

ART PERITUS

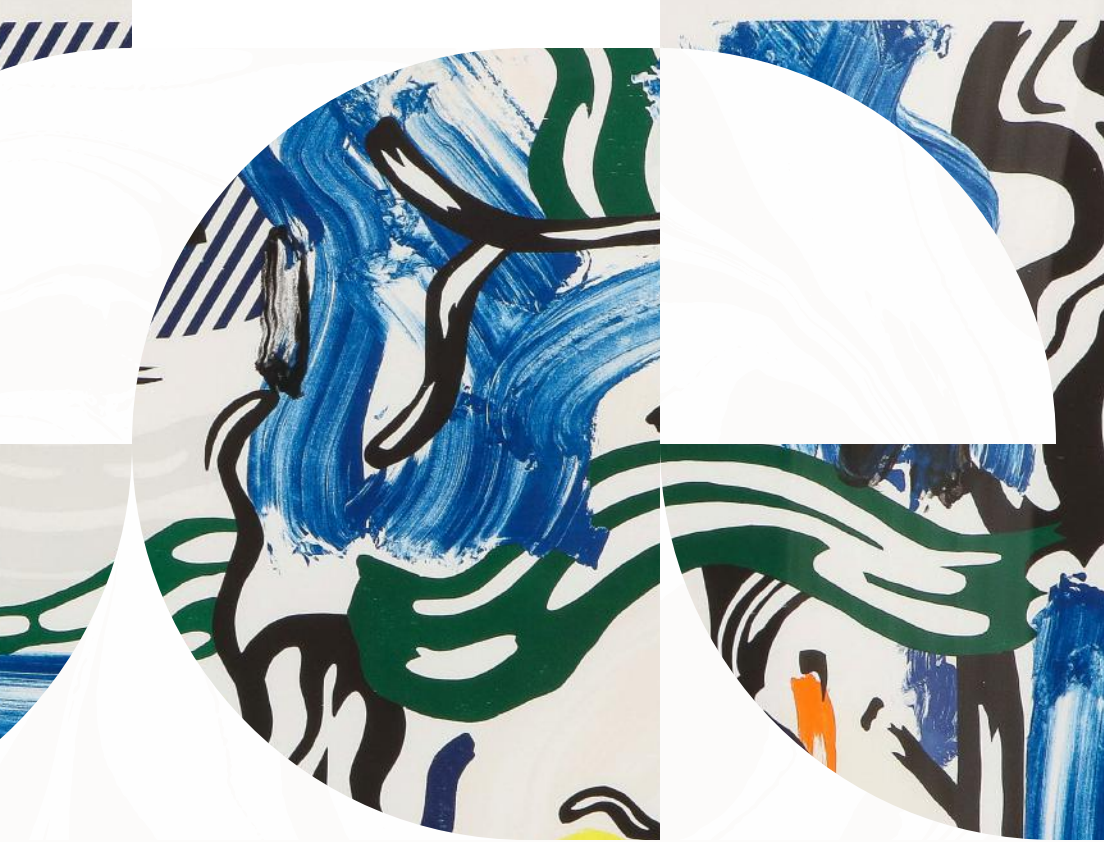

Tangible Expertise

Establishing the true value of any tangible asset – from fine & decorative art, jewelry, wine, vintage automobiles, or collectible memorabilia – requires more than mere knowledge. It requires experience and expertise.

Art Peritus is an industry authority in the appraisal of passion assets, art collection management, and consulting, providing comprehensive expert services to clients across the Americas, and throughout the UK and Europe since 2007.

Peritus pə'rētəs (Noun)

Noun: A skilled or experienced expert advisor.

Adjective: Possessing knowledge or expertise.

Our extensive expertise and connoisseurship define us.

With a trusted network of more than 70 specialists strategically located around the globe in every category of collecting, Art Peritus seamlessly serves private collectors, insurance professionals, trust & estate planning attorneys, family offices, wealth managers and fellow industry advisors.

A Passion for Passion Assets

Our mission... Seek the truth for every collection and artwork we handle so that informed choices can be made to optimize their value, potential and protection.

Averaging over 20 years of experience, each Art Peritus team member brings a wealth of industry expertise and valuation experience. The profound enthusiasm for their area of specialty is driven by a genuine and persistent desire for knowledge and truth that is continuously cultivated through work for international auction houses, galleries, museums and academic institutions.

Our matchless client service, partnered with the depth and breadth of our market intelligence allows us to provide an array of essential services to the collectors and professionals we serve.

Appraisals & Valuations

Art Peritus appraises 'passion' assets across all categories of collecting from fine art, jewelry, and furniture, to watches, wine, collectibles, and cars.

We substantiate values through objective and impeccably researched, USPAP compliant appraisals that outpace even the industry's highest standards.

Our detailed and fully illustrated formal appraisals are used for underwriting, insurance claims, estate planning, IRS filing, equitable distribution, charitable donation, division of assets and collateral loans. Informal schedule reviews can also be provided to determine if any market appreciation has exceeded coverage and requires an appraisal update.

Acquisitions & Sales Consulting

Our expertise proves essential to serious collectors looking to begin, build, or refine their collections. Beyond offering consultative guidance and unbiased support with opinions regarding quality, and value, we provide analysis of market conditions, collecting trends, comparables, inventory and project management. For collateral loan, charitable contribution, private sale or third-party brokering, we assist with navigating the sales, consignment and donation process.

Art Crisis Management

Art Peritus is one of the industry's best resources for conducting triage and mitigating any further damage in the wake of a fire, flood, hurricane, or other disaster that could impact your collection.

Our Art Crisis Managers provide white glove, full-service support in preparation or aftermath of catastrophic events. We handle everything from secure owner-accessible inventory management to logistical planning, loss prevention strategies and provide vetted referrals for conservators, art handlers and other art-service experts.

Collection Consulting

Beyond traditional collection consulting services, Art Peritus, the maestro of organizational planning, specializes in the meticulous orchestration of any size collection to ensure its safekeeping. We create photographic and fully documented inventories for estate planning, insurance, and general record keeping from the ground up. Our experienced team also provides logistical guidance and oversight during relocation, installation, storage or routine care & treatment.

The Peritu

The essential elements of our uniquely thorough process remain consistent regardless of the services required - Art Peritus always places our clients' needs first. The valuable assets in our charge all receive the same level of care and attention to detail.

RESEARCH: Identifying the truth is our ultimate goal. By employing specialists that are routinely involved with transactions on the retail, auction and private markets, their valuations are founded in fact.

REPORTING: Art Peritus offers the industry's most in-depth USPAP compliant reporting. Every work is recorded and accessible to clients in our proprietary database.

as Process

INTAKE: Our initial contact is filled with as much discovery as possible to properly identify the management strategies required for each project.

INSPECTION AND TRIAGE: We carefully inspect and document every piece so our experts can address the unique and immediate needs of each work.

LOGISTICS: Art Peritus works exclusively with vendors who have been carefully vetted by the insurance carrier, or selected and entrusted by owners themselves.

CONSERVATION: Works requiring damage intervention are carefully inspected to assess the most appropriate conservator and course of action to mitigate any loss of value.

Your Assets' Greatest Asset

It is not merely our comprehensive collection consulting services and reputation for detailed and accurate appraisals that have established Art Peritus as an industry authority. It's also our approachability, personalized client care and unparalleled communication.

Technology at the Fore

Art Peritus employs a variety of current technologies that enable clients to upload photos, documents, and communicate directly with our team on their project or regarding an individual object.

This provides an exceptional ecosystem for staying informed and on top of all aspects of what can often become a complex and involved process.

The Art Peritus Custom Database

For more than 16 years, Art Peritus has continued to grow and develop a proprietary database to create custom appraisal reports and assist both specialists and clients in tracking the logistics, conservation, ownership, and valuation history of each work within their collection.

This essential tool showcases Art Peritus' uniquely innovative approach, and forms the basis of our industry-leading reporting.

“The ability to communicate with the Art Peritus team throughout the process of relocating our large collection was invaluable!”

-PRIVATE COLLECTOR, NEW YORK CITY

Obsessively Transparent Yet Discreet

Our commitment to truth has earned Art Peritus the trust of prominent insurers, world renowned auction houses, respected industry partners and some of the most recognized names in private collecting. While discretion remains paramount, our enhanced communications allow us to remain thoroughly transparent to clients throughout the project process.

Art Peritus values the privacy of our clients, and takes great effort to safeguard all personal information regarding owners and the collections we manage.

Founded on Fact

Art Peritus represents an endless quest for the truth. Not merely any truth, but the invaluable truth about exceptional collections that exists somewhere beyond the expertise of collectors, and their insurers or advisors.

It is our unfaltering commitment to that singular, unbiased truth that has made Art Peritus one of the most sought-after collection appraisal & consulting firms in the industry.

Appreciation of the finer things is universal. Yet the knowledge and understanding of what ultimately determines their value is rare and specialized indeed. Entrust your collection to those who know and truly understand the value it holds.

Art Peritus. The truth is your greatest asset.

Jennifer Garland Ross, AAA FOUNDER

In 2007, Jennifer founded Art Peritus and has since shaped it into a top-tier, multi-disciplinary consortium serving UHNW private collectors and major commercial clients across the art, luxury, and collectible markets. An AAA Certified Appraiser with 25 years of experience—including her tenure as a specialist at a leading international auction house—she has overseen hundreds of thousands of appraisals spanning fine art, furniture, jewelry, watches, wine, and specialty assets.
