DESIGN CONCEPT

Starry sky is your curtain and tent is your camp.

Go through the hustle and bustle of city, choose your tent and bring up your family and friends together to , listen to the melody of nature, feel the purity of nature, simple and beautiful. There are sunshine, tingles, flowers and grass, fall asleep under the stars and wake up in the morning light. Living in STAR KENTEN YARD will, you will experience the most primitive and simple beauty of luxury wildlife.

The world is so grand, that you always want to go out to witness different scenery. Gather happily with your family, dance under the stars, sing by the bonfire, take a toast with your friends, and talk about life.

Markino Tent

It is pure and beautiful to listen to the cicadas and watch the sun rise and set. The Makino Tent Hotel looks like a country house from afar, with soft beds, gentle lights make you feel like being in a second comfy home. In the evening, with the breeze and the smoke of the cooking fires, adding a unique beauty to the campground and resort hotel. This immersive garden experience makes you forget to return.

STARRY SKY

The rise and fall of the moon, the stars in the sky, every eye is a surprise. STAR KENTEN YARD is currently the most popular Internet celebrity hotel tent, with a unique appearance and a variety of supporting facilities in the tent. Soft clothing, high comfort, and transparent tarpaulin allow visitors to truly feel the wonders of nature. Xingkong tent does not have high requirements on the construction site. They can be built on hills, grass, sand, and hills. They are suitable for different terrains and natural environments, and can resist various climates. Economical and affordable, it is the first choice for scenic camps to build popular semi-permanent accommodation buildings.
