Neighbor's Mill Bakery & Café

Neighbor's Mill Bakery and Cafe is a family-owned restaurant that opened its doors in 2000, according to owner Cary Nabors. The idea came from his parents, Mike and Karin Nabors, who founded and established the business, becoming a favorite among locals. They've received and have been nominated for the Arkansas Food Hall of Fame multiple times.

"Back in the 70s, my dad bought a stone grist mill at an auction, simply because he thought it was cool, without any idea of what he'd do with it," Cary explained. "Years later, that mill inspired the creation of our bakery. Initially, we used that mill to grind our grains. Today, we have a newer mill but we still grind much of our own grains, including whole wheat, rye, and spelt... right here."

Neighbor's Mill bakes everything from scratch daily, offering about 25+ varieties of bread along with a delicious assortment of muffins, pastries, cookies, cinnamon rolls, pies, cakes, and cheesecakes. The restaurant opens at 7 am and closes at 6 pm, Monday through Saturday. For breakfast, they serve omelets, French toast, breakfast sandwiches, eggs, and freshly baked pastries. Lunch starts at 10:30 am, featuring grilled and cold sandwiches, soups, and salads made with local ingredients whenever possible.

During holidays, Neighbor's Mill offers special sweets and themed breads. You can enjoy delicious coffees at their full espresso bar, featuring locally roasted coffee from Mountain Bird Coffee near Eureka Springs. They also sell homemade granola and the same stone-ground flours used in their breads.

"What I love most is seeing our regulars each morning and enjoying coffee with them," Cary said. "We see ourselves as a community hub where people gather for good food and company. Our casual atmosphere includes seating indoors and outdoors, on our patio.

"We can accommodate large groups and even reserve a room for up to 30 people if you call ahead," he added.

El Mexico Lindo Restaurante

El Mexico Lindo, translates to “The Beautiful Mexico.” Let me tell you a bit about how this place got its start and what folks can expect if they’ve never been here.

Angela and her husband, Sergio – with more than 30 years in the restaurant industry – kicked off this venture together on November 11, 2013.

Their expansive menu is flexible—you can order lunch any time of day, and they have a light eater’s menu.

Everything here is handmade, from their salsa and tamales to chili rellenos and cheese dip. Yes, you can even buy the delicious salsa to take home with you. (And you’ll want to!) What sets their food apart is that everything down to the fajita seasoning is made by Sergio.

They offer pickup, takeout, and dine-in options. It’s a clean, cozy, family-oriented and family-run establishment. “We pride ourselves on knowing our customers by name and providing quick service—usually within 30 seconds,” Angie said.

They strive to offer the best food in town at reasonable prices. Their signature dish is the Ranchero Special—fajita meat over rice with cheese dip on top. It’s their most popular item.

“I run my restaurant differently than most; it’s not like a franchise. I employ many students and prioritize their education and extracurricular activities. The kids’ menu is essentially the same as the light eater’s menu with smaller portions,” she said.

“We have a loyal local customer base; some visit daily, sometimes more than once a day. People traveling through often make it a point to stop by whenever they pass through town. This loyalty makes us feel appreciated and valued.” She added that they enjoy serving and giving back to the local community through various sponsorships and fundraisers. For more details follow El Mexico Lindo Restaurante for updates, check out their Facebook page.

JJ's Buffalo Bar & Grill offers you outdoor and covered patio seating. Weekends are always fun with Friday night karaoke and live music on Saturday nights on their new stage dubbed "The Pon-Tune"

You'll enjoy great food served up fast by the friendliest staff you'll find in the area. JJ's Buffalo Bar and Grill was featured on America's Best Restaurants. If you are looking for excellent burgers, sides or salads, you've found the right place for you and all your buddies.

They stock a full bar and serve up the coldest beer. They offer up a wide selection of beers and favorite wines, as well as soft drinks and iced tea to satisfy every thirst.

It's easy to get here: they're located just north of the Boone/Newton county line down Hwy. 7, where you'll find a comfortable rustic and warm dining experience in the heart of the Ozarks. To stay informed about all their scheduled events throughout the year just follow JJ's on their Facebook page. Or check out their new website at www.jjsbuffalobarandgrill.com.
