

CROSS REACH

Care you can put your faith in

Whinnieknowe Residential Care Home

An aerial photograph of a residential care home in Nairn, Scotland. The care home is a large, light-colored building with a prominent chimney, situated in a leafy area. It is surrounded by dense green trees and overlooks the River Nairn and the Cawdor Hills. The background shows a wide expanse of water and distant hills under a clear blue sky.

Whinnieknowe is a residential care home for 24 older people.

Located in Nairn Whinnieknowe sits within its own leafy grounds, surrounded by beautiful gardens and trees, overlooking the River Nairn and the magnificent Cawdor Hills.

Our aim is to create a happy and homely environment, where residents are encouraged and supported to live as independently as possible.

Our highly trained and caring staff are on hand 24 hours a day, offering you whatever support you need.

When you come to live at Whinnieknowe you will be introduced to your keyworker who will discuss your individual care needs with you.

At Whinnieknowe you can enjoy nutritious homecooked meals, catering for all tastes and dietary requirements and enjoy the varied activities and events on offer.

Whinnieknowe has lots of space for you to socialise and relax in. As well as a TV lounge and dining area, we have a spacious sitting room and conservatory with excellent views of the garden. Some of these rooms are used for activities and events and residents are free to join in the fun at their leisure.

Whinnieknowe is located within its own extensive grounds. You can enjoy a gentle stroll in the garden or sit in the fresh air, watching the local wildlife. If you're more interested in participating, you'll love our greenhouse and flowerbeds – where we have regular planting sessions.

We have 24 bedrooms, all of which have an en-suite bathroom.

When you live at Whinnieknowe, your bedroom is a space you can call your own. You are welcome to personalise your room to make it feel as much like home as possible.

Staff are highly trained to ensure you receive the highest standards of care and the right level of support.

All care staff are registered with the Scottish Social Services Council and undertake regular training to support their development and maintain our standards.

When you come to live at Whinnieknowe you will be introduced to your keyworker who will help you settle in and will work with you to develop your personal plan to ensure we provide the support you need.

Keeping friends and relatives involved in the day-to-day life at Whinnieknowe is hugely important to us. Whether it's hearing your input on your loved one's Personal Plan or joining us at the home for events and initiatives, your presence is always welcome.

We have an activities co-ordinator at Whinnieknowe who organises varied and enjoyable programme this includes:

- Musical entertainment
- Connection with local Churches
- Intergenerational activities
- Community events
- Enjoying outside space
- Day trips and outings

At CrossReach we have been showing the practical side of our Christian faith for over 150 years.

We advocate acceptance, inclusion and diversity at CrossReach. Each and every one of our care homes are open to all and we are proud to support people from all faiths, cultures and backgrounds.

CROSSREACH

Care you can put your faith in

If you have any questions, or you would like to arrange a visit, please get in touch.

01667 452 387

whinnieknowe@crossreach.org.uk

www.crossreach.org.uk

Mill Road

Nairn

IV12 5EN

The Church of Scotland

Social Care Council

Operating as CrossReach, Scottish Charity No: SC011353

