nature.

In the broadest sense, the word "nature" is the physical world or universe. "Nature" refers to the phenomena of the physical world and life in general. Nature symbolizes peace and calm. It represents the cycles of life while embodying freedom and independence.

Freedom is the state of not being imprisoned or enslaved. We can independently explore the world of nature without hesitancy as it does not belong to anyone. This means we can experience the charm of nature peacefully. It lets us travel more deeply and enjoy nature in our ways. We also get to learn the interpretation of nature based on another perspective as we go through our life cycles while going through the twists and turns of life.

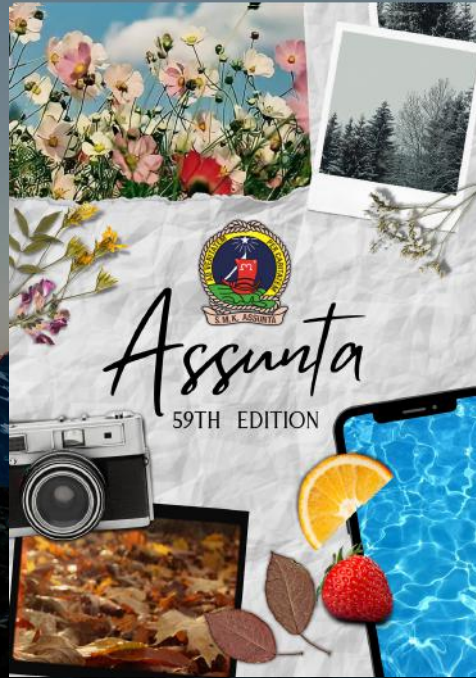

In conclusion, the theme of nature here means that every Assuntarian is free to explore everything freely in terms of nature and it makes them someone who can create new ideas in their way. It also builds them as someone who can make a bold decision in their own way. This shows that Assuntarians are creatively open-minded and dare to step forward.

MENTERI PENDIDIKAN MALAYSIA

FADHLINA BINTI SIDEK

Assalamualaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh dan Salam Sejahtera.

Warga pendidik, murid - murid, warga sekolah dan ibu bapa yang saya kasihi, Sesungguhnya, tahun 2022 membuka lembaran baharu yang menuntut kita sebagai warga pendidik untuk melakar lebih banyak pencapaian yang signifikan dan mencipta lebih banyak peluang baharu. Yang pasti, seluruh nuansa ini pastinya perlu ditempuhi dengan semangat dan merangkut segala kekuatan yang ada.

Terdahulu ketika negara ditimpa mehnah pandemik COVID - 19, KPM telah memberikan komitmen penuh dengan mengambil pelbagai langkah proaktif termasuk Pengajaran dan Pembelajaran di Rumah (PdPR) bagi memastikan tiada murid yang ketinggalan dalam silibus pendidikan. Malah KPM cukup komited dalam melaksanakan pelbagai intervensi untuk merapatkan kesenjangan yang sedia ada.

Di kesempatan ini, saya juga ingin merakamkan rasa simpati saya kepada warga pendidik serta murid dan keluarga mereka yang terkesan akibat bencana banjir di beberapa negeri. Tidak dilupakan buat keluarga mangsa kejadian tanah runtuh di Batang Kali, saya utuskan ucapan takziah sekudusnya.

Landasan sistem pendidikan yang kita warisi pada hari ini telah pun melalui siri - siri pemurnian. Namun kita tidak boleh kompromi dalam memastikan tekad beban guru dikurangkan dan kesejahteraan murid diraih secara menyeluruh. Justeru, pendekatan untuk mengekalkan dasar sedia ada diangkat dan ditambah baik dengan pemantauan di peringkat pelaksanaan.

Penerapan nilai dan akhlak merupakan tunjang pembentukan diri seseorang murid secara holistik selaras Falsafah Pendidikan Kebangsaan. Maka, besar harapan saya agar warga pendidikan terus istiqamah membawa watak pendidik dalam membangunkan serta melahirkan anak bangsa yang tinggi sopan dan susilanya, mulia pekertinya serta halus adab santunnya.

Oleh yang demikian, tujuh teras utama yang menjadi tumpuan KPM dalam mengemudi sistem pendidikan negara mendambakan sinergi antara guru, murid, ibu bapa serta komuniti yang merupakan kunci kejayaan pendidikan masa depan negara.

Pendidikan adalah pintu gerbang menuju galaksi pengetahuan yang tiada penghujungnya. Makanya, proses pencarian pembinaan serta pengumpulan ilmu wajib dijadikan budaya penerokaan yang bersifat membina otak dan watak.

Ekosistem harmoni yang diterjemahkan dalam rangka murid ceria, guru bahagia, sekolah bitra dan negara sejahtera adalah aspirasi yang akan mengangkat darjat kemuliaan (karamah insaniah) seluruh warga pendidikan, warga sekolah dan murid - murid keseluruhannya.

Menavigasi sebuah kementerian pasca pandemik dalam keresahan tantangan ekonomi serta kos sara hidup yang menekan memerlukan sarwa pandang yang merentas zaman serta kalis masa hadapan. Semoga kita semua akan terus kuat menempuh cabaran mendatang sebagai satu pasukan warga pendidikan yang kuat, padu dan saling menyokong antara satu sama lain.

Akhir kata, tahniah dan syabas kepada semua warga sekolah khususnya sidang redaksi yang telah berusaha merealisasikan penerbitan majalah sekolah ini. Segala jerih payah dan sumbangan dalam penerbitan majalah ini adalah perlambangan kepada rakaman sejarah dan memori dari segenap sudut. Terima kasih seluruhnya kerana majalah ini telah melukiskan citra dan peta memori serta wajah kenangan yang manis. Besar harapan saya agar majalah ini dapat dimanfaatkan oleh seluruhnya pembacanya.

Assalamualaikum WBT. Salam Sejahtera, Salam Malaysia Madani, Salam Karamah Insaniah, Salam Anak yang Baik lagi Cerdik dan Salam JPN Selangor Sentiasa Berkualiti dan Terus Unggul.

Bersyukur saya ke hadrat Allah SWT kerana dengan izin - Nya, saya diberikan kesempatan untuk merakamkan seuntai kata secangkir bicara dalam majalah SEKOLAH MENENGAH KEBANGSAAN ASSUNTA bagi tahun 2022.

Penerbitan majalah sekolah merupakan usaha yang penting kerana menjadi rujukan masyarakat luar untuk mengetahui kemajuan dan kebitaraan sesebuah sekolah. Selain pelaporan aktiviti dan pencapaian sekolah pada tahun semasa, majalah sekolah juga mampu menyerlahkan aura, iklim serta budaya sekolah hasil garapan pemimpin sekolah dan warganya.

Pendidikan ialah asas untuk membangunkan negara Madani yang mementingkan ciri - ciri seperti kemapanan, kesejahteraan, daya cipta, hormat, keyakinan dan ihsan perlu diterapkan dalam diri setiap individu agar dapat menjadi jati diri yang kukuh dan unggul. Hal ini dikatakan demikian kerana, penerapan nilai dan akhlak merupakan tunjang pembentukan diri murid secara holistik dan mempunyai nilai karamah insaniah selaras dengan Falsafah Pendidikan Kebangsaan. Oleh itu, besar harapan saya agar warga pendidikan terus tekal dan istiqamah membugarkan personaliti pendidik yang dapat dijadikan suri teladan dalam usaha melahirkan anak bangsa yang mempunyai kesopanan dan kesusilaan sebagai masyarakat timur agar hasrat Kementerian Pendidikan Malaysia (KPM) bagi melahirkan Anak yang Baik lagi Cerdik (ABC) dapat direalisasikan.

Tujuh teras utama menjadi tumpuan KPM untuk mengemudi sistem pendidikan memerlukan sinergi antara guru, murid, ibu bapa serta komuniti dalam usaha menavigasi pendidikan di Selangor, setiap warga pendidikan di bawah lembayung JPN Selangor perlu mempunyai watak K - MASA (Knowledge, Measurable, Acceptable, Skills, Attitude and Other Criteria) agar dapat melahirkan warga sekolah yang kuat, padu dan saling menyokong antara satu sama lain untuk membentuk pendidikan yang berkualiti dan unggul di Selangor.

Saya amat yakin bahawa penerbitan majalah sekolah pada tahun ini merupakan manifestasi kolaboratif, komitmen serta kreativiti dan pemikiran kritis semua pihak iaitu murid, guru dan barisan kepimpinan sekolah yang disokong pula oleh pihak ibu bapa serta komuniti. Sistem jalinan dan jaringan secara menyeluruh dalam pendidikan perlu dikekalkan agar sekolah berkualiti dan kemenjadian murid dapat direalisasikan.

Akhir kata, tahniah dan syabas kepada semua warga sekolah khususnya sidang redaksi majalah yang telah merealisasikan penerbitan majalah sekolah ini. Besar harapan saya agar majalah ini dapat melestarikan memori dan kenangan manis kepada seluruh warga sekolah.

Assalamualaikum WBT. Salam Sejahtera. Salam Keluarga Malaysia dan Salam JPN Selangor TERBILANG.

Bersyukur saya ke hadrat Allah SWT kerana dengan izin - Nya, saya diberikan kesempatan untuk merakamkan seuntai kata secebis bicara dalam majalah sekolah ini bagi keluaran tahun 2022. Syabas dan tahniah kepada Sidang Redaksi dan warga sekolah kerana berjaya menerbitkan majalah sekolah pada tahun ini.

Bidang pendidikan di negara kita terus berkembang dan turut mengalami proses transformasi. Pelan Pembangunan Pendidikan Malaysia (PPPM) 2013 - 2025 merupakan suatu manifestasi kepada proses transformasi yang direncanakan bagi meledakkan pembangunan pendidikan di negara ini. Proses ini menterjemahkan kepemimpinan, pengurusan, pembelajaran dan pengembangan potensi ilmu, kemahiran serta kepakaran abad ke - 21 yang perlu dijanakan sejak daripada peringkat sekolah lagi. PPPM ini telah masuk ke gelombang ketiga di mana sekolah diberi kuasa dan kepercayaan untuk mencorak pengurusan di peringkat sekolah masing - masing dalam merencanakan hala tuju sekolah.

Pelbagai idea dan pemikiran baharu perlulah dijelmakan di peringkat sekolah bagi memantapkan sistem yang sedia diimplementasikan secara lestari bagi menyediakan dan melahirkan modal insan yang mampu menghadapi cabaran global dan menjadi global player yang dinamik. Kepelbagaian inisiatif dihasilkan dan dipacu dengan lebih pantas agar memberi manfaat kepada warga sekolah, komuniti, negeri dan negara.

Salam sejahtera dan Salam Malaysia Madani.

Terlebih dahulu, saya merakamkan penghargaan dan ucapan terima kasih yang setinggi - tingginya kepada pihak sekolah dan sidang redaksi majalah sekolah kerana memberikan ruang kepada saya untuk mencoretkan sepatah dua kata dalam majalah sekolah ini.

Tahniah dan syabas saya ucapkan kepada warga sekolah atas kejayaan menerbitkan majalah sekolah yang istimewa, berkualiti dan bernas kandungannya ini.

Majalah sekolah merupakan hasil pendokumentasian segala hal ehwal sekolah baik yang berkaitan dengan pentadbiran sekolah, mahupun yang berkaitan dengan akademik, kokurikulum serta hal ehwal murid. Maklumat yang berkaitan dengan kurikulum, pedagogi dan pentaksiran turut dimuatkan dalam majalah sekolah untuk dijadikan sumber rujukan utama kepada masyarakat umum. Sehubungan dengan itu, majalah yang bermutu tinggi menjadi cerminan status dan citra kecemerlangan sekolah. Kebitaraan sekolah dalam pelbagai aspek, pencapaian dan kemenjadian murid, serta hasil karya murid turut ditonjolkan dalam majalah sekolah. Kandungan yang bermakna ini secara langsung ataupun tidak telah menggambarkan etos dan budaya sekolah.

Seiring dengan perkembangan seantero dunia pada abad ke - 21 ini, penglibatan murid secara aktif untuk merealisasikan matlamat penerbitan majalah sekolah sesungguhnya amat penting sekali. Tuntutan mutakhir abad ke - 21 seperti komunikasi, kolaborasi, kreativiti dan pemikiran kritis yang ditunjangi keluhuran nilai murni akan dipenuhi semua murid yang diamanahkan tugas dan tanggungjawab dalam proses penerbitan majalah. Pengalaman yang bermakna ini akan menjadi proses pembelajaran yang memantapkan pemikiran murid sekali gus mempersiapkan mereka untuk mendepani Revolusi Industri 4.0 kelak. Oleh sebab itu, warga pendidik, khususnya guru - guru sekolah haruslah terus membimbing murid - murid supaya mereka diupayakan dari segi perancangan tugas, pelaksanaan, ilmu fotografi, kemahiran teknologi maklumat dan komunikasi (ICT), kewartawanan, keterampilan berbahasa dalam pengkaryaan, dan penyuntingan.

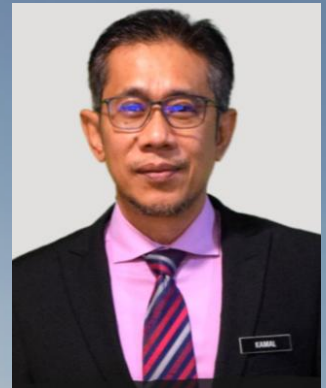

Saya amat yakin bahawa sekiranya pihak sekolah menjiwai erti sebenar pendidikan, gigih menjelmakan hasrat Kementerian Pendidikan Malaysia, taat menggalas tanggungjawab untuk mengurus sekolah mengikut keperluan secara tadbir urus sendiri sejajar dengan gelombang ketiga Pelan Pembangunan Pendidikan Malaysia (PPPM 2013 - 2025) yang bermula sejak tahun 2022 ini, kemenjadian murid pasti dimungkinkan dan sekolah yang berkualiti nescaya menjadi realiti walaupun kita mendepani dugaan pascapandemik COVID - 19 pada masa ini.

Akhirulkalam, saya sekali lagi merakamkan penghargaan yang setinggi - tingginya kepada sidang redaksi majalah sekolah atas kejayaan penerbitan majalah ini. Kepada pembaca majalah sekolah ini pula, saya berharap semoga pembacaan majalah ini mendatangkan manfaat.

Salam Sejahtera.

Sukacita saya mengambil kesempatan ini untuk merakamkan setinggi - tinggi tahniah dan syabas kepada semua warga SMK Assunta, khususnya Sidang Redaksi SMK Assunta yang terlibat dalam menjaya serta menyempurnakan majalah ASSUNTA. Tanpa kesungguhan dan komitmen yang tinggi, sudah tentu majalah edisi 59 ini tidak dapat direalisasikan seperti yang dirancang. Majalah ASSUNTA merupakan naskah yang bukan sekadar catatan tentang keindahan zaman persekolahan, bahkan satu dokumentasi yang bersifat rasmi tentang kemajuan sekolah.

Perubahan dan penambahbaikan dalam dasar pendidikan negara seperti pentaksiran berasaskan sekolah (PBS), kemahiran berfikir aras tinggi (KBAT) dan sarana sekolah yang menjadi inti pati pelaksanaan Pelan Pembangunan Pendidikan Malaysia (PPPM) 2013 - 2025 menuntut warga pendidikan berfikir di luar kotak, serta mengaplikasikan strategi lautan biru supaya terus berdaya saing dan dihormati. Saya mengucapkan tahniah kerana warga sekolah dan ibu bapa berjaya memanfaatkan pelbagai aplikasi atas talian bagi melicinkan pengurusan sekolah dan maklumat pencapaian murid dengan lebih berkesan dan cekap.

Bagi mengakhiri coretan ringkas ini, saya mengucapkan terima kasih kepada Kementerian Pendidikan Malaysia, Jabatan Pendidikan Negeri Selangor, Pejabat Pendidikan Daerah Selangor, Lembaga Pengelola Sekolah (BOG), dan PIBG atas kepercayaan dan sokongan kepada pihak sekolah. Harapan saya kepada warga sekolah dan pembaca, selamat maju jaya.

As the Form V's leave their beloved Alma Mater, and the other classes continue to absorb Assunta's atmosphere, I thought the poem/prayer with which I ended my speech on recently receiving an Honorary Doctorate in the Humanities might generate some inspiration of lasting value:

THE KNOT'S PRAYER

Dear God,
Please untie the knots
That are in my mind,
My heart and life.
Remove the have nots
The can not and the do nots
That I have in my mind.

Erase the will nots
May nots and
Should nots that obstruct my life.

And most of all
Dear God,
I ask that you remove from my mind,
My heart and my life, all of the 'am nots'
That I have allowed to hold me back,
Especially the thought
That I am not good enough.
Amen

Salam Sejahtera dan Salam 1 Assunta.

Terlebih dahulu tahniah dan syabas saya ucapkan kepada Jawatankuasa Sidang Redaksi majalah SMK Assunta 2022 atas kejayaan menerbitkan majalah secara maya pada tahun ini. Kejayaan ini merupakan hasil permuafakatan yang terjalin antara guru dengan pelajar serta komitmen semua pihak. Pada kesempatan ini, saya ingin merakamkan jutaan terima kasih kerana memberi peluang kepada saya untuk menyampaikan sepatah dua kata. Cabaran untuk memperkasakan kualiti pendidikan ialah tanggungjawab kita semua. Untuk merealisasikan hasrat ini, memerlukan kita semua saling membantu bagi mencapai aspirasi yang diidamkan.

Menelusuri arus globalisasi kini, terlalu banyak cabaran yang harus kita semua hadapi dan tangani khususnya pada norma baharu ini. Jadi bagi mendepani cabaran tersebut, anak - anak pelajar SMK Assunta haruslah melengkapi diri dengan ilmu, kemahiran serta sahsiah terpuji seiring dengan hasrat kerajaan melahirkan pelajar yang berfikiran teknologi terkini. Budaya hedonisme merupakan ancaman terbesar yang perlu dihadapi dalam meneguhkan kecemerlangan anak - anak pelajar sekalian.

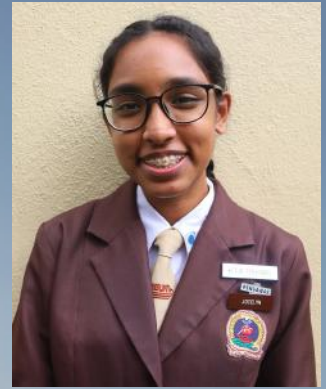

Lantaran itu, anak - anak pelajar perlu memperkasakan diri dan memantapkan kekuatan daya saing demi memajukan negara tercinta terutama dalam bidang teknologi moden. Saya berharap agar ukhuwah yang terjalin antara ibu bapa dengan semua warga SMK Assunta dapat terus menyuntik semangat untuk membantu meningkatkan kecemerlangan akademik mahupun sahsiah anak - anak pelajar. Pihak PIBG akan sentiasa bekerjasama erat bagi menjayakan semua aktiviti di sekolah ini. Semoga penerbitan majalah ini dapat terus meningkatkan daya kreativiti dan inovatif anak - anak pelajar agar menjadi aset kepada kecemerlangan prestasi sekolah ini.

Akhir kata, saya harap agar semua warga SMK Assunta turut melipatgandakan usaha untuk meraih sebarang kejayaan dalam semua bidang. Saya merakamkan setinggi - tinggi penghargaan kepada semua yang terlibat sama ada secara langsung atau tidak langsung bagi menjayakan penerbitan majalah pada kali ini.

Sekian terima kasih.

And just like that, I'm coming to the end of my high school years. It seems like it was only yesterday that I was giving my speech in front of all the prefects as the newly - elected Head Prefect during our Prefectorial Installation ceremony. Now, I'm sitting here drafting out my thank you and goodbye message for the school magazine as I get closer to the end of my term.

Being appointed Head Prefect for the second time was honestly really scary and a big decision to make. My first instinct was to turn down the opportunity because what else could I learn from already being the Head Prefect in lower secondary? But, I was wrong. From making duty lists to planning events, it was a learning curve for me. But my teachers constantly guided me and patiently taught me as I learnt from my mistakes.

One of the main lessons I learned throughout my term was how to work with different people. Putri Dania, the Assistant Head Prefect and Suruthi Loganathan, the Secretary were the two people I worked closely with and the first huge event we had to plan was Assunta Spirit Week. Though it's safe to say neither of us really knew what we were doing, ASW 2022 was a big success. Having posters and banners put up all over the school, seeing everyone dress up especially during badges day, having sold out over 500 badges and students still asking for more made not only me but the entire organizing committee feel as though all our hard work had paid off.

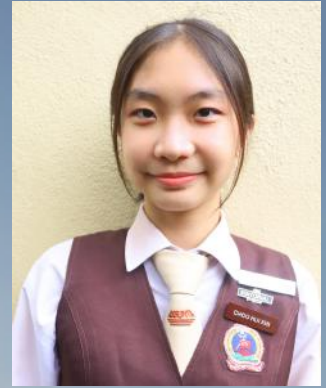

If I were to list down everything that I had learnt this year, this message would probably take up half the magazine. So, I will end it here by thanking a few people I owe it most to.

I'll start off with my parents, for always pushing me to try my best and for encouraging me when life feels overwhelming. To Puan Vasuki for your guidance and patience in teaching me how to carry out my duties well. To Putri and Suruthi, the best Assistant Head Prefect and Secretary anyone could ask for, for your endless support and help in everything. I believe that the three of us have matured and gained knowledge from all our teachers and friends throughout this whole year that we will definitely put to good use in the future. Last but not least, I want to thank all of my friends especially Kashweeta, Dini Qistina, Lawnya and Navena for helping me tremendously throughout this whole year. Although this isn't merely enough to express my gratitude to the four of you, I hope you know how much I appreciate all your help.

If there is one thing for you to take away from my message, it would be to grasp every opportunity that comes your way and make the best out of it. Though it may seem scary at first, trust that everything will turn out okay in the end.

Hey fellow Assuntarians, I hope you are staying healthy and having a good time. As the Editor-In-Chief of SMK Assunta 59th edition magazine, I would like to thank the school for trusting me and giving me this great opportunity to be a part of the 2022 magazine.

As the Covid-19 outbreak has improved, we were able to resume back to school as normal as our curriculum activities. Starting back to what we normally do feels strange, doesn't it? Anyways I was really grateful that we were able to achieve and conduct many activities and events we couldn't do during the pandemic such as Sports Day, SEWO and Assunta Spirit Week. It feels good being able to add these events back into the magazine once again.

I would like to thank our Editorial Board members for their great cooperation in making sure everything was done diligently, especially our Arts and Graphics and Photography section which got so much busier this year chasing deadlines. I would also like to sincerely thank Pn. Suguna, our teacher advisor, for guiding and supporting our fellow editorial members in any way. Special thanks to Denise for helping us once again despite her busy schedules. Lastly, how could I forget my partner in crime Choo without you we wouldn't have made it this far to be able to publish this magazine.

For all Assuntarians, I would like to encourage y'all to participate in any activities as much as possible to make good memories in Assunta. All the best in your future endeavours.

AMBITIONS

I'm sure every one of us has wondered what we want to be when we grow up and face the real world. So, I asked a few of our fellow Assuntarians what their ambitions are and why. Let's find out!

I'd like to become an animator when I grow up since I'm already well acquainted with arts in general as well as animation. It would be nice to have my own animated series as well.

-Nur Zahra Rihana (4 Curie)-

I'd love to be a psychologist because I just find the way different people think fascinating and we have to put ourselves in their shoes to truly know and understand what is going through their minds.

-Khirthana Ann Ramia (4A2)-

I'd like to be a singer. I really love some artists' music such as the very well-known BTS and Taylor Swift. I like the feeling when someone expresses their feelings through music and I voluntarily create music that would create a relationship between my listeners and me.

-Mishalliny (4 Newton)-

My ambition is to become a neurosurgeon because I want to go deeper into medical research to help people in need. I find medicine extremely fascinating. Science is also one of my favourite subjects and that's another reason why I want to be in this field.

-Sashmita Devi Ragunathan (3 Camelia)-

My ambition is probably to travel around. I'd like to try many different types of food because I'm a big eater. I'd also like to see many nice sceneries and take photos or videos of them just to make memories.

-Nadja Adriana (3 Camelia)-

My ambition is to become a veterinarian. I had this strong passion after my past dog passed away, not because of old age but because of a sickness that we didn't know she had until it was too late. This made me want to become a veterinarian so that I could save their lives and so that our pets can enjoy the times of their lives happily!

-Rachel Chew Kah Leng (5 Curie)-

My ambition is to become a diplomat. Ever since I was a kid, I always wanted to become a successful person. In the future, I want to be involved in political things, which is why I'm so interested in studying history. I enjoy researching to learn more about Malaysia's laws and political status. Besides that, Covid - 19 made my eyes opened. It helped me grow my interest by showing me how to make our country big and strong so that people's voices and opinions could be heard.

-Nurul Suhana (5C1)-

Well, I want to thank these fellow Assuntarians for being willing to share their ambitions with everyone. Hope your dreams come true! Now, what's your ambition?

5 BEST PLACES TO VISIT IN MALAYSIA

1. KUALA LUMPUR

Malaysia's capital and largest city have much to offer travellers. Perhaps best known for the Petronas Twin Towers (the world's tallest twin towers), KL is a very popular tourist destination and routinely makes the list of the top 10 most visited cities in the world.

2. PERHENTIAN ISLANDS

These coral-fringed, secluded islands offer plenty of opportunities for kayaking, exploring, snorkelling, and scuba diving, as well as a chance to volunteer with local organizations in green and hawksbill turtle conservation efforts.

3. LANGKAWI ISLAND

A group of 99 islands off the northwestern coast of Malaysia, Langkawi is home to three protected Geoforest parks and many coconut tree-lined shores that are among the best beaches in Malaysia. Some beaches, like Pantai Cenang beach, are very popular with tourists, while beaches on the smaller northeastern islands have a backdrop of limestone cliffs and are more secluded.

4. GEORGE TOWN

The older part of Malaysia's second-largest city has been named a UNESCO World Heritage Site—but George Town is just as famous for its food as it is for its architecture. Known as "the food capital of Malaysia," George Town offers some of the best street food in Asia, best experienced in places like seafront Gurney Drive and Chulia Street, a popular backpacker's destination and one of the oldest streets in the city.

5. CAMERON HIGHLANDS

The Cameron Highlands is a hilly region with a long tradition of tea growing on the sloping mountainside. The tea plantations are still a major attraction today and one of the most photographed spots, but the Cameron Highlands are also home to lavender and strawberry farms; orchards; herbal gardens and nurseries; and the Mossy Forest boardwalk, an always-foggy tropical evergreen environment with designated footpaths to see the local flora and fauna up close.

ANIMAL FACTS

By: Wong Kab Xin

The Bumblebee Bat Is The World's Smallest Mammal

Weighing in at 0.05 to 0.07 ounces, with a head-to-body length of 1.14 to 1.29 inches and a wingspan of 5.1 to 5.7 inches, the bumblebee bat - also known as Kitti's hog-nosed bat - is the smallest mammal in the world, according to the Guinness Book of World Records. To see this tiny bat for yourself, you'd have to visit one of a select few limestone caves on the Khwae Noi River in the Kanchanaburi Province of Southwest Thailand.

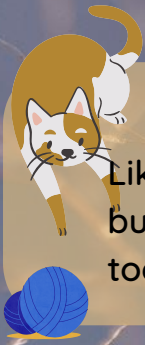

Bottlenose Dolphins Are Even More Right-Handed Than Humans

"Most humans (say 70% to 95%) are right-handed, a minority (say 5% to 30%) are left-handed," according to Scientific American. And the same holds for bottlenose dolphins. In fact, savvy swimmers are even more right-handed than we are. A team led by Florida's Dolphins Communication Project looked at the feeding behaviour of bottlenose dolphins and found that the animals were turning to their left side 99.44% of the time, which "actually suggests a right-side bias," according to IFL Science. "It places the dolphin's right side and right eye close to the ocean floor as it hunts."

Turkeys Can Blush

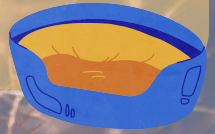

When turkeys are scared or excited-like when the males see a female they're interested in the pale skin on their head and neck turns bright red, blue, or white. The flap of skin over their beaks called a snood also reddens. By the way, this is why the president pardons a turkey every Thanksgiving.

Cats Have Fewer Toes On Their Back Paws

Like most four-legged mammals, cats have five toes on the front, but their back paws only have four toes. Scientists think the four-toed paws might help them run faster.

Blue Whales Eat Half A Million Calories In One Mouthful

Those 457,000 calories are more than 240 times the energy the whale uses to scoop those krill into its mouth.

Sloths Have More Neck Bones Than Giraffes

Despite the difference in neck length, there are more bones in the neck of a sloth than a giraffe. There are seven vertebrae in a giraffe's neck, and in most mammals, there are 10 in a sloth's.

Female Lions do 90% Of The Hunting

While male lions attract their fair share of attention thanks to their impressive manes, it's the female lions who do the bulk of the work when it comes to feeding their families.

Giraffe Tongues Can Be 20 Inches Long

Their dark, bluish-black colour is probably to prevent sunburn.

SPM RESULTS DAY 2022

by Nurul Sahanah, Mardhiah, Sufiyah Nur Batrisyja

On 13th June 2022 marked the outcome of SPM results after candidates of batch 04's spent most of their time studying at home. It's a day of joy, pride and happiness for most families. Our ex-seniors and students returned to their alma mater, and a touching moment began where friends hugged while congratulating each other, and teachers that could not resist smiles on their faces.

Satya Nani once said, 'A little progress each day adds up to big results.' This quote is suitable for straight-As students who shed tears of joy when receiving their SPM result slips.

Here are some responses from our ex-seniors and students:

How do you feel about the results you've just got?

Parames: Happy! All my hard work did paid off and I'm really proud of myself.

Fatihah: I feel so happy and still so surprise with my results

Who was your source of inspiration and motivation?

Putri Arina Athira: To be honest, it was my parents. I love my parents so much and they have been motivating me since I was young.

Piriyaa Tharshini: My parents are the ones who inspired and motivated me, as well as my teachers and friends.

Any plans after taking your results?

Harini: Yeah, I'll be continuing my future studies for sure.

Nur Farhana: I am planning to do diploma after my spm.

Any advice for the future SPM candidates?

Nor Nabila Izzati: Study hard and you must believe in yourself that you can do it, people might say that your trial results are bad but the truth is that it is not the end and you must work even harder for your SPM examination.

Tengku Anis: My only advice is to never study last minute or you'll regret it!

How did you prepare yourself for the SPM examination?

Amanda: I just tried my best and work really hard. I watched many online videos related to SPM subjects and it helped me a lot.

Nisaa Nasarin: I struggled so much to prepare myself for this examination but with my friends help we did a group study and manage to cope with all of my subjects

Nur Alya: I prepared myself by doing many past year SPM questions and attended for all of my classes.

What was your most memorable moment as an Assuntarian?

Lin Kou: Being around my friends and teachers, learning and having fun together.

Will you miss becoming an Assuntarian?

Nur Fatimah Aqilah: Of course! This is because, for these 5 years, I have been through many experiences which have taught me many lessons in my life.

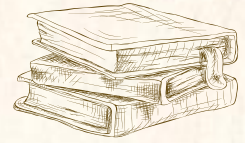

What will you miss after being an ex Assuntarian?

Lynnette: Seeing my friends every day as well as my teachers too!

SEWO WINNERS INTERVIEW

Written by Reesha & Peertikka

Designed by Choo Hui Xin & Audrey Wong

After two long years of waiting, the day we all have been waiting for has come! On the 7th of October 2022, SMK Assunta brought back the iconic SEWO Concert to everyone. The concert gives a chance for all students to show their amazing talents on stage, the theme of this year's concert was "Feel the Rhythm". Have you ever wondered what the performers were thinking when they were performing on stage? Well then, the Editorial Board has gotten a chance to interview some of the winners from the concert about their thoughts.

Before the big performance, there were so many stages and rehearsals that you need to go through. How long did you practice?

Donyada: Honestly I didn't practice at all! It was just a last-minute practice.

24H5M: We went to each other's houses to practice once we have time after school. We practiced nearly every day during the 2 weeks before the event just to make sure everything will be perfect and in sync when we were on the stage.

When you were standing on stage, many people were supporting you and the judges were looking at you. Were you nervous?

Donyada: Yeah, I may look like I'm very confident out there, but my legs were shaking.

24H5M: Of course we were nervous. We were VERY nervous because it was the first time for both of us to perform in front of hundreds of people, knowing that some of them were outsiders. But with the mental support of each other, we managed to pull off the whole performance without any mistakes.

What actually made you want to perform?

Donyada: I'm like heavily influenced by a lot of bands and I plan to join a band after school. So I thought like SEWO would be like a break.

24H5M: The reason why we wanted to perform is that knowing this will be our last year in high school, we wanted to do something memorable and we never joined SEWO as contestants before.

With all your blood, sweat and tears, you finally won. How do you feel?

Donyada: I feel happy but also I won't make it if it wasn't for my friends, the people that support me. I wanted to give up because I was actually with another partner but then she didn't want to join so I have to do it alone.

24H5M: At first we were shocked because we thought that the other contestants were too good and that we can't win. But after they announced the results, we were overwhelmed with the happiness of winning, because we'd practiced for so long. We were thankful and proud for knowing that all our practices had paid off and especially for having each other as partners.

We don't see a lot of rock people here so I hope to see you in a rock band soon do you want to give a message to the future SEWO performers?

Donyada: Rock your ass off!

24H5M: To the future SEWO performers, do your best on the stage just like how you practice usually and also trust yourself no matter what with no regrets. You've overcome every challenge you faced and you've passed all the auditions, so please do believe in yourself that you are surely capable to stand and perform on the stage in front of hundreds of people.

SMK ASSUNTA'S PREFECT INSTALLATION BEYOND ALL LIMITS

by Lindsay Lopez

AFTER MANY MONTHS OF ONLINE MEETINGS, THE PREFECTS MANAGED TO RETURN TO SOME KIND OF NORMALCY BY HOLDING A PHYSICAL INSTALLATION CEREMONY ON THE 28TH OF JANUARY 2022, WHICH WAS HELD IN SISTER ENDA HALL. THE DAY STARTED OFF WITH THE USUAL SINGING OF THE NATIONAL ANTHEM AND SPEECHES GIVEN BY HEADMISTRESS PUAN MAGES WARI A/P SUBRAMANIAM FOLLOWED BY YDP PIBG MR. ALAN GOH. OUR OUTGOING HEAD PREFECT, SARISSHA, DELIVERED A HEARTWARMING SPEECH, BUT IT WAS HER SURPRISE VIDEO TO THE OUTGOING PREFECTS WHICH BROUGHT TEARS TO THE EYES OF MANY. ENDING WITH A TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MARYANNE THERESA.

THE DAY CONTINUED ON WITH THE HANDING OUT OF CERTIFICATES AND GIFTS BY MR ALAN GOH ACCOMPANIED BY PUAN MAGES WARI TO THE OUTGOING SENIOR PREFECTS. IT PROGRESSED WITH THE CERTIFICATION OF THE BEST PREFECTS FROM EACH FORM. THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE DAY WAS THE HANDING OVER OF DUTIES FROM THE OUTGOING BOARD MEMBERS TO THE NEW. THE HALL ERUPTED IN APPLAUSE AS THE NEW BOARD MEMBERS STOOD POISED WITH PRIDE AND DISCIPLINE ON THE STAGE. THE NEWLY INSTALLED HEAD PREFECT, JOCELYN DIANDRA THOMPSON GAVE HER SPEECH WHICH WAS THEN FOLLOWED BY THE RECITATION OF THE PREFECTS PLEDGE LED BY THE HEAD GIRL.

THE CEREMONY CAME TO AN END WITH EVERYONE SINGING THE SCHOOL SONG IN JOYFUL HARMONY. "BEYOND ALL LIMITS" – A SUITABLE THEME FOR SMK ASSUNTA'S PREFECTS INSTALLATION OF 2021/2022 AS OUR PREFECTS HAVE TRULY DONE IT ALL. THEY OVERCAME OBSTACLES AND JUMPED THROUGH HOOPS TO KEEP TO THEIR PROMISE OF UPHOLDING THE SCHOOL'S LONG-LASTING DISCIPLINE. WE HOPE THAT THE LATEST BATCH OF PREFECTS CONTINUE TO PERFORM THEIR DUTIES WITH HONOUR AND DISCIPLINE AND WE THANK THE OUTGOING PREFECTS FOR THEIR HARD WORK AND COMMITMENT TO OUR SCHOOL.

PROGRAM JOM KE SEKOLAH

By Kimberly Anne Raj
Designed by Hapinaashre

On the 4th of April 2022, SMK Assunta held a program called 'Jom ke Sekolah' on the first day of physical school after two weeks of online school.

This program was held during our morning assembly. All the Assuntarians' faces looked very happy to be back in school physically again. The program started off with our principal Puan Mages Wari A/P Subramaniam giving a speech. She was very happy to see all the Assuntarians healthy and back in school. After Puan Mages Wari finished her speech, she introduced us to Inspector Amy who was from the Petaling Jaya District Police headquarters. She was also assisted by Sargent Walter. Inspector Amy was assigned to our school to deal with all the discipline problems. Inspector Amy gave a very short speech about our discipline in school. She also said that she will be visiting our school once a month to make sure our students are on the right track. The program was inaugurated by the school administrator pulling the 'Jom ke Sekolah' banner which was designed by Lisa Farzana.

ASSUNTA SPIRIT WEEK

by Lindsay Lopez

Every year, SMK Assunta celebrates Assunta Spirit Week on the first month of the new school term. This celebration is specially organised to strengthen the relationships among the school's students and teachers. Assunta Spirit Week 2022 held on the third week of April is definitely one to remember, especially since it was the first in two years! The theme "Be Kind, Words Don't Rewind" is to spread awareness about bullying and its effects on its victims to create a safer environment for all.

PROJECT CONNECT

This project was done for students to educate themselves on the effects of bullying on the people around them and how they can show support for the victims and the event was held throughout the week. Students were encouraged to write about their experiences and feelings when bullied as well as ways to help the victims of bullying on sheets of coloured paper which were then hung all over the school grounds.

MONDAY

After the launch of ASW 2022 during assembly, the activities of the week were announced one by one. Monday's activity was called "Pyramid Relay". Where 4 students from each class competed with each other to stack cups in the shape of a pyramid using only rubber bands as fast as they could! Everyone was also wearing ribbons EVERYWHERE since it was also Ribbon Day!

WEDNESDAY

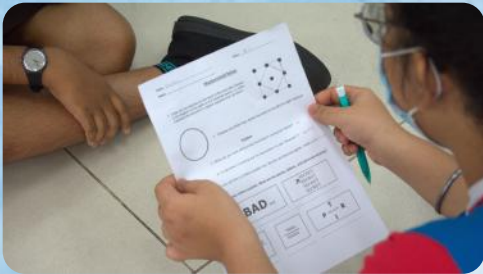

“Blind Drawing” the game works exactly as how it sounds. Where two students have to channel their inner telepathic senses in order to win. Just like a game of charades person A, draws something on a piece of paper and person B has to guess. This activity though frustrating brought so much joy and laughter that could be heard from the Gallery all the way to the Canteen. That day was a very confusing day since everyone looked like twins! From their two pigtails to the matching bags and bottles they brought to school. Twin Day was a definite success!

THURSDAY

So many colours, so much Assuntarian pride! With Thursday being Colour Day everyone including the teachers participated just to have fun but also to earn points! The activity for that day was “Mastermind” where students really had to put on their thinking caps and keep up with one another while solving the brain teasers given.

FRIDAY

Although Assunta Spirit Week has come to an end, that doesn't mean that we stop celebrating Assunta! The final activity is a tradition that has been carried out for years and years. It's Badges Day! Students arrived at school covered in badges from head to toe! Everywhere you went you could hear the jingling of badges.

Overall, ASW 2022 was a huge success! I just know that everyone is waiting for the next one! The bond created between the students, teachers and staff definitely livened up the school atmosphere! A special thanks to everyone who participated and to those who helped organise this. But most of all, Thank you, Assunta!

A RAYA FEAST

By: Lindsay Lopez

Designed by Nurjannah

MAY 27TH 2022 IS DEFINITELY A DAY TO REMEMBER. SONG AND LAUGHTER FILLED THE AIR AS SMK ASSUNTA HELD THEIR FIRST RAYA CELEBRATION IN TWO YEARS. THE SCHOOL WAS LITTERED WITH STUDENTS AND TEACHERS DRESSED IN THEIR COLOURFUL CULTURAL WEAR LOOKING SOMEWHAT LIKE A RAINBOW. WHICH I FEEL IS EXTREMELY FITTING AS A RAINBOW CARRIES A PERSONAL SYMBOLIC MEANING - REPRESENTING INCLUSIVITY AND DIVERSITY, AN ALL-EMBRACING IMAGE OF LOVE AND FRIENDSHIP.

THIS YEAR'S RAYA CELEBRATION WAS TOUCHING FOR MANY. IT WAS A FEAST, WITH VARIOUS ASSORTMENTS OF FOOD AND DRINKS RANGING FROM SATAY AND KETUPAT TO CAKES AND DELICACIES FROM BAKERIES. IT WAS A SOCIAL EVENT, WHERE STUDENTS MINGLED AND BONDED WITH THEIR CLASSMATES WHOM THEY HAVEN'T SEEN SINCE 2020 BUT ALSO MET NEW PEOPLE FROM DIFFERENT CLASSES AND FORMS.

SMK ASSUNTA HAS PROVED TIME AND TIME AGAIN THAT WE ARE ALL TRULY ONE BIG HAPPY FAMILY. WE ARE A COMMUNITY WHO LOVES AND RESPECTS ONE ANOTHER. BUILDING THAT CRUCIAL BONDED TRUST AMONG US ALL. THIS CELEBRATION WAS A DAY WHERE WE COULD PUT OUR DIFFERENCES ASIDE AND INSTEAD ENJOY WHAT LITTLE TIME WE HAVE LEFT TOGETHER. OUR SCHOOL LIFE IN ASSUNTA MAY ONLY BE 5-6 YEARS, BUT THEY WILL CREATE MEMORIES THAT WILL LAST YOU A LIFETIME.

ASSUNTARIANS SHOWED OFF THEIR SINGING SKILLS AS THEY SANG AND JAMMED OUT TO TRADITIONAL AND MODERN RAYA SONGS TOGETHER. ALTHOUGH THIS FEAST WAS ONLY MEANT TO LAST FOR HALF A DAY, THE SPIRIT AND ENERGY WAS CARRIED ON TO THE END OF THE DAY. TEACHERS AND STUDENTS ALIKE ALL AGREE THAT IT WAS A SUCCESS, AND A GOOD WAY TO START OFF THE NEW SCHOOL TERM PHYSICALLY.

I PERSONALLY CAN'T WAIT TO SEE HOW NEXT YEAR'S RAYA CELEBRATION IS GOING TO PLAY OUT! BUT UNTIL THEN, LET'S ALL KEEP THE SPIRIT OF LOVE, RESPECT AND TOGETHERNESS ALIVE IN OUR BELOVED SCHOOL.

Program Ihya Ramadhan

By Kimberly Anne Raj

Designed by Hapinaashre

On the third day of Ramadan our school SMK Assunta held a program called Ihya Ramadan during our first physical assembly. The program started off with one of our student representatives, Nur Shafiqah, giving a short speech. There were a lot of activities and events that will be held throughout the month of Ramadan. Such as Yasin recitation ceremony, Iftar ceremony and many more events that will be held throughout the month of Ramadan. After Nur Shafiqah finished her speech Puan Mages Wari, Headmistress of SMK Assunta was called to the podium to give her speech. After her speech Puan Mages Wari inaugurated the program by pulling down a banner designed by one of our students.

"RAMADAN IS THE MONTH WHOSE BEGINNING IS MERCY, WHOSE MIDDLE IS FORGIVENESS AND WHOSE END IS FREEDOM FROM FIRE.
— HOLY PROPHET MUHAMMAD. ﷺ.

"INDAH MALAM KERANA BINTANG, INDAH TAMAN KERANA BUNGA,
INDAH CINTA KERANA KASIH SAYANG,
INDAH HIDUP KERANA SILATURAHIM,
OLEH ITU MARI INDAHKAN BULAN RAMADHAN DENGAN

STREAM FEST

In the first week of June, SMK Assunta hosted our annual STREAM FEST. During the event, views and reflections on STEM have been revealed to the interested students in a new, unique and original way, through the exhibition and presentations. It was participated by all the second-form students. 3 classes were selected to make creative inventions, while the others had to make a presentation from their second-form science textbooks.

This competition was mainly to expose the inner scientist inside all of the students and create a passion for science. It provided a platform for the students to use their scientific knowledge and bring the best invention from their brains. It also allowed students to work together in groups and learn from each other. They shared their ideas and collectively worked together to bring those ideas to life.

The 3 classes that were chosen to make an innovation were 2 Anggerik, 2 Angsana, and 2 Mawar. All three classes made impressive and mind-blowing inventions. 2 Anggerik made a hand sanitiser dispenser with recyclable items and an electric sharpener. 2 Angsana made very impressive inventions too. They made edible paper and a solar dryer. All in all, it was an unforgettable experience for all the second forms.

This event was a valuable contribution to the efforts to improve the system of STEM and emphasizes the role of students in creating a modern and efficient system that can contribute to the smart and sustainable growth of STEM in our country Malaysia.

In this way, our school has become one of the many participants who want to promote STEM in vocational education that develops creativity and innovative students.

A photograph keeps a moment from running away. On the 13th of June 2022, the Editorial Board of SMK Assunta had their 2022 Photoshoot session. All the Assuntarians were ready with bright smiles on their faces to take their pictures alongside our photographers who were very happy to do their jobs.

On the 13th were all the class photos including the afternoon session. Students were required to wear full school uniform attire, and the girls wearing pinafores were to bring their school ties. After the class photos were taken the next session was for the Prefectorial Board, Librarians, 'Koperasi' Board and sports houses.

The Photoshoot was continued on the 15th of June 2022 which was on a Wednesday. Everybody came in their respective attire to take their clubs, sports and their 'Badan Beruniform' photos. All the pictures turned out well thanks to the cooperation of the students and teachers. After clubs, sports and their 'Badan Beruniform' photos were taken the photographers then proceeded to take the band members' pictures. At 1 in the afternoon, there were the teacher's group photos.

The 2022 Photoshoot was a great success with the help and cooperation of all the editorial board members by spreading the word and making the session a success and completion, especially when it came to timing. Everything was perfectly coordinated. This photoshoot was a very important event for all Assuntarians because every picture has a story to tell that they can look back at, especially as it was the first group photoshoot session since the start of the pandemic in 2020.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASSOCIATION 2022

by Lindsay Lopez

Designed by Choo Hui Xin

On the 25 of June 2022, the Parents and Teachers Association carried out their annual general meeting physically at Sister Enda Hall. The aim of this is to hold a forum and service for the welfare and progress of students in the school in improving the image of SMK Assunta. The function of this association is to carry out activities or programs to achieve certain goals. Among them, helping in promoting student development and taking care of student welfare, increasing friendliness and providing channels of communication and connection between the school and the local community.

The meeting was held at 9.00 a.m. and began with the singing of the national anthem, followed by a prayer led by Encik Amirul and a speech by our principal, Puan Mages. In her speech, she highlighted the obstacles that students have faced in the past year as she acknowledged the impactful role the PTA has had to have in these ever-changing times. The meeting proceeded with a summary of the school's achievements and setbacks for the previous year.

This year's meeting, many expressed their concerns about their children's well-being and life in school. Parents also proposed to have lockers in school to help students overcome the issue of carrying heavy bags, to solve the lack of water pressure flow in students' toilets and to create a basketball club in school. By acknowledging the concerns and proposals, the school assures parents that they will do their best to ease the burden of students.

Having had good discussions, together with teachers and parents they had a new election on the SMK Assunta PTA committee for 2022/2023. The meeting ended on a good note with everyone feeling hopeful for the future and looking forward to the day it happens. How fortunate for our long-established school to have successful alumni as corporate members, professionals or political leaders. These people are always ready to come forward to help the school where they gain knowledge from childhood and adolescence.

Sasayama Homei High School

Ohayō gozaimasu and Selamat sejahtera!!

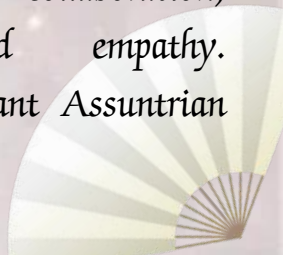

We as Malaysians are introduced to so many different and unique cultures. As we grow we only become more curious about the cultures we know nothing of. Lucky for us Assuntarians, Assunta provides us with so many opportunities to be connected with other people. One of these opportunities is in the Sasayama Homei High School Culture Exchange programme!

A few of our fellow Assuntarians were lucky enough to get in contact with a few students from the Japanese High School. Due to the unfortunate restrictions of the Covid-19 SOPs, it had to be a virtual meeting but that doesn't mean it was any less fun or interesting. Our fellow Assuntarians had a blast chatting with and explaining Malaysian culture to their new Japanese friends. They made a video explaining the beauty of Malaysia and all its pride and joys.

We are so grateful for the opportunities this school has given us and we hope that in the near future, we may get more opportunities like this! Exchanges create future leaders who instinctively appreciate the value of international collaboration, understanding, and empathy. Qualities every brilliant Assuntranian should have.

THE MALAYSIA INTERNATIONAL YOUNG INVENTORS OLYMPIAD COMPETITION

by ROSELLA LYRA DASS designed by SUHANA MAZLAN

MIYIO is a competition held to give exposure to and promote innovative design, which mainly focused on Innovative Science (Biology, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics), Environmental Science, and Social Science. The competition is based on the ability of students to solve problems based on scientific experiment studies and produce authentic innovation. MIYIO is expected to form a generation of competitive students, especially in the field of Science and Engineering, and to produce leaders who are capable of leading the country's progress in line with the mission and vision of SBP.

Each year, different schools will host the MIYIO competition. Sekolah Tun Fatimah from Johor hosted the MIYIO 2022 competition. Each group consists of 4 participants and each has to pay a competition fee of about RM 250. Our school sent 3 groups. Each group had to make a short video for about 5 minutes, an e-poster, an abstract, an extended abstract, and a picture of the participants from each group with a dateline from 1st to 25th July 2022. The three innovations our school made were Ecowash (a portable dishwasher), Solar dryer (dryer), and Ecosoap (soap made from used oil). From the 26th of July to the 7th of August 2022, the judges assessed the videos, e-posters, abstracts, and extended abstracts sent by each group via google form.

On the 8th of August, all participants and mentors had to join a google meet link for the MIYIO 2022 opening ceremony. On the 9th and 10th of August, each group had to enter a parallel session online via google meet to explain the innovation they made using their e-poster. On the 11th of August, there was an online STEM Webinar via google meet.

Lastly, on the 12th of August, all participants had to join the MIYIO 2022 closing ceremony and the prize-giving ceremony. One of the groups that our school sent got the silver award which is eco wash and the other two groups got the bronze award which is the solar dryer and eco soap.

KEM PERDANA

By Lindsay Lopez

To mark the beginning of the year, quite the number of Assuntarians representing their respective " badan beruniform " toughened up and made their way to the jungle for the annual " Kem Perdana " .

When we asked them about it, many of them seemed to light up with joy explaining about every activity they did. All the roughhousing and tough challenges they faced. From craving through mud, swimming in lakes and under waterfalls to trekking through the jungle at night with nothing but a torch light and whatever they had on their backs.

"I have no regrets in joining this camp, only the fact that we had to wake up early and shower in very cold water but other than that I definitely wish to go again!" said one of the participants.

This camp was done annually not just to give the students a good time but to instil a certain amount of discipline and independence in themselves. But also, to help them learn how they're supposed to work together.

This camp is not one for the weak-spirited and weak-hearted. You will be tested and pushed to your limits for 3 days and 2 nights you spend there.

For those who didn't get to join this year, we hope that you look into it next year! This is an opportunity of a lifetime so don't miss out!

Saluting the nation and its freedom fighters on the week before its 65th Independence Day, the management, staff, and students of the SMK Assunta have marked the occasion with a host of activities highlighting the cultural diversity of our great country, Malaysia.

The event witnessed the participation of students from various classes supporting and representing the uniqueness of Malaysian culture by performing a few choirs and some traditional dances.

The schools' National Day activities were a tribute to Malaysia, its history, its rich culture, and its heroes. The traditional fashion parade was to highlight the nation's unity in diversity.

There was also an event of a few kids representing their respective clubs for a traditional dress fashion parade and a competition for students to express their feelings and loyalty to their country through wonderful yet heartfelt poems. And all activities ended with a friendly drawing competition within the clubs.

DONATE

Hope!

An Empathetic Movement

On the 24 of September 2022, the Interact Club of SMK Assunta organized an amazing event. "Donate Hair Donate Hope," was what they called the event.

It was a great drive which provided wigs for people who have experienced hair loss from the treatment of any form of cancer or other medical conditions feel stronger and better as well as increasing their ability to focus on their health. Many fortunate empathetic girls with long, luscious locks in our school had their hair cut by a professional barber. And those who didn't have the required hair length, simply stuck with a simple trim.

Everyone was walking out of the school with their beautiful revamped look. Other than that, there were also many different interesting games and challenges to keep the students busy while they waited in a queue. Each had a variety of prizes in the end.

This day showed how much Assuntarians cared for others. Through hair donation, they not only gave a part of themselves but offered something that can help someone living with cancer.

We all then knew that we are born with the ability to change someone's life even if it's only in a small way.

A JOB WELL DONE, SISTER ENDA.

By Lindsay Lopez & Designed By Choo Hui Xin

A very hearty congratulations from all Assuntarians past and present to our dearly beloved, Datin Paduka Sister Enda Ryan on accepting an honorary doctorate in humanities from Taylor's University. Sister Enda's contribution to obtainable and continuous education of the young girls of our country dates all the way back to her arrival in Malaya back in 1955.

After a long and hefty 67 years of dedicated service to the community, receiving this honorary doctorate is described as a humbling and gratuitous experience for our blessed founder.

The Humanities involve the study of all languages and literature, the arts — including fine and performing arts, media, history, philosophy, and religion. The Humanities are academic disciplines that study aspects of human society and cultures. They foster social justice and equality. They reveal how people have had to make moral, social, and intellectual sense of the World. The Humanities teach empathy.

Sr Enda quoted a Chinese proverb that wisely points out: “Teachers open the door, but you must enter by yourself.”

“Only opening doors was my business. Whether Assuntarians wanted to enter or not was their choice. My concern was not with where our students end up, how many A's they get, and subsequently, how many degrees and accolades they accumulate. Rather, it was about what they become and seek to be. To value what one has and not what others have and do. Always emphasising ‘Heart Over Head’.

Her parting words to the new graduates were “go out now and be true humanitarians and live these words: ‘Not what we get, but what we give, Measures the worth of the life we live’.”

We thank Sister Enda for the gift of our beloved school, Assunta and carry on her legacy through the generations of Assuntarians of the past and of those yet to come.

OPEN DAY 2022

Written by: SASHMITA DEVI

The 29th of September 2022 marked the first open day for all Assuntarians after 2 years of the pandemic. It was definitely a nerve-wrecking day for all the students as their parents were invited to school to discuss their child's accomplishment, performance, academic achievement and personality development as well as their personal potential throughout the year.

The open day was held between 10.20 a.m. to 1.20 p.m. for the morning session students and 1.20 p.m. to 4.20 p.m. for the afternoon session students where the parents can come anytime between the allocated time.

Prefects were on duty that day to guide the parents and guardians to their child's classroom. Prefects were also on duty at all the classrooms to help the class teachers and parents to ensure everything goes smoothly. The open day went extremely well.

We truly appreciate all the parents and guardians for attending this open day and we would also like to congratulate everyone who have done well throughout the year!

BULAN BAHASA KEBANGSAAN

In October, SMK Assunta started its annual "Bulan Bahasa Kebangsaan." It set the ball rolling on the very first assembly of October. We had a speech from Pn. Mages Wari about the importance of our national language. The opening ceremony later ended with a beautiful poem recited by our fellow student Siti Fauzanah.

Throughout that month, we had all sorts of linguistic competitions, such as quizzes, storytelling, sajak writing and reciting, essay writing, and many more. Many interested and talented pupils actively participated in these activities and brought out their talents of course whilst producing astonishing results.

Throughout that month, we saw how our Assuntarians were steadfast to our national language. I hope our next Bulan Bahasa Kebangsaan will be just as interesting as this year. I know plenty of Assuntarians are looking forward to it just as much as I am!

SEWO CONCERT

Written by: Kimberly Anne Raj

On the 7th of October 2022 the Sister Enda Welfare Organisation (SEWO) Club of SMK Assunta held their annual concert. This concert is one of the biggest events that is held by our school. Students from Form 1 to Form 5 will buy their tickets beforehand just to attend this concert.

At around 12.10pm students started to line up in front of the Sister Enda hall just to get the front seats. We even had students from other schools, ex-assuntarians, alumni and teachers who attended the concert. The concert started off with the introduction of our emcees, judges and VIPs who attended the concert. They also had some speeches prepared by our headmistress and also the president of the SEWO Club. All the performers went through a few rounds of auditions to make it to the concerts. So they were ready to give their all during the concert.

The performances were all very entertaining and enjoyable. The crowd were also very supportive by clapping and cheering for all the performances. A few students also made banners which they waved around during their friends' performance to show their enthusiasm.

After the break the winners were announced by the emcees. The winner for the singing category was Donyada and for the dancing category there were three winners. Third place went to Anis from form 5, second went to the group called Powerpuff Girls and first place went to the group called 24H5M.

The SEWO concert this year was definitely a success and thank you to our SEWO members, teachers and alumni for making this event a blast and memorable to our students and everyone involved. Thank you to the SEWO members for their sacrifices and involvement towards the SEWO concert.

This organisation helps our Assuntarian students who need that extra financial help. The RM20 ticket purchase was channelled to giving food coupons plus other financial assistance to the underprivileged students in Assunta. Ad Veritatem Per Caritatem means To Truth To Charity and we SEWO club stands with it. Thank you to everyone who attended the concert by making this event a huge success.

Sewo President Interview

Interviewed/Designed By: Audrey Wong

With great talents to be performed with great spirits from our talented students, Assunta has its very own talent show. Be amazed at what they have installed for all of us, performances that will surprise you with glimpses and singers that will bring wonders to your spirit. During those busy hours, the Editorial Board of Assunta had gotten a chance to interview the president of Sewo, Nur Husna Zafiera about her experiences during the concert.

After 2 long years of the Covid 19 pandemic, how do you feel about getting back to work preparing for the concert? Please also give us a brief explanation of what the Sewo Club is about.

Husna: It was tiring but fun at the same time. I'm grateful to those who helped me get this year's concert to run smoothly. And to put it simply, Sewo Club (Sister Enda Welfare Organization) is a charity club that our first headmistress founded, Datin Paduka Sister Enda Ryan. It is also to help students who need extra financial help.

As the president of the Sewo Club, it must have been stressful for you to handle and organize everything and prepare for the big day. Tell us how did you manage it all?

Husna: As the president. Yes, it was quite stressful for me to handle and organize everything for the big day, luckily with all the helping hands from all the Sewo members and teachers, we were able to make the concert a success.

For many reasons, many people chose not to accept taking on the role of the president because of the responsibilities and the job tasks. Why did you accept becoming the president of Sewo?

Husna: Well, I accepted the title of becoming the president of Sewo because I wanted to feel and gain experience handling the concert's workload.

We were so amazed so many talented students are among us today, that they were showing us their talents. Were you surprised to see and get to know Assunta has many talented students? How do you feel about it? Did you expect that we have these many talented people?

Husna: I was surprised and happy at the same time because I've always known that Assunta has many talented students but not these many. Thanks to this concert, all the talented students can express their talents and passions. Seeing them up on stage made me feel really happy just by watching their unique talents and their confidence.

In the end, the concert ended successfully with people smiling on their faces, cheers and with happy memories to cherish. How do you feel? Proud? Sad? Would you like to send out a message to anyone? Or to the future team of Sewo next year?

Husna: I'm proud and happy about this year's Sewo concert. Since it is my last year in Assunta, all those cheerings, smiles and happy memories I shared with all my friends and juniors melt my heart because it is a memorable once-in-a-lifetime memory to be cherished. A SHOUTOUT!!! To my beloved Sewo members for helping me through thick and thin in the process of the concert. All of you had always been there for me through everything from the start till the end. So, THANK YOU!!!! To the future team of Sewo, I wish you all good luck and all the best in your planning and teamwork for the upcoming concert.

Sewo Audience Interview

Interviewed/Designed By: Choo Hui Xin

Have you ever wondered what thoughts and feelings the audiences had during the Sewo concert? Well then, here are some interesting answers for you from our fellow supportive Assuntarians that the Editorial Board had interviewed.

1) Overall, what do you like about the Sewo concert? Why.

I like how the students (aka) the audience gave so much support to the performers. Their screams can be heard from miles away, and it's a good thing. It shows their excitement and enthusiasm, which only we Assuntarians have as we cheer each other on (we should cherish that).

- Sfiasmeen Amirah

I like how it allows Assuntarians to showcase their talents, whether that is singing or dancing. It's also a delightful and unforgettable event not just for the performance but for the audience as well.

- Amelie Resfimi

I like how exciting the performances are when it's shown up on stage. As well as when the supporters are cheering on for their friends.

- Nurul Suhana

What I liked about the Sewo concert is seeing the Assuntarians being versatile and supportive towards their fellow friends.

- Ying Xin

Overall, I really like the execution of the event and how it was smoothly run by all the staff. What also captivated me was the dedication and effort put in by the performers.

- Rahideep Kaur

Overall the concert was great. I really enjoyed all of the performances as they took my breath away. I can't say I was surprised to see how talented the performers were. I mean, it's "ASSUNTA". The thing I liked about this concert is that it can only be found in Assunta as it is really special, in which students can show their talents to others and receive many supports from everyone, and I hope this annual iconic event will be cherished in every Assuntarian's heart.

- Kfirtiana Ann

2) Who's your favourite performer/group during the concert? Why.

Every performer was great. They put an equal amount of hard work into practice and I applaud them greatly, but I have to say the dances were my favourite part of it all. I can't choose as they're all amazing.

- Sfiasmeen Amirah

It's so hard to choose. Everyone's performance was great. They put their blood, sweat and tears into their performances. I think Nurul Anis's performance was my favourite because it was so upbeat and her dance moves were great.

- Amelie Resfimi

24H5M! They're my favourite performers because they're very energetic, just like my favourite Kpop group "Wanna One".

- Nurul Sufiana

My favourite group was 24H5M because their performance is the most influential and professional in the concert.

- Ying Xin

Personally, my favourite performers were the Powerpuff Girls. They were so amazing and beautiful, I really love how they captivated the attention of the audience. The confidence in them really reflected on the audience positively as well.

- Rahideep Kaur

That's hard to say. I mean they were all great performances. But personally, the one that really caught my attention was the dance performance by Nurul Anis. Her performance and choreography were great and at the same time, it was an awesome closing performance.

- Kfirtiana Ann

3) In your perspective, do you think spirituality or mentally is more important for a performer performing on stage?

For me, the spirit is something that each performer should have. Going up on stage in front of hundreds of people is one thing, but giving a performance where you pour your heart and soul into is a whole other. Passion is what keeps us going.

- Shasmeen Amirah

I think it's more important to be mentally prepared as performing in front of a large audience can be nerve-wracking for most people. Therefore, it is vital to be calm and confident in order to put on an excellent performance.

- Amelie Resfimi

I think spirituality is more important for performers because without spirit they won't have the confidence to step onto the stage to perform and be as hyped as they were.

- Nurul Sufiana

I think being mentally prepared is more important for a performer when performing on stage. Therefore they can manage their stress and perform a thriving performance.

- Ying Xin

In my perspective, I think both spiritual and mental are important elements for a stage performer. This is because the spiritual element reflects a performer's aura and tidiness of the execution. At the same time, the mental element plays a big part as it prepares the performer for what is about to come.

- Rahideep Kaur

From my perspective, a strong mentality is the key because it takes a lot of courage to not only get up on stage but to perform in front of hundreds of people. Not to mention, the amount of focus a performer needs, as well as to memorize the steps. So, a performer needs to have control of their mind to control their movement to make the performance a success.

PREFECT LEADERSHIP

CAMP

by JITIKA KANNAN
designed by SUHANA MAZLAN

On the 14th of October, SMK Assunta's prefectorial board held its annual prefect camp after two years of lockdown. The goal was to give prefects the wondrous opportunity to bond and learn more about each other to know how to approach them as a team and not as individual dictators. It was a powerful and positive teaching tool that enhanced social, personal, and emotional development.

About a week before the camp, the three candidates elected for the head girl post had to plan the activities for next year's Spirit Week. On the day, all three candidates presented their articles to their teams. All the ideas and badge designs were very innovative.

We also had the privilege to listen to the speech on "How to Be A Good Leader" by one of our previous head girls, Leah Lopez from the batch of 2018. She highlighted the ways of a characteristic of a leader, it was truly an eye-opening talk and I know for sure many prefects have learned a lot from this.

We also had the chance to improve our self-confidence by making our own decisions and developing better relationships with our teachers. It was great to see everyone bonding and working together as a team. This leadership camp helped us, prefects, to improve in becoming better leaders.

Overall, from the amount of participation shown and positive feedback from groups, I am happy to say that the amazing race was a massive success, and it will be interesting to see how each prefect team will benefit from this bonding camp, and how they will work together throughout the year.

Young Entrepreneurs Programme

Written by : Lindsay Lopez

The 16th of October was an exciting day for a few of our fellow Assuntarians. After weeks of planning, inventing and innovating products for them to sell at something called The Young Entrepreneurs Programme held at Mid Valley Megamall all their efforts became fruitful. It was truly a heartwarming sight, seeing so many Assuntarians at the programme to show their support for their friends, juniors and seniors.

Amongst Assunta other school such as SMK (P) Sri Aman was also present at the programme. Not only did this programme nurture the brilliance of friendly rivalry but it also managed to instill the importance of support from the community in starting a business. These young girls managed to get a taste of the real business world and how it is really like to start your own business.

Their efforts were not in vain as they managed to collect quite the sum of money. This money was split among them equally and they all went off in their own ways. When asked if they would ever do this again or if they would ever recommend this programme as an opportunity for their juniors who are aspiring to be future business women, Nur Zahra Rihanna replied with “absolutely yes!” “this was an experience I will never forget and I have learned so much from this programme” “It has opened my eyes to the harsh yet beautiful reality of being your own boss but also to the beauty of hard work, perseverance and teamwork.”

Congratulations to our young future business women! We hope to see you accomplish so much more and maybe see your faces in the Assunta Hall of Fame! Opening doors for the future of young, aspiring women in high-ranking business positions in the business industry is what these girls wish to achieve. We wish them the best of luck and hope to see them grow and make Assunta proud.

“DEEPAVALI – THE FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS”

By Jitika Kannan

Designed By Choo Hui Xin & Suhana Mazlan

On the 20th of October, Assuntarians came together to celebrate Deepavali, the festival of lights. In the morning, all the students that were going to perform gathered in one of the classrooms on the first floor of the Senior Block to change into their beautiful traditional attire.

Before the ceremony began, the members of the Tamil club had beautifully decorated the memory lane with a big colourful kolam in the middle of the memory lane and flowers everywhere. At about 7.30 a.m. the ceremony started off with a small intro of Deepavali's message of positivity, goodness, kindness and the type of traditional tasty delicacies.

There were also many cultural performances like a classical Bharatanatyam performance by a couple of the form 4 students followed by a classical song that sounded like a nightingale. To finish it off we had 3 of the form 5 Punjabi students perform a few songs from famous movies. All in all, it was very special to have our entire school sharing and experiencing Deepavali and we look forward to celebrating it at our school again next year.

SAHABATKU

Layaknya lilin di tengah gelita,
Menyiramkan cahaya dalam kegelapan,
Seperti mentari pagi,
Menghantarkan sinar kehangatan,
Mengusir kebekuan,
Bagaikan bintang yang mewarnai malam,
Yang tak membiarkan rembulan mengangkasa tanpa teman,
Membawa keceriaan dan kesetiaan.

Bersamamu,
Melalui hari - hari yang penuh liku,
Menggenggam erat menepis gundah dan nestapa,
Berbagi kisah,
Tentang cita - cita namun bukanlah angan belaka,
Tentang cinta namun tertahan di dalam jiwa,
Tentang harapan yang hendak digapai di masa datang,
Tentang kegagalan yang hampir meremukkan keyakinan.

Sahabat

Kita bersama dalam suka mahupun duka,
Saling mengingatkan,
Aku berharap dan berdoa,
Kita akan terus melangkah bersama,
Menggapai reda dan cintaNya,
Meski jarak membentang di antara kita,
Tak kubiarkan meluluh benang kasih yang telah tercipta.

Handwritten Japanese text on a page from an old book, partially obscured by a purple flower branch.

Sahabat,
Terima kasih untuk segalanya,
Dan biarkanlah kisah kita terus terangkai,
Kini, esok hingga masa depan,
Aku bangga hadir dirimu seadanya,
Aku bahagia sungguh ingin terurai kata.

Kaulah sahabatku,
Kudoakan kasih bagimu,
Bila hari - harimu dilanda duka,
Kudoakan harapan bagimu,
Bila hari - harimu berlalu ceria,
Kudoakan damai bagimu,
Selama matahari masih terbit dan terbenam,
Selama panas dan hujan masih silih berganti,
Selama bulan dan bintang dilangit masih bercahaya,
Akulah sahabatmu,
Berjalan terus menggapai cita,
Dalam satu harapan dan doa,
Bahagia menyertaimu selamanya.

Oh Wabak!

Pendekar Hitam pergi bertapa,
Bawa bersama keris suasa;
Penyakit berjangkit tak kenal siapa,
Perlu waspada setiap masa.

Emas permata cantik ditempa,
Jadi hiasan sepanjang masa;
Jaga kesihatan jangan dilupa,
Agar hidup tenang sentiasa.

Riang berenang Si Ikan Kelisa,
Menyusur muara bersama Gelama;
Tangan dicuci setiap masa,
Kebersihan sendiri paling utama.

Cantik tempua si burung camar,
Subur merimbun di tepi hutan;
Jangan berada di tempat yang cemar,
Sebagai cara mengelak jangkitan.

Al-Quran dibaca penuh tahsin,
Penyubur hati menggilap jiwa;
Menerimalah vaksin yang disyorkan,
Agar kelompok imuniti dapat dibina.

KAMU TAHU?

Suatu hari, seorang Professor yang sedang membuat kajian tentang lautan menumpang sebuah sampan. Pendayung sampan itu seorang tua yang begitu pendiam. Professor memang mencari pendayung sampan yang pendiam agar tidak banyak bertanya ketika dia sedang membuat kajian. Dengan begitu tekun Professor itu membuat kajian. Diambilnya sedikit air laut dengan tabung uji kemudian digoyang-goyang; selepas itu dia menulis sesuatu dalam buku.

Berjam-jam Professor itu membuat kajian dengan tekun sekali. Pendayung sampan itu mendongak ke langit. Berdasarkan pengalamannya dia berkata di dalam hati, "Hmm, hari ini akan hujan". "Ok, semua sudah siap, mari kita balik ke darat," kata Professor itu. Pendayung sampan itu akur dan mula memusingkan sampannya ke arah pantai.

Hanya dalam perjalanan pulang itu barulah Professor itu menegur pendayung sampan. "Kamu dah lama kerja mendayung sampan?" tanya Professor itu. "Hampir seumur hidup saya," jawab pendayung sampan itu dengan ringkas. "Seumur hidup kamu?" tanya Professor itu lagi. "Ya." "Jadi kamu tak tahu perkara-perkara lain selain daripada mendayung sampan?" tanya Professor itu. Pendayung sampan itu hanya menggelengkan kepalanya. Masih tidak berpuas hati, Professor itu bertanya lagi, "Kamu tahu geografi?" Pendayung sampan itu menggelengkan kepala. "Kalau macam ini, kamu dah kehilangan 25 peratus dari usia kamu," kata Professor itu lagi. "Kamu tahu biologi?" Pendayung sampan itu menggelengkan kepala. "Kasihan, kamu dah kehilangan 50 peratus usia kamu. Kamu tahu fizik?" Professor itu masih lagi bertanya. Seperti tadi, pendayung sampan itu hanya menggelengkan kepala. "Kalau begini, kasihan, kamu sudah kehilangan 75 peratus dari usia kamu. Malang sungguh nasib kamu, semuanya tak tahu. Seluruh usia kamu dihabiskan sebagai pendayung sampan." kata Professor itu dengan nada mengejek dan angkuh.

Pendayung sampan itu hanya berdiam diri. Selang beberapa minit kemudian, tiba-tiba hujan turun. Tiba-tiba saja datang ombak besar. Sampan itu dilambung ombak besar dan terbalik. Professor dan pendayung sampan terpelanting. Sempat pula pendayung sampan itu bertanya, "Kamu tahu berenang?" Professor itu menggelengkan kepala. "Kalau macam ini, kamu dah kehilangan 100 peratus nyawa kamu," kata pendayung sampan itu sambil berenang menuju ke pantai.

Budi Bahasa

Di hujung dahan berkuku balam,
Hinggap kedidi di tanduk rusa,
Sudah biasa kehendak alam,
Orang berbudi kita merasa.

Daun kelapa diraut lidi,
Letak nasi dalam keranjang,
Sudah budi dinamakan budi,
Paling tinggi dikenang-kenang.

Kalau terpijak pisau belati,
Tentu terluka teramat bisa,
Bahasa yang cantik anugerah lllahi,
Berbudi bahasa pusaka bangsa,

Dapat diburu seekor rusa,
Bawa pulang ke Teluk Mas,
Ambil kena musim tiba,
Budi ditatang dijulang emas.

Tingkap papan kayu bersegi,
Sampan sakat di Pulau Angsa,
Indah tampan kerana budi,
Tinggi bangsa kerana bahasa.

Pantun gurindam pusaka bangsa,
Wajib diwarisi setiap generasi,
Seloka dan madah hiasan kata,
Tanda beradab pelengkap diri.

Tinggi bukit gilang-gemilang,
Air laut tenang-tenangan,
Budi sedikit tidakkan hilang,
Itu menjadi kenang-kenangan.

Cindai bercorak penuh berpita,
Pakaian anak Panglima Garang,
Emas dan perak pengaruh dunia,
Budi yang baik dijunjung orang.

Aku utuskan doa,
Meminta minta,
Jagalah keimananku,

Hindarkan aku darinya.

Two Angels and A Snowman

The morning light streamed through the windows, casting a spotlight on young Nevaeh. Her 9-year-old face sparkled in the sunshine as she gradually opened her eyes, finally waking up from her sleep after being pulled out from her land of dreams filled with adventures only she knew about. As she rubbed the drowsiness from her eyes, she gazed out the window, and what she saw quickly enthralled her. Her vivid blue eyes widened as she watched millions of snowflakes fall from the sky, blanketing the once-pristine ground with a pure white coat of snow.

Nevaeh dashed to the room across the hall to wake up her twin sister, Heaven and tell her the magnificent news. "Eve! Eve! Get up!" Eva yelled, "It's snowing!" as she violently shook her sister. Eve woke up, annoyed, but when she looked out the window, she too shared the same excitement as her sister. "Oh my God, it is snowing! Eva, let's go build a snowman." Eva nodded her head furiously as they both hurried downstairs. The cold weather hit them in the face when they stepped out, but that didn't stop them. They got to work right away on building the finest snowman the world has ever seen. That's what Eve told Eva, at least. They began by rolling up three different-sized snowballs and stacking them. However, they got distracted and started having a snowball fight. After all, what's snow without a snowball fight, right? They were having so much fun, they almost forgot about the snowman.

The keyword being almost. "Eva, you go collect the sticks for his arms while I find the perfect stones for his eyes and mouth," Eve said. They both ran to get the materials, leaving footprints on the snow. "I've got it! These two sticks will be perfect for David," said Eva. "David? What kind of name for a snowman is that?" Eve asked. "Well, do you have a better one?" Retorted Eva placing her hands on her hips, growing impatient. Eve looked at Eva and gave in. "Fine, David it is," she said, rolling her eyes, smiling at her sister when she jumped and cheered. Once they decorated the snowman or, David, they both stared at it, confused. "There's something wrong with David," said Eva. "You think?! We forgot the nose, you idiot!" replied Eve. "Right, the nose! I'll go get it." Eva ran into the house, came out with a carrot, and started waving it at Eve. Eve chuckled and grabbed it from her but not before patting her on the shoulder. Finally, the snowman was done. They both glanced at each other and said "He looks like you!" at the same time.

They began to laugh and Eva attempted to throw a snowball at her, but they were interrupted by their mother's yelling, "Honey! Come inside, it's getting cold and I've made you hot chocolate." Eva and Eve darted in to taste their mom's famous hot chocolate. They went to the kitchen to see a cup of hot steaming chocolate. Wait, just a cup? Where's Eve's? Their mom walked in and she quickly took a blanket and wrapped Eva up. Eva was confused. "Was Mom still mad at Eve for not tidying up her room yesterday?" thought Eva. Eva watched as Eve's eyes filled with tears and bolted outside.

"Eva sweetie, what are you looking at? Hurry up and finish your drink. You remember what today is, right? We have to pay Eve and Dad a visit, remember? We don't want to be late. The graveyard gets eerie at night." Graveyard? Eva was very puzzled at this point. "Mom, what are you talking about? Just a few minutes ago, I was playing with Eve. Eve just went outside because she's mad that you didn't make her a hot chocolate or give her a blanket." Eva's mom looked at her, trying to keep her tears in. She didn't have the heart to remind her sweet daughter that today was the day her dad and twin sister got into a car crash, two years ago. "You have to let this go, honey, it's not healthy for you. Come on, let's go meet Dad and Eve," said her Mom as she gave Eva a coat and walked her outside. As they walked to the graveyard. Eva noticed the snowman that she and Eve built.

Their home was only a short distance from the cemetery. Eva's mother recalled Eva throwing a tantrum because she didn't want to be separated from her twin and wanted Eve to be able to visit her without getting lost. As they approached the graveyard, Eva noticed how the usually creepy and grim scene had taken on a magical look today with the snow-covered tombstones concealing whatever was inscribed in honour of the deceased. Eva gingerly stepped through the cemetery, dodging the forgotten graves. As they reached the end of the gravesite, Eva saw two well-kept tombstones that had flowers and photographs surrounding them, toys even. She watched as her mom kneeled in front of one and wiped off the snow on the stone, uncovering what was engraved in big letters.

DAVID WINTERS, 1972-2020, A SON, A BROTHER, A FRIEND, A HUSBAND, AND A FATHER TO TWO WONDERFUL DAUGHTERS

Eva turned to the tombstone beside her father's and brushed off the snow with trembling hands and watery eyes.

HEAVEN WINTERS, 2013-2020, A DAUGHTER, A FRIEND, AND A TWIN SISTER.

Eva looked at the photograph by her feet. It was a picture of her and Heaven, making snow angels that was taken 2 days before the accident. Eva could no longer hold her tears in as they fell to the ground where her beloved sister was buried. She looked to her left and saw her mom watching her with tears in her eyes. "Come here, sweetheart. Everything will be alright. They're still with us, watching us from above," said her mom as Eva ran to her and hugged her, trying to soak all the love and the warmth her mom had to offer.

As they both cried, their souls in agony, Eva looked ahead and through her blurry eyes, she could see two figures standing there. Eva wiped her tears away to see her dad and Heaven waving at her. She watched as they both turned and vanished into thin air. So, beneath the falling snowflakes, the mother and daughter sat there, grieving their loved ones but promising to keep their memories alive.

GRIEF IS A NEWFOUND FRIEND

Written by: Zara Aliya Binti Faisal
Designed by Wong Kah Xin

Do you know how it feels to have someone special to you, get taken away? Death's merciless hands pull them from the life they could have had with you.

Because Sophia has, just recently.

The funeral was short and brief. Though many loved her best friend in life, many chose not to attend. "Great people" they were.

It has already been a month since then, and Sophia finds it hard to cope without Emma. The school bell rings signalling break time.

Sophia packs her bag quickly, rushes into the cafeteria and sits at the table she and Emma used to sit at. And though her best friend wasn't here anymore, she still sunk down at her own chair, leaving Emma's chair empty as if she was still there.

She doesn't eat anything, only wondering how the world would've been with Emma alive.

Three girls pass her table, giving her their condolences and sad smiles, before leaving. It's been an unforgiving month to see people eyeing her loneliness from their tables.

The bell rings again, signalling the end of their lunch break.

The rest of the week carries on like it's a normal routine. Friends plan shopping trips and hangouts. Sophia is left alone at home on the weekends, with her mother.

Sophia's mother wonders every single day after the funeral; how Emma's death will affect her own daughter's life.

The woman herself has had the fondest of memories involving Emma, whenever Sophia invited her over to their house.

Her mother notices Sophia's change of habit:

How she mopes around the house for no exact reason, how her appetite decreases over the days, and how sometimes she can hear her daughter wailing loudly, despite it being the happiest of days.

It's a Sunday, meaning Sophia wouldn't be seen out as much anymore. Not like when Emma was still here. The two were always out of their houses, in the park, the mall, or the pool.

The littlest of children call her a vampire; now afraid of the harsh sunlight that once made her beam as brightly as the sun.

Sophia's mother knows she can't undo time, or resurrect her daughter's best friend.

The stumpy woman makes her way up the stairs and knocks on Sophia's bedroom door.

Without a word, Sophia unlocks it and opens the door with a tiny crack, enough to see half of her face. "Message Emma for me, will you?" her mother says, and quickly departs.

Taken aback, Sophia only stands there. It takes her a few minutes to shut it back, locked. Her mother waits at the dining table with finished dinner, two hours after. As she puts it, Sophia was "not hungry," although leaving the kitchen with a big Snickers Bar packet. Instead of eating her mother's wonderful home-cooked meal, she sits in her room, messaging app opened to one contact; a no longer active one.

Sophia is sitting on her bed, eyes red and puffy. Her phone's glow made her eyes grow heavier by the minute. With a relented huff, she starts texting.

Hey, Emma. It's me.

I know you aren't gonna respond to me, and that's fine because I definitely know you hadn't accidentally left your phone in your mom's car.

Sophia laughs breathily at that and continues.

But the truth is, I really wished that was the reason for you not replying instead of this. Her eyes well with tears, threatening to spill.

I know you would've told me to move on, or find some cheesy quote on Google like you always do. But life is like, REALLY hard without you. (Mr Bran's annoying as always, by the way). Also, my mom says hi, I think. I'm not sure, but she's the real reason why I'm texting you.

I just hope that you're finally at peace, and away from Jake and his jocks. I know time will carry on, and I'll be on my own, but that's okay. I'll still miss you, but in a way where I'm not in my room all the time like some freaky Edward Cullen.

I hope you knew how much you meant to me by sticking by me almost my entire life.

And sure, I guess I'll try to name one of my kids "Emma" as you've always wanted. I don't know if you saw this at your funeral, but everyone there was bawling, including me. But, at least now you don't get to tag me in the ugly pics that you post on Instagram. Strangely enough, I'll miss that.

What I'm saying is, I'll miss YOU, girlie. I hope that when I die, we'll get to annoy each other for all eternity.

Love, Sophia.

With the last sentence, she hit the 'send' button.

Sending a text to a dead person sounded ludicrously stupid, but Sophia felt like a huge wave of grief going back to join the sea, far away.

She knew life without Emma would be challenging and unforgiving, but she knows it'll go by fast and one day she'll get to rejoice at seeing her best friend again.

Reunite

The screams. The shrill cries of numerous infants. The terrified shrieks, the prayers whispered in broken words. The feel of my heart in my mouth as the plane plummeted down. My mother's arms wrapped around me, sobbing into my hair. The unspeakable terror weighing on my chest. The words, 'I'm going to die' tattooed across my mind.

The last thing I remembered was the plane going down. I cautiously opened my eyes, feeling the harsh, unforgiving cold air hit my skin like icy, sharp knives. I wearily lifted my head a little to try and take in my surroundings. The snowy landscape around me glittered in the sunlight.

Lifeless bodies littered the area around me. I gasped as I realised one of them belonged to my mother. Fear and pain crept into my heart, temporarily numbing the cold. I felt the tears that had fallen from my eyes freeze on my face. I wanted to drape myself over her, mourn for her, but the chilling agony of the weather that had set into my bones had frozen my grief.

I trudged aimlessly away from the wreckage, the snow hindering my sense of direction. My mother is gone. With each step, those words echoed in my mind. A part of me couldn't comprehend it, another part was disbelieving, clinging to the wild hope that my mother was still alive and this was all just a nightmare. Yet another part of me had submitted to the grim reality; that I had felt my mother's touch, heard her cries for the last time.

All these thoughts swirled in my head as I walked on. Suddenly, my foot sank into nothing. I stumbled forward, as an unexpected gust of wind buffeted me over the edge of a steep cliff. As I fell, I comforted myself with the thought that at least, I would soon reunite with my mother.

Life's Madness

Written by Venus

Life gets faster every day,
No time to think and no time to play,
Mayhem, chaos and lots of stress,
As they follow us to our beds.

When will all this madness go away?
Serenity and peace, they're miles away,
I'm running and waiting till I drop,
I wish there was a button for all this madness to stop.

My Trip to Chiang Mai

By: Chloe Lim Tung Yie

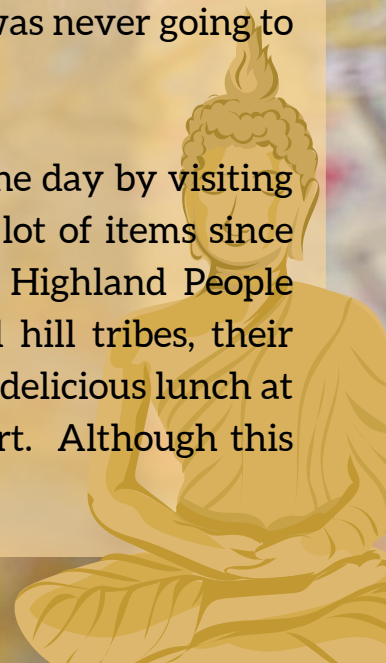

A few years ago, I celebrated my birthday by going to Chiang Mai for a two-day and one-night trip. My family and I woke up at the crack of dawn to check in for our flight. Upon arrival, we took a taxi to go to our hotel. After the whole checking-in process, we left to go sightseeing.

We visited a temple called Wat Phra That Doi Suthep. We had to take a red truck called Songthaew to get there as it is located on top of a mountain. There were also many street vendors, so we brought back some souvenirs.

Afterwards, we visited the Elephant Nature Park, which is a sanctuary and rescue centre for elephants. There were also other animals that you could feed, such as goats. At some point, while I was feeding the goats, I got frightened and accidentally stepped on goat poop. It was the most embarrassing thing that has ever happened to me. On the bright side, I was wearing slippers so it was easy to wash it off but on the not-so-bright side, I was never going to live that down.

After the whole goat poop fiasco, we concluded the day by visiting a local night market. We ended up purchasing a lot of items since they were cheap. The next day, we visited the Highland People Discovery Museum. We learned about the local hill tribes, their unique identity, and their culture. Then, we had a delicious lunch at a local restaurant and made our way to the airport. Although this trip had its ups and downs, it was still memorable.

LAST YEAR

These past two to three years have gone by so fast. I still remember the first day of school in SMK Assunta, where I was scared of almost everyone and in contrast, now, I'm so grateful for all the friends that I have at this moment. My brain still cannot accept the fact that it is already the last year of school, the year that I can make memories with my classmates and how it all went by so fast.

We couldn't do much because of Covid-19. No sports day, no road run, no Lit-night concerts, no events at all. All we had was our computer screen, looking at it all morning made my eyes hurt and most of the time I couldn't even concentrate. I wish Covid-19 never existed, and that everything was back to normal. How I wish it was all just a dream, but we can't turn back time now, can we?

School will always play a huge part in our lives because it is the place where we grew up other than our own homes. I cherish all moments in school and will continue to treasure them forever. Moreover, rough times at school might make you dislike school, but that is just a small part of it. You just need to look at the bigger picture. Meeting friends, having fun doing projects together, and all the silly things we do at school are what we should truly appreciate.

Eventually, all of them would come to an end, and all we could do is just recall old memories and laugh at ourselves when we're older.

Furthermore, I would like to treasure all of my friends I have today, because after SPM, most of us would part ways and might even lose contact with each other. Besides that, I would like to grab this opportunity to thank all of our teachers, for guiding and encouraging us these past five years in this school, they gave us such huge moral support that we students need. Thank you, ASSUNTA for giving us a second home and great memories.

Feels like yesterday...

Feels like yesterday, the day I set foot through the gates of Assunta. Years have gone by, but the memories are still etched in my heart. It has been four magnificent years in Assunta filled with both sweet and bitter reminiscences and it's disheartening to even envisage that this chapter of my life would be coming to an end in less than a year.

It was my first day at SMK Assunta. I woke up from my slumber that morning and was never so enthusiastic before that day. I was so elated yet so terrified at the thought of my first day of high school. I spent hours going through my flashing new bag with sparkling new stationery and books over and over again. I was all decked up and ready for my first day of school. My salad days were gone and I was all grown up as a young 13- year-old teenager. The illustration of that day is still vivid in my memory.

The first day of high school soon turned into a year. Time just flew by and it was an eventful year. I had already become the senior of the afternoon session in Assunta. The year saw me participating in my maiden inter-class debate. Even though I lost, it was still an insightful experience. Though, I didn't stop there and continued moulding myself by joining another public speaking competition. Before I even knew it, the second year of high school was coming to an end.

Here comes year three, and here I am in the morning session of Assunta, once again a junior. I entered my classroom feeling jittery and anxious because I was entering the world of a major examination, PT3. Little did I know, the year 2020 had not only turned mine but the entire world upside down. For the first time in Malaysian education history, major exams were abolished. People across the world had lost their livelihoods. It was the year of the pandemic and Mother Earth probably needed some downtime to rejuvenate herself. Whereas, the human race was facing an existential crisis.

We continued facing the wrath of Covid-19. Two long years had gone by staying home and staying safe. We were the first generation of students who went to school via the digital world. Friends and teachers were missed. I faced a tough time adjusting myself to the new learning environment and just like that, four years of high school in Assunta vanished in a blink of an eye.

Alas, after 2 long years, I approached year 5 with a spring in my step. To my amazement, I'm no longer that starry-eyed little girl. I'm now a senior in my entire school. Being back in school brings a positive vibe. What's more, when you have trusted friends and teachers by your side, an energy boost, truly. This year is yet another future-deciding year where I'll be facing another major examination, SPM. The countdown has begun and I'm left with only 11 more months towards reaching a milestone and a step closer to achieving my ambitions. At last, we reached the very end of my high school journey in Assunta. Feels like only yesterday...

肯定自己

Written By Georgeann Chai 蔡翊盈

Designed By Chenelle Ling

我们都不是天赋异禀的人，在茫茫人海中甚至显得有些平庸，可是，我们可以选择过自己想过的生活。在我们的日常生活中，总有些人会批评我们自己的学习成绩不好、不善于交际、长相平平等等打压我们的自信心，如果连我们都否定自己，那么谁能来肯定你呢？

首先，我们应该勇敢做自己，听从自己的内心。我们经常因为外人的议论而变得不自信。我们可以多听从自己的内心，不管结果如何，我们都需要坦然地接受结果，毕竟这是我们自己的选择。但有些人却认为“从心”是种任性的表现，因为你不为家庭和别人着想，只顾自己。我不同意这个观点，因为听从自己的内心，然后做出选择是一种认真对待自己人生的态度，也是对生活负责的体现。

另外，我们需要学会欣赏自己。我们经常为自己的不完美而感到闷闷不乐，像最近网上疯传的“容貌焦虑症”。很多人都会站在镜子前数落自己的各种缺点，尤其是年轻女子，她们年轻漂亮为何又患上“容貌焦虑症”呢？

随着网络的发达，人与人之间的差距也被放大。我们时常会羡慕别人的优秀，也为自己的平庸而感到焦虑不安从而导致“内卷现象”的出现，这是指代非理性的内部竞争或“被自愿”竞争。这不是一种良性的发展，因为它只是像一团雪球那样越滚越大，最后把所有人都压死。所以，请别对自己的容貌感到焦虑。每个人都是独一无二的，请欣赏自己的美也请不要吝啬地赞美别人，这样，你会收获一个美丽的笑容。不要因别人的标准而改变自己，自信地面对世界，通过接纳真实的自己，持续提高自己的能力，这样，你将收获一个全新的自己。

接下来，我们应该坦然面对失败。我们最害怕的就是失败后沉浸在反反复复的懊悔里，不肯醒来。这是一件既没有意义且特别浪费时间的事，这样会导致自己陷入困境里，同时也会消耗自己的精神，令我们不肯往前面走。我的建议是与其陷入不能改变的过去，不如坦然面对现实，用积极地心态继续往前走。正所谓：失败乃成功之母。我们可以从失败中吸取教训，提高工作效率。毕竟一辈子那么短暂，不要花太多时间沉浸在失败里，可没那么多的时间让你消耗。

不仅如此，我们也可以从生活中找出自己的价值，像树立一个目标，让自己努力地往目标靠近。同时，我们也可以向优秀的人学习，方向对了，努力才没白费。不走近路，踏踏实实地走向目标，虽然过程很痛苦，但那是自己一步一步走出来的，坚定信念，迈向前方。我们不能只看重眼前的利益，更要多多把目光看向远方，这样路才会开阔。

最后，希望我们都不要因为任何言语和事情而否定自己，勇敢地选择自己想要成为的人和过的人生。少年不惧岁月长，彼方尚有荣光在，远方还有值得追寻的美好。

时光荏苒，流水飞逝，苦难、泪水、快乐、幸福、回忆……洗礼了我们的灵魂，岁月蹉跎，转瞬即逝，诠释着我们心中所守护的那份甜蜜。我相信只要心存期许，即使现在别离，也是为了今后更好的相聚，只愿“海内存知己，天涯若比邻”，再回首，再相见。

夏天的炽热、雨天的凉爽，日复一日，年复一年，见证着我们的青春，让我们每一滴所挥洒的汗水都变得甜蜜。回首过去的旅途，回想过去的点滴，似乎觉得很累，但至少辛苦是值得的，最终将成就独一无二的自己，撕下自己伪装的面具，放下自己的强颜欢笑，找回最初的自己！

在翻开曾经努力写下的笔记，里面的内容是多么的熟悉，每一笔每一划都是回忆与经历，回想着过去的点滴，真的好怕时间将它们抹去。岁月的沙漏一点一点的流逝，眼里的眼泪也不再徘徊，果断的流下，在日日夜夜里存在着许多渴望，我们一起憧憬过未来的生活，总盼着长大成人，风雨同舟，同窗苦读，可当我们熬过最苦的岁月，我们却要说再见，多想从初见走到终老，从再见回到你好。

书里总有说不完的故事，回忆总有无限的美好，好像

我们走过的夏天，分别的味道总是那么刺鼻，那时礼堂门口的偶遇，偷传过的纸条，藏起来的零食，虽然只是琐碎的小事，但我从未忘记，可是时光过去，你会记得那年的试卷有多难，那时的天都多蓝吗？我们曾悄无声息的疯狂过，不让青春有丝毫遗憾，愿时间过去，你一切安好。

闭上眼睛沉沉地睡着了，回忆在脑海里不断地重现，眼里的泪和嘴上的笑若隐若现，想要再度拥有，或者，早已拥有却已遗忘。

不舍得忘记，也不想忘记，最初的我们是心中眷恋，挥一挥手却不会再度拥有最初的快乐，微风轻过，记得要幸福。

心终于被释怀，始终坚信：不同的心，流出不同的泉水，惟愿你若安好，便是晴天。

我们的轻轻地相聚，静静地分散，带走了深深的眷恋，留下了一道道彩虹，相信我们会再相聚。挥手，再相见。

四季

大自然拥有着许多美好的风景，而四季便是掌握着这些风景的关键。

四季，分为四个季节：春、夏、秋、冬。每一个季节都有着属于自己独特的特点；四季不仅是季节，更代表着每个国家的特色。有的国家一年四季只有夏天，天气非常炎热；有的国家则常年漫天飞雪，天寒地冻；有的国家一年拥有四个季节，能感受不同季节所带来的感觉。

首当其冲的就是让世界生机勃勃、草木翠绿的春天。所谓：一年之计在于春，作为一年中的第一个季节，春天寓意着开始，一个美好的开始。春天也代表着温暖和生长，而在春天当中最具代表性的植物便是迎春花。正所谓：春暖花开，迎春花可谓是百花齐放的一个先锋，迎春花在百花之中最早开花的，开花后又迎来百花齐放的春天，故而取名为迎春花。迎春花开出黄色的花、柳树发芽就代表春天要来了。所以，春天可真是一个百花争艳的好季节。

在四季中令人又爱又恨，常年使我们国家“热情如火”的，便是夏天。春意阑珊过后便是夏日炎炎，走过了春天的旖旎，迎来了夏天的蓬勃，它是如此的缤纷绚丽，灿烂且热烈。炎炎夏日，碧绿的荷叶与艳丽的荷花便是这个季节中最美的景色，绿树成荫，密密层层的枝叶挡住了人们的视线，遮住了蔚蓝的天空，却遮不住太阳的“热情”。夏日的天气总是变幻莫测，上一秒还是晴空万里，下一秒就能电闪雷鸣。夏

天的夜晚也是多姿多彩的，明月高挂在天，晚风微微吹过，数不清的星星在天上闪烁着，萤火虫也不甘示弱地散发着美丽的光芒，夏天就是如此迷人。夏天虽然没有春天的生机勃勃，没有秋天那样枫红菊香，也没有冬天的白雪皑皑，却是一个多姿多彩，个性独特的季节。

作为四季中排名第三的秋天，是一个令人感伤的季节，秋天通常都代表着人们的分离。别过了夏天的绚烂，走进了秋叶的静美，秋天没有了夏天的热烈，更多的反而是沉静与安宁。金灿灿的稻穗、火红的枫叶、枯黄的落叶，无一不在地透露着寂寞与悲凉。秋天的美是孤寂的，它没有春天的活泼，没有夏天的热情，也没有冬天的含蓄，只有宁静。时光如梭，岁月匆匆流逝，秋风起，岁月终将一切化为烟雨，一切都将随风远去。

送走了五谷丰收的秋天，雪花飞舞的冬天也即将来临。作为四季中的最后一个季节，冬天是最冷酷无情的。大雪纷纷落下，冰封千里，整个世界都被大雪覆盖，无一幸免，山冷得颤抖，河冻得僵硬了，雪花依旧铺天盖地地落下，刺骨的寒风依旧不留情地刮走人们丰收的喜悦。但雪是冬天的灵魂，虽无情，却叫人无法讨厌。翩然起舞的雪花和冬天里的一缕阳光，都能让人感觉到快乐与温暖。冬天也是一个美丽的季节，它虽然没有春天的鸟语花香，没有夏天的热情奔放，也没有秋天的岁月静好，但它也有献给大自然含蓄的美。

春生夏长，秋收冬藏，这便是一年四季的常态，它将会跟着大自然的脚步，年复一年的地循环。这就是大自然给予我们最好的回赠。

Q 乌托邦

Written by Sabrina Lim En Tong 林恩彤

Designed by Chenelle Ling

每个人心中都会拥有一个乌托邦，可每个人心中对乌托邦的定义都是不一样的。

乌托邦是什么呢？它是理想主义者的天堂，是人们心中的桃花源，同时它也被当作是掩饰人类的野心与欲望的一块遮羞布。

我们常常抱怨为何世界不是以我为中心，所以那些不甘与愤怒，我们都会用文字来表达自己的想法，如乌托邦的概念就是来自于一本书，作者建设的一个完美理想的共和国，即乌托邦。在乌托邦里它废除了私有制，实行公用制，一切都按照规定生活。

理想之所以是理想，因为它难以实现。即使如之，现实中还是存在理想主义者，他们心中的世界一尘不染，像一块玻璃球那样晶莹剔透。

另外，你是否会好奇乌托邦的结局呢？

一位著名的科学家在研究老鼠的社会习态的实验中，让我们无意间知晓了乌托邦的结局，那就是不可逆袭的族群灭亡。一开始，人对老鼠在如同天堂般的牢笼里生活，生存需求全都被科学家安排妥当。从此，老鼠过上了许多人向往的好生活，不愁吃不愁喝，只愁如何玩乐的世界。第一月，族群数量疯狂上升，到了第三月，才有所缓慢可它们的攻击性却变高了，强壮的老鼠开始争夺地盘与更多资源，甚至牵连无辜，整个族群都在狂躁期中度过。过了狂躁期后，族群开始走向崩溃。这时族群数量达到巅峰，雌鼠开始停止生育和拒绝哺乳后代而雄鼠不再交配。过上了乌托邦般的生活，族群数量却开始下降，大量的成年鼠开始无故死亡，而幼鼠能活下来的机率只有10%。到了第1789天后的25号，随着最后一只老鼠死亡了，结果也出来了，这就是著名的25号宇宙实验。

在实验中，人类是创造乌托邦的创造者而老鼠是被人类养在牢笼里的圈养物，但如果乌托邦来到了现实中呢？谁是创造者？谁是被圈养者？人类现在就如那实验中的老鼠一般迅速发展崛起，开发地球上的每一个角落，但终有一天地球上的资源会被人类消耗殆尽，而地球上的每一个角落都是人类。过多的社交和拥挤使得私人空间一直处于被侵犯的状态下，从而引发行行为沉沦而走向火亡。

心中有乌托邦是好，但我们也该正视现实的危机和人性的善恶，就如陶渊明在《桃花源记》里的最后依旧写了人性的恶。

我的爷爷

打开回忆的一闸门，在我懵懵懂懂的年纪，爷爷曾经向我说过一些话，至今都还让我感到心里暖暖的。

那天，大风撩起了他斑白的头发，阳光拂过了他松弛的皮肤。他那早已被皱纹侵略的脸上挂起了那总是令人治愈的笑容向我说道：“非常感谢你的出现，是你的出现给予我无数幸福的回忆，是你成就了我的人生！”听后，我顿时感觉周围事物都莫名的开始变得缓慢，脑海一直回放着他说过话，那一瞬间真的非常美好！其实爷爷回忆里所谓的幸福仅仅就是我简单的陪伴着他度过的每一时每一刻。林肯说过“对于大多数人来说，他们认定自己有多幸福，就有多幸福。”

在我小学回忆里，当时父母因为工作忙碌而总是忘记了我的生日。在放学回家的路上，我不断地对自己劝说着不要在意，父母也是为了自己而努力辛勤地工作着，其实嘴上说着没事是假的，实际上我内心无比难受，可我还是努力地按捺着自己的情绪，不想显露出来让爷爷担心。

回到家，这时突然原本该亮着的灯，突然莫名其妙地熄灭了，厨房似乎有一个人的身影还带着摇晃不定的火光缓缓地走近来，那熟悉且布满了皱纹的面孔渐渐地浮现在我的视线里。我仔细地端详，才发觉爷爷居然手里捧着蛋糕，嘴里还哼唱着生日歌，一步一步地向我走来。当时我的眼泪不由自主地往下掉，心想着原来有人还记得我的生日，而那个人就是我的爷爷！

2014年是最难忘的一年，想忘却忘不了。它仿佛恶魔般地纠缠着我不放。那一年，爸爸和妈妈因感情破裂而分开了，当我得知这令人窒息的消息后，整个人瞬间瘫坐在地上。第一时间，我就在想，是不是自己的错而导致的？如果是的话，我愿意改正！

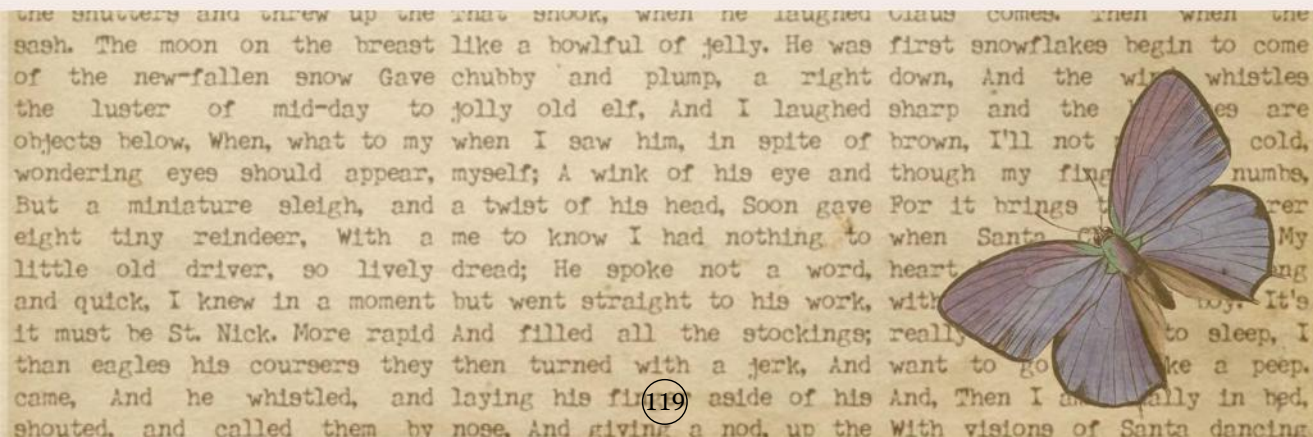

我尝试去阻止，可怪那时自己年纪还小，什么都做不了。我不敢相信，当初幸福美满的家庭竟然如此脆弱，就像是玻璃似的一不当心就碎了。就在我感到绝望时，爷爷的出现开导了我，是他告诉了我“既然什么都改变不了，那就把剩下的时间都赌在未来吧！”这个道理，让我坚强了起来，坦然地接受了事实。随遇而安，逆来顺受。

爷爷对我而言是堪比我生命还重要的人，他见证了我的出生，伴随着我的成长，填满了我美好的童年，陪我跨过了幼儿园到初中。从小，我就在心里默默地发誓，待我长大后，我一定会好好地孝顺爷爷的，“孝，德之本也”。渐渐地，我开始步入高中的生活。那时候，由于高中学习压力太大，导致我不断地忽略了爷爷的感受，向他大声喝道。直到他眼里充满了失望，朝门口走去，我才意识到自己的错误。我的内心满是自责自己刚刚的行为，同时也不断地懊悔着自己竟然违背了当初要好好孝顺爷爷的誓言。于是我奋不顾身地往爷爷的方向走去，看见他在庭院的草丛上席地而坐。我走向前，缓缓地在他的身旁坐下，就当我刚想开口向他道歉时，他忽然制止了我，说道：“没事，我都明白，每个人都拥有压力，要是受不了了，记得跟爷爷说，记得爷爷是你永远坚强的后盾。”，那一瞬间，我愣住了，不是感到惊讶，而是感动得眼泪夺眶而出。此时，在辽阔的星空下，我和爷爷躺在草丛上，享受着属于爷孙俩的专属时光。

从小到大，我一直天真地以为，爷爷一定会永远的陪着我，直到从医院传来了他敌不过病毒的侵入因癌症而去世的消息，我不相信，也不想相信。我当时一直欺骗着自己，爷爷还活着，还不断地询问医生，证实我的话是真的。

忽然，一个熟悉的手掌朝我脸上挥去，瞬间一声响亮的“啪啦”声传遍了整个楼层，我抚摸着脸上灼热的手掌印往前方望去，看见了以往对我疼爱有加的爸爸，眼里覆盖上了一层薄薄的泪光。我瞬间愣在了原地，因为我从未见过爸爸流泪，同时也感到委屈、不理解。就在父女俩僵持的过程中，护士终于推来了在病床上躺着的爷爷。当时，我以为他只是太累睡着了，还高兴地向他病床跑去，到了他身边，才察觉他的身体冷冰冰的，不管我怎么叫喊，他都没有回应。我不停地摇晃着他的手臂，渐渐地..... 我开始接受了爷爷的离开.....

我的爷爷叫王义良，名字很好听吧？人如其名，“义”代表着义务，尽他所能承担他该承担的责任、使命；“良”代表善良，即使面对险恶也始终保持初心。来自丹麦作家安徒生也说道：“清白的良心的一个温柔的枕头。”或许他人会用温柔描述爷爷，但我认为他即是温柔本身。

我的爷爷，虽然这一生并没有丰富的学问、精彩的人生，更别提能达成什么辉煌的成就，但他却是我心目中，永远是最伟大的爷爷！在我的回忆里，我记得爷爷也曾是位拼命赚钱养活整个家庭的男人，即使上了年纪也坚持不懈，就为了让家人吃上一口热腾腾的饭菜，过上无忧无虑的生活，仅此而已。

今天是二零二一年一月七号，也是爷爷永远离开我们，投向了神明怀抱的第二年。孤寂的深夜，令人怀念又在意的回忆逐个袭来，我拖着呆滞的眼神，疲惫的身躯，一个人静静地蜷缩在角落里。静静地，总是不经意地想起爷爷，一直都很想很想……熟悉的星空依然存在，但曾经陪伴着自己的人早已不在……

உச்சிவெயில் அனைவரது மண்டையையும் பிளந்து கொண்டிருந்தது. சாலையில் வாகனங்கள் புற்றீசல் போல் வந்த வண்ணம் இருந்தன. மக்களின் கூட்டமோ சொல்வதற்கு இல்லை. அவ்வளவு நெரிசல். விடுமுறை என்றால் பட்டணவாசிகளுக்குச் சொல்லவா வேண்டும்.

இதனை நெரிசலிலும் ஓர் உருவம் தடியுடன் சாலையை வெறித்து பார்த்த வண்ணம் நின்று கொண்டிருந்தது. “அடேங்கப்பா எவ்வளவு காடிங்க இன்னகைக்கு,” என்றார் எழுபது வயதை நெருங்கிக் கொண்டிருக்கும் திரு. சிதம்பரம். “தாத்தா உங்களை ரொம்ப நேரமா பார்த்துக்கொண்டிருக்கிறேன். வாகனம் அதிகமாக இருப்பதால் உங்களால் சாலையை கடக்க முடியலையா?” என்றான் ஒரு சிறுவன். ஆயிரம் பேர் தன்னைக் கடந்து சென்றிருப்பார்; ஆனால் யாருமே தனக்கு உதவ முன்வரவில்லை. ஆனால் இந்தப் பையனுக்கு மட்டும் இவ்வளவு உயர்ந்த உள்ளம் என்று உள்ளூர்ப் பூர்த்துக் கொண்டு, “ஆமாம் தம்பி” என்று தன் பொக்கை வாயைக் காட்டி சிரித்தார்.

கல்வி

Written by: நிஷாலினி
த/பெ சுகுமார்

கல்வி என்ற தமிழ்ச்சொற்கள் (ஆய்வு செய்) என்ற வேர்ச் சொல்லில் இருந்து வருகின்றது. மேலும், இது கற்பித்தல், பயிற்றுவித்தல் என்னும் பொருளைத் தரும் என்ற சொல்லை அடிப்படையாகக் கொண்டுள்ளது. கல்வி என்பது தகுந்த சூழ்நிலையை உருவாக்கி மனிதர்களை உள்ளார்ந்த தகுதிகளை வெளியில் கொண்டு வருவது ஆகும். இவை "விக்கிபீடியா" எனும் அகப்பக்கத்தில் குறிப்பிடப்பட்டுள்ளது.

பண்டையக் காலங்களில், மக்கள் ஒருவருக்கொருவர் பார்த்து பழகியும், பேச்சு வழக்கிலும், கதைகள் சொல்லியும், கேட்டும் அறிவை வளர்த்துக் கொண்டனர். இந்தப் பின்னணியில் இருந்து கல்வி முறைகள் உருவாயின. எடுத்துக்காட்டாக, கி.மு. 2005, எகிப்தில் பள்ளிக்கூடங்கள் இருந்தன. பிளேட்டோ கிரகத்தில் உள்ள ஏதென்சு நகரத்தில் கி.மு. 387-இல் கல்விக் கூடம் ஒன்றை நிறுவினார். இன்று, பல நாடுகளில், இளைய சமுதாயத்தினருக்குக் கல்வி கட்டாயமாக ஆக்கப்பட்டுள்ளது.

கல்வியின் சிறப்பு பற்றி கூறும்போது கல்வி கற்றவன் எந்த இடத்திற்குச் சென்றாலும் அவன் கற்ற கல்வியே. கற்றவனுக்கு தனது நாடும் ஊருமே அல்லாமல் எந்த நாடும் ஊரும் தன்னுடைய ஊராகும். இப்படி கல்வி கற்றவனின் சிறப்பு இருக்க ஒருவன் தான் மரணிக்கும் வரை கல்வி கற்காமல் இருந்து தனது காலத்தைக் கழிப்பது மிகவும் சிரமமானதாகும். இதனையே திருவள்ளுவர் மிகவும் அழகாக வர்ணித்திருக்கிறார்.

யாதானும் நாடு ஆமால் ஊர் ஆமால் என் ஒருவன் சாந்துனையும் கல்லாதவாறு

என்று குறிப்பிடுகிறார். ஒருவன் தான் எவ்வளவு கல்வி கற்றாலும் அதனை செயல் வடிவில் தக்க வைத்துக் கொள்ள வேண்டும். அப்போதுதான் அவன் கற்ற கல்வி அவனுக்கு கிடைக்கும்.

மலேசியா கல்வி அமைச்சு, மலேசியா அரசாங்க அமைச்சுகளில் ஒன்றாகும். இது மலேசியா கல்வி முறை மட்டும் படத்திட்டங்கள் முதற்கொண்டு, பள்ளிக்கூடம் தொட்டு பல்கலைக்கழகம் நிர்மாணிப்பு முதல் கல்வி சார்ந்த அனைத்து கொள்கையையும் நிர்வகிக்கும் பொறுப்பைக் கொண்டுள்ளது. இன்று மாணவர்களுக்கும், ஆசிரியர்களுக்கும், பெற்றோர்களுக்கும் கல்வி சார்ந்த பிணைப்பினை இத்தளம் எளிதான முறையில் கற்றல் கற்பித்தல் திட்டத்தின்வழி தேவைகளைப் பூர்த்தி செய்கிறது.

பணமும் பிற செல்வங்களும் ஒரு மனிதனுக்கு மரியாதைத் தேடித் தருவதில்லை. ஆனால், கல்வியிடம் மட்டும் தான் மரியாதையைத் தேடித்தரும் இயல்பு இருக்கின்றது. சமுதாயத்தில் பேரும் புகழும் உள்ளவர்களிடம் கல்வியின் உயர்வைக் காணலாம். நமது முன்னோர்கள் பலர் கல்வியால் தான் வாழ்க்கையில் முன்னேறினர். கல்வி ஓர் அற்புத சாதனம். இதுவே, நாம் கல்வி கற்காவிடில் நம் எதிர்காலத்தை நம்மால் நிர்ணயிக்க முடியாத நிலை வர நேரிடும்.

கோவிட் -19 காட்டு தீ போல பரவுவதன் மூலம் நம் கல்வித்துறை இணையத்தளத்தையே அடிப்படையாகக் கொண்டு அமைகிறது. இக்காலக்கட்டத்தைப் பார்க்கும்போதே நம் எதிர்கால கல்வி திட்டம் ஊடகங்களின் மூலமே செயல்படும் என்பதை நம்மால் தெளிவு காண முடிகிறது. உதாரணத்திற்கு, நாம் இயங்கலை கற்றல் "zoom" மற்றும் "google classroom" மூலம் கல்வி கற்பதே நிரந்தரமாக ஆகிவிடும். இதன்மூலமே நமக்கு அதிக பாதிப்பு அமைகிறது. எடுத்துக்காட்டிற்கு கவனச்சிதறல், தூக்கமின்மை, படைப்பாற்றல் குறைவு, மன அழுத்தம், போன்ற பாதிப்புகள் ஏற்படுவதற்கான அதிக வாய்ப்பு உண்டு.

எனவே, நாம் வரலாற்றுப் பின்னணி, கல்வி அரசாங்க அமைச்சு, கல்வியின் சிறப்பு, கல்வியின் நன்மை தீமையைப் பற்றி அறிந்துக் கொள்ள வேண்டும். ஆகவே, நாம் நாளிதழ்களை வாங்கி தினந்தோறும் படித்து அறிவாற்றலை வளர்த்துக் கொள்ள வேண்டும்.

ROAD RUN 2022!!

by Larra Venishaa

Finally, SMK Assunta's annual road run is back in action!!! On the 1st of July, the event was held at the school field. After 2 long years of waiting and being locked at home due to the pandemic, Assuntarians were eager and excited to have a chance to sweat it all out.

All teachers, students and participants were instructed to gather up at the field for attendance purposes, and then students were asked to group up according to their categories and house colours. Once everyone had been settled down, the event started with the singing of our national anthem, followed by a speech from Puan Mages Wari our principal and Mr Alan Goh, the President of PIBG.

Furthermore, a Zumba session was performed at the pavilion. Assuntarians had a wonderful and fun time doing the warm-ups, which were led by our foremost Zumba Team! Once everyone had their body stretched and warmed up, all representative teachers and policemen went out to their respective checkpoints to keep a watch out for students' safety. After a few minutes, Assuntarians were guided out by categories accordingly to the starting point at Gate A. Honk! Honk! The race kicks off! Assuntarians were excited and ran starting from Gate A, followed by Gate C, Chetawan Temple, Taman Jaya Park and finally back to the finish line at Gate A.

Jogging for at least an hour with spirit and happiness, our fellow Assuntarians gave it their all to finish the race while looking worn out. Nevertheless, they continued to jog back to the finish line and their perspective lanes to earn their numbers and points for their houses. While the teachers gathered all the results, students settled down from their long jog and enjoyed their relaxation with their friends on the field.

After a long-awaited rest, the moment everyone has been waiting for has begun. The prize-giving ceremony! Assuntarians were thrilled and gathered in front of the pavilion according to their houses while waiting for the results to be announced. Medals were awarded to the top 10 Assuntarians from each category who finished the race first. As the recipients were announced while heading up to the pavilion, house flags were raised in the air and house members were cheering loudly for their fellow teammates.

After awarding the medals to the recipients, the announcement of the overall results of the house rankings are as below:

- 1. Francis
- 2. Assunta
- 3. Hermine
- 4. Clare

The event came to a close with the singing of our school song. Assuntarians were joyed and happy with smiles on their faces, knowing they had fun together with their friends as they jogged together to the finish line. It was a tiring day but also a memorable day as well for all Assuntarians. Thank you to all Assuntarians for participating and making the jog more fun!!!

From the 4th to the 7th of July, our school's hockey team represented Assunta in the MSSD Hoki Tournament, which was held at Stadium Hoki MPBJ. Assunta's Hoki team contained 16 players and reserve players who attended the tournament throughout the days.

After 2 years of movement control orders, our players trained tirelessly every week to maintain their stamina and fitness before the tournament. Unfortunately, our school did not win any games in the tournament this year. Nevertheless, we appreciate all the team member's efforts and the hard work they put in during the games. The seniors also gave their moral support and encouragement to the players who participated and in the hopes that they will succeed in the next tournament.

We would like to express our gratitude to the players for representing Assunta and for all the hard work they had put in the days for their consecutive training sessions.

Remember, always make a total effort, even the odds are against you!

The Editorial Board wishes all players the best of luck for your coming tournament.

GOOD LUCK AND MAY YOU SOAR HIGHER GIRLS!!

Do you know what is one of the most famous sports in the world? It's BADMINTON!! Finally, after 2 years of Movement Control Orders, Assuntarians got to go back to school as usual and participate in tournaments again.

From the 5th to the 8th of July 2022, 21 Assuntarians participated in the district badminton competition at Forum 19, Seksyen 19. 2 categories were separated into under 15 and 18 age groups in singles and doubles. Our Assuntarians had trained hard to gain their stamina back and also been practising their teamwork and techniques every single day before the tournament. After a tremendous game between players, one of our team members, Teoh Jia En and Hannah Teoh Skankar won 1st Place in the under-18 age group Women's Doubles match team. Their practice had paid off with stunning teamwork and cooperation that was formed between them. Together, they had brought pride to Assunta and its name.

Even though the other players may not have won the match, the school will always remember the efforts of each one of the players who participated, for training hard and doing their best in competing in the tournament. With much thanks to the players who represented Assunta as proud Assuntarians for all the hard work that you had put in the days of your consecutive training.

The most encouraging word we would never forget from one of the players is that winning or losing doesn't matter, as long as you give your best.

The Editorial Board wishes you the best of luck for years to come in competing for your upcoming challenges in the future!!

Table tennis or Ping Pong is one of the easiest table sports you ever play. Or that's what they thought?? You need good strategies and fast reflexes to ace this sport. On 5th July to 7th July 2022 at SMJK Catholic High School, our school sent 7 players to participate in the Kejohanan Ping Pong MSSD Petaling Utama competition.

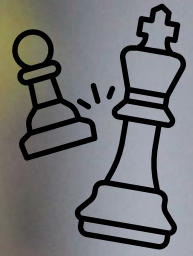

This sport is divided into two categories of groups which are Chinese and open game. Next, it's separated into men singles and women singles under 15 and 18. Three of our students participated in the Chinese group, while four others joined the open game. The players had been practising hard and giving their best in this game, but unfortunately only one passed to the quarter-final which was, Rachel Chew Kah Leng.

Even though our school didn't get to go into the finals, our players are still happy and grateful to join this year's ping pong competition. All the best to the future competitors, the editorial board wishes you the best of luck and may you soar higher!!

This year, Assunta hosted the competition. On the 13th to the 15th of July, 8 players joined the competition to compete between schools, they trained very hard to win and had been practising their tactics with their teammates every day before the match started. Although they did not win the competition, the school will remember their efforts for training hard and making the school proud for doing their best in representing Assunta.

As proud Assuntarians and representing its name, the school would like to say thank you for all your hard work and commitment that you all have put in the days of your consecutive training.

MSSD BOLA TAMPAR 2022

Volleyball is a ball game played by 6 players, where each team tries to score points by grounding the ball onto the other team's court under organized rules. On the 26th until the 29 of July, our school participated in the MSSD Volleyball tournament, which took place at SMK Tropicana. Multiple players joined the game under both categories, under 18 and 15.

Our fellow players had been practising all day, preparing themselves for the tournament. They had trained tirelessly to gain their strength and stamina back, as well as practising their teamwork together every single day. For years, this was the first that Assunta was climbing up the ranks for the first time, as both our teams made it into the finals together. With tears of joy and excitement, both our players shout and cheer happily for accomplishing 2 places in the tournament for each category and winning both Runner Ups for the year 2022.

The Editorial Board wishes you the best of luck for years to come for your upcoming challenges in the future!! Assunta is so proud of you!! You deserve the achievement and with such endeavours, you are certain to acquire more. Keep doing awesome!!

Here comes the sport that everyone loves! SMK Assunta participated in NETBALL!! As we all know, netball is one of the World's Most Famous Sports and sure that people are looking forward to the game! Netball is a field sport played by 2 teams of 7 players, usually on an indoor court and is mainly played by women. Games are played on a rectangular court with raised goal rings at each end. On a side note, the opponent team is the one that scores the most goals wins.

In the year 2022, the netball tournament was held at SMK Damansara Damai. Our team participated in 2 categories, which were under 18 and 15. During the matches, our team won some against other schools. But unfortunately, lost to SMK Sri Aman. Even though they didn't win this year's tournament, Assunta will always recognise their efforts and hard work through pain and sweat throughout the game.

To our netball team, be proud of yourselves. The strength doesn't come from winning, it comes from the struggles and hardships of the team. Everything that has been walked through prepares the team for the next level.

ON THE 5TH OF OCTOBER, THE SMK ASSUNTA HELD A SPORTS EVENT CALLED “HARI SUKAN NEGARA”, THIS EVENT WILL BE HELD ANNUALLY ON THE SECOND SATURDAY OF OCTOBER. SEVERAL SPORTS GAMES WERE FORMED FOR THE STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN, THE MAIN OBJECTIVE IS TO PROMOTE A HEALTHY LIFESTYLE AMONG THEMSELVES.

Priscilla Vashni The House Captain 2022

ORGANISE, LEADERSHIP, TEAMWORK, SUPPORT, TEAM EFFORT!!

*Interviewed by Larra Venisbaa
Designed by Siti Nur Hana*

After 2 long years of waiting, our Sports Day is back in action!! Here, the Editorial Board has gotten a chance to interview our very own Assunta's School Captain of 2022, Priscilla Vashni!! Let's see what she has to say.

What was your reaction when you were elected as Assunta's School Captain?

Priscilla: Extremely thrilled, excited, such a mixed feeling situation because it was unexpected. Obviously, it was a tough competition between the House Captains, but I knew that when you give your best you will receive your best.

How did you manage to handle things during Sports Day?

Priscilla: First of all, multitasking is when you handle a few things simultaneously while taking notes on things they need help on. For example, doing my best for the parade, and asking teachers anything that I can do to help them. In addition, a special thanks to all my Hermine AJKs because I distributed a few tasks to them so that they could do them when I was absent. I knew it was the best decision because they did a great job. The teachers complimented them.

Why did you want to become the School Captain of Assunta?

Priscilla: The main reason was to show people what I am capable of and also it was my last year in this school, which made me join every event there is, to gain some experience and a few life lessons. Moreover, it was an achievement for me in the light of some who doubted my capabilities.

Was it stressful to handle things as you took up so many positions in school? How did you manage your studies and sports?

Priscilla: It was stressful at a certain point in time, but I did manage to juggle it and successfully did what I was supposed to do. I managed sports and studies by allocating a certain amount of time for each of them. I can say that I successfully did it because my exam results were pretty good from what I expected, especially Modern Maths and Add Maths. It's always the best feeling when you know the choice you made was right, and it shows its results in sports and studies.

What was your goal as the School Captain?

Priscilla: To be a good example, and to show people who have the mindset that if you are good in sports, you won't be good in studies. We need to change their mindset.

In the end, what did you achieve as Assunta's School Captain?

Priscilla: First of all, I will say a great experience. The amount of practice, the amount of blood, sweat and tears that fell for the sports day. It was an amazing day, a moment I will never forget in my life. It was a proud moment to carry the school flag. The walk in the parade was amazing. Furthermore, I set a good example for others to follow. For instance, people are looking at what am I doing, so I should discipline myself, be responsible, and be a good example for all those students because they look up to me. Whenever I walk around the school to meet teachers or even enter a random class, they will always look at me with a bright smile and say "Hi Priscilla". That moment is the proud moment you know you have become a good leader, to whom everyone feels safe to talk to.

SPORTS DAY 2022

BY LARRA VENISHAA DESIGNED BY CHOO HUI XIN, AUDREY WONG

The hectic week before Sports Day:

As every Assuntarian sets foot on Jalan Talent, the sight of athletes jogging and practising in the field can be perceived although the sky is still as dark as in the dungeon. Athletes were running with batons and stopwatches in their hands to time themselves. Assuntarians' ears were picked up with the sound of the beating drums of Assunta's proud symphony band. The smell of grass, sweat and even sunblock was strong enough to fill the entire school. "Left, left, left, right, left," the sound of marchers counting repeatedly and continuously filled in every corner of the field. The loud and synchronized thumping feet of the marchers caused a vibe. "Voice testing...," the cheerleaders were clearing their throats for a loud and clear cheer. The art room was full of many artistic Assuntarians, some of them even had splashes of colours on their faces! Mascots and 'sepanduks' also started harnessing their off-the-wall creativity. The art room was shining with glitters around. Why was everybody so engaged in their work? Because----- the annual Sports Day was around the corner after 2 long years!

Sports Day:

On the 29th of July the crack of dawn, cheerleaders and marchers were already in the school putting on make-up and being prepared to be on the battlefield. The day began with our school's symphony band accompanied by the march past. Runners were stretching themselves under the tents with their respective numbers. The eyes of the runners that were at the starting point had shown it all that victory is no other option. However, they did not fully care about their respective houses only. Instead, a heart-rending scene happened, where a runner had injured her ankle and still wanted to participate in the race, supporters cheered supportively as she runs with one injured leg crossed the finish line. Some runners ran together with her throughout the entire race! I'm pretty sure there's never one like our beloved school, Assunta. This had shown how strong the family bonding between Assuntarians was! Clapping and cheers were streaming all over during every event. Teachers also took part in cheering for their respective houses. Everyone had tried their very best. All their hard work, sweat and tears had finally borne fruit. The 'mo take deng' Assunta emerged as champion, with Francis second, followed by Hermine and Clare. This memorable event will forever be integrated into everyone's heart.

THE 2022 MSSD CHESS

BY: KHIRTHANA ANN RAMIA, MISHALLINY A/P BRABAKARAN

DESIGNED BY: RAANISHA SREE

It has been a privilege for SMK Assunta to organise the 2022 MSSD Chess Competition. We must say, we were floored by the participants' skills. We were able to witness the tournament. Let us give you an insight into the tournament. The atmosphere was so intense that it was pin-drop silent. The players were focused on each move they made. Each and every move they make may jeopardise the whole match. We observed the match and were astonished to see these few players having an intense game. They were pacing back and forth, scratching their heads, biting their nails. This feeling was contagious. After the match, we decided to interview them. The first two participants that we interviewed were from our neighbouring school, SMK La Salle PJ. We were honoured to interview the head of the SMK La Salle PJ Chess Club, Jazreel and his friend Jiivan Anthony.

Good morning guys, congratulations on the game earlier. It looked like a very intense round but both of you won. With that being said, how do you feel?

Jiivan: I agree. It was an extremely intense game. I was literally sweating. The school I was up against was really good. Most of the moves they made were really smart. There was a point where I thought that they were going to win.

That must've been really nerve-wracking. How about you Jazreel?

Jazreel: Yeah, it was a really tough game and my opponent was really good. But, he did make one mistake that caused his loss. Other than that, it was a long but good game. It really pushed me to my limits.

I see. That round must be one of your most memorable rounds. Jiivan, back to you. I remember you mentioned the game is really tough. Are there any chances that you remember the name of the school you were up against?

Jiivan: To be honest with you, I don't exactly remember but one thing for sure is that he was from an international school. It was quite obvious because of the uniform.

No worries. Jazreel, I hope you don't mind sharing with us some tips and tricks for current and future chess players.

Jazreel: Just don't make mistakes. A single mistake can cost you. Always try reading up on Google about some tips and secrets on how to beat your opponent.

Jiivan: I agree with Jazreel, I wasn't really familiar with chess last year, but he introduced me to it last year and I got the hang of it by practising and reading up about it.

To be honest with you, I don't think I'll be able to pick up chess that fast. It's just not my cup of tea. But different people, different likings. Anyway, we wish you guys the best of luck for the next round and have fun. Thanks, guys.

Jiivan: Thank you for interviewing us.

Well, that was fun. Let's go have a little chit-chat with someone else. We are honoured to interview the head of the chess team of Heritage International School, Ari Louis Jock. He is a very experienced chess player. He has gone to many schools to compete. So, let's welcome Ari.

Hi Ari, it's really nice to meet you. So, we saw you playing earlier and it seemed like a really intense game. How was it for you?

Ari: It was exactly the way you described it. It was really intense, I was sweating and I could tell that my opponent was really experienced. He was pulling all the tough moves. Somehow, I managed to beat him. So, I'm quite proud of myself for playing a round like that with someone as good as him.

Yes, even I was feeling tensed up just looking at you guys playing. But congrats on the win. You worked hard for it. With that being said, what did you do to prepare for this tournament?

Ari: To be honest, it is all psychological. It is all in the head. I realized that whenever my friend and I would play, the second I panicked, I would pull the wrong move. So, I remembered to stay calm even though my opponent was intimidating.

I agree with you. You mentioned earlier that your opponent lost the round. What did you do to bag the win?

Ari: I didn't do anything. Honestly speaking, it was him. He decided to try a risky move that jeopardised his win. Obviously, that didn't work. So, I should be thanking him.

Wow! Chess is really a game where one move can change everything. Well, I just heard the teacher calling all the participants. So, I think that's a wrap. Thank you so much for your time. Good luck.

Ari: Thank you.

SPM Results Day, a moment interview with Puan Mages Wari

BY: KHIRTHANA ANN RAMIA, NUR ATIFAH THAIYUB AHAMED

DESIGNED BY: RAANISHA SREE

It was one of the most significant days in the life of any 17-year-old Malaysian student. Students, parents, and teachers were all on the edge of their seats waiting, as the moderator was about to announce the results of SPM, students were crying, biting their nails, and sweating out of nervousness and happiness. Seeing and sensing our ex-Assuntarians how nervous they were through the air, was nerve-wracking. When it was time to announce the names of the students who had received 6As and above, friends, parents and teachers clapped and cheered for them. Achievers had done tremendously and Assunta couldn't be more proud of our Assuntarians. Now, let us find out how our principal, Puan Mages Wari feels, and seeing our extraordinary Assuntarians achieve splendid results, as this is her first time being our principal.

Good morning Pn Mages, I can see that you are smiling from ear to ear. I'm assuming that you are happy with the students' results?

Pn Mages: Yes, I'm so proud of our girls especially since they were the batch of students who were stuck at home during quarantine. They didn't let this pandemic stop them from succeeding.

I agree, I heard that there was a student who received 9A+'s for her SPM. Those results are astonishing. I'm surprised!

Pn Mages: Yes, she must've worked really hard for a long time because it isn't easy to get that result. But I'm so proud of her. I hope other Assuntarians will look up to her as a role model.

I agree, I hope she would be able to share some study tips. I could really use some. Speaking of, do you have any advice for our future SPM candidates?

Pn Mages: Yes, of course. Consistency is extremely important. You can't study the night before and expect to be Albert Einstein the next day. You really need to start from the bottom. Master the basics, from there, you work yourself up to the top. I'm sure any student will be able to do this. Don't jump to the hard questions, learn the basics. I mean look at it this way, how are you going to build a building without a strong foundation? I'm sure the building will collapse if it doesn't have a strong foundation. It goes the same with studies.

That is very true. I couldn't agree with you more. Do you have any advice for the students who just received their results?

Pn Mages: This is just the beginning. You are finally going to explore the real world. If you did well for SPM, great job. Keep up the good work. Make sure you continue studying. If you can find ways to improve yourself, do it. For those who didn't get the results they were hoping for, it's okay. Yes, your results can determine your future. I didn't say it would. With that being said, you can change. Try studying harder, change your study methods, and avoid distractions. Small changes in your daily routine can make a great impact in your life.

Thank you so much Pn Mages for your time and your wonderful advice. I hope the students will take your advice. Have a good day Pn Mages.

Pn Mages: Thank you.

SPM RESULTS DAY INTERVIEW

BY: KHIRTHANA ANN RAMIA, NUR ATIFAH THAIYUB AHAMED

DESIGNED BY: RAANISHA SREE

After talking to the principle of Assunta, Puan Mages. We had decided to have a little chat with some of our ex-Assuntarians who had received their SPM results. Let's get an inside scoop on how our girls felt during the moment.

Hi, congratulations on your results. How do you feel after your name was called up to receive your results up on stage?

Student: Honestly, I didn't even expect my name to be called up. My trial results weren't even that good. But I'm really grateful that my hard work had finally paid off.

Speaking of hard work, what did you do to improve your marks during that gap from your SPM trials until your actual SPM examination?

Student: Well, I decided to change my study methods. Previously, I would flip through my textbook and nothing would get into my head. But after trying various different methods of studying, I finally found the one that is suited for me. After my perfect study method was found, that's when I studied from day till night.

Wow! That must've caused quite a few all-nighters. So, what do you mean by various study methods. I thought you could just study.

Student: Well, some students remember things by seeing pictures, and some remember by reading their books out loud. So, it's really trial and error. It would help if you found what suits you. For me, it was repetition. I would repeat reading the same thing over and over again until I remembered it.

Well I haven't found my "perfect study method". But I'm going to try as many methods as I can to see which one suits me. Moving on, do you have any advice for our next SPM candidates?

Student: Please do not be like me. I was a last-minute study person. So please start EARLY! Start studying like as if the exam is the next day. I can guarantee you, it will pay off in the end.

Thank you so much for your time and congrats on your results.

Student: Thank you.

Let's interview someone else shall we.

Hi, good morning. Congratulations on your results. I'm so happy for you. How do you feel right now? You looked emotional earlier.

Student: Yes, I was emotional, but those were happy tears. I didn't get straight As but it was the best results I have ever gotten. I'm proud of myself.

Yes, your parents must be proud of you as well. If you don't mind telling us, what did you do to get the results that you've gotten.

Student: Just piles over piles of worksheets and exercise books. I think because of me being familiar with the questions, I was able to answer the questions in the exam. As they say, practice makes perfect.

I agree. Do you have any advice that you want to share with the others?

Student: Yes, never give up. Even though there were people in my life who used to drag me down but look at me now. I have better grades than them. I managed to get into a prestigious college on scholarship with only my trial results. So, cut off those unnecessary people in your life.

That's so true. Do you want to give a shout out to anyone special?

Student: Of course, shout out to my parents. Without their guidance and the push that I needed, I don't think I could've made it. Also, I would like to take this opportunity to thank them. Thanks mum and dad for sending me for tuition day and night. Hahah. Love you lots!!!

That was so sweet. Well, I think we are done. Thank you so much and all the best for what's ahead.

Student: Thank You.

The background of the cover features a vibrant sunset sky transitioning from a bright yellow-orange near the horizon to a deep blue at the top. A single hot air balloon is visible in the center of the sky, and another one is partially visible on the right edge. The foreground shows rolling hills and a valley, rendered in a dark, blue-tinted style.

IN MEMORY OF A DEAR FRIEND, TEACHER AND MOTHER

YOUR PRESENCE WE MISS, YOUR MEMORIES WE TREASURE.

LOVING YOU ALWAYS,
FORGETTING YOU NEVER.

In Loving Memory Of

ISABELLE LALITA A/P BALASHANMUGAM

(12/11/1965 - 13/3/2022)

Your life was a blessing,
your memory a treasure.
You are loved beyond words
and missed beyond measure.

~Anonymous~

Dear Puan Isabelle, you will live forever in our hearts and minds. We will never forget our recesses in the Senior block classrooms where we had lunch together while you used the projector so we could all watch and laugh at the comedy shows on Netflix. Thank you for never hesitating to put us in place. You have impacted so many lives. You were brave and strong throughout the course of your treatment. Thank you for all the laughs and memories. You were our class teacher and English teacher for 2 years, and all your classes were filled with good memories. You were a strict yet loving teacher. Rest well Puan Isabelle, you will be missed.

~1 Anggerik (Class of 2019)~

I really miss Pn Isabelle so much.....she helped me in a lot of situations....at the 2020 Sewo concert, one of my team members was struggling with no perfect outfit for the concert...but Pn Isabelle came and helped us by giving one of her daughter's costumes to my teammate...she is really kind and caring about her studentsshe always spreads joy to everyone....she was a very intelligent, responsible and a dedicated teacher too.... it's really a big loss that she is not with us anymore in SMK Assunta!.....but her memories will be always there.....miss you, teacher.....as u told...once an ASSUNTARIAN, always an ASSUNTARIAN ♥

~Bhavaniya Chandra Segaran ~

No matter what you have taught us, a teacher will always remain a teacher, you have been quite strict but whatever you have taught us can never be forgotten. May you rest in peace teacher, we really miss you! ♥

~Anonymous~

Pn Isabelle, I really can't accept the fact that you're not here with us. It didn't register in my head that you passed. You taught me not only a subject but also taught me such valuable lessons about life. Even though you were sometimes irritated with me, you still taught me the right way to do things. You were funny, intelligent, very wise and so down to earth. I really wish you didn't have to go so soon. But, God has his plans. I love you Pn Isabelle and I wish I could have said that earlier. I promise to keep the afternoon session Young Catholic Society going. I miss you. Whenever I watch German movies, I will think of you. Heaven has gained another angel. I hope to see you one day once my day has come. Rest In Peace Pn Isabelle. ♥

~Khirthana Ann Ramia~

Puan Isabelle didn't just teach me, she influenced, aided, and supported me. She will always be an inspiration to me and I wish I could tell her one last time just how much she means to me. She truly is one of the strongest people I know and I'm grateful for everything she's done for me. Rest in peace, Puan Isabelle.

~Amelie Reshmi~

Puan Isabelle meant so much to me and she still does. She was my first class teacher and English teacher in SMK Assunta. I gained so much knowledge about life from her throughout my time with her. We, as a class, used to sit and listen to her stories and laugh uncontrollably. These stories have always been the highlight of my day for some reason. She wasn't merely a teacher to me; she was a supporter who would constantly encourage me to work harder because she saw my potential. She has always been there for me when I was down or on the brink of giving up, and her words are something I will never forget because they all have tremendous significance in my life. I'll always treasure the moments I spent with her, whether it was during recess when we'd watch movies with the rest of my friends or during English class when she'd come up with so many unique ways to make it enjoyable for us all. She is a role model for me. Someone who inspires others to become better people, who help others without hesitation, who is strong and eager to fight and tackle any obstacles with her head held high, and who does not give up easily. Puan Isabelle, you have made Assunta a better place by bringing so much joy into our lives. May she rest in peace.

~Shasmeen Amirah~

Dear Puan Isabelle, you were a great teacher and you always stood by your students through thick and thin....you will always live in our hearts...and may your soul rest in peace

~Mrettika Prisha Naidu~

May Your Soul Rest In Peace In Heaven Teacher♥ You're really unforgettable and A Sweet Teacher Too☺♥ I miss you Teacher♥

~Theva Tharshini~

Thank you for teaching us English and other moral values for 2 years from Form 1 Anggerik (our class teacher) and Form 2 (English teacher). Thank you for making a difference. We will always miss you. I hope you rest in peace.

~Beh Yi Wen~

The world changes from year to year, our lives from day to day, but the love & memory with you shall never pass away... Have a safe journey, teacher... May your beautiful soul rest in peace, teacher...

~Raanisha Sree~

You will always stay in our hearts as a queen, we love you teacher and they'll love you up there too

~Rahideep Kaur~

Thank you for being there for us, and helping us and your scolding did change us a lot. We learned many things from you over the past two years. We could say that we're really thankful to have you as our class teacher and English teacher. We missed all the stories that you shared with us and some of them really touched our hearts. This is a really sad thing to hear that you have passed and I hope you're doing well right now. You'll be missed and loved by all of us.

~Leticia Khor~

Puan Isabelle, ever since I got into form 3 I really missed talking and chatting with u after class sometimes.... and when that morning I woke up to a friend telling me that u had passed my heart shattered into pieces because during the past 2 years I've been in ur class.. you've made a great impact in my heart.. and it feels unreal that ur gone... believe me, I still can't accept the fact that ur gone.. and I wish I could've seen u one last time but it's too late. I've made a promise to u and I remembered it til now even if it was made when I was form 2, teacher I wish u haven't gone so soon.. my mum talked about u.. always asking how were u doing but I couldn't get the courage to text u so I didn't... kinda regret it. But right now, I don't know how to describe how hurt I am... I've cried for hours while going thru the files we used to do when we were in frog room.. in the class.. and online class.. its a memory I want to keep forever. All the pictures we have taken in the class.. and everything you've done with us. I will treasure it forever teacher.. I'll definitely miss u a lot even if it hurts. But I just want to thank u for helping me get thru some family problems and comforted me thru things when I was sad and of course, I will definitely miss ur stories.. and ur strictness when we're in class too. Ur the best teacher and guardian I could ever ask for... rest well Puan Isabelle, I'm glad to hear ur in a better place and not suffering anymore. I'll play something for u when I'm done learning a new song I've been working on.

~Venus Heng~

Thank you for everything teacher, you have thought me a lot.. especially about how to be more confident in communication. Thanks to you I have more confidence in talking than before. Do you remember when you asked me about my ambition and I said "surgeon" and then you said "I hope when you grow up, you are my doctor." thanks for putting your confidence in me.. but I guess I won't be able to take care of you as a surgeon would... I know you're in a better place now. be happy. I hope we meet again so that I could tell you how much you have thought me and I love you, teacher. Thank You, Pn Isabelle

~Anonymous~

I woke up to the message and I have no words to express how I feel I completely broke down and started crying. The way you took care of us and checked up on us and the way you lift us by telling your stories and cracking jokes and advice to us and also took care of each and every one of us in the class like your own daughters.. I'll miss all that and I still can't accept that you're not here anymore but I'm relieved that you're not suffering in pain anymore. Our class will never forget you and all those precious memories we had together will never be forgotten you'll always be my favourite teacher. Rest in peace teacher ☺
