EMORY

Welcome to Oxford

Where wonder is encouraged and curiosity is essential.

At Oxford, it's not just a path you follow but your path. One that fits you like a glove and opens up opportunity everywhere you look.

“

Oxford is undoubtedly the perfect bridge between high school and the professional world, with the added benefit of being able to easily make friends and build relationships with virtually anyone on campus.

—Paul

Something I wished someone would have told me prior to the application process would be the community at Oxford. There is a lot of camaraderie here, and because of the small cohort we have on campus of first and second years, you get to have mentors who also become your best friends.

—Kini

The strong, authentic community at Oxford embraced me with my first steps here on campus.

—Roshni

ACADEMICS

Be challenged in the best way possible.

At Oxford, you can really get to know your professors, dive deep into discussions, and explore various fields to discover your passions through research and experiential learning. Our academic choices give you many ways to enhance your education.

DISCOVER. EXPLORE. REFLECT.

In your two years at Oxford, you'll lay the groundwork for your major with courses that will either set you firmly on the path you plan to pursue or take you in an exciting new direction.

DISCOVERY SEMINARS

Oxford's distinctive experience for first-year students teaches you how to find and use evidence to dig deeper, analyze information, and interpret your results to create new knowledge.

COMMUNITY ENGAGED LEARNING

Classroom knowledge combined with service helps you develop the tools to solve problems and expands your understanding of the world around you.

Actively engage in research to broaden your skills and your horizons.

All you can and will do.

The real-world experience provided at Oxford and Emory paves a clear path forward for you, whether it's landing a job or seeking additional education.

PURSUE YOUR PURPOSE

The Oxford Center for Pathways and Purpose creates meaningful opportunities for students to explore career options and personal values as well as learning, leadership, and real-world experience.

Signature programs include:

- Class to Career: connect classes to career paths
- Impact Lab: project building, career coaching, and experience workshops with in-residence professionals
- SideHustle 1.0: for students with entrepreneurial aspirations
- Career Treks: venture into the workplaces of Emory alumni across the country
- Pathway Scholars: an eight-week, immersive industry internship in a host city

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Students have a network of support at Oxford to ensure their success, including faculty and career advisers, academic deans, and the staff of the Advising Support Center, who guide your academic career at Oxford and on the Atlanta campus.

INTERNSHIPS

Gain meaningful work experience and perspective in your field of interest with 3,000+ internships in the Atlanta area alone. Pathways and Purpose Impact Funds provide financial assistance to ensure any Oxford student can pursue these opportunities.

SUMMER INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS/ FELLOWSHIPS

- Kabir Fellows
- Mosley Award
- Tarbutton Leadership Fellows
- Arrendale Award

ATL BOUND

Your transition to the Atlanta campus at the end of sophomore year is a process, not an event. We encourage you to engage in self-exploration, academic planning, and personal development during this time. To help you become better aware of the opportunities and resources that await you there, Oxford has a series of in-person programs we call ATL Bound, which take place throughout the year.

Community.

Oxford is home to a mix of people, beliefs, values, and backgrounds, where all are afforded opportunities to create, get support, uplift, and care for one another.

LIVING AT OXFORD

You're never more than a five-minute walk from where you need to go—classes, the library, the gym, your room, or the dining hall.

HOUSING AND DINING

All students live on campus for both years.

- 4 residence halls arranged in villages
- 3 on-campus dining options, including a farm-to-table dining hall enjoyed by the entire campus

ENSURING YOUR WELL-BEING

Oxford offers robust programs for health and wellness, counseling and career services, and religious and spiritual life.

A GLOBAL COMMUNITY

International students, faculty, and staff enrich our campus, and Oxford's rich array of cultures and backgrounds is the foundation of our community. Oxford provides programs and services to help students adjust to college as well as living in the US.

OXFORD ORGANIC FARM

Our organic farm provides food for Oxford's dining hall and the community. It's a living laboratory where professors in courses as varied as economics, biology, and philosophy incorporate the farm into their instruction. Students also work and volunteer there.

Our students lead by example.

It's not just the size of our campus that makes us close-knit; it's the warmth and friendliness of the people here. The friends you make and the relationships you build will last not just through your time at Emory but for a lifetime.

Modern yet cozy, Oxford's student center features multiple spaces for extracurricular activities, including the Hotspot, a gaming space, and the Club Hub, a work and makerspace for student organizations.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

At Oxford, first-year students can start on varsity teams, serve in student government, or perform in theater, chorus, and dance. Oxford has more than 80 clubs and organizations—cultural, service, religious, artistic, preprofessional, and more.

MAKE AN IMPACT

On our campus, where first- and second-year students are entirely responsible for the leadership of campus organizations and activities, we give you the tools and opportunities to succeed as a leader.

ATHLETICS

Oxford's student-athletes are accomplished in their sports and in the classroom, with our varsity teams winning 24 national championships and fielding a combined 416 Academic All-Americans.

ENGAGE IN CREATIVITY

You can enjoy and help create the performances, film, lectures, and literature that define the cultural aspects of college life at Oxford as a participant or as an audience member.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND SERVICE

Our students do plenty of volunteering in ways that align with their interests and at places that greatly need their talents, skills, and commitment, in these and other ways:

- Volunteer Oxford
- Oxford Service Corps
- Service Saturdays
- Community Engaged Learning
- Alternative Breaks

EXPLORE

Covington

Covington, a small city in Newton County, GA, with historic roots and a modern energy, is about a mile from Oxford—an easy bike ride or walk from campus.

GET INVOLVED AND HAVE FUN

- Covington's picturesque town square offers shopping, dining, concerts, and other events.
- Students are involved through religious, school, and civic groups, as well as city committees.
- Newton Trails, a local nonprofit, is developing a county-wide trail system and hosts monthly community bike rides.

GETTING AROUND

Oxford provides shuttles to nearby shopping, movies, and restaurants. Shuttles also run to and from Emory's Atlanta campus several times a day—more frequently on weekends.

ENGAGE IN THE LOCAL COMMUNITY

Atlanta

Spend your final two years in Atlanta, a city that is constantly reinventing itself in business, tech, and culture, and offers you plenty of opportunities for growth and self-expression.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Find countless ways to intern or volunteer in Atlanta's hundreds of corporate and nonprofit organizations.
- Walk or bike the 22-mile Atlanta Beltline and explore neighborhoods, restaurants, and public art.
- Participate in the city's vibrant cultural scene influenced by many nations and traditions.
- Learn more about Atlanta's rich history as a hub of civil and human rights.
- Take in the nation's third-largest arts campus found at Woodruff Arts Center.
- Cheer on one of the city's six professional sports teams.

A Spirit of Camaraderie.

In a place as grounded in community as Oxford, our traditions draw students even closer.

OXFORD'S LIVING ROOM.

Chat with friends around the fire pits and under string lights on the Quad.

OXFORD OLYMPICS. This spirited but friendly orientation event—a competition between orientation groups—includes a medal ceremony and perpetual bragging rights.

MIDNIGHT PANCAKES. A finals week tradition where faculty and staff make and serve late-night pancakes to students before they begin end-of-semester study.

FALL RETREAT. An experience open to the entire Oxford community that includes hiking, swimming, and sessions on navigating college life.

OXFEST. An annual celebration of art, music, and culture that raises money for Alzheimer's Awareness Month.

PAWS FOR A STUDY BREAK.

Enjoy the calming presence of therapy animals before finals.

EMORY CARES. An annual November service day sponsored by Emory's alumni office where students and organizations across Oxford volunteer on and off campus.

OXFORD SPRING FESTIVAL.

All four Oxford classes currently enrolled as Emory undergraduates come together for an afternoon on the Oxford Quad.

DONUTS ON THE QUAD. A weekly Friday afternoon event hosted by Dooley's Dolls.

My favorite things are those Quad sits where everyone is throwing around a frisbee, reading a book, or just existing together.

—Ananya

DOOLEY AFTER DARK.

Late-night programming including movies, special events, food trucks, and trips to Atlanta venues.

FALL FORMAL. An annual dress-up party held at Atlanta's famed Egyptian-themed Fox Theatre.

IDEAS FESTIVAL EMORY. A weekend at Oxford featuring some of the most impactful and interesting scientists, scholars, and creators of our time.

DOOLEY'S WEEK. Fun events and activities on both campuses honoring the university's unofficial mascot, the immortal spirit of Emory and the Lord of Misrule, Dooley.

TAKE A BREAK TUESDAY.

Weekly snacks and activities for students wanting to take a pause and gather in community.
