WHO IS GDCTA?

The Georgia Dressage and Combined Training Association (GDCTA), founded in 1974, is the largest United States Dressage Federation Group Member Organization (GMO) in Region 3. As a 501(c)(3) non-profit, GDCTA encourages an interest and understanding among horse enthusiasts in dressage and eventing through educational activities and competitions.

PROGRAMS

GDCTA programs are offered to help riders across the membership reach their goals and realize their dreams through rider education, camaraderie, scholarships/grants, awards (so many awards!), USDF group membership, and events – clinics, camps, symposiums, competitions - as well as youth-focused activities.

01

STRONG COMMUNITY & RELATIONSHIPS

GDCTA aspires to give members a sense of community by developing relationships that enhance greater awareness, understanding, and appreciation for dressage and eventing.

02

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to all levels of riders and all breeds of horses, including Junior/YR, Adult Amateurs, and Professionals. Even a few Olympians are among our ranks!

OPPORTUNITIES

GDCTA cultivates opportunities to participate within our community for your own enjoyment, improvement, and to benefit the horse through education and competition in a fun environment. We encourage our members to be ambassadors for equestrian sport both within members' states and in the equestrian community at large.

GDCTA Member Benefits

Are you taking advantage of everything your GDCTA membership offers? By joining GDCTA, you are also joining USDF as a Group Member with its numerous advantages.

GDCTA Membership gives you:

- Affordable Kudzu Clinics
- Eligibility for GDCTA Training Grants
- Eligibility for GDCTA year-end awards in dressage and eventing/combined training both at USEF and schooling show levels.
- Priority selection when seeking to ride in educational clinics
- Subscription to Collected Remarks newsletter
- Group Membership in USDF

GDCTA membership year is December 1st through November 30th each year. A Senior member is one who has reached their 18th birthday by January 1st of the membership year.

The Georgia Dressage and Combined Training Association (GDCTA) began in 1974 when a handful of metro Atlanta dressage enthusiasts banded together to form an organization to promote the art and sport of dressage in the state of Georgia. That early organization, known as the Greater Atlanta Dressage Association (GADA), sponsored Georgia's first-ever dressage competition in April 1974 at a farm just north of Atlanta.

The Georgia Dressage & Combined Training Association (GDCTA) is a 501(c)3 non-profit educational organization dedicated to promoting the equestrian sports of dressage and combined training (eventing). Run entirely by volunteers, the association and its members regularly organize and sponsor various activities designed to heighten its members' and the general public's knowledge of and appreciation for dressage and combined training.

GDCTA looks forward to an exciting future as more and more people throughout Georgia and the southeastern United States discover the thrill of dressage and eventing.

Georgia: Equestrian Haven

Georgia, with its rich equestrian heritage, diverse landscapes, and growing dressage and eventing communities, stands as an excellent destination for riding enthusiasts. Here are several compelling reasons why Georgia is a great place for those who are passionate about dressage and eventing:

1. Thriving Equine Community: Georgia boasts vibrant dressage and eventing communities with numerous clubs, organizations, and events dedicated to the sports. This creates an environment where enthusiasts can connect, share experiences, and learn from one another, fostering a sense of camaraderie and support.
2. World-Class Training Facilities: The state is home to a range of top-notch equestrian centers and training facilities that cater specifically to dressage and eventing riders. These facilities offer state-of-the-art amenities, well-maintained arenas, and expert trainers, ensuring that enthusiasts have access to the best resources for improving their skills and achieving their goals.
3. Varied Scenic Landscapes: From the picturesque countryside to rolling hills and open fields, Georgia's diverse landscapes provide the perfect backdrop for dressage and eventing training. Riders can enjoy serene rides through beautiful scenery, which not only enhances the riding experience but also contributes to the overall well-being of both horse and rider.
4. Mild Climate: Georgia's climate is generally mild and temperate, allowing for year-round riding opportunities. This favorable weather means that dressage and eventing enthusiasts can practice and train outdoors without being limited by extreme heat (okay, maybe there's some humidity...) or cold, enhancing their consistency and progress.
5. Competitive Opportunities: The state hosts a variety of dressage and Horse Trial competitions, ranging from local schooling shows to recognized national events. This array of opportunities gives riders of all skill levels the chance to showcase their talents, track their progress, and engage in healthy competition.
6. Educational Clinics and Workshops: Dressage and eventing enthusiasts in Georgia have access to a range of educational clinics, workshops, and seminars conducted by experienced riders and trainers. These events offer valuable insights, tips, and techniques to further refine riding skills and deepen one's understanding of dressage principles.

7. Supportive Equine Industry: The equine industry in Georgia is well-established and supportive of dressage and eventing. This translates to a wealth of resources, including equine veterinarians, farriers, feed suppliers, and other professionals who understand the specific needs of sport horses and riders.
8. Cultural and Social Opportunities: Beyond the equestrian sphere, Georgia offers a rich cultural experience with historic sites, charming towns, and a vibrant arts scene. This allows equine enthusiasts to enjoy a well-rounded lifestyle, balancing their passion for riding with other engaging activities.

In conclusion, Georgia's thriving dressage and eventing communities, exceptional training facilities, picturesque landscapes, favorable climate, competitive opportunities, and supportive equine industry make it an ideal haven for equestrians. Whether you're a beginner seeking to learn the basics or an experienced rider striving for excellence, Georgia's offerings provide a conducive environment for honing your dressage and eventing skills and fostering a deep connection with your equine partner.

Congratulations to the 2023 Award Winners!

2023 proved to be an extraordinary year for our equestrian community, and what better way to immortalize the remarkable achievements than by capturing them in our annual yearbook. Heartfelt congratulations are in order for those who clinched victory, and for those who faced challenges, let this be an encouragement to persist, learn, and grow. As we turn the page to 2024, we eagerly anticipate witnessing each member of our equestrian family surpass their goals and continue to flourish in their equestrian pursuits. Here's to another year of triumphs, growth, and shared passion for the art of horsemanship!
