Palms I Chair

The Palms II Chair, designed in 2004, marked Jeff's first win for Seating of the Year from Interior Design magazine. Drawing inspiration from his early years in Southern California, the chair reflects influences from the Case Study Homes, the mid-century designs of Southern California, and Scandinavian design.

The Palms Collection, which includes the Palms I and II Chairs as well as the Palms Loveseat, features a sleek, low profile that exudes a sultry charm, especially in rich, dark fabrics. When upholstered in brighter colors, these pieces take on a playful yet alluring character.

The Palms II Chair is a more compact version of Jeff's original Palms I Chair, which offers a wider, roomier design without sacrificing style. The Palms Loveseat extends the dimensions of the Palms I Chair to comfortably seat two. All three pieces embody classic, well-built comfort.
