BLOOMSBURY

“Those who deprive us of our dreams deprive us of our lives.” Virginia Woolf (Member of the Bloomsbury Group)

At the beginning of the twentieth century, many artists, intellectuals and scientists lived and worked in the London district of BLOOMSBURY. On our journey around the world in search of new impulses for our Emil & Hugo collections, we love to stop here and to get to work with fresh design ideas. At the time, artists and writers who felt connected to one another in their art and creativity, but also in their attitude to life, found each other in the Bloomsbury Group. Creativity, innovation, enthusiasm and aesthetics: all these attributes influenced the work of the “Bloomsberries”, as they often called themselves. These characteristics can also be found in our designs – whether non-woven wallpaper or murals.
