just north of Pawleys, earned TripAdvisor's designation as one of the Top 10 beaches in America! Murrells Inlet, known as the "Seafood Capital of South Carolina," was originally a fishing village on a protected inlet. The southern portion of Garden City overlooks Murrells Inlet and the Atlantic Ocean, offering stunning views in every direction. And DeBordieu Colony offers a stunning beach near historic Georgetown, where history comes alive at five museums.

Between the business districts of Murrells Inlet and Litchfield are two of the Hammock Coast's most famous attractions – Brookgreen Gardens and Huntington Beach State Park. Recognized as one of the top birding spots on the East Coast, the state park offers camping and access to an undeveloped beach. Just across Ocean Highway is Brookgreen Gardens, a 9,127-acre botanical and sculpture garden that has drawn visitors since 1931.

Dotting the Hammock Coast are also several award-winning golf courses, many built on former rice plantations that provide a graciously Southern golf experience. Three of Golf Magazine's "Top 100 You Can Play" are here, in fact.

Savor the Seasons in Upcountry SC!

Blooming Dogwood Trees and Azaleas signal that Spring has officially arrived in South Carolina's Upcountry. In Summer, explore the numerous lakes, rivers, forests, and parks. Fall brings a display of brilliant foliage as you travel along the Cherokee Foothills National Scenic Byway. In the Winter months, relax in a cozy mountain cabin and a hike to discover spectacular views of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Further exploration of the Upcountry will allow you to learn about the rich history of the area. From the Native American Cherokee to the battlegrounds where American forces defeated the British during the American Revolution, to stone and covered bridges that will take you back a few centuries, traversing the backroads of the Upcountry will allow you to connect to the historic, cultural, and natural sites and points of interest in the area.

Be sure to allow time to explore the many waterfalls in the Upcountry, some of which can be easily reached, while others may require a bit of effort. For a more relaxing experience, take a boat ride on one of the freshwater mountain lakes or pack a picnic and spend the day in a state park.

Take the opportunity to stroll through the small towns throughout the Upcountry. Don't forget to bring a flashlight when visiting the Stumphouse Tunnel, an unfinished railroad project carved through the granite mountain for about one-quarter of a mile before abruptly ending. Hunt for "Mice on Main" in Greenville, the bronze creatures that can be found by following the hints on the website (miceonmain.com).

For the thrill-seekers in your group, book a driving experience at the BMW Performance Center in Greer.

A few more ideas for you: Tee off at one of over thirty manicured golf courses found here. Take an exhilarating whitewater rafting trip on the National Wild & Scenic River. Listen (or join in) with the locals at one of the regular "Bluegrass Jams." Go fish for trophy Trout on Lake Jocassee or one of the mountain streams. Or play with the "kids" at Split Creek Farm in Anderson, where a herd of 400 goats resides.

Whatever you like to do when taking a break from the everyday grind, the Upcountry probably has something for your taste!

Rockabilly Highway Murals Beckon in Tennessee

In the heart of West Tennessee lies a stretch of road that's more than just asphalt and white lines; it's a journey through the soul-stirring melodies of Rockabilly. Welcome to the Rockabilly Highway, where every twist and turn tells a story and is adorned with vibrant murals celebrating the iconic genre.

Stretching from Memphis to Nashville, this legendary route takes travelers on a nostalgic trip back to the birthplace of Rock 'n' Roll. But what truly sets it apart are the captivating Rockabilly Highway Murals. Painted by Nashville artist Brian Tull to commemorate when US Highway 45 South was christened as "Rockabilly Highway," the murals pay homage to McNairy County's rockabilly roots and has become an inspiration to visitors and locals alike. These murals capture the spirit of Rockabilly, infusing the highway with an irresistible energy.

But the Rockabilly Highway isn't just about admiring art from afar; it's about immersing yourself in the culture that gave birth to a revolution.

Stop by the quaint diners and roadside juke joints that dot the landscape, where the sound of twanging guitars and pulsating rhythms fills the air. Engage with locals who share tales of bygone days when Rockabilly reigned supreme and dance floors were never empty.

Whether you're a die-hard Rockabilly fan or simply a traveler in search of something authentic, the Rockabilly Highway promises an unforgettable experience. So, hit the road, roll down the windows, and let the rhythm of Tennessee's musical heritage guide you on a journey through time. After all, on the Rockabilly Highway, every mile is a melody and every mural a masterpiece. €

Explore the Timeless Beauty of Bristol Caverns in Bristol TN

Bristol Caverns is one of the oldest and most beautiful attractions in northeast Tennessee. The Caverns are located at the gateway to the Great Smoky Mountain Region in Bristol, TN.

The remarkable caverns were carved by the ancient Underground River from the core of the earth some 200-400 million years ago. A strange and exciting experience awaits you far below the earth's surface when you explore the beautiful and majestic Bristol Caverns. The paved and well lighted walkways wind through the vaulted chambers as you tour the Caverns and its timeless beauty. The tour takes you to all three levels of the caverns - from Mayor Preston's Chamber in the upper section to the winding banks of the Underground River 180 feet below the cavern floor.

The Indians used the river in the frontier days. Retrace the paths of the warriors as you explore the vast rooms, columns, arches and the varying sizes and kinds of the natural stone formations. Along the Underground River, the beautiful formations reflect in the stream's waters. Peer over Lover's Leap, view the breathtaking Bridal Veil and Entrance Hall formations.

Concealed, indirect lighting highlights the natural colors and beauty of the formations. Millions of years old, the formations display rich veins of minerals, giving them beautiful colors of red, gray, blue, brown and sparkling white. Stalagmites and stalactites range in size from larger than tree trunks to smaller than straws. Some of the formations have grown together forming massive columns reaching from floor to ceiling in the lofty rooms.

Bristol Caverns is open year-round except Easter Sunday, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Guided tours leave the gift shop about every 20 minutes and last approximately one hour.

Appalachian Adventures in Prestonsburg, Kentucky

Prestonsburg is the perfect travel destination for those looking for an off-the beaten path getaway that delivers lasting memories. While Kentucky is often associated with bourbon and horses, head east and discover a world of mountains, adventure, and music. While Nashville is often referred to as the birthplace of country music, Eastern Kentucky is the birthplace of country music legends. With iconic names like Loretta Lynn, Chris Stapleton, Dwight Yoakam, The Judds, and more all hailing from the hills and hollers along U.S. 23, the corridor became known as the Country Music Highway. Still today, music abounds the region. Whether you're chasing technical terrain or looking for a brisk hike with a breathtaking view, the eclectic town of Prestonsburg will be your new, favorite hidden gem. As the first town established in eastern Kentucky in 1797, brave, adventurous men and women settled this new frontier, walking the footpaths of these mountains and paddling downstream in the waters of the Levisa Fork River. Present-day Prestonsburg — located 65 miles southeast of the Red River

Gorge, 120 miles from Lexington, 136 miles from Bristol, Tennessee, and about 75 miles from Huntington, West Virginia — is now a hub for hikers, bikers, and paddlers with plenty to explore. While rich in music and history, some may be surprised to learn that Prestonsburg is home to one of the world's most technologically advanced planetariums, award winning state resort park, national battlefield, elk tours, and numerous annual events.
