the Life-Saving Teachings of Yashua the Reformer

According to Dictionary.com, 'Revolution' means drastic action or change, a major change, rebellion, uprising, achievement, and alteration. Revolting for personal growth or social achievement. Reformation means the act of reforming : the state of being reformed. Reform means to change for the better.

Friends, You can change anything that You put your mind & energy into changing. Want to go from poverty to wealth? Want better & safer neighborhoods? Want to be a better person? Want your children to be wise & prosperous? Want to attract & keep the right kind of man or woman? Want improved social conditions? Want more divine favor?

Whatever it is You desire, or want to experience, You must replace old thoughts & behaviors with New thoughts & New behavior, based upon New Inspirational Teachings.

How to achieve the divine abundant life, from a life of lack? Yashua inspires us daily, with his reforming teachings, philosophy, and techniques, and challenge us to transform (personally reform) negative attitudes & self-defeating behaviors, by reforming & empowering us to achieve the divine abundant life, manifesting in our personal lives, our family, and community...which is true and lasting revolutionary change in our lives!

You deserve to be worry-free, successful, well-educated, in good health, culturally liberated, spiritually rejuvenated, living in abundance, which is the very best results in life.

What Kind of Revolution? “Amarnaism” is the modern resuscitation of the original World Amarnian Revolution (i.e. Monotheism/Belief & Trust One Universal Creator) instituted by Pharaoh Akhenaten, in Ancient Egypt, which began over 3500 years ago.

The Amarna Revolution, i.e. Monotheism, or we should say World Reformation, is not the rebellion against a country or government, but a rebellion against how we have negatively self-governed our lives, as it falls short to the high moral standard of our Universal Creator, which best for humanity.
