

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic face a season defining afternoon on Saturday when Leeds UFCA visit for an NCEL Division One play off semi final that could move Briggs to within one win of promotion.

Briggs earned home advantage after finishing second in the table and arrive in confident mood following a strong close to the league campaign. Consecutive 3-0 victories over Glasshoughton Welfare and Appleby Frodingham underlined their form, while four straight home league wins have reinforced belief that this is an opportunity not to be missed.

Sheffield FC's promotion hopes were ended in the cruelest fashion on Saturday as Tadcaster Albion overturned a two goal deficit before winning on penalties in a dramatic NCEL Premier Division play off semi final at the Home of Football Stadium.

For Sheffield, it was a brutal ending to a campaign that had promised so much. Having finished third in the table and earned home advantage, they were left to reflect on a missed opportunity after leading for over 75 minutes. Their season ends in frustration rather than celebration after an afternoon that turned from control to collapse.

Historic Welfare Lights Set for Change

Armthorpe Welfare are preparing for a major floodlight upgrade, bringing to an end decades of service from one of the ground's most distinctive features.

The current lights have a unique back story, having originally stood at Scunthorpe United's former home, The Old Showground, before being relocated to Armthorpe following the stadium's closure in the late 1980s.

They have illuminated countless league matches, cup ties and training sessions over the years, but age and maintenance issues mean replacement is now needed.

Plans have been submitted to remove the four existing tall towers and replace them with a modern LED system designed to meet current standards and improve light quality across the pitch.

A full planning application is currently awaiting a decision, with approval expected later this spring before installation can be scheduled.

Once complete, the new system is expected to provide brighter, more consistent lighting, lower running costs and improved reliability for evening fixtures.

For Armthorpe Welfare, it will mark the end of a link to a famous Football League ground and the beginning of a new chapter for facilities at the Welfare Ground, after their most successful season since their relegation from the Northern Counties East League Premier Division in 2015.

Titans Begin Clifton Lane Transformation

Rotherham Titans have begun major redevelopment work at Clifton Lane, including the rotation of the main rugby pitch by 90 degrees as part of a long term redesign of the historic ground.

The changes were confirmed in the club's matchday programme, with chairman Nick Cragg revealing that groundworks are already under way to re-orientate the playing surface.

The work is being carried out by John Mallen and his team, with the aim of seeding the newly aligned pitch and having it ready for use at the start of the 2026–27 season.

Heavy machinery has moved onto the site in recent weeks, with visible changes reflecting what the chairman described as “considerable change” since the team’s previous home fixture earlier in the campaign.

The pitch rotation forms the centrepiece of a wider reconfiguration of Clifton Lane, intended to improve how the ground operates on matchdays and to make better use of the available space.

As part of the development, a new access road is planned across the top of the pitch, allowing for a one way traffic system and the creation of additional parking.

Supporters attending matches have been reminded to respect fenced off areas while work continues, with the club stressing that machinery and active groundworks present safety hazards.

The scale of the changes represents one of the most significant alterations to Clifton Lane in its long history, signalling a major shift in how the Titans’ home will be laid out in future seasons.

Rhodes joins Penistone Church

Penistone Church have boosted their profile with the appointment of former Premier League and Championship striker Jordan Rhodes as the club's new ambassador.

The ex-Huddersfield Town, Blackburn Rovers and Sheffield Wednesday forward has strong local ties and already knows the club well after training with them last year.

Living in the area, Rhodes is set to play an active role as Penistone Church continue their on- and off-pitch development, using his experience and contacts within the professional game.

"I'm really pleased to be joining Penistone Church FC," said Rhodes. "Having already spent some time around the club, I know what a great setup it is and I couldn't wait to get stuck in and help wherever I can."

His appointment comes during a period of significant ambition for the South Yorkshire club, who are progressing plans for a new 3G pitch alongside preparations to mark their 120 year anniversary in 2026.

Chair and commercial director David Elliott believes Rhodes' involvement will be a major asset as those projects move forward.

"We are absolutely delighted to have someone like Jordan on board," said Elliott. "His experience at the highest level of the game and his connections within football will be hugely valuable to us.

"With so much happening at the club, from our 3G pitch project to celebrating 120 years in 2026, there is plenty for him to get involved in."

Penistone Church continue to expand their reach in the community, now boasting more than 35 teams and over 500 players across men's, women's and junior sections.

The arrival of Rhodes as club ambassador underlines that growth and reinforces the club's aim to inspire the next generation while strengthening its links across the region.

Shootfighters Storm Caged Steel With Knockout Double

JAMES BOVINGTON

Sheffield Shootfighters enjoyed success on the recent Caged Steel show at Doncaster Dome as Charlie Chambers and Gabriel Bell both won their amateur MMA bouts by knockout on what is considered one of the most prestigious shows in the North.

Chambers, 29, described his bout with Glasgow's Marcus Anderson as a "tight fight but with a well-deserved win" in front of the mainly South Yorkshire crowd. "Although the opponent had started well, I adapted quickly and halfway into the second round I delivered two powerful shots to his head which had him down both times with the referee stopping the contest with about a minute to go. My winning shots were both with the right hand but were set up differently. I was proud of my performance, showcasing what I can do for all those people to see."

Middleweight Chambers fighting at 84kg works full time as a scaffolder. "My partner and I are also preparing for the arrival of our first child. Work has to accommodate my training. I did sessions morning and night for this contest and my record is now four wins and one loss. I've been with my club for eleven years and over that time I've coped with various injuries. I love everything about MMA which has been a consistent outlet for me helping me focus through the stress that life can throw at you and allowing me to express myself."

Gabriel Bell lives in Eckington where he grew up and started MMA training four years ago. He's been with Shootfighters for a year. Fighting at 93kg, light heavyweight Bell won his sixth amateur MMA contest over Birmingham's Ben Ojog. "There were some vicious exchanges in this bout which I'm sure thrilled the crowd. The noise from our supporters suggested so anyway. I didn't feel in danger at any point. I'm proud to have kept my 100% finish rate. I'm already back in the gym training and am proud to have won four of my six amateur contests."

"We planned cor-

rectly for Gabe and Charlie to deal with their opponents,” said coach Sam Boulton. “Exactly what we expected would happen did, and they executed it perfectly. They’re brilliant fighters and it’s an absolute pleasure having them both at the club. Gabe is looking to get a fight matched shortly.

"Sheffield Shootfighters has been around for almost a quarter of a century and we're keen to welcome new members. Best if they just turn up. We've got a Kids MMA team that's growing by the week and on Wednesday afternoons at four we run Mind Body connect which brings MMA to vulnerable people."

“Gabriel and Charlie are exactly the type of athletes Caged Steel is built for,” explained Alex McReynolds head of marketing and matchmaking at Caged Steel. “Both bring heart and skill to the cage, with a willingness to test themselves against strong opposition. This drives the level of competition on our shows. Caged Steel provides high-quality opportunities for elite athletes like Gabriel and Charlie to showcase abilities and build profiles in front of a live crowd and global livestream exposure. We hope to see them under the lights again throughout 2026.”

Shootfighters are located at 110 Duchess Road S2 4BL. Contact them via e-mail sheffieldmma@hotmail.com or @sheffieldmma on Instagram. Caged Steel 43 takes place on 4th July. Tickets are already available at <https://www.caged-steel.co.uk>.

Westville Sink Foxes For First Silverware

SHAUN BEST

Westville secured their first silverware of the season following a 3-0 victory over The Sly Fox in the final of the George Jowett Memorial Trophy.

Goals from Atley Jackson, Harrison Shaw and Shay Evans-Booth gave Westville a deserved victory in front of a healthy crowd at Parkgate FC.

Jackson almost scored early on when he chased a goal kick to run clear, only to see his effort thwarted by a firm save. Moments later, Jackson did find the net when a square ball by Jake Phillis left him with an easy tap in.

Sly Fox almost found an equaliser, but a bullet header was smartly kept out at the far post. Westville enjoyed large spells in the Fox half and some wasteful finishing prevented them from adding to their tally.

Shaw provided a moment of magic to secure the victory. Some fast footwork bamboozled two markers, as the defender advanced forwards, before placing a low shot into the bottom corner.

Westville introduced fresh legs from the bench to see out the game. Fox's Cody Mee dispossessed a substitute late on, only to blaze his effort over the bar. Mee's frustration summed up the Fox's evening.

Evans-Booth put the gloss on the scoreline with the last kick of the game. The substitute collected a pass in the box and drilled the ball into the net from close range.

Westville remain active in a range of cup competitions, plus are well placed in the Premier Division and will look to add more trophies to their cabinet before the season concludes.

UPSETS & PRESSURE

County Cup finals weekend brings three matches shaped by hierarchy tests, fixture congestion and unfinished business, beginning on Saturday before rolling into a Sunday programme that pulls together clubs from across South Yorkshire's grassroots scene.

Saturday's action centres on the Saturday Cup Final at 2pm, where Swinton Athletic face Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves at the Steel City Stadium. On paper, Swinton are stepping up against opponents from a division higher, but their league form suggests this is no free hit.

Swinton sit second in Division One of the Sheffield & Hallamshire County Senior League, firmly in the promotion hunt, and arrive with momentum and confidence. Rather than worrying about the level gap, they will see the afternoon as a chance to provide a shock, using belief and organisation to put pressure on more established opposition.

For Stocksbridge

Park Steels Reserves, expectation travels with them. Competing in the County Senior League Premier Division, they return to the final aiming to lift the trophy for a third successive season. That record brings experience, but also pressure, with little upside in victory and plenty to lose if they allow the occasion to slip.

The challenge for Stocksbridge will be asserting control early and avoiding the frustration that can creep in when favourites are denied rhythm by opponents with less to lose.

Sunday brings a different rhythm, and far more variety.

The Sunday Trophy Final, kicking off at 10am, sees Loca FC take on Shaw Inn FC. Loca represent the Blades Super Draw Sunday Sports League and have built their cup run on attacking football, scoring freely and carrying confidence through each round.

Shaw Inn arrive from Division One of the Barnsley & District Sunday League, having taken a tougher route to the final. Their progress has been built on discipline and resilience, edging tight encounters and showing the kind of durability that often proves decisive in finals where flow is hard to find.

At 2pm, the Sunday Cup Final closes the weekend and brings together two sides arriving from very different recent schedules.

Westville FC, of the Mexborough & District Sunday League Premier Division, come in with a 100% league record, despite being well behind on fixtures due to an extensive cup calendar. Their season has included a deep run in the FA Sunday Cup, ended by Home Bargains FC of Liverpool, a Montagu Cup semi final defeat to the eventual winners, and victory in the George Jowett Trophy earlier this week.

Opponents The Gate Inn FC, representing the Rotherham & District Sunday Football League, are in the middle of a defining run. They suffered defeat in the Montagu Cup Final on Easter Monday, but responded by winning the Brian Bee-ley Cup semi final last weekend, setting up another major final appearance with more still to come.

All three finals take place at the Steel City Stadium, Olympic Legacy Park, rounding off a weekend defined by contrasts — division gaps, form lines, fixture backlogs and the pressure that only finals football brings.

Smarter fundraising without parent pressure

Grassroots sports clubs across South Yorkshire are feeling the squeeze as rising facility, travel and equipment costs make traditional fundraising harder to sustain.

Many clubs still rely on the same small group of parents and volunteers to run raffles, chase sponsorship or contribute more themselves, but that model is increasingly under strain as household budgets tighten.

A new initiative called Switch for Sport is offering an alternative way for clubs to raise money without asking anyone to dip into their pockets.

Instead of donations or events, the scheme allows parents, coaches and supporters to switch everyday household services such as energy, broadband, mobile contracts or insurance, often to more competitive deals.

Those switches can save individuals money on their existing bills, while the club receives 50 per cent of the commission generated, typically £20 or more per switch, with no cost or risk involved.

There is no selling, no upfront commitment and no impact on club members beyond making a smarter choice with services they already use.

Switch for Sport was created by people with extensive experience of grassroots sport, from competing at international level to coaching and running clubs with limited resources.

The founders say they have lived through the reality of self-funding competition and trying to grow clubs while juggling rising costs, which shaped their decision to build a more sustainable income option.

What appeals to many clubs is the simplicity of the idea.

There is no need to organise events, rely on sponsorship or repeatedly ask the same families to contribute, turning everyday spending into a passive income stream instead.

With volunteers already stretched, it offers a low-effort way to bring in additional funding while supporting the wider club community.

Clubs can take part in minutes, with the potential to add a consistent new income source alongside existing fundraising activity.

More information is available at www.switchforsport.co.uk or by emailing office@switchforsport.co.uk.

Play-offs delayed by Coalville charge

The United Counties League Division One play-offs have been delayed after Coalville Town were charged with playing an unregistered player.

Coalville had until 15 April to respond to the charge, leaving league officials unable to finalise the table or confirm the play-off line-up while the disciplinary process remains live.

Any sanction, including a possible points deduction, could alter the final standings and determine which clubs qualify for the semi-finals.

Although no South Yorkshire clubs are involved in the play-offs, the delay affects neighbouring sides, including Staveley Miners Welfare, who are based just over the border in Derbyshire.

Staveley finished the regular season just outside the promotion places and are watching developments closely, with the outcome potentially reshaping the final table above them.

The United Counties League has confirmed that play-off dates and pairings will not be announced until the Coalville case has been resolved.

Coalville have not yet publicly commented on the charge.

Steels Show Spirit Despite Narrow Defeat at Play-Off Chasing Rylands

STOCKSBRIDGE

ADAM ALLCROFT

Stocksbridge Park Steels may have left Warrington empty-handed last weekend, but the performance they produced in a pulsating 3-2 defeat at Warrington Rylands offered plenty of encouragement as the Northern Premier League Premier Division season heads towards its conclusion.

On paper, the task could hardly have been tougher. Rylands arrived at the Quickline Logistics Arena in buoyant mood, knowing that victory would secure their place in the play-offs. Stocksbridge, by contrast, made the long trip across the Pennines with survival still very much on the agenda and little margin for error. What unfolded was an open, hard-fought contest that underlined the Steels' refusal to go quietly.

Any sense of inferiority was banished inside ten minutes. Connor Smythe produced a moment of real quality to put Stocksbridge ahead, unleashing a magnificent strike into the top corner that gave the home side's goalkeeper no chance and momentarily silenced the expectant Rylands crowd. It was a reminder that, whatever the league table might suggest, this Steels side carries real attacking threat when allowed space.

Rylands responded as play-off contenders tend to do. Pressure built, and on 28 minutes Patrick Gamble equalised, his shot taking a fortuitous deflection on its way past the stranded goalkeeper. For a brief spell Stocksbridge weathered the storm well and even had a golden opportunity to restore the lead when they were awarded a penalty. Smythe again stepped up, but this time his effort drifted wide, a moment that swung the momentum decisively.

The hosts made full use of that reprieve. Gamble struck again four minutes before the break, capitalising on a goalmouth scramble to nudge Rylands into a 2-1 half-time lead. From a Stocksbridge perspective, it was a frustrating end to an otherwise competitive first half, and one that left them with another uphill task after the interval.

The second half followed a more measured pattern, with Stocksbridge remaining organised and competitive, while Rylands looked to manage the game and strike on the break. An offside flag denied Alex Kiwomya earlier in the half, but the winger made no mistake just after the hour mark, surging through the Steels defence before finishing clinically to make it 3-1.

To their credit, Stocksbridge refused to fold. Just five minutes later, substitute Tomas Poole reignited the contest with a moment of real finesse, curling a sublime free kick beyond the goalkeeper and into the top corner to reduce the deficit to one. Suddenly, belief surged through the travelling players and supporters.

The Steels pushed hard for an equaliser in the final stages. Poole went agonisingly close again, crashing an effort against the crossbar, while balls into the box caused visible anxiety among the Rylands back line. Ultimately, however, the home side held firm, seeing out the final minutes to clinch both the points and their coveted play-off place.

While the defeat keeps Stocksbridge firmly in the relegation battle, the performance itself carried significant positives. They matched a top-four side for long periods, scored two excellent goals, and showed the kind of resilience that will be essential in the weeks ahead. If fine margins went against them on the day—a missed penalty, a deflection, the width of the crossbar—they also demonstrated they have the quality to compete at this level.

For a club judged often by results alone, this was a display that spoke as much about character as it did about footballing ability. With survival still dependent on other results, the message from Warrington was clear: Stocksbridge Park Steels are very much alive, still fighting, and determined to carry that spirit into what remains of the campaign.

Silsden Spoil the Party as Farewells Loom at Sandygate

HALLAM

IAN JONES

Hallam’s final Saturday afternoon at Sandygate before the curtain begins to fall on a significant managerial era ended in disappointment, as Silsden left the world’s oldest football ground with a 2-0 victory that did little to reflect the competitive nature of the contest.

On a breezy April afternoon, with both sides keenly aware of what was at stake at opposite ends of the Northern Premier League East Division table, Hallam largely held their own but were ultimately undone by moments of ruthless efficiency and an inspired visiting goalkeeper. The hosts arrived in reasonable form and were keen to build momentum ahead of a poignant final home fixture this weekend, yet found Silsden stubborn, organised and clinical when it mattered most.

The opening exchanges belonged to Hallam. Playing with intent and energy, the Countrymen pressed early and created chances that suggested the afternoon might swing their way. Kiyani Clayton went close inside the first quarter of an hour, only to be denied twice in quick succession by Silsden keeper Tommy Brown, who was already hinting at the influential role he would play. Leon Hawthorth was another to test Brown, but each time the goalkeeper stood firm. That inability to capitalise would soon prove costly. Approaching the half hour mark, Silsden broke forward at pace after soaking up pressure, skipper Harry Coates stretching to square for Kayle Price, who finished low under the Hallam keeper to give the visitors the lead. It was a sucker punch for Craig Denton’s side, who had arguably enjoyed the better of the opening half-hour.

Hallam pushed for a response before the interval. A close range header and a deflected strike both forced further saves from Brown, but by the break the scoreboard still read 1-0 to Silsden. The second half followed a similar pattern. Hallam battled up the Sandygate slope, probing and pressing, but without quite finding the cutting edge required.

Luke Brooksbank went close at the back post just before the hour mark, a reminder that Silsden remained a threat on the counter. At the other end, Hallam continued to knock on the door, but as time ticked away frustration began to creep in. With the hosts committing bodies forward in search of an equaliser, spaces inevitably opened, and deep into stoppage time Brooksbank sealed the points, pouncing to make it 2-0 and confirm a vital win for the West Yorkshire outfit.

While the result itself was disappointing, the afternoon was also framed by the growing sense that change is imminent at Sandygate. This Saturday’s home clash against Dunston will be the final one under the stewardship of Craig Denton, bringing to an end a chapter defined by resilience, rebuilding and pride in representing one of football’s most historic clubs. Denton has guided Hallam through testing transitions on and off the pitch, and regardless of the result, the occasion will rightly be marked with appreciation for his work and commitment.

As Dunston arrives and the final home game of the season unfolds, the focus will shift briefly from results and tables to reflection and gratitude. Hallam’s future will soon move into a new era, but Saturday will be about acknowledging those who have helped shape the present—and making sure they receive the send off their service deserves.

Thanks Ian!

Saturday will also be an emotional farewell for another figure synonymous with Hallam’s modern day identity. Long serving kitman and media manager Ian Jones will also take his final bow at Sandygate this weekend. Rarely in the spotlight but ever present behind the scenes, Jones has been a cornerstone of matchdays for years, ensuring the club runs smoothly while documenting its stories with care and passion. Ian has been very supportive of South Yorkshire Sport since we launched just over a year ago when we expected the crowd at Hallam to surpass our readership on a scale of 10 to 1! We never expected to have best part of 3000 readers every week and it is only thanks to people like Ian that this has happened. Thank you Ian – good luck with whatever you do and you will definitely be sorely missed at both Hallam and by South Yorkshire Sport.

Beverley And Tadcaster One Win From Glory

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST

Beverley Town and Tadcaster Albion will meet next weekend in the Macron NCEL Premier Division Play Off Final with a place at Step 4 on the line after both came through tense and dramatic semi finals on Saturday. Beverley edged a fiery contest at Norwood Park, beating Barton Town 1-0 thanks to a 71st minute penalty from McCauley Snelgrove. The game, watched by just under a thousand spectators, ended in chaotic fashion with five red cards shown in the second half (including one just after the final whistle), four of them to Barton whose season came to a frustrating close.

Over at the Home of Football Stadium, Tadcaster Albion produced a remarkable late comeback in front of 902 supporters to deny Sheffield. First half goals from Alex Hardwick and Sam Greenhouse had put the hosts in control, and they held that advantage until the final fifteen minutes. But Miguel Cassama struck twice to force a penalty shoot out, and the Brewers held their nerve to win 4-3 and book their place in the final. Beverley, runners up last season, will now host the showpiece as they look to secure promotion at the second attempt.

The final match of the Premier Division regular season also took place on Saturday, with Knaresborough Town finishing ninth after a 2-1 home victory over champions Liversedge. Slater Barkham Barnes scored both goals for the hosts, either side of an equaliser from Alfie Dean, as Sedge ended the campaign fourteen points clear at the top.

In Division One, most sides completed their league programmes with only a couple of midweek fixtures remaining. Wakefield AFC and Worsbrough Bridge Athletic both secured home advantage in next weekend's Play Off Semi Finals after confirming second and third place respectively. Wakefield eased to a 4-1 win at Route One Rovers, Ify Ofoegbu opening the scoring before a Musa Dukuray Conteh own goal and further strikes from Tom Hinton and Eliel Anku put them firmly in control by half time. Anees Younis pulled one back for the hosts after the break. Worsbrough, meanwhile, beat bottom placed Glasshoughton Welfare 3-0 with goals from Akram Lasalire, Harrison Marvin and Jake Squires.

Harrogate Railway Athletic and Leeds UFCA, both already assured of play off spots, will discover their semi final destinations once Worsbrough complete their final fixture on Tuesday. Railway came from behind to win 2-1 at Selby Town through Nathan Heaton and Alex Ingham after Maximillian Bauer's early opener for the hosts, while UFCA ended their regular season with a 2-0 home victory over Ilkley Town thanks to goals from Omar Sanyang and Finlay Ellis.

Champions Dearne & District rounded off a superb campaign in fitting style, winning 4-0 at Crowle Colts as a Cian Guest double was added to by Joshua Dacre and Adam Baskerville. Their final tally of 110 points is the highest ever recorded in an NCEL season. Brigg Town secured sixth place with a 3-0 win at Athersley Recreation, Adam Drury, Reece York and Donavan Day on the score-sheet, while Armthorpe Welfare climbed to seventh after a 2-1 home victory over Doncaster City, led by a brace from William Mendonca.

Club Thorne Colliery enjoyed a 4-0 home win against Nostell Miners Welfare, Marc Newsham hitting a hat trick, and Goole AFC matched that scoreline as Luis McCabe struck twice late on against Louth Town. South Leeds sealed a top half finish with a 4-1 victory over Winterton Rangers, James Law and Mark Ferguson both scoring twice, while Appleby Frodingham edged Maltby Main 3-2 with goals from Nathan Jarman, Dean McCarthy and Joshua Fraiwald.

Rossington Main booked their place in the JCP Construction NCEL League Cup Final (in memory of James Hitchcock) with a commanding performance on Tuesday night, sweeping aside Route One Rovers 4-1 at Oxford Street. Jack Watson struck twice in a dominant first half display, opening the scoring on 20 minutes before doubling the advantage just past the half hour. In between, Ross Hannah added a composed finish on 24 minutes as Main raced into a 3-0 lead by the

Route One, chasing the game throughout, struggled to disrupt Rossington's rhythm and Hannah's second of the evening on 85 minutes sealed the tie. Reece Thompson pulled one back late on for the visitors in the 89th minute, but it was little more than consolation as Rossington deservedly progressed in front of a crowd of 118. Rossington will face NCEL Premier Division champions Liversedge in the final at Scunthorpe United's Attis Arena on Tuesday 5th May (7.45pm kick off).

In Division One, Worsbrough Bridge Athletic ensured a second place finish and home advantage in the play offs with a clinical 3-0 win away at Appleby Frodingham. The visitors stunned the hosts with two goals inside the opening 12 minutes — Isaac Jeffreys breaking the deadlock on 11 minutes before Keelan Grist immediately doubled the advantage. Appleby never recovered from the early setback, and Worsbrough controlled the contest throughout, sealing the points when Ousmane Sidibe struck a well taken third on 75 minutes. Worsbrough will host Leeds UFCA in the play off semi final while the other tie will see Harrogate Railway Athletic travel to play Wakefield. Both ties are taking place on Saturday 18th April (3pm kick offs).

Wednesday night brought the final league match of the season as Doncaster City edged past Louth Town 1-0 in front of a strong mid-week attendance of 212. In a tight, tense affair, it took a moment of quality from Michael Jones just after the hour to separate the sides. His 61st minute finish proved enough for City, who managed the game professionally to secure a valuable three points after a goalless first half.

A PIVOTAL MOMENT! This shot from 3 yards out went over the bar. If it had gone in then Sheffield would have gone three up in their play-off semi final against Tadcaster Albion and almost certainly into the final. Instead, it missed and they were pegged back to 2-2 before bowing out on penalties.

Dronfield Steady the Ship as Swallownest Finish with a Flourish

UNITED COUNTIES

S YORKS SPORT

With the United Counties League Division One season nearing its conclusion, both Dronfield Town and Swallownest can reflect on campaigns that have delivered encouragement, development and, in recent days, moments of real character.

For Dronfield Town, a richly deserved 2–2 draw away at Pinxton all but secured an impressive eighth-place finish and underlined the resilience that has become a hallmark of Chris Milington’s side. On the surface, a point against a team just below them in the table might look routine. In context, it felt anything but.

The contest followed the well-worn template of a “game of two halves”. Pinxton struck twice before the interval, Harvey Ford and Bernard Nsiah exploiting lapses at the back to put the hosts firmly in control. Dronfield, meanwhile, were dealt a significant blow early on when Tom Gladwin, central to so much of Town’s recent attacking success, was forced off with a knee injury after just 12 minutes.

That loss disrupted the visitors’ shape and momentum, and Pinxton took full advantage, looking sharper and more direct before the break. The fact Nsiah himself departed before half-time with a hamstring injury perhaps hinted that the game still had more twists to offer.

Dronfield’s response after the restart was measured rather than frantic. Acknowledging the conditions and the stiff breeze, Town kept the ball on the deck and worked for better moments. Those moments came just before the hour mark when Sam Bebbington unleashed a speculative effort from 20 yards that dipped over Pinxton keeper Warren Squires to halve the deficit and reignite belief.

Substitutions played their part, restoring balance and energy, and with Arran Bovill able to push back into midfield, Town began to impose themselves. The equaliser arrived via substitute Arthur Pashley, his tame-looking strike deceiving the defence and goalkeeper alike as it crept into the bottom corner.

From there, Dronfield pushed hard for a winner. Bovill struck an audacious overhead effort that needed scrambling away, while a late half-volley from the club’s leading scorer dipped just over. In the end, a draw felt fair, but Town arguably left the game wondering if a win had been there for the taking.

With one match left, at home to Pinchbeck United, Dronfield sit on 63 points and can only be caught by Clifton All Whites with an unlikely swing in goal difference. An eighth-place finish would mark a strong return at this level and provide solid foundations heading into the summer.

If Dronfield’s draw was defined by grit and recovery, Swallownest’s final home outing of the season was about control and confidence. Their 3–1 victory over FCV Grace Dieu rounded off the campaign on a high and confirmed a comfortable mid table finish.

Playing at Swall Siro, Swallownest produced one of their more complete performances, blending solid shape with decisive moments in the final third. Against an FCV Grace Dieu side known for their willingness to play, the hosts struck the right balance between patience and purpose.

Goals at key moments put Swallownest in command and, while the visitors briefly threatened a comeback, the game was managed impressively in the closing stages. The third goal effectively sealed the contest and ensured there would be no late drama.

The result also served as timely validation of Swallownest’s progress this season. Consistency has occasionally proved elusive, but on their day they have shown they can trouble anyone in the division. Finishing with a win, particularly at home, sends supporters into the summer with optimism rather than relief.

Taken together, it has been a solid campaign for South Yorkshire and North Derbyshire representation at Step 6. Dronfield Town have displayed resilience, organisation and togetherness to finish in the top half, while Swallownest’s steady development and strong finish underline a side moving in the right direction.

With one final fixture remaining for Dronfield and Swallownest already signed off for the summer, attention will soon turn to recruitment, retention and raising expectations for 2026–27. On recent evidence, both clubs have every reason to believe progress can continue.

LOCAL LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Hemsworth one win from title

COUNTY
SENIOR

WARREN BIRD

Hemsworth Miners Welfare moved within touching distance of the County Senior League Premier Division title after a narrow but vital 1-0 win away at in form Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves.

Andy Horbury's goal was enough to settle the contest against a Steels side that had lost just once in their previous 12 matches and are now switching focus to this weekend's Sheffield & Hallamshire CFA Saturday Cup final against Swinton Athletic. Hemsworth now need realistically just one more victory to crown an outstanding season, with Hepworth United the only side still capable of chasing them down.

Hepworth kept that faint hope alive with a thrilling 3-2 home win over Denaby Main. Sam Awty struck twice, with Matthew Brooke also on the scoresheet, while Denaby responded through Jack Earp and Luke Watson in an entertaining five goal encounter.

Friday night action saw Dodworth Miners Welfare and Handsworth Reserves play out a goalless draw, while Saturday also brought 0-0 stalemates between Kiveton Park and Oughtibridge, and South Elmsall United Services and Penistone Church Reserves.

AFC Dronfield continued their strong campaign with a 2-0 victory at Wombwell Main, a result that keeps Dronfield firmly in the upper reaches of the table while leaving Wombwell third from bottom and right in the thick of a congested relegation battle.

That battle intensified further on Monday night as Kiveton Park claimed a crucial 2-1 home win over Hepworth United. The result lifted Kiveton off the bottom of the table for the first time all season and capped a remarkable late surge, with three wins and two draws from their last five matches. Their only defeat in that run came in a 4-1 loss to Jubilee Sports on March 7, the side they now leapfrog. With just six points separating the bottom six teams and most having only three or four games left, the fight to avoid the drop promises to go to the wire.

In Division One, Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 concluded their league programme with a 3-0 win away at Bentley Village. Hayden Dill, Owen Ryan and Bradley Howe were on target as Red Rose moved 13 points clear at the top, but second placed Swinton Athletic still have six games in hand as well as a Saturday Cup final to contest, leaving the title picture far from resolved.

Elsewhere, Parkgate Reserves defeated North Gawber 2-0 thanks to goals from Blake Morley and Ousseif Alimiyyao, while Sheffield Union edged a five goal thriller 3-2 against Hepworth United Reserves, Jamie Morgan netting a hat trick for the hosts. Wombwell Town and Sheffield City are set to finish in the bottom two positions.

Division Two produced a string of emphatic scorelines. TUSAALe won 3-0 at Middlewood Rovers with goals from Theo Peat, Malachi Smith and Mame Sarr, while Maltby Main Reserves beat North Gawber Reserves 4-1 as Ashley Brook, Cole Starkey and Ashton McDool, who scored twice, did the damage.

The standout result came as Dearne & District Reserves swept aside Youdan 10-1. Harry Anderson hit a hat trick, Sam Columbine, Danny Carr, Bailey Wilson, Charlie Potter and Archie Lushe all scored, and Noah Jackson added two more.

Dearne followed that up on Monday evening by hammering Maltby Main Reserves 6-0 away from home in a top of the table clash. Anderson was again prolific with four goals, supported by strikes from Jamie Austin and Justin Circuit. Despite the defeat, Maltby remain just three points behind Dearne with two games in hand.

Elsewhere, Wombwell Main Reserves won 3-0 away at Elsecar Dynamos thanks to two goals from Ryan Hallsworth and one from Joel Williamson, while Sheffield Medics edged Youdan 3-2 despite goals from Otis Pyke and Harry Willmot. Off field issues involving Elsecar Main and Caribbean continue to complicate the Division Two picture, but on the pitch the title race remains finely balanced.

Gym Bar Run Riot In Goal Glut

MEXBOROUGH SUNDAY
SHAUN BEST

Gym Bar flexed their footballing muscle beating The Sly Fox 10-2 in the Premier Division. Harry Emptage netted four and Danny West hit a double, with James Bacchus, Bayley Lowe, Rhys Plater and Alex Thompson completing the Gym Bar scorers. Cody Mee scored two second half goals for the Fox.

Previous league leaders Westville were on cup duty and eased to an 8-0 victory against Mexborough Athletic in the Brian Hardeman Challenge Cup. An Owen Sykes hat-trick and Josh Moore brace was added to with strikes by Ben Day, Ellis Durose and Jake Phillis.

Regan Kelly and Joshua Bennett got the goals that saw Swinton Athletic edge out New Masons Arms 2-1 to take a share of top spot in Division One. Joining Swinton at the summit are Denaby United, who after having a free week-end played out a 2-2 draw at White Hart Wadworth on Tuesday evening.

Hickleton Harriers remain a point behind the top two after a 6-1 victory over Highgate WMC. Blake Davenport and Jonathan Davis both netted twice, with Jonpaul Cowles and Kristian Wroe completing the scorers.

White Hart Wadworth moved up to fourth place after a 5-1 victory at Courtyard. Lewis Kerry gave the home side the lead, before Tristan Taylor's four goal haul and captain Tom Doherty's strike handed Wadworth maximum points.

Another player with four goals was Union Jack's Liam Lambert. Ethan Austen-Davies, Josh Bull, Joshua Lambert and an Aidan Hargreaves brace gave Jack a comfortable 9-2 win against Mexborough Knights, who had Cameron Flint and Sam Winstanley on the score sheet.

Finally, Barnburgh WMC picked up a 3-0 victory at Queens Head Hoyland. Taylor Annakin, James Kellock and Matthew Tinker got the Barnburgh goals.

Rangers One Win From Title Glory

MEADOWHALL & DB EVANS
MARTIN GILMOUR

Sheffield Rangers moved to within three points of the Premier Division title and will clinch it with a home win in their last game of the Season this coming Sunday against Handsworth FC Blacks.

Brunsmear Athletic are their nearest challengers and will be looking for a favour from Handsworth which could let them back in to the title race.

In the weekend fixtures just played Sheffield Rangers won 4-1 away at Handsworth FC Blacks, Jake Widdowson, Thomas Stokes, Ieuan Toner and Cieran Allinson with the goals for Rangers to inch them nearer the title.

Brunsmear kept up pace though in the other Premier Division game with a 4-0 home win against AFC Pogmoor. Two for Vincent McKinney and a goal each from Owen Haslam and Joshua booth keep Athletic in the hunt for the title.

Division One is still very tight at the top with Worksop Town and Staveley Miners Welfare Blues currently leading the way, but Worksop Boys still have games in hand, and it promises to be an exciting finish to the season.

In the weekend games Staveley Miners Welfare Blues came away from Kitlocker FC with a 3-0 win with goals from Taylor Russell, Theo Hill and Leighton Hutchinson and a man of the match performance from Ewan Mapletoft.

But it is Worksop Town who currently sit top of the table after a 5-1 away when Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915. Adefolayemi Adegbite with a hat trick, Ryan Short and Oliver Ball for Town keeping them just ahead at the top.

Worksop Boys stay in pursuit and had a comfortable 4-0 home win over Dinnington Town. Blake Morris with two, Alex Phillips and Brook Elliott for Worksop Boys.

The other Division One game ended all square between Penistone Church B and Abbey Lane finishing in a 1-1 draw. Jake Cartwright for Penistone assisted by Kai Caley giving them a half time lead, only to be pegged back in the 2nd half by Abbey Lane.

Monday evening football in Kiveton as the home side beat Hepwirth United 1-0 to move off the bottom of the table for the first time this season in the Premier Division of the County Senior League.

Gate Inn bounce back into another final

ROTHERHAM
SUNDAY
MARK PILLEY

The Gate Inn continue to set the pace in the Premier Division and showed impressive resilience on the cup front as well as in the league. Still unbeaten at the top of the table, they bounced back from the disappointment of losing the Montagu Cup Final by booking their place in the Brian Beeley Cup Final with a 4-2 semi final win over Deer Park Tap.

Jayden Blackwood scored for Deer Park, but The Gate Inn had too much quality on the day through Ellis Hancock, who scored twice, and further goals from Nathan Walsh and Blackwood. The win means The Gate Inn will now appear in their third final of the season, with the standout occasion still to come this Sunday when they contest the Sunday Senior Cup Final against Westville of the Mexborough & District Sunday League.

In league action, Brinsworth DC strengthened their position just behind the leaders with a commanding 6-0 win over Lord Reresby, underlining their credentials near the top end of the table. Butchers Arms picked up a crucial victory in their battle to move away from the bottom two, seeing off AFC Lord Nelson 5-3 in an entertaining contest. Alex Denniff, Jake Gilbert, William Jackson, Ben Richardson and Dillon Seddons were all on target for Arms, while Nelson were unable to recover despite staying competitive throughout.

Thorpe Hesley Village collected an important away win at AFC Trades Rawmarsh, with McCaullie O'Connor scoring both goals in a 2-1 success.

In the Championship, FC Mailcoach and Maltby Main Haynook shared the points in a 3-3 draw that keeps both sides firmly in the promotion mix. Mailcoach remain right in contention at the top, while Haynook continue to edge away from danger at the foot of the division.

Division One saw AFC Thirsty Flame strengthen their position near the top with a 2-1 win over The Colin, Callum Hackleton and Aaron Hatfield finding the net. Manor Hotel picked up a valuable away win at Aughton Black Bull, Stefan Pecha scoring both goals for the visitors in a 3-2 victory.

Ecclesfield Blues and Joker played out a thrilling 3-3 draw, with Jack Bailey Atkin, Joe Barber and George Watson scoring for Blues, while Bradley Carroll struck all three goals for Joker. Beighton Magpies JFC continued their climb up the table with a 3-1 win at Milldam, courtesy of goals from Jed Collins, Alex Needham and William Simpson after Luke Richardson had given Milldam hope.

The Rig Dyke remain firmly in the promotion hunt after a convincing 4-0 victory over Shakhtar Sheffield, with Joe Tidy scoring twice and Michael Ramsden and Callum Wright also on target.

In Division Two, leaders The Park Hotel were held to a 3-3 draw by Langold Old Boys in one of the games of the day. Ryan Dixon and Ryan Parker, who scored twice, registered for Langold, while Jack Bancroft and Roman McCann, also with two, earned Park Hotel a point.

Hogshead boosted their promotion push with a blistering 6-2 win away at Hope Valley Tap, Richard Williams scoring both goals for the hosts but being out-gunned by the visitors. Kilton United and The Alma played out a 2-2 draw, with Matthew Green and Scott Bennett on target for The Alma, while Kilton shared the points.

The Alma were unable to carry that momentum into their second fixture of the week, losing 2-0 at home to AFC Loca as Blake Marshall and Christopher Steer struck decisive goals.

Division Three continued to be headed by Sheffield Spartans, who reinforced their position with a 4-1 win over Yorkshire Roses. Montelle Williams scored for the hosts, while Thomas Beck, Oliver McKenzie, Micah Gordon and an own goal sealed the points for Spartans.

East Dene remain close behind after beating Ravenfield Arms 3-1 through goals from Callum Mounsey, Chay Searston and Sean Thompson.

Crown Inn Newhill enjoyed a strong afternoon with a 5-2 win over Steel City Whippets, Jack Arundel scoring a hat trick and Owen Goddard and Korey Cocking also finding the net, with Thibaut Anglade and Seyar Ahmad Azimi replying.

Ship Inn edged a tight contest with Apollo X Legacy 3-2, Lewis

Catley scoring once and Chad Dalton grabbing a brace, while Zak Din and Woody Collins responded for Apollo.

The Woodman Woodlathes maintained their push near the top with a 3-2 win over Stag United, goals coming from Joseph Brunyee and Daniel Ferens before Tyler Haines and Joe Creamer netted for Stag.

Division Four saw runaway leaders Dinnington Dynamos underline their dominance with an emphatic 11-0 victory over Inter Rother. Marquis were narrowly beaten 4-3 by The Club Pot, with Morgan Wray and two goals from Coen Cooper for Marquis, while Charlie Crapper scored a hat trick and Brandon Gimmer added another for Pot.

Parkgate and Middlewood Rovers JFC shared the goals in a 4-4 thriller, Tyler Rodgers, Khosh Ranyai, Joshua Shepherd and Thomas Wroe all scoring as neither side could force a winner.

Stannington Rally As Royals Near Title

BLADES SUPER
DRAW S S

KEITH FIRMINGER

Stannington Village beat Jubilee Rangers 4-2 to keep their title hopes alive, but leaders Royal Earl need to win just one of their final two games to retain their title. Jubilee are fighting to stay up and took the lead when Luke Campbell scrambled the ball home, but Stannington hit back to level when Niall Butchart sidefooted the ball into the top corner. Undeterred by that it was Jubilee that went into the half time break with the lead after Alfie Smith headed home.

Stannington stepped up a gear after the break and levelled a second time when Niall Loughins shot was saved, but the rebound fell kindly for Leo Higgins to score. Stannington went in front when Sami Eric robbed a defender before chipping the keeper and the clinched the points 5 minutes from time when Tom Staniland's free kick was parried to Luca DeFalco and he netted his seventh of the season.

At the other end of the table, that defeat for Jubilee boosted Southey Social's survival hopes and they were further boosted by a 3-1 victory over the already relegated Woodman. Southey took a first half lead when Byron Mullen's throw was headed on by Kieran Hopkinson and Carlton Carty volleyed home from 6 yards.

The second half saw Southey's lead doubled when a Jack Dickens cross was turned into his own net by a defender, but Woodman got back into the match with a Kai Walker strike. Southey quickly restored their two goal lead when Mullen set Ryan Whitney up for an easy finish and even though Carty and Dickens both hit the woodwork Southey couldn't add to it.

Southey were further helped by Chapeltown RBL's 1-0 defeat at a Wickersley CC aiming for the runner-up spot. After a cagey, goalless first half the game sprang into life after the break and became an end-to-end battle. Adam Todd saw his effort cleared off the line and the game looked to be swinging RBL's way when Wickersley were reduced to 10 men. The Wickersley defence held firm though and with time running out it was Wickersley that grabbed a dramatic winner when Owen Kelly scored.

In Division One, after getting a point in mid-week when they drew 2-2 with Mosborough Reds, Loca reclaimed top spot and guaranteed promotion with a narrow 2-1 victory at AC Wisewood. They took the lead when Jamie Goldenburgh set Cammy Evans up and found the net with a 30 yard strike, but Wisewood levelled with an equally impressive strike by Will Osgathorpe. Goldenburgh again provided the assist when a third impressive strike, this time by Mitch Carlton won it for Loca to take them back to the top and guarantee promotion.

The two clubs chasing the final promotion place both had big wins. Mosborough Reds beat Kelham Island 8-1 and Crookes won 7-1 at Cotts. Mosborough took just 6 minutes to take the lead with a Will Hotchin strike and they soon doubled it when Ash Hotchin chipped the keeper. Will Hotchin then netted his second when his keeper flew straight into the net. Matt Ellis made it four with a shot from the edge of the area and it was five before half-time when Ben Dronfield headed home.

After the break Matt Ellis scored his second of the game to take his tally for the season to fourteen, before Montelle netted his first goal for Mosborough to make it seven. Billy Kitchen hit number eight before Kelham scored their consolation through Alex Simons.

Crookes were just as impressive in their 7-1 win at Crookes. Dylan Murphy met a cross to give Crookes an early lead and it was doubled when Harvey Allatt met a corner to score. Oli McQuillin made it three before half-time and both he and Murphy scored two each to complete hat-tricks in the second half. Jake Abrahams netted Cotts consolation. Crookes must now rely on winning their final game and Mosborough Reds not winning both of their final two games.

WOMENS FOOTBALL

Belles on Brink as Survival Slips Away

WOMENS FOOTBALL

JULIAN BARKER

Doncaster Rovers Belles go into their last two FA Women's National League Division One North matches of the season knowing that they need at least one victory to stand any chance to avoiding relegation to the fifth tier and Regional League next season.

They suffered a fourth successive single goal margin defeat when losing 2-1 at Wythen-shawe on Sunday. Trailing to an early goal at the interval, Maisie Everitt levelled early in the second half, but the hosts, who have acquitted themselves well in their debut season in the FAWNL, claimed the points in the final quarter.

Belles host Chester-Le-Street Town this Sunday and the visitors were looking like giving their own survival hopes a huge boost when 3-0 up at half time against Stockport County who fought back to draw 3-3. That result meant Chester-Le-Street moved two points clear of Belles and just a point behind York City who have yet to guarantee their own safety.

Because of this Sunday's fixture between Belles and Chester-Le-Street, it means that bottom team Blackburn Rovers had their fate sealed when beaten 9-1 at home by Huddersfield Town who regained top spot from Leeds United.

Ruby Ormiston gave Barnsley Women, who are assured of fourth place in Division One Midlands, an interval advantage at home to Notts County who gained a point when Emily Brett, a former Barnsley player at the start of the decade, equalised in the closing minutes.

Sheffield FC also drew 1-1 at home, against Sutton Coldfield Town for whom the point ensured their FAWNL status for another season. Stacey Buxton put Sheffield ahead with a well placed strike from the edge of the area with the game approaching the half hour mark and that advantage was preserved going into half time thanks to a fine save by Morina Boni to keep out Jess Howard's spot kick. Town levelled through Abby Jackson shortly before ether hour mark.

Moving up from the fifth tier are Chesterfield who were crowned East Midlands Women's Regional League Premier Division champions following their 2-0 home win over SJR Worksop at the SMH Stadium on Sunday. Elin Morin and Laura Porritt were on target in the first half for Chesterfield who had finished runners up in both the last two seasons. Guiding Chesterfield to their success was Pete Jarvis, formerly manager of Rotherham United two of whose former players, Amy Nowell and Abbie Staples played key roles.

Dronfield Town need maximum points from their final two games to pip Arnold Eagles to the Division One North runners up spot. Maia Taylor bagged a first half hat trick in their 5-1 victory at Chesterfield Community Trust. She netted again after the interval along with Ruby Burns as Dronfield recorded their best away League win of the season over opponents against whom they had won 7-0 away in a League Cup tie in January.

Bradford City lead the way ahead of Thornaby in the North East Women's Regional League Premier Division title race. Both could be promoted to the FAWNL as the two runners up with the best playing record (points per game) from the eight Divisions at fifth tier will move up at the end of the season. City reached the League Cup semi-finals thanks to a 5-1 home win over Handsworth whose goal was scored by Dani Pinder.

Kimberley Brown, Harriet Lloyd and Nat Shaw scored for Brunsmeer Athletic who lost 6-3 at Harrogate Town, the score increasing the aggregate goals scored in Brunsmeer's League games to 113 from 17 games.

Meanwhile, Handsworth's attentions will turn to their quest for the Southern Division title where they were dislodged as leaders by Leeds Modernians who won 5-0 at Sheffield Wednesday. That was the first time Wednesday had failed to score at home this season and the only away game Wednesday had failed to score in was also against Leeds Modernians and that game also finished 5-0.

Rossington Main's debut season in the sixth tier has gone well and if results go their way in the closing games, they could finish as high as third. Amy O'Brien scored in the first half of their 2-1 home win over Ilkley Town, the points secured by a late goal by Lauren Breen.

Millmoor Juniors completed their fixtures with Georgia Stansall their scorer in a 3-1 home defeat to Farsley FC, a result which means Millmoor finish in bottom spot.

Stocksbridge Park Steels' Jenny McGee gave them a 1-0 home win over Staveley Miners Welfare on Tuesday in a fixture which will have a significant bearing in determining the Sheffield & Hallamshire Women's County League Division One title.

Victory extended Stocksbridge's 100% home record to ten games, ended Staveley's 14 game unbeaten start and moved them nine points clear second place YP Women who were due to play last night.

Staveley are still in title contention, but they have a demanding schedule of League games as well as the League Cup final against YP Women to play before the end of the month. They won the first of their three April meetings against YP Women last Thursday

As the season approaches its conclusion, the key issues of titles, promotion and relegation are being decided. Amy Nowell (formerly at Doncaster Rovers Belles and Rotherham United pictured to left of goalkeeper) featured strongly for Chesterfield who were crowned East Midlands Women's Regional League Premier Division champions and so promoted to the FA Women's National League Division One Midlands whose title was also won on Sunday, by Peterborough United whose side included Evie Driscoll-King (holding trophy). when they ended YP's eight game 100% home record and the pair meet again in the return this Sunday.

Staveley enjoyed a 2-0 interval lead thanks to goals by Brooke Emmer-son and Phallon Symcox. Charlotte Bennehan halved the deficit, but Staveley held out to secure victory. YP had beaten Frickley Athletic 3-0 24 hours earlier thanks to goals by Zara Musker, Liberty Shaw and Lucie Tinker. Frickley then won 4-0 at Sheffield United Community on Sunday.

Barnsley Women Reserves have both meetings against Staveley in their remaining fixtures and they bounced back from their 4-3 defeat at YP by winning 7-0 at Handsworth Reserves and then 5-1 at Rotherham United Under-21s.

Lizzie Coates bagged a second half hat trick against Handsworth with Zoe Laughton 2, Jess Jones and Katie McCreadie the other scorers. Fran Lambert claimed the hat trick honours against Rotherham with Mia McDondal and Laughton also on target. Ruby Draper scored Rotherham's consolation.

Handsworth were 2-0 home winners over Dinnington Town on Sunday thanks to first half goals by Maisie Adams and Ella Bright.

It is congratulations to Barnsley FC Ladies who clinched the Division Two title on Sunday when they won 5-0 at Millmoor Juniors Reserves. Both Charli Hayward and Molly Waite scored twice along with a single by Lily Holt to take Barnsley's goals tally to 88 and with three fixtures still to play they could reach the century mark.

There is an exciting contest to see who finishes runners up. Brinsworth Whitehill occupy second place as of Monday this week when their prospects suffered a hefty blow in a 4-1 defeat at Dearne & District. Brinsworth had recorded a 6-0 home victory over Penistone Church a day earlier thanks to a hat trick by Gabrielle Green allied to goals by Caitlin Cooper 2 and Millie Lee. Cooper scored in the defeat at Dearne.

Evie Gillett scored the only goal of the game as Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves concluded their home fixtures with victory over Rossington Main Reserves. Staveley were due to play at Penistone last night and they have to visit Brinsworth and Brodsworth Welfare who, following Brinsworth's defeat on Monday, can now clinch runners up spot on their own results.

Brodsworth maintained their charge thanks to a 2-0 win at SJR Worksop Development thanks to goals by Lacey Lofthouse and Jill Edmonds (pen). However, victory was marred when Sophie Smith suffered a broken collar bone following a "challenge" which resulted in the penalty being awarded. From the footage Brodsworth posted it is easy to understand why they were outraged.

Who finishes champions of Division Three is very much any one of the top five as the remaining fixtures include several "proverbial" six-pointers.

Charnock Ridgeway topped the table following the weekend's fixtures. Millie Stephenson netted both in last midweek's 2-0 win at Scawthorpe Scorpions which saw Charnock return to top spot and she added another brace on Sunday when Charnock were beaten 5-3 at home by Chesterfield Town whose victory with just nine players lifted them into second place above Dronfield Town Development on goal difference.

The last named had looked likely champions at the end of February when they had maximum points from nine games, but five defeats in the last six outings have seriously affected their prospects. They suffered back to back 1-0 defeats to Wickersley Youth for whom Eve Allen's goal secured Sunday's win.

Isabel Mortimer and Darcey MacPherson were the Kiveton Park Reserves scorers in their 2-2 home draw against Sheffield Wednesday Development whose goals came from Katie Baldwin and Summer Ingham. Swallownest Miners Welfare drew 4-4 at home to Barnsley Women Under-21s.

2-2 draw at closest rivals Worksop Town last midweek and Sunday's results left Brampton needing just one more point (or Worksop to slip in either of their scheduled games before this Sunday).

Brampton followed that draw which was only the third time (all away) that they have dropped points (all draws) this season by recording a 9-1 home victory over Sheffield Medics.

It was the fourth time this season that Brampton had narrowly failed to reach double figures.

Leanne Carter bagged a hat trick, with Stokes 2, Bobbie Tonks 2, Martin and Charlotte Mitchell the other scorers as Brampton extended their 100% home record to nine games. Aoife Culkin netted the consolation for Medics who were beaten 9-0 in the season's earlier meeting between the teams.

Worksop are currently second, but face stiff competition from Frickley Athletic 2nd XI and Wombwell Town for runners up spot. Worksop beat FURD Football Unites, Racism Divides 4-0 on Sunday when Wombwell won 3-0 at Frickley thanks to goals by Bethany Goldthorpe, Jo Marfleet and Step Marsland. Goldthorpe had bagged a hat trick in the midweek 4-0 victory at Bramley Sunnyside and a significant fixture in determining the running order behind Brampton is on 30th April (the season's last day for the County League) when Worksop host Wombwell.

Courage FC were 4-1 home winners over Aston Swallownest, while Barlborough won 2-0 at Bramley Sunnyside.

Sheffield Stalled by Dale and the Dales

CALLUM ROBINSON

Sheffield's unbeaten National Two North season was finally halted in the Yorkshire Dales as Wharfedale used wind, slope and discipline to claim a deserved 24-12 victory at Threshfield.

With storms forecast and conditions threatening to dominate the contest, Sheffield travelled north already light on personnel, missing hooker Will Archer and winger Chris Hooper. There was, however, a welcome return for Jack Dawson on the wing, while Teddy Geering took his place among the replacements. It was a fixture that has often troubled Sheffield in recent seasons and, as it transpired, once again proved a stern test.

Wharfedale won the toss and, almost inevitably on their sloping pitch at The Avenue, chose to take advantage of the conditions by playing uphill and into the wind in the first half. Early sunshine briefly belied what was to come, but from the opening exchanges the home side looked sharper and more attuned to the environment. A series of Sheffield handling errors and penalties handed Wharfedale both territory and momentum, and it was no surprise when left winger Alfie Weston finished smartly in the corner after sustained pressure. Jack Greig's conversion drifted wide, but the hosts led 5-0 inside seven minutes.

The pattern continued, with Wharfedale precise and patient, and Sheffield curiously disjointed for a side that had already sealed the league title. A stolen lineout briefly offered relief, only for a knock-on to gift possession straight back. From the resulting scrum, centre Oli Cicognini powered through for a second try, converted by Greig, to stretch the lead to 12-0 with barely a quarter of an hour played.

Sheffield eventually found foothold. Strong carries from the pack created front-foot ball and, when the attack was switched wide, Dawson finished well on the right touchline. Callum Posa was unable to add the extras, but the score steadied the visitors at 12-5 and hinted at a potential shift in momentum.

That optimism proved short-lived. A charged-down clearance from Elliot Fisher handed Wharfedale another attacking platform and, after opting to play rather than kick, they again struck wide. Debutant winger Orson Hall crossed in the corner for a third try, Greig again missing the conversion, but the lead grew to 17-5.

Matters worsened when Alex Reid was shown a yellow card, and moments later the weather finally arrived in earnest. Rain lashed across the pitch, driven horizontally by the wind, yet Sheffield found resilience in adversity. With half-time approaching, 14-man Sheffield earned a penalty, attacked from a five-metre lineout and, after Alex Fawdry secured possession, Zak Poole drove over from close range. Posa's excellent touchline conversion cut the deficit to 17-12 at the break and kept the champions very much alive.

The second half began in driving rain, with Wharfedale now armed with wind and slope. Greig narrowly missed an early penalty, the ball rebounding off the upright, but Sheffield were under relentless pressure. Phase after phase was absorbed, tackles stacked up, and eventually the line was breached when prop Jake Armstrong crashed over for the bonus-point try on 58 minutes. Greig converted to make it 24-12.

From there, the contest became increasingly attritional. Further yellow cards for Zak Poole and George Rogers stretched Sheffield's resources, yet defensively this was arguably their strongest spell. They repelled everything Wharfedale could muster in the final quarter and prevented any further scoring, though attacking opportunities were scarce in the conditions.

For Sheffield, it was a rare off-day in an otherwise outstanding campaign — their only defeat as champions.

For Wharfedale, it was further proof that, at home, with the elements on their side, The Avenue remains one of the most challenging assignments in the division.

After suffering their first defeat of the campaign, Sheffield will look to respond when they welcome Darlington Park Mowden to Abbeydale on Saturday in their final home game of the season at the venue. It is DMP's first visit since 2001, with a 3pm kick-off in National Two North, before Sheffield round off their home programme at Dore Moor against Scunthorpe in a fortnight.

Titans Turn on the Style as Tigers Show Their Mettle

Rotherham Titans and Sheffield Tigers both delivered performances of real substance over the weekend, albeit at opposite ends of the emotional spectrum, as South Yorkshire's National League sides continued to set the tone in their respective divisions.

At Clifton Lane, National League 1 leaders Rotherham Titans produced a truly emphatic statement, dismantling sixth-placed Rams 80-7 in a display that combined physical dominance with attacking ambition. The scoreline told a brutal story, but it was also one built on control, patience and depth, all hallmarks of a side firmly focused on promotion.

Played under bright sunshine but in swirling winds that posed genuine challenges, the early stages were more competitive than the eventual margin suggested. Rams showed intent with ball in hand and were briefly rewarded when Fergus Dick finished smartly to level the scores midway through the first half. At 7-7, there was at least a hint of contest.

However, that parity was short-lived. Rotherham's superiority at the set piece, particularly at scrum time, allowed them to impose themselves as the half wore on. James Norman opened the scoring and would later complete a hat-trick, while Lloyd Hayes struck twice in the first half as the Titans began to assert control. By the break, tries from Hayes and Mitchell Lacey Babalola had stretched the lead and

With the wind now behind them, Rotherham were relentless after the restart. Norman struck within a minute, setting the tone for an extraordinary second-half surge in which the Titans crossed the whitewash eight times. John Okafor powered over, Callum Bustin added two quick-fire scores, and Isaac Shaw and Xavier Valentine both got in on the act as the pressure never relented.

The final flourish was fittingly spectacular. Deep in injury time, Shaw collected the ball inside his own half and carved through a tiring Rams defence to score a breathtaking solo try that brought the Clifton Lane crowd to its feet and perfectly encapsulated the Titans' afternoon.

After the match, head coach Harvey Biljon was understandably pleased, but also measured, in his assessment.

"The basis of our performance today comes from our training on Tuesdays and Thursdays; we haven't let up and I think that showed in an 80 minute performance," he said. "We just relentlessly went through our processes over and over again.

"The other thing to mention is the changes in the team. We've been able to manage the squad when injuries have kicked in and everyone has had an opportunity to play. When players came in, they were ready to perform, and that's a really healthy place for a squad to be."

From Rotherham's title charge to Sheffield Tigers' continued resurgence, there was also plenty to take from Dore Moor, where the Tigers claimed a hard-earned 34-21 victory over Fylde in National Two North.

The Tigers exploded out of the blocks, scoring twice inside the opening three minutes through winger Jamie Rudd and centre James Broadley, capitalising on early pressure and sharp kick returns. Broadley added a second before the 20 minute mark to give the home side a 17-0 lead and underline their intent.

Fylde, to their credit, refused to fold. Two well-taken tries either side of half-time saw them rally impressively and take a 21-17 lead early in the second half, making full use of turnover ball and broken-field opportunities. With the wind at their backs, the visitors looked capable of swinging the contest.

What followed, however, was a lesson in game management from the Tigers. Rather than chasing the match, they slowed the tempo, dominated territory and backed their fitness and discipline. Rudd scored his second to restore the lead, before Broadley completed a fine afternoon with his own double. Crucially, the hosts shut Fylde out in the final half-hour, denying them momentum and sealing a valuable five-point haul.

For Sheffield Tigers, it was a result that underlined the significant progress made this season and highlighted their ability to grind out wins even when momentum briefly shifts. For Rotherham Titans, it was yet another powerful reminder that their promotion destiny remains firmly in their own hands.

Anyone’s Game as Premier Explodes

CY SOUTHERN PREMIER
ROGER PUGH

The new Cricket Yorkshire Southern Premier League gets underway this Saturday (if it doesn’t rain!). We’ve full extensive coverage across the League with Roger Pugh reporting each week. To kick us off, or should that be get the innings under way, Roger previews the summer ahead.

The Premier Division looks very open this season, with any of up to eight sides that could be in the mix come the end of the season. Champions Cleethorpes have two exciting signings; highly-rated Lincolnshire off-spinning all-rounder Nic Keast, younger brother of wicket-keeper and opener Tom; and Pakistani seam-bowling all-rounder Raza Ullah, subject to his visa application. On the minus side, they have lost the League’s joint top wicket-taker in the last two seasons, Mayank Mishra, to Wickersley, whilst veteran opener Bill Kirby has retired, and batsman Harry Warwick and bowler Hayden Tice have moved on.

Last season’s runners-up, Whitley Hall, have brought in Zain Attique from Caribbean Sports, George Cowan (Doncaster Town), Ibrahim Shakil (Whiston Parish Church) and Nathan Swift (Warmsworth), whilst Muhammad Qaisar Ashraf returns to Baxter Field after an impressive 2025. Opening bowler Biswick Kapala has moved on to Tickhill.

Wakefield Thornes, in third place last season, have signed Waqar Hussain, a Pakistani wicket-keeper/top-order bat from Multan; opening bowler Vinnie Ogden has joined from Tickhill; all-rounder Monty McKenzie, a Leeds University student, has signed; and left-arm spinner Luke Badeley has joined from Cutthorpe CC. Joe Billings and Dylan Hurst have moved to London due to work commitments.

It is very much the mixture as before at Sheffield Collegiate, with prolific opening bat Abdul Fseeh returning for a third term.

There have been a number of changes in personnel at Tickhill, where Ronan Hermann, a South African wicket-keeper/bat, will be the overseas professional; Biswick Kapala joins from Whitley Hall and Harvey Wootton from Treeton; whilst James Stuart returns after spending 2025 in Australia. On the debit side, Jordan Lowe, Ibrahim Safi and Michael Jepps have moved to Wickersley Old Village, and Danyaal Khalid to the Huddersfield League.

Alec Grange has joined Appleby Frodingham from Shiregreen, to take over the wicket-keeping duties from Drew Sylvester, who is away until August due to work commitments. Leg-spinning all-rounder Paras Ratnaparkhe joins the Brumby Hall side as overseas professional, whilst opening bowler Matt Harris has moved on to pastures new.

Doncaster Town have brought opening bowler Joel Gunn back to Town Fields from Cuckney, and the club have appointed former Notts and Derbyshire all-rounder Mark Fell as Director of Coaching.

Cawthorne have signed Pakistani seamer Naezebullah as their overseas professional and welcome former Yorkshire Academy all-rounder George Booth from Barkisland; top-order bats Oliver Bennett from Barnsley Woolley Miners and Ben Simpson, who returns to Dark Lane after spells at Greenmoor and Wickersley Old Village; off-spinner Jake Holling, who returns to the club after a spell at Shelley; and left-arm spinner and top-order bat Ikram Naseri from Oughtibridge War Memorial. They bid farewell to Rizwan Sidiq, Syed Hassan, and Azam Shah.

There have been several signings at one of last season’s promoted sides, Wickersley Old Village, including Mayank Mishra from Cleethorpes; Jordan Lowe, Ibrahim Safi and Michael Jepps from Tickhill; and Gareth Purshouse, who returns from Lindum CC; which should ensure that they keep well clear of the relegation zone this time round.

Stability and young player development are key at Hallam, where Sam Davidson returns, and opener Alex Hughes retires.

Promoted Sprotbrough retain last season’s joint-top wicket-taker Parateek Khalsa as their overseas, and bolster their squad for their debut Premier Division campaign with the addition of talented young opening bat Zaki Anjam from Aston Hall.

The other promoted side, Whiston Parish Church, have secured all-rounder Bhargav Merai as their overseas professional from Doncaster Town, to replace Arman Jaffer, who suffered a serious cruciate ligament injury back home; experienced top order bat and slow bowler Mark Cummins joins from Treeton and Isaac Spencer-Jones and James Butler have joined from Wickersley Old Village.

In the Championship Division, Ackworth finished just four points short of promotion last season, and with last years’ squad remaining in place, will aim to finish in the top two. They welcome South African left-hand bat Jerome Bossr and have signed Ollie Mitchell from Frickley Colliery.

South African seam-bowling all-rounder Curtley Louw joins Elsecar to spearhead their promotion bid with a talented squad under new skipper Callum Higgins. Young fast bowler Rehan Ahmed has also signed from Sheffield Collegiate. Evergreen Jason Meadows has ‘finally’ retired and takes over as club chairman.

Barnsley Woolley Miners’ bid to return to the Premier Division will be spearheaded by Ali Zaryab, a Pakistan ‘A’ left-handed bat and right-arm spinner. Boeta Beukes’ side have lost Owen Smith and Oliver Bennett and will rely heavily on their talented young players.

To strengthen their bid for immediate promotion back to the Premier Division, Shiregreen have signed Muhammad Rameez, a left-arm spinner from Ossett; Omer Khan Shinwari, a leg-spinning all-rounder from Undercliffe; and Fazil Reza, a middle-order bat from Wath.

Promoted Upper Haugh have recruited wicketkeeper Leo Irwin from Brodsworth Main; Bilal Hanif and Alfie Spurr, from Shiregreen and Darfield respectively, who will bolster the top-order batting; and all-rounder Renaldo Braithwaite joins from Houghton Main.

Fellow newcomers Coal Aston have re-cruited New Zealander Regan Sheahan, a left-arm all-rounder, and whilst they have lost opening bowler Oscar Osborne-Corby, who is unable to return due to visa issues, the rest of their double promotion-winning squad remains in place and they will aim to consolidate in the division. The three second XIs, of Sheffield Collegiate, who have recruited a young Australian overseas, George Marks, Doncaster Town and Tickhill will remain competitive.

Aston Hall welcome top order bat Muhammad Kahn as their overseas, and hope that their excellent squad of young talent, including Ollie Wainwright, Dex Ward, Henry Renshaw, Ali Ahmed, and Stan Ashton will all build on their successes so far. Lasith Lakshan returns from Sri Lanka for his third year with Rockingham Colliery, who have signed Sam Whitlam from Wath and Nazakat Khan from Aston Hall, and will want to build on last year's eighth place.

Oughtibridge War Memorial have strengthened by signing Indian all-rounder Vikas Dixit who has previously made an excellent impression at Houghton Main; Mustafa Hussain from Shiregreen; Zayn Wasim from Aston Hall; Ali Shah from Treeton; and the Bradfield pair of Harry Crossley and James Shepherd.

There will be real competition for the promotion places in Division 1. Treeton are determined to bounce straight back after their relegation and have recruited widely, including overseas Flynn Walker from Melbourne, a left-arm strike bowler and hard-hitting bat; Amir Shahzad, a genuine pace bowler and hard-hitting middle-order bat with Kashmiri Premier League experience, who has signed from Undercliffe; former Darfield skipper and top-order bat Joe Stickland, along with former team-mate and middle-order bat Spencer Lavender; Jack Fleetwood, a consistent middle-order bat from Kiveton; talented leg-spinner and former Notts CCC junior, Liam Johnsen; talented young cousins, Izaan & Hisham

Ali, the former a fast-bowling all-rounder, and the latter a leg-spinning stroke-player; and young seam bowlers Harry Marshall and Owen Taylor from Wickersley Old Village. The club also welcome back Andy Firth in a manger-coach role. Andy was a key part of the club's glory years in the 1990s, and is seen as central to their rebuild.

Harvey Wootton has moved on to Tickhill and Mark Cummins to Whiston Parish Church. Wath will also be determined to bounce straight back, and have recruited Jason Van Dyk from Johannesburg; Imran Shah from Darfield; Micky Denton from Rockingham Colliery; and Murad & Yousuf Ghani from Upper Haugh CC. Leaving the club are Sam Whitlam (Rockingham Colliery), Fazil Reza (Shiregreen), Matty Bowering (Kexborough), and Luke Roddison; whilst club stalwarts Alex and Ben Roebuck have retired. Conisbrough will hope to make as promotion push after adding experience and talent to a young squad. All-rounder Samuel Grant is an Australian overseas signing from Bankstown in New South Wales; Travis Cresswell and Jonathan Redfern join from Doncaster Town; Seb Carter joins from Morley and Nathan Lovell returns to the club after a short stint with Mexborough. The club bade farewell to Budhika Sanjeeva, a real mainstay for the past five seasons.

Promoted Frickley Colliery further strengthen their squad with Jake Taberner and Chris Bird from Hemsworth MW; Kieran Dinage from Upper Haugh; Harrison Stephens from Bentley Colliery; and Connor Boulton from Featherstone. They can expect to be in the mix at the end of the season.

Joe Yellott from Whiston Parish Church and Zain Ali from Barnsley Woolley Miners will add more depth to the Wickersley Old Village 2nds squad, and they will aim make a promotion push this time.

Former Oughtibridge War Memorial star Dilshan Sukumar has joined Parkhead from the Huddersfield League and overseas Riyaad Azhar, a wicket-keeper/bat from Pakistan, will strengthen the side for their campaign after last season's promotion.

Houghton Main have secured Barbadian Overseas Teriq Worrell; batsman Waris Abbas from Frecheville Community; Kye-Jay Kitching returns to the club from Darfield, as does Ryan Atkinson from Thurnscoe.

Newcomers West

Bretton have signed Callum Bailey and Alex Gough from Barnsley Woolley Miners; Lewis Northrop from Darton; and Greg Watson & Curtis Gates from Higham to strengthen their side for their first YCSPL campaign.

Monk Bretton welcome Luke Ogden from Cawthorne; Elliott Burnett from the Notts Premier League; Dean Whitfield coming out of retirement after six years; whilst South African Overseas Joshua van Oudtshoorn returns as skipper. They will aim to improve on last season's eighth place. Jordan Clayton has joined Darfield and Ryan Howarth has gone to Higham.

In Division 2, Mark Wilkinson has joined Barnsley Woolley Miners 2nds from Worsbrough Bridge to take over the captaincy, bringing with him Lewis Wilkinson and Zarmash Tarakhil to bolster their squad.

Penistone have made an impressive addition to their squad in experienced all-rounder Sam Askey from Shepley and they will hope to bounce straight back into Division 1. The club also look forward to the completion of their new pavilion in 2026.

Thorston Cody Morkel, a hard-hitting young South African batsman, joins Elsecar 2nds; Callum Johnson takes the reins as skipper and Craig Moffatt returns to the club from Scholes & Harley in a player-coaching role.

After last season's promotion, Hatfield Town are pleased to welcome some returning faces and new talent to the club. Blake Blythe and James Nolan have returned from Barnby Dun, whilst Oliver Cummins joins their ranks. On the debit side, Andy Cutts has decided to retire and Josh Yemm has moved to Fishlake.

Thorpe Hesley & High Green have resigned top-order bat Naeem Bashir from Shiregreen; the club look forward to having Tom Parker behind the stumps again this season; and hope that John Ashton will return after last season’s injury as they aim to keep clear of the relegation fight this time round.

Promoted Norton Oakes welcome top-order bat Nqobile Sibanda, from the Midwest Rhinos in Zimbabwe as their overseas for 2026.

Continuity is the name of the game for Millhouses Works in Division 3, and their squad should be strong enough to mount a serious bid for immediate promotion back to Division 2.

Higham welcome Ryan Howarth from Monk Bretton; Wilf Brooke from Bedminster; Mark Smith from Sandal; and Ryan Bagshaw and Daniel Walters from Cawthorne, whilst Greg Walton and Curtis Gates have moved to West Bretton. Intent on further improving their facilities and to coping with growing community demand for facilities, have applied for permission to further extend their pavilion.

Frecheville Community will be hoping to make a promotion push and welcome a second Sri Lankan overseas player in consecutive years, as all-rounder Ashan Lakmal joins them for 2026.

Newly-promoted

Sheffield University Staff will as ever have a host of exciting new arrivals to choose from. They have a new skipper in Waqas Tanveer; Heston Christian returns to India following the expiry of his visa; and the club has added a third XI that will compete in Division 9.

Worsbrough Bridge welcome new signings Rafique Shan from Mexborough Athletic; Shoaib Yousaf, after going well in the Rotherham Super League; Israr Nazir from Sheffield United; and Jithin Viji Joseph, who returns to the club after a season away at The Chronicles of England.

Mark Wilkinson, Lewis Wilkinson and Zarmash Tarakhill make the short move to Barnsley Woolley Miners.

Darfield, who dropped down two divisions after finishing third in Division 1 last year, following numerous departures from their squad, have recruited Charlie Potter from Wombwell Main; Jordan Clayton from Monk Bretton; Brooklyn Whitmill from Wickersley Old Village; and Josh Barrick from Worksop. Herbi Singh Lali returns Oughtibridge War Memorial to captain their 2nds.

Stocksbridge, in Division 4, are building a state-of-the-art new pavilion at Bracken Moor, which is due for completion in the autumn. All-rounder Joe Hibbert returns to the club from Oughtibridge War Memorial.

Thorncliffe & Wentworth have recruited several players to help them make a promotion push. Richard Berry joins from Wickersley Old Village; Pete Lomas from Rockingham Colliery; Jamie Triandafillithis and Mathew Blackman arrive from Mexborough Athletic; and Dan Shillito is welcomed back a few years away. Soham Gate has returned to India.

New club Pledwick from the Pontefract & District League will be an unknown quantity, but watch out for James Eastlake, a hugely talented 20-year-old all-rounder who is expected to be a real game-changer; and Jake Marshall, another quality all-rounder, who completed his first full season with the club last year, winning the Player of the Year award.

After last season’s promotion, Whiston Forge are delighted to welcome Owen Struggles, Harrison Struggles, and Dale Stanley to the club after making the short trip ‘down the hill’ from neighbours, Whiston PC. The club also hope to have Kristian Lee-Green available for up to ten games mid-season.

Matty Bowering returns to Kexborough after spells at Houghton Main and Wath, and Bavasuthan Selvanayagam has joined from Oughtibridge War Memorial. After finishing in mid-table last season, they will hope to mount a promotion challenge.

In Division 5, Wombwell Main are delighted to welcome Mark Hope from Selby, who will bring experience and class to the squad as they aim to bounce straight back into Division 4.

Fishlake are pleased not to have any departures from their Division 6 squad after last season’s relegation, and with Josh Yemm joining from Hatfield Town and Paul Mortimer from Misterton Phoenix their will hope to be in the promotion places at the end of the season.

Scholes & Harley will hope to do well, having recruited Jake Panting, who has recently moved into the area and is tipped to make a real impact; left-arm bowler Lewis Pursglove, a former Scholes player; and Travis Grierson, returning after a stint in Australia.

Wadworth have some exciting new faces in Jack and Charlie Proudley from Hooton Pagnell CC who signed last year but were unable to make their debuts due to prior commitments.

Amongst nine new clubs from the now-defunct Yorkshire & Derbyshire league are Division 7 South’s Allama Iqbal, skippered by explosive bat Sajjad Ali and who have signed all-rounder Zahid Momand from Norton Woodseats.

Brookhouse will feel as if they have two new players with a fully-fit Andrew Brock and Jamie Elliott back in their team for 2026.

Eden Madras Parklands, a winter merger of the Eden Grove Parklands and Old Madras clubs, have brought in four players, including Shaukath Ismail and Raja Babar, from Bullcroft Main and will hope to be in the promotion race from Division 8 North.

Talented quick bowler Ty Jowett joins Division 9 North side Dearne from Mexborough Athletic, and the club will want to celebrate their centenary with an immediate return to Division 8. They have lost Jamie McTaggart, who has retired from playing.

CROQUET

Croquet Season Opens Despite Squirrel Sabotage

SHEFFIELD
CROQUET

PETE YORK

Croquet is back for another season in South Yorkshire and, at Sheffield Croquet Club, it hasn't taken long for the action – or the challenges – to begin.

The lawns at Hillsborough Park were carefully repaired and prepared over the winter, ready for an early April start, but nature had other ideas. Persistent squirrels have already been busy undoing some of that hard work, leaving holes across the playing surface and sparking fresh debate about how best to tackle the problem – humanely – as the new season unfolds.

Despite that, spirits were high as the club marked the start of the 2026 campaign with a charity event in aid of Croquet England's nominated cause, Save the Children, reflecting a nationwide push by clubs to use the sport as a force for good.

Seven members braved cold, damp conditions on Saturday 11 April to contest a round robin of One Ball Croquet, a simplified but surprisingly tactical version of the game. The event ran smoothly thanks to the organisation of Ki Hulme, who also emerged victorious at the end of the day – a reward for both steady play and steady leadership.

Charity competitions like this are an increasingly important part of the croquet calendar. Across the country, clubs are raising funds for Save the Children through similar events this spring, underlining croquet's strong community ethos alongside its competitive edge.

For those unfamiliar with the sport, croquet continues to shake off its outdated stereotypes. Governed nationally by Croquet England, the modern game demands precision, forward planning and tactical awareness, with men and women competing on equal terms at every level.

At Sheffield Croquet Club, that philosophy is central. Based at Hillsborough Park, the club welcomes players of all ages and abilities, providing equipment, coaching and a relaxed pathway into the sport for newcomers curious to give it a try.

As the weather improves and the season settles, attention will turn to league fixtures, internal competitions and more opportunities to open the gates to the wider community – squirrels permitting.

Anyone interested in discovering a sport that blends gentle exercise, sharp thinking and genuine social connection can find out more by contacting enquiries@sheffield-croquetclub.uk, or by heading down to the lawns to see the game in action this summer.

Dearne Valley Bulldogs were beaten 34–26 by West Hull in the Rugby League Yorkshire Men's League Division 2. We have not previously covered rugby league at South Yorkshire Sport, but if you follow the game and would be interested in joining our friendly team of volunteers to contribute articles on local and grassroots rugby league, please get in touch at enquiries@southyorkshiresport.co.uk. We'll explain what's involved and provide the guidance and support you need to help put the sport on the South Yorkshire Sport map.
