9/11 commemoration

An unforgettable day is remembered

By Henry E. Green
“The day the world changed.”

That is how many people describe Sept. 11, 2001, American Legion Post 2 commander George Key noted Sunday morning at an American Legion program commemorating the terrorist attacks of what has become known simply as 9/11.

Everybody knows the story. Hijackers took over four planes, and two of those planes were flown into the World Trade Center, and one into the Pentagon, while the fourth crashed in western Pennsylvania after the passengers attempted to take back the plane from the hijackers.

It was a day that many compare to Pearl Harbor, which Franklin Delano Roosevelt called a date “that will live in infamy.”

All in all, approximately 3,000 people died on 9/11, but, Key pointed out, many more have died in the wars waged in the aftermath of that day, with about 7,000 military personnel making the “ultimate sacrifice.”

Key and American Legion Post 2 first vice commander Jason Church were both stationed in Washington on 9/11, and Church recalled how he could see the Pentagon burning on that terrible day.

Church paid tribute to first responders for the job they did on 9/11, and continue to do.

Church rang “Big Bob”, the bell on Abbeville's Court Square, to mark the time when the first plane hit the World Trade Center--8:46 a.m.

Among those in attendance was Abbeville County Sheriff Ray Watson, along with a number of law enforcement officers and Legion members.

Post 2 chaplain Wallace McClinton provided the invocation and the benediction.

Area veterans will have on Friday, Sept. 16, at 9 a.m. at the Abbeville County Administrative Complex a ceremony to remember POW/MIAs, a ceremony what is slated to include the raising of the POW flag.

American Legion Post 72 is planning its annual Veterans Day parade for Nov. 5, Post 72 commander Mike Brandt said. (More details will be provided in the coming weeks.)

November 8 ballot will include amendments

By Henry E. Green

Two proposed amendments to the state constitution will be on the ballot for the Nov. 8 general election.

Abbeville County voter registration director Randy Curtis supplied The Press and Banner with copies of the two proposed amendments, so that people could study them before making up their minds on Election Day.

Accompanying the proposed amendments were explanations of them.

“The explanations were provided by the SEC (State Election Commission),” Curtis said.

Amendment 1

Must Section 36(A), Article III of the Constitution of this State, relating to the General Reserve Fund, be amended so as to provide that the General Reserve Fund of five percent of general fund revenue of the latest completed fiscal year must be increased each year by one-half of one percent of the general fund revenue of the latest completed fiscal year until it equals seven percent of such revenues?

Explanation

A ‘Yes’ vote will increase the amount of money state government must keep in the General Reserve Fund (its “rainy day” fund) from 5% of the previous year's revenue to 7% of the previous year's revenue.

Amendment 2

Must Section 36(B), Article III of the Constitution of this State be amended so as to provide that the Capital Reserve Fund of two percent of the general fund revenue of the latest completed fiscal year be increased to three percent of the general fund revenue of the latest completed fiscal year and to provide that the first use of the Capital Reserve Fund must be to offset midyear budget reductions?

Explanation

A ‘Yes’ vote will increase the amount of money state government must appropriate to the Capital Reserve Fund (the “reserve and capital improvements” fund) from 2% of the previous year's revenue to 3% of the previous year's revenue and require that the Capital

Reserve Fund's first priority is to offset midyear budget cuts at state agencies.

A history of amendments

“In South Carolina, a total of 54 ballot measures appeared on statewide ballots between 1985 and 2018,” according to Ballotpedia. “Forty-five ballot measures were approved, and nine ballot measures were defeated.”

Proposed constitutional amendments are referred to the ballot by the state legislature, according to Ballotpedia.

Also on the ballot . . .

These proposed amendments will be on the ballot along with a number of local, state and national races.

Here in Abbeville County, for example, a number of school board and Abbeville City Council races will be on the ballot.

On the state level, South Carolinians will be choosing between Republican incumbent Henry McMaster and Democratic challenger Joe Cunningham.

(A closer look at the Nov. 8 ballot will be provided closer to the date.)

Battling a killer

Local fire fighters can install carbon monoxide detectors--to save your life

By Henry E. Green

They call it the silent killer. You can't smell it. You can't taste it.

Still, carbon monoxide can take your life, and every year, according to the CDC, at least 430 people in the United States lose their lives to carbon monoxide poisoning.

In addition, at least 50,000 people a year visit the emergency department due to accidental carbon monoxide poisoning in the U.S., the CDC tells us.

Maybe that's why fire departments with the City of Abbeville and Abbeville County rural fire system have carbon monoxide detectors for people to install in their homes.

Hunter Hazel, with the Abbeville County fire department, said that people with gas stoves, or a gas heating system, or gas logs, would do well to have a carbon monoxide detector installed near gas appliances.

Fire fighters with the City and the County will install them free of charge, just as they would install smoke detectors.

Symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning include weakness, vomiting, chest pain and dizziness.

High concentrations of carbon monoxide can kill in less than five minutes.

Hazel said that County fire fighters acquired 100 carbon monoxide detectors from the Jeffrey Lee Williams Foundation, a non-profit organization which seeks to prevent carbon monoxide poisoning.

City fire chief Chris Clemmons said that the City's carbon monoxide detectors were supplied by the Red Cross.

It is all in keeping with a community risk reduction program that is promoted by the State of South Carolina, and in which the City and County are participating.

The Abbeville County Fire Marshal's Office may be reached at 366-6444, and the Abbeville City Fire and Rescue 366-9461.

Man in Donalds loses life in tragic house fire

By Henry E. Green
A man in Donalds died in a house fire as a result of a blaze which fire fighters believe started in the kitchen.

According to the Coroner's Office, fire fighters responded to a structure fire on Highway 184 East in Donalds.

"A 58 year old male was found inside the home unresponsive," according to the Coroner. "Life saving measures were attempted by Abbeville County EMS but were unsuccessful.

"The victim was Theodore Carroll Parker, Jr., of Donalds," the Coroner said.

An autopsy was scheduled for this week at the Abbeville County Forensic Center.

Abbeville County Fire Marshal Tim Williams said Tuesday that the fire was reported on Sept. 10, at 4:27 p.m. and fire crews arrived on the scene to find extremely heavy smoke conditions and fire coming from the rear of the home, a single story structure.

Neighbors confirmed the victim was inside.

Search and rescue efforts and fire suppression efforts were immediately conducted. The victim was found on a couch in the house, and taken out through a side door to EMS, where life saving efforts were attempted.

After a period of time, there were no signs of life. Fire crews extinguished the fire, and the Fire Marshal notified SLED and the State Fire Marshal's Office, following protocol.

These agencies typically assist with fire-related deaths.

After investigation, it was determined that the fire started in the kitchen area of the house.

Williams noted that fire fighters have been enormously busy in recent weeks.

In Calhoun Falls, on Sept. 2, on Edgewood Circle, fire crews were dispatched to a structure fire, and crews arrived in eight minutes, and reported a fully involved structure fire.

Fire extinguishing measures were taken, and the fire was under control in about 40 minutes, the Fire Marshal continued.

Calhoun Falls, Monterey, Sharon and Lowndesville fire fighters responded.

The cause of the fire was undetermined after investigation. No injuries were reported.

A second structure fire was reported on Sept. 6 at 707 pm. at 851 Highway 184 Antreville. Crews arrived six minutes later to find a 50 percent involved mobile home. No injuries were reported, Williams continued.

The fire was contained in about 30 minutes by fire fighters from Antreville, Lowndesville, and Keowee fire departments.

It was determined that the fire was caused from cooking on the stove.

On Sept. 9, a fire was reported in the town of Calhoun Falls, on South Washington Street. Fire fighters arrived on the scene about 11 minutes later, to find a fire in the living room area, a blaze which extended through the roof.

Fire extinguishing measures were put into place, and the fire was brought under control in about 40 minutes. Fire crews from Calhoun Falls, Sharon, Lowndesville, and Monterey fought the blaze.

SLED was called in to assist with determining the cause of the fire.

The assistance was needed because of the extensive damage, which made determining the cause difficult.

"The folks at the home were able to retreat to safety with no injuries," he said.

The cause of the fire was still under investigation at press time.

Smoke detectors were not present in any of the fires. The Fire Marshal's office would like to encourage anyone needing smoke alarms to call the Fire Marshal's Office at 864-366-6444, said Williams.

The Fire Marshal's Office will come out and install smoke alarms at no charge.

Calhoun Falls, Due West, and the City of Abbeville provide this service as well, and we can give those numbers out appropriately.

The Fire Marshal's Office gives out carbon monoxide detectors as well.

Approximately 20 to 25 fire fighters were on the scene for each of the fires, the Fire Marshal continued.

Healthy Blue rep to be at Abbeville Library

By Henry E. Green
Denisse Martinez, community relations representative from Healthy Blue South Carolina, a Medicaid provider in South Carolina, will be at the Abbeville County Library on Tuesday, Sept. 20 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., said Kristina Sutherly, health advocate with the Abbeville County Library.

She will be inside the library providing information about her program, as well as "healthy tips" in general. In addition, she will be providing all kinds of free items for both adults and children, including puzzles and stuffed animals for the youngsters.

Everyone is welcome and there is no registration required, said Sutherly.

This past Saturday also marked the first meeting of the Walk Across America Walking Group.

This group met at the Library, and Sutherly presented a Power Point presentation on walking and its benefits.

"This is a new initiative for the Library," said Sutherly.

The roughly 25 participants, armed with pedometers, are serious about walking, as the name suggests, and, with their foot work. The amount of walking they do is monitored, in connection with a virtual trip across America.

This is not the only homage to health these days at the Abbeville County Library.

This past Saturday, M.J. Ghrist of Clemson Extension, presented at the Library a program on healthy food and healthy recipes, and provided samples of "white velvet okra."

With a broad community outreach, the Abbeville County Library is also offering tai chi in the evenings.

Dixie student wins co-op scholarship

By Henry E. Green

Surprise!
A Dixie High School senior was recently presented with a scholarship from the Electric Cooperatives of South Carolina in recognition of a community project she completed this past summer.

Seventeen-year-old Emalee Mann is the winner of the 2022 R.D. Bennett Community Service Scholarship sponsored by South Carolina's electric cooperatives.

Mann won a $5,000 prize for her community service called Boxes and Bottles of Blessings.

Representing Little River Electric Cooperative, Mann was among 49 high school students who participated this summer in the Washington Youth Tour, a six day trip to the nation's capital sponsored by the state's electric cooperatives, according to an Electric Cooperatives of South Carolina news release.

"As part of the summer experience, students were encouraged to create and implement a community service project in their local communities," according to the Electric Cooperatives.

Mann was one of five students who completed projects during the summer. The project determined to have the largest community impact won the $5,000 scholarship.

Mann's project involved holding canned food drives to benefit the United Christian Ministries of Abbeville County and the Lowndesville food pantry, collecting money and donations to provide "goody filled water bottles for deserving children, and collecting school supplies for the Diamond Hill school supply closet. She also raised and donated more than $1,200 to UCMAC to assist people with electric bills, medical services and more, according to the Electric Cooperatives.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mann, Emalee has been involved in a number of extracurricular activities at Dixie, including FBLA, the Interact Club, the National Honor Society, student government, FFA and the Beta Club. She is currently student body vice president, as well as president of the Interact Club, and secretary of the FBLA at Dixie.

Van O'Cain from the Electric Cooperatives of South

Carolina presented the award to Emalee in the Dixie library Wednesday morning.

O'Cain was accompanied by Tricia Smith and Jeff Lewis of Little River Electric, Chase Toler of the Electric Cooperatives of South Carolina, and by Emalee's parents, William and Alyssa Mann of the Lake Secession area.

The presentation was a surprise for Emalee, who exclaimed, with a radiant smile, that she definitely had not been expecting the honor.

Also on hand were guidance counselor Caroline McKinsey and media specialist Kim Ware.

Smith said Thursday that the 49 students who took the Washington tour came from throughout the state, and once in Washington they met students from other states who had also been chosen by electric cooperatives.

"They did go to the Capitol," she said of the South Carolina contingent, which she said also met with Sen. Tim Scott and with U.S. Representatives, and visited the U.S. capital's major monuments.

Millage rate approved

By Henry E. Green

Abbeville County Council, meeting Monday night, approved a resolution establishing the millage for the 2022-23 fiscal year, but amended it by suspending a fire protection fee.

Council tabled the resolution until after executive session.

Following executive session, Councilman Rick Campbell made a motion to suspend the fire protection service fee for the tax year 22-23. Drew Simpson seconded the motion. This passed 5-1, with Council member James McCord opposing, said Abbeville County Clerk to Council Lynn Sopolosky Tuesday.

Council member Drew Simpson made a motion to pass Resolution 2022-31 which sets the millage for the current fiscal year.

This was seconded by Council member Charles Goodwin, and it passed 5-1, with Council member McCord opposed.

The fire protection fee was a $20 fee which would have been levied on improved and unimproved parcels in the unincorporated areas of the county, as well as Donalds and Lowndesville.

The purpose of the fee was to raise money to pay four additional full time fire fighters for Abbeville County. The rationale was to have these four fighters work day time hours, when the volunteers would typically be at their day jobs.

The general fund for this fiscal year has a millage of 90.1 mills. The total number of mills being levied comes to 129.8 mills, a rollback from last year of roughly nine mills, due to reassessment.

Campbell said Tuesday that Council voted to suspend the fire protection service fee until Fiscal Year 2023.

"And then we will decide what we need to do," he said.

In other matters, Council held a public hearing and passed second reading on Ordinance 2022-8 to approve a contract for the transfer of approximately .42 of an acre located at 588 Corbin Road in Abbeville County and to authorize the County Director to execute such an agreement, a Deed of Conveyance, and other documents necessary to carry out the transaction.

Abbeville County is giving the property and an above ground storage tank that serves a sprinkler system to a local company, since the tank has been serving only that company, Garner said.

No one signed up to speak during the public hearing.

Council passed Resolution 2022-30 authorizing the County Director to enter into a purchase agreement for the purchase of five new Sheriff's vehicles and one and three fourths ton transport van not to exceed $284,600.

Also passed was Resolution 2022-32 authorizing the County Director to enter into a contractual agreement with Alliance Consulting Engineers for professional services related to the development of a regional water and sewer feasibility study.

Council had first reading on three ordinances:

--An ordinance (2022-9) to approve a contract for the sale of approximately 9.6 acres located off Industrial Park Road in Abbeville County and to authorize the County Director to execute such a contract, a deed of conveyance and other documents necessary to carry out the transaction

--an ordinance (2022-10) to establish guidelines for the Abbeville County Board of Assessment Appeals.

--Ordinance 2022-11) to amend the county road system, Ordinance 2000-5, Index of Roads maintained by Abbeville County, by deletion and removal from the county road system a portion of Clinkscales Road.

Council does not vote on ordinances on their first reading. The ordinances are simply read into the record by the chairman.

Also Monday night, Council approved the appointment of Pete Sopolosky to the Planning Commission.

Also, the County's process of reassessment is now complete, said Garner.

Speaking during the public comment period, before Council took action to suspend the fire protection service fee, was Mack Beaty of Abbeville, who expressed concerns about the fire protection fee "being placed on all parcels, instead of just improved parcels, like all the other fees.

"I am pleased that Council did not place it on all parcels," he said Tuesday, noting that he was not opposed to the fee per se.

Absent from the meeting was County Council member Jason Bonds.

Middle school experience examined

By Henry E. Green

One topic which has been discussed from time to time is that of moving students in middle school grades from Diamond Hill and Cherokee Trail elementary schools to Dixie High School, creating a Dixie middle school division.

Dr. Mason Gary, the Abbeville County School District Superintendent, recently explained why he thought the middle school grades now at Cherokee Trail and Diamond Hill elementary schools should be moved to Dixie High School

"From an adolescent growth and development standpoint, as well as socially and educationally, a middle school student performs and adjusts better when they are in an environment conducive to their collective needs," he answered.

"I have been an administrator in a 5th -8th model and the 5th graders were out of place. In the junior high model, 6th-9th, the ninth graders appear to be misplaced. There is a document called Turning Points, and endorsed by the National Middle School Association, that embraces a true middle school experience for these students in grades 6th-8th. Wright Middle operates from this model. That is the rationale. This year we have approximately 190 students at CTES and DHES in 6th & 7th combined."

Wright Middle School, located in the city of Abbeville, is the District's only middle school.

The discussion comes against a backdrop of happiness, as an appropriation of $38 million from the state will be used for upgrades to the facilities at Dixie and Abbeville high schools, and the Abbeville County Career Center.

Warner works in economic development

By Henry E. Green

Abbeville County economic development guru Mark Warner gave Abbeville Rotarians a pop quiz Thursday.

Abbeville's newest industrial acquisition of course is Aerofoam.

What's the capital investment?

--$11.5 million.

Where is Aerofoam based? --The Middle Eastern nation of Dubai.

Aerofoam has bought Abbeville County's spec building, located in the Lakelands Commerce Park on the outskirts of Abbeville, in an acquisition announced earlier this year.

Owned by a family from India, Aerofoam has facilities throughout the world--facilities through which thermal insulation products are manufactured.

"They're looking for a bigger footprint in the U.S," he said.

Aerofoam is working hard to transform the spec building it bought from Abbeville County into a workable facility, and currently the building consists of a "four walls and a roof," he said.

"I feel like the county is going to want to build another spec building," he said.

Warner works in economic development with both Abbeville County and McCormick County, and in Abbeville County he is working with Jane Hannah in the Abbeville County economic development office.

The Ninety Six native gets leads from such sources as the South Carolina Department of Commerce and the Upstate Alliance.

Abbeville County's previous economic development director, Stephen Taylor, introduced Warner at the meeting.

Warner noted during a question and answer session that companies will often look at a state's politics and consider that political perspective as a factor in deciding whether to move to that state.

Sometimes that means that South Carolina is eliminated from contention.

Warner said that Abbeville and McCormick counties do not compete against each other in terms of economic development.

In his years of working in the field of economic development, he has learned one very important lesson--if you don't know something, just say so:

"Don't blow smoke!"

High schools have College Application Days for their seniors

By Henry E. Green

Abbeville High School senior Johasia Moss wants to study nursing after she leaves AHS.

Where she will study it is something she is still deciding.

Claflin, South Carolina State, Charleston Southern and University of South Carolina are among the colleges she is considering.

To get accepted at any college you have to apply first, of course.

High schools throughout the state are hosting College Application Days during September and October "to provide support in helping seniors begin to complete college applications", said AHS guidance counselor Sandy Scott.

Abbeville and Dixie presented College Application Days Wednesday, Sept. 7, and representatives from various colleges and universities were on hand to offer assistance and information for students making completing applications.

We caught up with College Application Day at AHS. Those representatives on hand, according to Scott, included Taylor Haigler from Lander University, Adrian Rogers from Piedmont Tech, Laura Sanders from the College of Charleston, Bill Malone from Limestone, and Charles Singley from Paine College.

Military representatives included SSG Demetrius Evans of the SC Army National Guard, SSG Tyler

Platt of the SC Army National Guard, and SSG Wade Dixon and SSG Javier Llera.

These representatives were on hand to answer questions about things like scholarships.

Members of the Class of 2023 gathered in the AHS library Wednesday morning, and they were deeply involved in the application process, working on-line to plan for life after high school.

"I assigned every candidate for the Class of 2023 a scheduled time to come to the library to complete at least one application," Scott said.

Forty Dixie seniors attended College Application Day at the high school in Due West recently, the school principal Paul Prescott said.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or just sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
But just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty dish
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,

'Church comedy' to be shown at Opera House

By Henry E. Green

A man who has made a name for himself as an actor and who writes plays will have one of his plays performed at the Opera House in early October.

Javon Johnson, who divides his time between Anderson and Atlanta, has written Sanctified, which will be presented at the Opera House on Saturday, Oct. 8 at 7 p.m.

He posed for a photograph recently in front of the Opera House with two friends from Antreville--Pastor Emmanuel Donaldson and Lang McCoppin.

Johnson, who plays the butler on the show "The Oval," works for Tyler Perry, famous for bringing to life the unforgettable character of Madea.

"The Oval," meanwhile, "is an American political drama and soap opera created, executive produced, written and directed by Tyler Perry," according to Wikipedia. The show premiered in 2019 on BET.

Johnson is no stranger to show business. "He's been in several movies," said Donaldson.

"Sanctified" will be the first time one of Johnson's plays has been presented at the Opera House.

"It's a religious church comedy," said Pastor Donaldson.

For more information, one may call the Opera House at 864-366-9673.

CF Council looks at goals for Town

By Henry E. Green

Wanted--one grocery store.

That was listed as one of the major priorities during a special Calhoun Falls Town Council meeting Wednesday evening at the Calhoun Falls Civic Center.

In that meeting, Calhoun Falls Mayor Terrico Holland listed a number of goals that he hoped the Town could reach.

Holland was joined by Calhoun Falls Town Council members Howard Harmon and Johnny Gilchrist.

Absent from the meeting were Calhoun Falls Town Council members Wane Postell and Christine Long.

The Mayor would also like to see a new police/fire complex for the Town, a complex that he would like to see constructed across the street from the Calhoun Falls Civic Center.

Under the Mayor's plan, the Town would vacate the buildings in which the fire department and the police department are currently located.

The Mayor set out a set of two year goals for the Town, including upgrades for Town facilities, and for Town vehicles.

Holland would like to see three new businesses opened in two years, and he would like also to do something about the vacant buildings downtown.

Most of the owners of those buildings live out of town, the Mayor and Council agreed.

The Town, meanwhile, needs money coming in. "We need revenue," said Council member Howard Harmon, adding that the Town needs to develop a plan to secure that money.

The Council member went on to note that when he was running for Council, voters would tell him how much they wanted to see a grocery store established in Calhoun Falls.

Holland and other Town Council members have spoken to a number of grocery store representatives, but so far have not found any commitments.

Other goals include a community gym, a new HVAC system for the Ellison Center, upgrading the water lines on a number of streets, allowing utility customers to pay Town utility bills on-line, and the establishment of a playground on Anderson Street.

The Mayor said his motto is "Together we can. Together we will."

Trinity Episcopal Church planning 'hymn sing' for late September

By Henry E. Green

Trinity Episcopal Church will be having a "Hymn Sing" on Sept. 25 at 3 p.m., inviting the Abbeville community to join in the singing of old, beloved hymns.

"This program is devoted to those wonderful old hymn standards, many of which are no longer in the modern hymnals," according to the Abbeville Anglican, the Trinity newsletter.

"The program is further enhanced by the inclusion of mandolin, guitar, dulcimer, flute, violin, and Irish Ten Whistle from the multi-talented Lyman Golden family and our own John Pullin, who is widely known for his organ performance.

"If you love the old hymns, this is a program for you--no better way to spend a lovely fall afternoon."

The public is cordially invited to attend.

The church is located on Church Street in downtown Abbeville.

The Trinity congregation was organized in 1842, and the church building was completed on the eve of the Civil War.

Since then, Trinity has been widely admired for its architectural beauty.

The church has been undergoing a process of restoration, with an eye to addressing a number of structural concerns.

Behind the church, there is a labyrinth--perfect for reflection and meditation.

Sharon United Methodist Church Plans Bicentennial Celebration

Submitted by

Lavinia Wiley Clement

Remember the old hymn, "Church in the Wildwood"? That song always makes me think of our "little brown church in the vale". Sharon United Methodist Church has been part of Abbeville's history since 1820. The church we worship in today was dedicated over a hundred years ago. It was the fourth church built by the Sharon congregation. The first origins of our congregation date back a hundred years prior to the building of our current house of worship.

Around 1800 the "Methodist Society" was organized and gathered to worship under a brush arbor, situated off of Hwy 72 West. It is believed the land (about five acres) was given by the estate of Samuel L. Lochridge. The first building was a log meeting house. Nearby was a cemetery with rocks used as grave markers. A second log building, called the Flag Reed Meeting House, was built where the cemetery is now located. A school building was adjacent to the church. In the summer, camp meetings were held in the wooded area near the home of Mrs. J. R. Brown. A third church, constructed of lumber, was built facing the cemetery before the Civil War. Our current church building with a seating capacity of 200 people was built in 1894, and contracted by the Gilliam Brothers. On August 20, 1899, during the pastorate of Mr. Henry Stokes, the new building was dedicated. Mr. and Mrs.

R. D. Edwards were the first couple to be married in the new church.

In 1939, according to a WPA (Works Progress Administration) survey done by Ben Carlton, Sharon Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in 1837 with no lapse in service for over one hundred years. The pastor was Rev. Jessie H. Manley with 107 members. Sunday School was held every other week with 40 members. The Women's Missionary Society was organized in 1925, previously called the Ladies Aid Society, with Mrs. J. R. Brown serving as secretary. The church's annual budget was $433. A parsonage just yards down the road was shared by Sharon, Gilgal, Bells Chapel and Bethel.

Like many Methodist churches, Sharon has always been part of a circuit. In 1840 Sharon Methodist Church became part of the Cokesbury circuit. Over the years Sharon has been attached to a number of churches in various circuits. In 1968 Sharon joined the United Methodist conference. In 2005 a new charge was formed with Smyrna United Methodist Church in Lowndesville, S.C. In July 2021 we welcomed a new pastor, Richard Powell, and his wife, Kay.

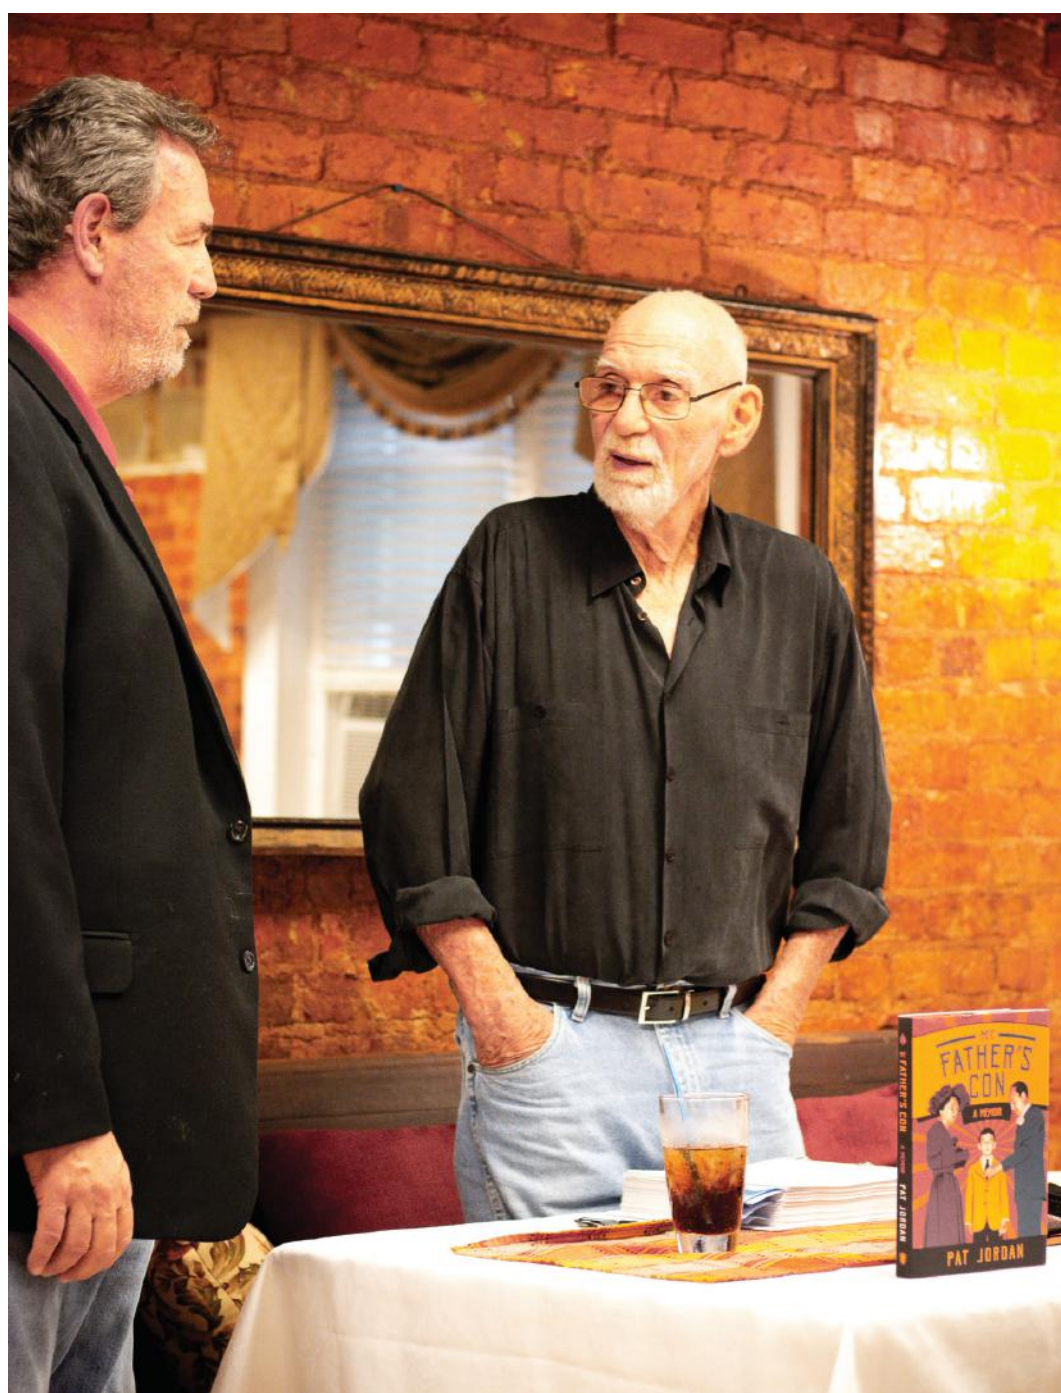

The 20th century brought quite a few upgrades for our church building. In 1946 electric lights were installed. Sunday School rooms were added in 1948. In 1949 wood and coal heating was replaced with a gas heating system. New Sunday School rooms and a fellowship hall were built in 1961. In 1964 the church was bricked up. A new parsonage was built in 1966 with Rev. Sam B. Coker being the first resident. A 29-ft steeple, new porch steps with an enclosed vestibule and railings were dedicated in 1980 giving our church its current appearance. In 1995 a picnic shelter was built. New stained glass windows were installed in the church sanctuary in February 1996.

The Sharon Cemetery is the resting place for founding families and past pastors dating back to 1837. Several veterans of the Civil War are buried there as well. One half acre was added to the cemetery in recent years by the Gilliam family. In 1981 Sharon's Committee of Records and History conducted a comprehensive inventory of the gravestones, spearheaded by Clara Harrison and Margaret Wiley.

The year 2020 marked two hundred years of continuous worship for the Sharon congregation. Some of our current members are descendants of the original founding members. We welcome all who want to celebrate this milestone to our worship service on October 23rd at 11 am. Join us in honoring those who served before us, as we look forward to our continued service. There will be a dinner on the grounds following the service. Please bring a covered dish and join our celebration.

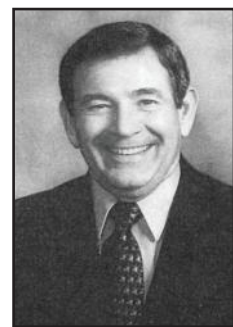

As the old hymn says, "No place is so dear to my childhood, as the little brown church in the vale".

Adversaries

Psalm 109:4 "For my love they are my adversaries: but I will give myself unto prayer."

Osama Bin Laden was the mastermind behind 9/11. After the attack he went into hiding and it took awhile for our USA forces to find him. During the time he was in hiding a little girl came home from Sunday School and asked her father if she could send a note to Osama Bin Laden. Her father asked, "Why him?" "Because," said the little girl, "If Mr. Bin Laden got a nice note from a little American girl, maybe he'd think we are not all bad and he might start liking us a little. And then maybe he'd write a note back and come out of his cave and talk to people about our differences." "Suzie, that's a wonderful idea," said the proud father. "Yes," said Susie, "and once he's out of the cave, the Marines could blast him to kingdom come!"

That little girl's statement expresses how all too often we treat our enemies. Our text here in Psalm 109:4 is a reference to Jesus. Because of His love the religious leaders hated him and eventually put Him to death. The response of Jesus was to give Himself to prayer. Let me share three thoughts from this passage.

First of all this is an example for us. This is what we should do when we have adversaries because of our love for Jesus. If you love and follow Jesus there are some people who are not going to like you. The gospel is divisive. Jesus said in Matthew 10:34-36 "Do not think that I come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword. (35) For I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. (36) And a man's enemies will be those of his own household." In many countries around the world that literally happens, when a son or daughter accepts Christ as savior their families try to kill them. In our own country, the dividing line between those who have a biblical world view and those who don't is quite clear. The proponents of abortion are vocal and violent toward those who disagree with them. Jesus knew what that was like. When we face adversaries to the gospel we should follow the example of Jesus--pray. Pray for our attitude to be correct. Pray for our adversaries to see the light and come to Jesus. Pray for God to give us the strength to follow the example of Jesus.

Second this is an encouragement to us. As Jesus prayed for His enemies we should do the same. It is an encouragement to us to remember that our weapons are not the weapons of this world.

2 Corinthians 10:4 "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds." Our weapons are spiritual not physical. Prayer is our weapon. We win the battle on our knees. Satan trembles as the weakest Christian kneels to pray. Prayer not only strengthens us but subdues our adversaries. God knows how to handle those who are adversaries of the gospel. He has a way of dealing with them far better than us.

Third, when we pray for our adversaries it eliminates us from taking vengeance on our adversaries. Instead of us taking vengeance it leaves the matter in the hands of God. Romans 12:19-20 "Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath: for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. Therefore, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head."

If we treat our adversaries like Jesus did we will pray for God to forgive them for they did not know what they are doing--the very ones nailing Him to the cross. He asked His Heavenly Father to delay judgment on them until they knew what they had done and came to repentance. Many of the very ones who were in the angry mob yelling for Pilate to crucify Jesus came to believe in Him as savior at Pentecost.

It may not be easy to pray for your adversaries like Jesus did but it is the right thing to do. If we follow His example our lives will be a lot less stressful.

Mayor outlines plans for Due West festival

Submitted by Due West Mayor Jeannie Knight

The Fall Festival plans for the 24th of September are nearing completion. The event will start with a Townwide Yard Sale in the morning running throughout the day. Residents can have their yards used for the sales, and these can be mapped out for shoppers who are unfamiliar with Town Streets -- if the owners register with Town Hall before the event.

The Town Washington Street Park will serve as a place for yard sale booths for others who sign up for those spaces. The Due West Lions Club will have their annual White Elephant Sale in the Pavilion in the Park starting at 8 p.m. The afternoon events will be held in the Erskine Robinson Field from noon to 8 p.m. Food vendors will be on Beulah Street adjoining the Field. Booths are available in the Field for crafts and as informational displays.

There will be an Art Tent for local artists to show some of their creations. Artists are advised to furnish easels or other ways to highlight their work. All of these reservations should be made by calling Town Hall as soon as possible at 864-379-2385.

There will be displays of equipment with large trucks and classic cars.

The Fire Department Ladder Truck and a new local Tour Bus will provide good backdrops for taking photos. Two inflatables will be on site during the afternoon; one will be a water slide. The Town Booth will have Fall decorations and Halloween inflatables for sale.

Jason Cunningham will offer Face-Painting. Bake sale vendors are encouraged.

Westside holds off Panther rally, 31-20

By Henry E. Green

Westside jumped out to a big lead, and then held off a ferocious Abbeville High School rally to defeat the Panthers 31-20 in varsity football action.

The 4-A Rams scored on a touchdown pass on their very first possession.

Following an Abbeville punt, the Rams scored in lightning-quick fashion, with a touchdown pass of roughly 80 yards.

Westside thus climbed to a 14-0 lead with 7:06 in the first quarter, a lead the Rams would never relinquish.

Very little seemed to go right in that first quarter, as a 39-yard Panther field goal attempt was blocked.

In the second quarter, Westside went to the air again, finding the end zone with a touchdown pass that increased the Rams' lead to 21-0 with 11:52 in the half.

It was in the second quarter that veteran Panther quarterback Zay Rayford was injured, and replaced with J. Hill.

The wheels seemed to be coming off for the Panthers when Westside recovered a fumble at the Abbeville 39.

Eight plays later, the Rams found the end zone again, and again it was through the air, and with the PAT good, the home team led 28-0.

Abbeville finally got on the board with a touchdown pass from Hill to Cade, and the lead was trimmed to 28-7 with 2:07 in the first half.

That was the score at halftime.

In the second half, the Panthers fought back. Their first possession led them down the field to the Westside one. From there the Panthers seemed to punch it in for a score, but an illegal shift call against Abbeville nullified the touchdown and put the ball back at the six yard line. Two plays later, Westside took over on downs, and the Panther drive was thwarted.

The Rams drove down the field and found success on a field goal attempt to lead 31-7 with 2:03 in the third quarter.

Abbeville answered with a five play touchdown drive, culminating with a touchdown pass to Tinch, cutting the lead to 31-13, with 1:02 in the third quarter.

The Abbeville defense stiffened on the next Ram drive, and the Panthers were able to take over on downs at the AHS 24.

Abbeville capitalized with a sparkling Jamal Marshall run to the Westside 35, and then J. Tinch caught a touchdown pass with 9:05 left in the game, to cut the Ram lead to 31-20—but that was about as close as the Panthers would get.

AHS fell to 2-2 with the loss. The Panthers have defeated McCormick and Southside Christian, and lost to Powdersville and Westside.

Abbeville goes on the road again this week, with the Panthers slated to travel to Crescent for a 7:30 p.m. match-up this coming Friday.

The Tigers, said AHS head football coach Jamie Nickles following the game, are "big, strong and fast."

They can run and they can pass as well, said Nickles, characterizing them as "very balanced."

In junior varsity action, the AHS jayvees lost to Westside 7-0 in Abbeville Thursday night.

Dixie Hornets lose to Liberty Red Devils

By Henry E. Green

Dixie lost to non-Region foe Liberty, 16-7, at Liberty Friday night, said Dixie head football coach Vic Lollis Monday.

The 1-A Hornets fell to 1-3 with the loss to Liberty, a 2-A school, and now Dixie prepares for its first Region game—a contest in Due West against McCormick this coming Friday night.

Against Liberty, Dixie drew first blood, with a 56-yard rushing touchdown by wingback Hunter Satterfield in the first quarter.

Dixie led 7-0 at that point, but a muffed punt led to a safety, and Liberty sliced the lead to 7-2.

In the fourth quarter, the Red Devils bedeviled Dixie with two touchdowns to lead to the 16-7 score.

"We did not perform to our expectations," said Lollis Monday.

The Hornets had two turnovers, but they did not spell the difference in the game, according to the coach. Dixie had the ball inside the Liberty five twice, but could not convert, said Lollis.

Dixie has, so far this season, defeated Greenwood Christian and have lost to Pendleton, Crescent and now Liberty.

The upcoming game with McCormick will be a "kiddie cheer" night, with youngsters from a cheer camp coordinated through the Dixie cheerleaders slated to perform at halftime, Lollis said.

Tina Burton of CF can claim her contest prize

By Henry E. Green

Tina Burton of Calhoun Falls is the contest winner for Week Two, according to Contest Editor Lamar West.

Four entries missed only three picks. "Nobody was giving Duke any love over Northwestern and three of the four picked Florida over Kentucky and UAB to win over Liberty University," West said.

The four entries missing only three picks belonged to Tina Burton, with 821 points, Chloe Anderson, with 838 points, and Nicole Lorentz, with 850 points. The total number of points scored in the 15-game selection, "per Mr. Tiebreaker," came to 733.

Week Two . . . Ah yes, that was the week of some notable upsets. Texas A&M and

Notre Dame fell to some singularly unheralded teams in the form of Appalachian State and Marshall.

Alabama survived a big scare at Texas, kicking a field goal in the closing moments to hang on for a victory over the Longhorns.

Closer to home, Carolina lost on the road to Arkansas, and Clemson defeated Furman in Death Valley.

If you're a Carolina fan, and you watched the game, you probably are shaking your head right now and saying, "We've got work to do."

An offensive line that did not always give the quarterback the best protection, a less than stellar defense, a dismal running game, and turnovers—all were factors in the loss to the Razorbacks.

Yes, we know that Arkansas is ranked in the Top 20, but things will not get any easier when Georgia comes to Williams-Brice Stadium this Saturday.

Clemson, on the other hand, will munch on a cream-filled cupcake in the form of Louisiana Tech.

Who let the Dogs out?

Who's the top team in the country?

It might be a bit too early to tell, but there was something about how the Georgia Bulldogs chewed up in the Oregon Ducks and spit them out that inspired awe.

By the way, our crystal ball is in the shop, getting a tune-up, so we won't be making any predictions this week about upcoming games.

The Abbeville High School Panthers during a break in the action raised their helmets in a show of solidarity during their recent game with Westside. The Rams came out on top, though, to the tune of 31-20. (Staff photo by Henry E. Green)

Sports wrap-up

Erskine wins again

By Henry E. Green

The Erskine football team has claimed another victory.

The Flying Fleet notched a victory over Clark Atlanta, 23-19 in Atlanta this past Saturday--Sept. 10.

Erskine is now 2-0. CF Charter football news Calhoun Falls Charter had a bye this past week in varsity football action, but this coming Friday will travel to Christ Church to take on the Cavaliers.

'Game time decision' Abbeville High School quarterback Zay Rayford injured his ankle in the Panthers' loss to Westside

Friday night, and AHS head football coach Jamie Nickles was asked if Rayford will play this coming Friday night--Sept. 16--at Crescent.

"Game time decision," Nickles replied by text on Monday, Sept. 12.

Yahuwah's (GOD'S) Law embodied in Yahushuah

By Cindy Ramsey

While we could go into a deep study regarding the Law of Yahuwah (GOD) NOT being done away with by Yahushuah (Jesus), a short study of the word fulfill should be helpful.

The apostle Paul wrote, "For Yahushuah is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes" (Romans 10:4). Many assume this means Yahushuah Ha Moshiach did away with the law. But that interpretation is in direct contradiction to His own words: "Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled" (Matthew 5:17-18).

The word "fulfill" in verse 17 is from the Greek word pleroo, meaning "to fill up, to fill to the full" (The King James Version Second Covenant Greek Lexicon). Therefore, Yahushuah was not saying He ended the law, but rather that His thoughts and actions perfectly embodied its every intent. He "filled it to the full."

The word "fulfilled" in verse 18 is from the word ginomai, meaning "to become," "made" or "finished." That is to say, the law will continue throughout Yahuwah's plan for mankind! It did not end over 2,000 years ago.

Yahushuah Himself declared that He did not destroy the law. In fact, He went on to denounce anyone who would teach differently: "Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:19).

What does "Yahushuah is the end of the law" mean?

Paul originally wrote Romans in the Greek language, which does not always translate into modern languages in a readily understandable way. Unfortunately, the Greek word telos is often translated "end." This gives today's reader a different impression than it gave those who read the letter in Paul's day.

The word telos can be translated differently depending on the context. It can mean "end result or ultimate fate" (Mounce's Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and Second Covenant Words, 2006, "End"). It can also mean "the aim or purpose of a thing". (Vine's Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and Second Covenant Words, 1985, "End, Ending").

The NKJV Study Bible says, "End can mean 'fulfillment'; that is, Yahushuah fulfilled all the requirements of the law. It can also mean 'goal,' to say that Yahushuah was the object to which the law led" (2007, comments on Romans 10:4).

The fact that telos can mean "goal" is clearly demonstrated by the Second King James translation of 1 Timothy 1:5: "Now the purpose of the commandment is love". The word "purpose" comes from the Greek word telos. Other translations render it as "aim" (Second Revised Standard Version) and "goal" (Second International Version, Holman Christian Standard Bible).

Paul's view of the law

What is the correct way to translate telos in Romans 10:4? A fundamental rule of sound Bible study is to allow the Bible to interpret itself. In this case, we can find other passages where Paul wrote about the law to determine his view of it. A good example of his perspective is found in Romans 7:7, where he wrote: "What shall we say then? Is the law lawlessness (sin)? Certainly not! On the contrary, I would not have known lawlessness except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, 'You shall not covet.'"

Clearly, Paul considered that Yahuwah's law, stated in the 10 Commandments, continued to define lawlessness for Second Covenant (referred to by most Christians as New Testament) believers.

Many additional scriptures show us that Paul held Yahuwah's law in high regard—certainly not believing that it was done away. He wrote: "Therefore the law is set apart, and the commandment set apart and just and good" (Romans 7:12) and, "Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of Yahuwah is what matters" (1 Corinthians 7:19).

Therefore, it is clear that Paul meant "Yahushuah is the goal, purpose or objective of the law" in Romans 10:4—not that Yahushuah put an end to the law!

Often Paul's words are distorted and misapplied in an attempt to teach that keeping Yahuwah's law is no longer required. Nothing could be further from the truth than claiming that Paul was against the law of Yahuwah!

Evidently some people twisted Paul's words in the Second Covenant period too. Peter wrote: "As also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures". (2 Peter 3:15-16) Unfortunately, this practice of misinterpreting Paul's words continues today.

Yahuwah's law leads us to Yahushuah

What, then, does "Yahushuah is the end of the law" mean? There are at least two ways that Yahushuah is the goal, ultimate aim or objective of the law.

Yahuwah's law defines lawlessness (Romans 7:7; 1 John 3:4). Said another way, the law shows what righteousness is—the opposite of lawlessness. Because all have broken the law, we are deserving of death (Romans 3:23;

6:23). Our own righteousness cannot save us (Galatians 2:16). The law convicts us that we are guilty of lawlessness, for it plainly shows how short we fall of Yahuwah's expectations. Therefore, the law shows us that we need a Savior, which we have in Yahushuah Ha Moshiach. In this way, Yahushuah is the ultimate end, or objective, of the law.

Yahuwah's law leads us to think and act as Yahushuah did. A popular question in recent years is "What would Yahushuah do?" This question is often abbreviated as WWJD. As surprising as it must seem to those who have been told the law is done away with, the Bible clearly shows that Yahushuah kept the law. John wrote, "He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked" (1 John 2:6). Yahuwah gave us His law so that we could learn to be like Him. Yahuwah is love. All that He does is motivated by love. Yahuwah's Commandments teach us how to show love toward Him and toward one another. When we ask what Yahushuah would do and then do what Yahushuah did, we learn to be like Him.

When Yahushuah was asked which commandment was the greatest, He replied; "'You shall love Yahuwah your Elohim with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets" (Matthew 22:37-40).

Yahuwah's 10 Commandments amplify these two great laws. Paul did not teach against the Commandments; he taught that they were still binding for followers of Yahushuah.

To understand Yahuwah's Word, we sometimes have to delve more deeply into the context and meaning of the original language. Understanding Yahuwah's truth accurately is exciting, but the greatest joy comes from acting on what you understand. Prove the truth of this article and check every reference in your Bible.

Paul admonishes us to be like the Bereans and examine the Scripture. In Acts 17:11 Paul says the Bereans were more noble than those in Thessalonica in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures daily whether those things were so. Simply stated, we can either be satisfied by being spoon fed over and over again the things we have been taught, expecting to grow in Yahuwah's Truth, or we can take responsibility for our salvation and growth by studying Yahuwah's Word and seeking His answer to our questions. Once you receive the answer, begin doing what you know Yahuwah expects of you. He will guide you! What He expects is obedience and you show your love for Him through your obedience to Him.

Scott Leads Effort to Protect Charter Schools from Biden Admin's Attacks

WASHINGTON – This week, U.S. Senator Tim Scott (R-S.C.) led 21 colleagues in introducing Congressional Review Act (CRA) legislation to nullify the Biden administration's new rules adding burdensome requirements to charter schools seeking funding.

"Time and time again, this administration has bowed to big-labor unions and liberal extremists at the expense of children's futures. Now they are outdoing themselves with rules that will undermine charter schools — tuition-free, top-notch public education options that serve primarily disadvantaged students," said Senator Scott. "Support for these schools has never been a partisan issue. It's time the administration put politics aside and joined parents in the fight for quality education."

Background: Earlier this year, the Department of Education announced new rules overhauling the 28-year-old, bipartisan Charter School Program (CSP). The changes would place federal, one-size-fits-all requirements on charter schools, making it difficult — if not impossible — for many of these high-quality public schools to receive funding.

Despite substantial bipartisan backlash, the administration is moving ahead with its plans, which will strip families of education choice and give more power to big labor unions and bureaucrats in D.C.

For months, Sen. Scott has been leading the charge to protect charter schools from this brazen attack. He wrote to Secretary Cardona on several occasions:

In April, Sen. Scott and several Republicans expressed deep concern over the proposed CSP rules.

In April, Sen. Scott and HELP Ranking Member Richard Burr (R-N.C.) requested an extension of the public comment period.

In May, Sen. Scott and a bipartisan group of senators urged the Department to revise the new rules.

Scott Statement on Passing of Queen Elizabeth II

WASHINGTON – U.S. Senator Tim Scott (R-S.C.) released the following statement on the passing of Queen Elizabeth II.

"I am saddened to hear of the passing of Queen Elizabeth II, and my prayers go out to the Windsor family and all the people of the United Kingdom who are mourning her death.

As the longest serving

British monarch, her seven decades of steadfast leadership and commitment to building strong relationships with American leaders will be pillars of her larger than life legacy."

US House of Representatives

Rep. Duncan releases statement on the death of Queen Elizabeth II

Submitted by Congressman
Jeff Duncan

Washington, D.C.— Congressman Jeff Duncan issued the following statement following the death of the Queen of the United Kingdom.

"The Queen has remained a symbol of strength and fortitude during her monumental seven-decade reign. I am inspired by her love of country and faithful devotion, and her presence will be profoundly missed. Queen Elizabeth II's grace and poise have been a constant for the United Kingdom during her ninety-six years of life, from her time serving in the military in World War II to reigning as monarch for an unprecedented seventy years. I especially admired her strong and genuine faith in Jesus Christ and her steadfastness in her role as head of the Church of England.

During her lifetime and as Queen, she established relationships with American Presidents and has been a close ally and friend to the United States," said Congressman Jeff Duncan. "Our prayers are with Queen Elizabeth II's family and the United Kingdom as they grieve the loss of an incredible woman who led an extraordinary life."

My Observations

Submitted by
D.J. George

As a storyteller I silently sit and watch, the living art of mankind laid out before me.

Scenes that I hope will be a part of the moments captured in word, by my pen, a living art.

Do I criticize you? No, not at all! I merely convey what I perceive "to be" the story may be fact or fiction is it false, is it true is it all about you?

Oh no, do not mistake, my observations, for they are merely just that. Am I right, am I wrong, to capture a moment in time?

To immortalize the words that were said. Images that live on within my head. Thoughts that I have on the things that I see might appear in my words (which I will return to humanity).

So, I thank you for being human. For it is of this condition that I love to write.

The subject matter (although often the same) does surprise me every now and then. So, I feel the need to capture these thoughts.

For surely these observations can be taught? If we learn to improve on who we are, to get out of the caves and into the light, to get out of the sea, to learn to walk free, to not be part of the dark side of humanity.

Choices seem to be: What we all have in common if we strive to stay in the light (for it is there that you can fight the good fight) choices of good or of bad; do not have to always make you sad.

If you can resist the call to be a falling star ... You will not fall too far.

If you wish to be a positive voice, you really will make a good choice, to keep reaching higher still whilst maintaining your free will.

So, these are a few of my observations, that I share with you.

We are all a part of God's creations. For my part I prefer to share what I see of the good side of humanity.
