Top Hat Organizer

Label the top boxes with the subjects you are studying and record their differences.
Fill in the bottom box with their similarities.

The diagram shows a large light blue shape resembling a top hat. The crown of the hat is divided into two equal halves by a vertical line. Each half has a horizontal line near the top edge, creating two rectangular boxes for labeling subjects. The brim of the hat is a single, wide, light blue oval shape at the bottom.

Similarities

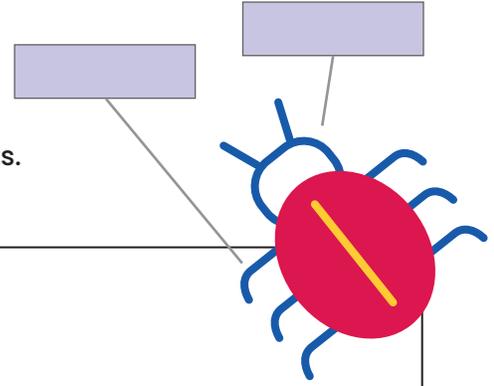

A large, light blue oval shape with a white oval cutout in the center, intended for recording similarities between the subjects.
