THE STORY BEHIND THE BBQ

Jonathan Hambrick embarked on his journey by dedicating two decades to preaching while nurturing a hidden passion for cooking, inspired by his father's recipes. His father's challenge to replicate those flavors sparked a culinary adventure that led him to sell $10 chicken plates, gradually transitioning from borrowing grills to establishing his own cooking enterprise, Big Johns. Recognizing that his mission extended beyond the restaurant, he created MyKitchen, a versatile space that serves as a commissary and incubator for food service professionals. As a proud local, Jonathan continues to honor his roots and dreams of expanding his impact through initiatives like EGOP, a culinary network, Nurturing Potential, a workforce development program, and Violas House, a feeding program, all while maintaining his commitment to quality smoked meats and community service.
