THE ISLANDS OF TAHITI

TREASURE EVERY MOMENT

We all want to treasure every moment, but it's something that our busy, daily lives make this more of a dream rather than a reality. That's why The Islands of Tahiti offer something so unique. Whether you come for adventure, romance, or relaxation, you will discover that the spirit of Mana that flows through our land, sea, culture, and people will help you treasure every moment.

EACH DAY IS MORE MAGICAL THAN THE NEXT

There are so many ways to Treasure Every Moment in The Islands of Tahiti. You can feel secluded, welcomed, and exhilarated everywhere, from a picture-perfect beach walk to a stunning mountain hike or mesmerizing reef dive. Whatever you come for, you will leave feeling like you have always longed to feel.

TREASURE EVERY MOMENT BY EMBRACING MANA

Mana is the heart of the Polynesian universe. It's the life force and spirit that flows through everything, it arises from the life, love, sharing, beauty, goodness and things that merge harmoniously in our universe. It is the reason you will feel treasured in The Islands of Tahiti.

EMBRACED BY MANA

TAHITI CULTURE

Strength, power, influence, supremacy, greatness, sovereignty, omnipotence, prestige, control, genius, authority, superiority, nobility, stature, presence, elegance, beauty ... the list goes on and on. These words define the Mana in a precise situation, a particular context, from a specific point of view. Mana is a mythical and essential concept in Tahiti culture, a fundamental truth. It's both tangible and intangible, expressive yet imperceptible, revealing but enigmatic, so natural but also mysterious and esoteric.

THE TRADITION OF POLYNESIAN TATTOOS

The word tatau originated in The Islands of Tahiti, and the symbols have meaning and the meaning tells the story of each Tahitian's personal history. In each line drawn on the body, the ma'ohi of the past is connected to the Mana of the present and future. Tahitian people believe in the presence of Tohu, the god of tatau, who painted all the oceans' fish in their colors and patterns, gives each tatau an essence of meaning and life. A link between heaven and earth. Polynesian tattoos are also signs of beauty, and in earlier times were an important part of life as they signaled the end of adolescence.

TAHITIAN MUSIC & SONG

When the missionaries came to Tahiti, they tried to suppress the powerful, life-affirming and sensual sounds and movements that embody Polynesian music and Tahitian dance. In the dance and rhythms, Tahitians give voice to their Mana, allowing it to rise from the sea, descend from the hills, and emanate from the soul of every Polynesian man and woman who falls under its mesmerizing spell

takeoff to PAPEETE

Situated in the heart of the Society Islands of French Polynesia, Tahiti is a name that makes the whole world dream. From the hectic city center of Papeete to the peaceful drive through the peninsula, the island of Tahiti offers a great variety of scenery and an equally large choice of activities. Lofty mountains for hiking, the sea and the lagoon for swimming, museums to visit, international and local cuisine, and festivities throughout the year.

Most of the island's inhabitants live on the coast, leaving the interior almost intact and authentic, despite the busy capital never being very far away. Papeete, which means 'water basket' in Tahitian, is the cornerstone of this island nation.

It is a modern city with world-class hotels, gastronomic restaurants, nightclubs, a lively, colorful market, museums, and shops, including pearl boutiques, of course.

Navigate to Avea Bay, a beautiful white-sand beach south of Huahine—dinghy exploration with the skipper with swimming, snorkeling, and kayaking as your activities. Dinner will be on board.

DAY TWO - TAHA'A (3 TO 4 HOURS OF SAILING)

Day two starts with three to four hours of sailing during the crossing from Huahine to Taha'a. Guests will enjoy continental breakfast onboard. Upon arrival at Taha'a Faaha Bay, guests will visit the vanilla plantation, followed by lunch on board. After lunch, guests will depart to motu Tautau. The day ends with a superb sunset over Bora Bora (weather dependent)—dinner on board.

DAY THREE - TAHA'A LAGOON

Walk and swim while exploring the coral garden at Motu TauTau with the skipper. Enjoy lunch onboard. After lunch, sail to Apu Bay with a visit to a pearl farm. The day ends with a relaxing dinner on board.

DAY FOUR - TAHA'A & RAIATEA

Guests' last day begins with continental breakfast on board. After breakfast, set sail to the town of Uturoa, where guests will visit local shops, such as banks and internet cafes. Lunch will be served on board, and sailing will begin at the Apooiti marina. Guests will depart the vessel at 1 pm local time at the Tahiti Yacht Charter base.
