Welcome TO SARDINIA...

Unwind in a Mediterranean paradise, a hidden gem just off Italy's west coast. Holidays to Sardinia are hassle-free. It is easy to immerse in the Mediterranean lifestyle, explore quaint villages, sample local cuisine, relax on pristine beaches and soak up the stunning vistas.

Along with this guide and our expert team, Sardinian Places can create a holiday of your dreams, tailored to suit your needs, with an itinerary that will provide you with authentic experiences and unforgettable memories.

About Sardinian Places

At Sardinian Places, we don't just book holidays, we craft experiences. Our team is passionate, knowledgeable, and deeply committed to making every moment of your holiday feel extraordinary.

We understand how precious holiday time is, and we're driven by the trust our customers place in us to help make it count. With Sardinian Places, we're not just selling a destination, we're delivering a holiday people will remember for years to come.

When to VISIT...

May and June

At this early stage in the season, tourists will benefit from beautiful spring weather, with temperatures ranging from low to mid-20s. There are fewer crowds than in the peak months, making it an ideal time of year to explore the local area.

We suggest: Exploring towns and cities on foot, enjoying the historical ruins in the local area, and visiting the capital city of Cagliari. During spring, birds follow migratory routes over the island, and southern Sardinia is the ideal region to spot them.

July and August – Peak months

Local towns and villages come alive with food festivals and markets, and beaches are at their best, with warm waters and pristine sands. The weather is glorious, and it is common to experience temperatures in the low-30s.

We suggest: While the days away on the beach, soaking up the stunning coastline, caves and grottos via boat trips and enjoying everything the water has to offer, from water sports to seafood.

September and October

As the summer draws to a close and temperatures wind down in much of Europe, Sardinia still boasts plenty of sunshine hours and temperatures in the mid-20s. The perfect opportunity to soak up the last bit of summer as the crowds ease.

We suggest: Enjoying beautiful walks and cycle routes, or soaking up the atmosphere at the 'Round Sardinia Race', a premier sailing competition in Cagliari in September.

Why book with us?

We've all had that one unforgettable holiday, the kind where everything just clicked. Stunning accommodation, laughter shared by the pool, the warmth of genuine hospitality, and the lingering scent of summer in the air.

That feeling of ease, joy, and lasting memories is exactly what we aim to create for each and every one of our customers.
