Expertly Crafted Guided Tours for the modern traveller

Tour Ireland like never before!

Fully Hosted for 8 days starting March 14, 2027

Experience eight unforgettable days in Ireland on a fully hosted journey that blends vibrant cities, breathtaking landscapes, and the warm spirit of Irish hospitality.

This tour is designed for travellers who want the perfect balance of guided exploration, cultural immersion, and effortless comfort. This fully hosted eight day tour blends Ireland's most iconic landscapes, vibrant cities, and charming small towns with the comfort of expert guidance.

With Stacey and Brad leading the way, you'll enjoy a seamless, stress free adventure where every detail is thoughtfully handled. Their hands on hosting style ensures you feel supported, informed, and welcomed throughout the journey. They handle the logistics so you can focus on the experience—connecting with Ireland's culture, landscapes, and people.

Day 1: Sunday, March 14, 2027

Overnight Flight Experience a true taste of Irish splendour on a trip that combines four-star accommodations, stunning scenery, and tasty local cuisine. Make a return to times past when you embark on an unforgettable tour of the Emerald Isle.

Day 2: Mon, Mar 15, Dublin, Ireland

Arrive today in Dublin, Ireland's historic capital city. With no scheduled activities until this evening, take your time settling in as you begin to encounter the Irish way. Tonight, join your fellow travellers for dinner at a local restaurant. (D)

Day 3: Tues, Mar 16, Dublin

Enjoy a full morning's sightseeing bus tour of Dublin with a local expert. Navigate the city viewing famous sites, drive down the Georgian streets and bustling O'Connell Street, and give a nod to the statue of Oscar Wilde, perched on his stone. The rest of the day is yours to independently explore the "Fair City" as you wish. You may choose to join an optional tour to the Guinness Storehouse, followed by a traditional Irish dinner and dance performance. (B)

Day 4: Wed, Mar 17, Dublin - Killarney

Happy St Patrick's Day Depart Dublin for Ireland's breathtaking countryside. Visit the town of Cashel for views of the historic Rock of Cashel, the location where it's believed St. Patrick preached and converted the king of Munster. Next, journey to historic Blarney Castle, where you may take the opportunity to kiss the famous Blarney Stone. Legend has it that those who kiss the stone are bestowed with the gift of eloquence. End your day in Killarney, a town surrounded by natural beauty. Enjoy dinner this evening at a local restaurant. (B, D)

Day 5: Thur, Mar 18, Killarney - Dingle Peninsula - Killarney

Set off this morning to follow what is perhaps Ireland's most beautiful coastal route - the stunning Sleat Head Drive on Dingle Peninsula. Then, it's your choice! Visit the Blasket Centre, a heritage museum with stunning views of the Atlantic -OR- the Louis Mulcahy Pottery workshop and see how exquisite pottery is still made by hand. This afternoon, you can take some time to explore the town of Dingle. (B)

Day 6: Fri, Mar 19, Killarney - Cliffs of Moher - Ennis

Today, explore the fascinating Foynes Flying Boat & Maritime Museum and discover the story of Hollywood star, Maureen

O'Hara's connection to Foynes. Continue to the stunning 700-foot-high Cliffs of Moher for awe-inspiring views of the mighty Atlantic and Aran Islands. End your day in the charming town of Ennis. Enjoy the ambience of your historic hotel and feel the warmth of Irish hospitality. This evening you may join an optional tour to a medieval banquet dinner hosted in a castle. (B)

Day 7: Sat, Mar 20, Ennis - Killiney

Start your day with a cross-country journey to Irish whiskey territory. During a visit to a historic distillery, learn the process of whiskey-making and delight in a tasting of the final product. Top your day off with an overnight stay at an 18th Century 4-star luxury castle hotel and toast the end of a fabulous trip during your farewell dinner. (B, D)

Day 8: Sunday, March 21, 2027 Killiney - Tour Ends

Your tour comes to an end in Killiney. (B)

Fully Hosted for 8 days starting March 14, 2027

Stacey and Brad McCullough are a husband-and-wife travel team whose shared love of exploring the world has shaped both their family and their work. As parents of four, they've mastered the art of staying active, adaptable, and upbeat—skills that naturally carry over into the group adventures they lead. Their energy is contagious, their style is easygoing and fun, and their keen eye for details ensures every traveler feels taken care of from start to finish.

Among all the destinations they've explored, Dublin during St. Patrick's Day has become one they are most excited to be hosting. They're drawn to the city's electric atmosphere each March—the music, the laughter, the parade, and the sense of celebration that spills into every street. Their 2027 Irish Splendour tour is designed to share that magic, blending iconic festivities with authentic local experiences.

-Your Hosts Stacey & Brad
McCullough-

Stacey brings thoughtful planning and smooth logistics to every moment, making sure the group can relax and enjoy the celebration without stress. Brad adds storytelling, humor, and a genuine love for Irish culture, helping travelers connect with the heart of Dublin beyond the holiday excitement. Together, they create trips that feel lively, welcoming, and full of memorable moments.

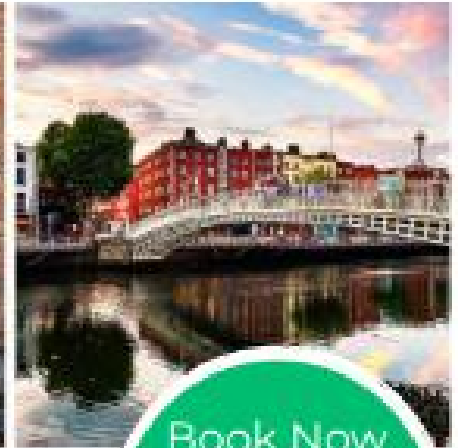

They can't wait to welcome you to Ireland in 2027 for a St. Patrick's Day celebration filled with color, culture, and the kind of shared experiences that stay with you long after the journey ends.

Experience It! Cabra Castle

Cabra Castle stands on 100 acres of gardens and parkland, with incredible views of the County Cavan countryside, famous for its beautiful lakes. Formerly known as Corny Castle, it dates back to the 17th century. Purchased in 1813 by Colonel Joseph Pratt, it was rebuilt and renamed Cabra Castle. The castle's long legacy lends a cultured air that's felt when strolling its magnificent hallways. There's no better way to get the full experience of this incredible place than to spend the night steeped in the castle's history, with modern amenities and views of nearby Dún a Rí Forest Park and the Irish countryside.
