A trusted name

Since 2008, STRATA Trust Company has helped thousands of investors diversify their retirement portfolio across a broad range of traditional and alternative assets using tax-advantaged retirement accounts.

As demand for alternative investments continues to grow, investors are increasingly turning to alternative assets for greater control, diversification and long-term growth. Trillions of dollars in U.S. retirement savings remain an untapped capital source. Coupled with the explosive growth expected for alternative assets in the years ahead, investment advisors and providers are well positioned to seamlessly accept investors and raise capital faster by working with STRATA for investors who want the tax advantages of investing with retirement funds.

As a regulated trust company backed by the stability of Horizon Bank, STRATA delivers a clear difference in alternative asset custody. Our reputation reflects the trust and confidence we have earned through years of consistent service and expertise.

Our vision

To be an innovative partner for investors to achieve their wealth goals.

Our mission

Empowering investors with a clear path for controlling their financial future by providing outstanding service, innovation, and expertise in the custody of alternative and traditional assets.

Our bedrock values

At STRATA, our core principles not only reflect who we are as individuals, but they guide our decisions, shape our culture, and drive how we do business. Just like the layers of sedimentary rock that form the solid foundation on which we stand, our values form the bedrock of how we conduct our business.

Teamwork

We believe in collaborating to leverage our shared knowledge and skill sets to bring greater value to our clients. Great teamwork is the driving force of our continued growth and success, and together, we are stronger and smarter than we are as individuals.

Service first & client centric

We believe in delivering a level of service that goes above and beyond. We establish long-lasting relationships with our clients by listening, anticipating their needs and delivering exceptional service proactively. Every action we take should make the client experience better, and our goal is to leave no stone unturned.

Stability

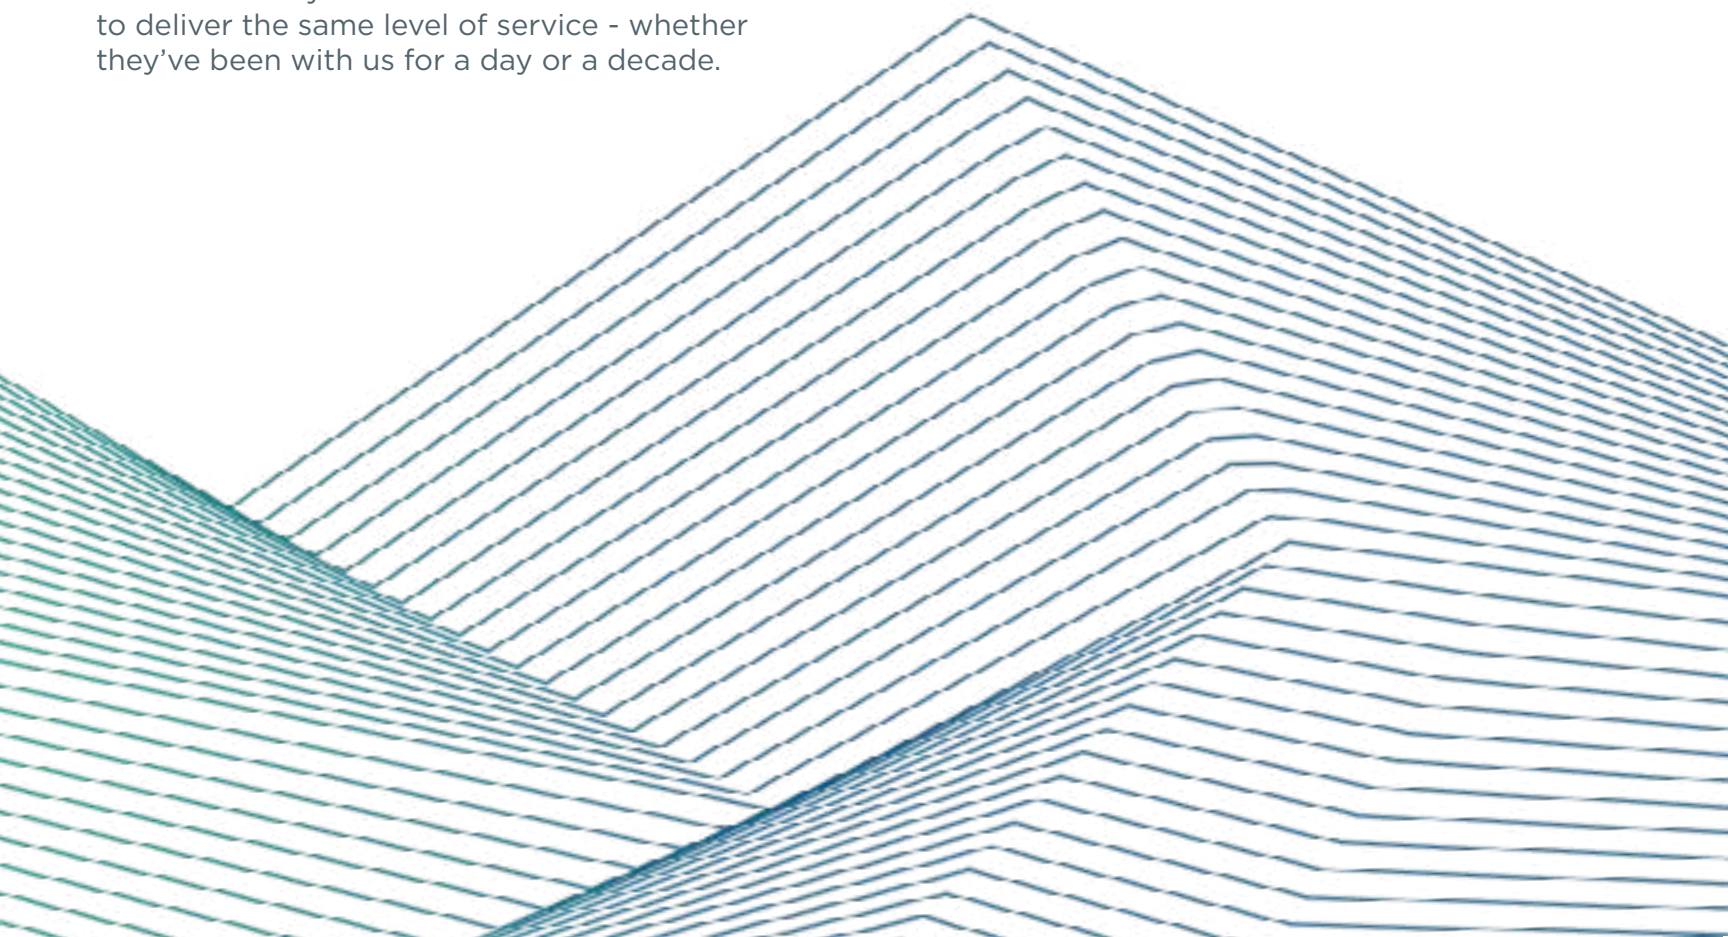

We are dedicated to continually working to strengthen our relationships, products, services, and community. Our clients can count on us to deliver the same level of service - whether they've been with us for a day or a decade.

Innovation

We are always stretching our boundaries and striving to achieve more. We champion and encourage creativity and forward thinking. We anticipate the needs of our customers and always find better ways to serve them. We always stay a step ahead of our competition.

Integrity

Our business is grounded in trust. We're proud of what we stand for; a great work ethic, morals, honesty, respect and transparency. At STRATA, integrity is the foundation of everything we say and do.

Leaders in our industry

STRATA continually invests in employees and the broader financial services community. We support ongoing education and professional development through conferences, certifications, and annual training to keep our team knowledgeable about products, regulations and technology. This training covers areas like customer service, digital banking, and compliance with data privacy, information security, Bank Secrecy Act/ anti-money laundering, fraud prevention and disaster recovery.

Investing in our people is only part of our commitment to our customers and the long-term success of our company. We believe in building a culture of respect, trust and empowerment so our team can thrive, which in turn drives business success — forming the foundation for STRATA’s growth, innovation and a competitive edge in our market.

“It became clear early on in our conversation with our representative today that STRATA really cared about providing solutions for our needs!”
