MACARONI

104737
"Macaroni"
Pony

Macaroni the Pony is one of the best-known Presidential Pets and became world famous. Macaroni was a gift to President John F. Kennedy's daughter, Caroline, from then-Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. Neil Diamond wrote the song "Sweet Caroline" after seeing Macaroni and Caroline on the cover of Life Magazine.

FALA

104738
"Fala" Scottish
Terrier Black

Running for his fourth term, President Franklin D. Roosevelt was accused by his opponents of spending millions of taxpayers' dollars in sending a destroyer to rescue his beloved Scottish terrier, Fala. In a nationally broadcast speech, he responded: "These Republican leaders have not been content with the attacks on me, or my wife, or on my sons. No, not content with that, they now include my little dog - Fala." The 'Fala Speech' was the turning point in the presidential election.

FELLER

104743
"Feller" Cocker
Spaniel Puppy

Feller a cocker spaniel puppy given to President Harry S. Truman as a gift, became infamous as one of the most unwanted presidential pets in White House history. When Truman gave away the puppy to his doctor, the public became outraged and branded President Truman 'anti-canine.' Thousands wrote letters asking to adopt the pet. The doctor returned the dog, and Feller was exiled to Camp David.

NELSON

104830
"Nelson" Horse

President George Washington is credited with owning the first Presidential Pet: his beloved horse Nelson, whom he rode in the battle that ended the Revolutionary War. Like many Presidential Pets, Nelson not only witnessed history in the making, but he was also part of it.

104901
"Tabby+Dixie"
Cat

TABBY & DIXIE

President Abraham Lincoln was the first known president to bring felines into the White House. When asked about her husband's hobbies, Mary Todd Lincoln replied with just one word: "cats." The official White House cats were named Tabby and Dixie. At one point during his first term, Lincoln observed in frustration, "Dixie is smarter than my whole cabinet! And furthermore she doesn't talk back!"

104906
"Siam"
Siamese Cat

SIAM

President Hayes owned the first Siamese kitten to reach America. Siam was a gift from the American Consul in Bangkok, Thailand, and soon became a favorite pet of the Hayes family and staff. Siam was allowed to roam the White House and often made "grand entrances" whenever the First Lady entertained guests.

104907
"Socks"
Kitten

SOCKS

Socks, the black-and-white stray kitten adopted by Chelsea Clinton, became one of the most famous presidential pets of all time. Socks became a media sensation and was the subject of several books, a video game, a TV show, and even a song. In 1996, Bill Clinton said: "When I took office, only high energy physicists had ever heard of what is called the World Wide Web. Now, even my cat has its own page."

104957
"Miss Beazley"
Scottish Terrier

MISS BEAZLEY

Miss Beazley a lively Scottish terrier, came to live at the White House as a gift from President George W. Bush to his wife, Laura. Miss Beazley joined Barney, the Bush's first Scottie, and they quickly became devoted playmates and captured the hearts of millions. Dog fans everywhere loved watching videos of Miss Beazley and Barney playing volleyball on the White House lawn or frolicking in the snow. Barney's first video on the White House website drew 24 million views!

104739
"Rex" Cavalier King
Charles Spaniel

REX

A Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, was a gift from President Ronald Reagan to his wife, Nancy. Rex's doghouse was more luxurious than anything ever experienced by a previous presidential pooch. Built by the Washington Children's Museum, the 5-foot-high Colonial clapboard house had parquet floors, window boxes with geraniums, and framed portraits of the President and First Lady.

104740
"Millie" English
Springer Spaniel

MILLIE

An English Springer Spaniel, Millie was a gift from George H.W. Bush to his wife Barbara while serving his second term as Vice President. After Bush was elected President, Millie became a star in her own right. She "authored" and published a bestselling book, entitled Millie's Book, ghostwritten by Barbara Bush.

104741
"Checkers"
Cocker Spaniel

CHECKERS

CHECKERS While running for Vice President, Senator Richard Nixon was accused of misappropriating funds. Taking a cue from Franklin D. Roosevelt, Nixon denied the charges and told 60 million Americans that: "We did get something, a gift, after the election... It was a little cocker spaniel dog... our little girl named it Checkers. And I just want to say this right now, that regardless of what they say about it, we're gonna keep it." Many believe that the "Checker's Speech" saved Nixon's political career.

104742
"King Tut" Belgian Sheppard

KING TUT

It's said that King Tut, President Herbert Hoover's handsome Belgian shepherd, may have helped him win the presidency. The public perceived Hoover as stiff and severe, so his campaign circulated a portrait of Hoover and King Tut around the country. And it worked! Hoover was elected and the New York Times called it "one of the happiest pictures ever made" of President Hoover.

104911
"Willow"
Tabby Cat

WILLOW

Is a tabby domestic short-haired cat owned by President Joe Biden and First Lady Jill Biden. Formerly a farmer cat, she was adopted by the Biden family as a part of a campaign promise to adopt a cat into the First Family and is named after Jill Biden's hometown of Willow Grove, Pennsylvania. Willow is the first cat to live in the White House since Indica, who was owned by President George W. Bush.

Warning Choking Hazard – not for children under 3 years.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By accepting delivery of Little Critterz products listed on the invoice or other documentation, customer accepts and agrees to be bound by these terms and conditions, unless customer and Little Critterz have signed a separate agreement, in which case that agreement shall govern.

Claims for defective or damaged merchandise must be made within 15 days of receipt. Returns are not accepted without prior authorization and an RMA number issued by Customer Service. Products authorized for return must be securely packaged and shipped according to instructions provided. Products received at our warehouse that are packaged incorrectly or damaged will not be credited. Credit will not be issued until all goods are received, counted and quality checked. A 15% restocking fee based on the original invoice price may apply to saleable goods returned to inventory. Little Critterz does not guarantee the sale of its merchandise. Any returns which may be authorized will receive invoice credit only. Cash refunds are not offered for any returns.

Little Critterz® reserves the right to accept or reject any order, and to refuse credit to any customer.

All merchandise is sold for resale and only to qualified retailers. To open a wholesale account, please complete our wholesale dealer application.

All prices in this catalog are subject to change without notice. Minimum order is $150. All orders are shipped FOB Los Angeles, CA 90255.

We prefer payment by EFT or credit card. Net 30 terms may be requested by submitting a credit application. International shipping is available to most countries. Duty, taxes, customs fees, and any locally incurred charges are the full responsibility of the purchaser.

E-Commerce retail sale of our products on our customer owned websites must be approved by Little Critterz Inc. and meet photo quality requirements. Retail sales on Amazon, eBay, and other 3rd party websites, auction sales and use of re-pricing bots are prohibited. MAP Policy: To maintain retail pricing based on quality, service and value, all resellers of Little Critterz Inc. products must not sell or advertise below Little Critterz Minimum Advertised Price (MAP). Repurposed figurines (jewelry, art, garden, crafts, etc.) must include Little Critterz brand name in the description.
