GALACTIC OBSESSION

A LONG TIME AGO...

...IN A GALAXY FAR FAR AWAY...

This 275 sq.ft. residential reno project, that was 5 years in the making, was truly a galactic-sized obsession where the designed elements, specialty features, and precision detailing were rivalled only by the passion of the client collector.

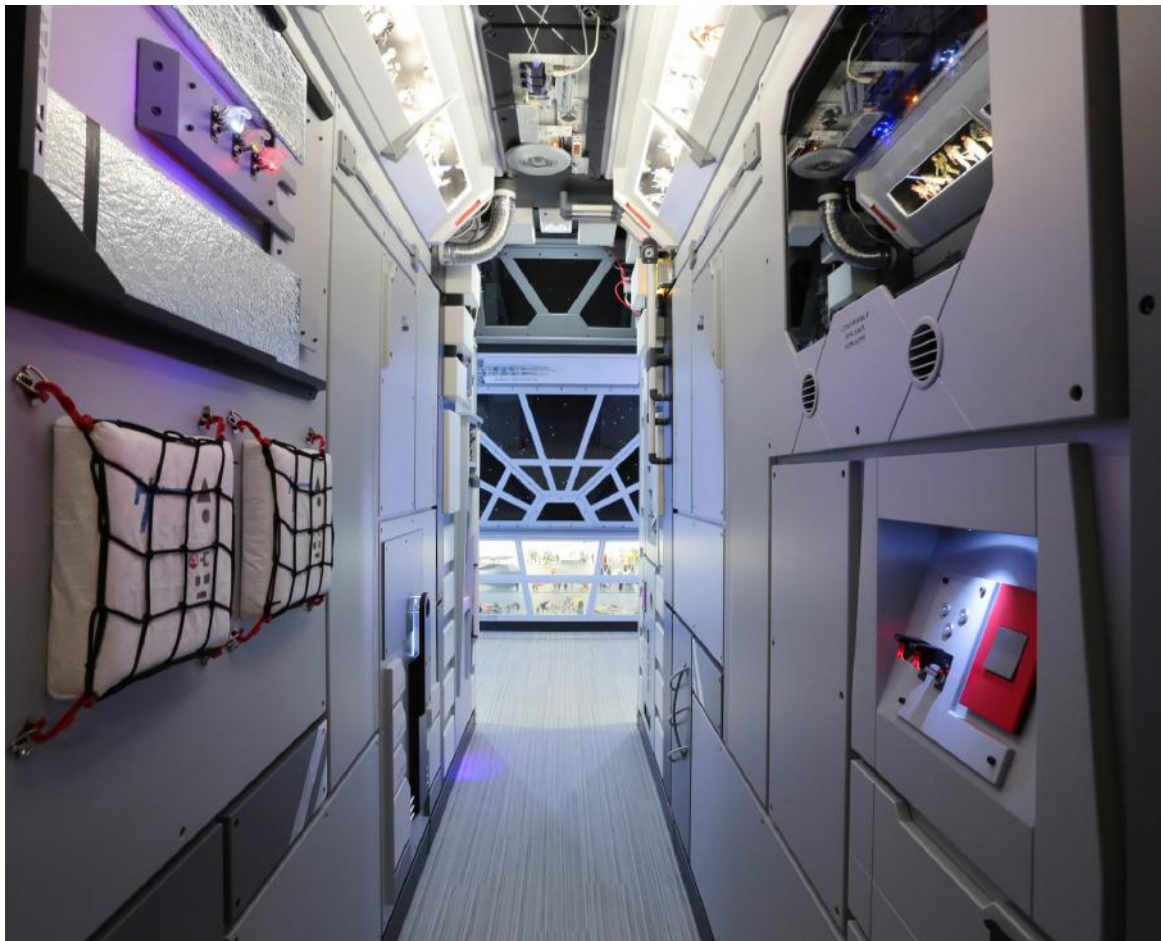

NEVER TELL ME THE ODDS.

DO.
OR DO NOT.

YOUR FOCUS
DETERMINES YOUR REALITY

HELP ME OBI-WAN KENOBI...

At Design Matrix Inc. we love the creative energy that elevates a project when we work with others. This unique space would not have been possible without the innovative millwork solutions of Hindle Finishing Systems, stunning photos by Jackie Noble Photography and, of course, our amazing visionary clients!
